Summary

This collection consists of records that highlight Margy Waller’s work on Clinton administration initiatives that involved family issues including fatherhood, TANF (Temporary Assistance for Needy Families), child support, and HUD (Department of Housing and Urban Development) affordable housing proposals. It also highlights topics relating to homelessness, welfare-to-work initiatives, charitable choice, SNAP (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program) benefits, food stamp benefits, and family issues. The collection contains correspondence from members of Congress, federal agencies, and the non-profit community, emails, Q&A’s, radio address transcripts, speech transcripts, draft radio address and speeches, fact sheets, press releases, faxes, memoranda, news articles, newspaper clippings, handwritten notes relating to White House meetings, welfare reform tasks, and agency rule and reg. draft discussions, briefing materials, draft legislation, talking points, and draft and final Agency Rules.

Scope and Content Note

Margy Waller served as Associate Director for Domestic Policy for the Domestic Policy Council from 2000-2001 where she served as Senior Advisor for Welfare and Working Families. Waller’s primary job was to provide advice, edits, and liaison between agencies, the White House, and congressional staff members for federal rules and regulations that related to welfare reform. This collection highlights Waller’s work on Clinton administration initiatives that involved family issues including fatherhood, TANF (Temporary Assistance for Needy Families), child support, and HUD (Department of Housing and Urban Development) affordable housing proposals. Other topics highlighted in this collection are homelessness, welfare-to-work initiatives, charitable choice, SNAP (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program) benefits, food stamp benefits, and family issues. The records include correspondence from members of Congress, federal agencies, and the non-profit community, emails, Q&A’s, radio address transcripts, speech transcripts, draft radio address and speeches, fact sheets, press releases, faxes, memoranda, news articles, newspaper clippings, handwritten notes relating to White House meetings, welfare reform tasks, and agency rule and reg. draft discussions, briefing materials, draft legislation, talking points, and draft and final Agency Rules.
