Summary

This collection consists of records from the office of Diana Fortuna, who served as Senior Policy Analyst in the Domestic Policy Council from 1995 to 1996, and as Associate Director from 1997 to 1998. Fortuna worked on domestic policy issues focusing on children and child care, disability, education, immigration, labor, and welfare. It contains letters, memos, reports, email, publications, pamphlets, newspaper clippings, and handwritten notes

Scope and Content Note

This collection contains the files of Diana Fortuna, who served as Senior Policy Analyst in the Domestic Policy Council from 1995 to 1996, and as Associate Director from 1997 to 1998. Fortuna worked on domestic policy issues focusing on children and child care, disability, education, immigration, labor, and welfare. This collection also includes records regarding the President’s Summit for America’s Future, held in Philadelphia, PA, from April 27-29, 1997. The Summit was convened by President Clinton and former President George H.W. Bush, and chaired by General Colin Powell. As a result of the Summit, America’s Promise Alliance was formed, a program focused on at-risk youth. The records contain letters, memos, reports, email, publications, pamphlets, newspaper clippings, and handwritten notes.
