Summary

This collection consists of the records of speechwriter Josh Gottheimer. Gottheimer served as Special Assistant to the Director of Speechwriting in 1998, where he supervised the Speechwriting Office’s internship program, and as Presidential Speechwriter and Staff Director from 1999-2001. This collection consists of draft and final copies of speeches for President Clinton and Chief of Staff John Podesta as well as the corresponding research, memos, and discussion notes. Gottheimer specialized in drafting speeches for sports events, videos, and radio addresses. There are also numerous speech drafts, memos, and notes from brainstorming sessions from the 1998-2000 State of the Union addresses. In addition to these, the files include correspondence, memos, schedules and calendars of the President, news clippings, articles, speech drafts and final copies, faxes, email, and notes.

Scope and Content Note

Josh Gottheimer served as Special Assistant to the Director of Speechwriting in 1998 where he supervised the Speechwriting Office’s internship program and Presidential Speechwriter and Staff Director from 1999-2001. Prior to entering public service, Mr. Gottheimer served on the Rapid Response Team for Bill Clinton’s 1996 reelection campaign. After leaving the White House, Gottheimer worked for the Ford Motor Company, Burson-Marsteller, and the Federal Communications Commission from 2010 through 2012. Gottheimer then joined Microsoft as a strategist before running for and winning the House of Representatives in New Jersey's 5th congressional district seat. Gottheimer was sworn into office on January 3, 2017. Mr. Gottheimer graduated from West Essex High School before attending the University of Pennsylvania, where he became a Thouron Fellow at Oxford, and then later, after his work in the White House, graduated from Harvard Law School. This collection consists of draft and final copies of speeches written by Josh Gottheimer for President Clinton and Chief of Staff John Podesta and the corresponding research, memos, and discussion notes. Gottheimer specialized in drafting speeches for sports events, videos, and radio addresses. There are also numerous speech drafts, memos, and notes from brainstorming sessions from the 1998-2000 State of the Unions that Gottheimer organized into State of the Union binders. The records include correspondence, memos, schedules and calendars of the President, news clippings, articles, speech drafts and final copies, faxes, email, and notes.
