Summary

This collection consists of records from the files of the White House Office of Staff Secretary, Chron Files. This collection consists of letters, memos, reports, speeches, press releases, briefing and trip books, publications, schedules and calendars, newspaper articles, and handwritten notes from the Chron Files of the Staff Secretary from 1993 thru 2001.

Scope and Content Note

This collection contains the chronological “chron” files of the White House Office of Staff Secretary from January 1993 thru January 2001. The Staff Secretary’s Office made sure that paper going to the President was sound and reflected current White House thinking politically. It also coordinated the paper comments going to the President of relevant senior staff and presented the paper in a clear and concise form. This eclectic collection of files from the Staff Secretary have no specific staff member associated or attached to them. Although the dates of the collection begin in January 1993, the researcher should be aware that the majority of the chron files begin in the summer of 1997 and continue into the fall of 2000. Another subseries of the collection contain records that were not processed by the White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) and were described as either too late to file or process. This includes memos, letters, notes, reports etc. that received the “President Has Seen” stamp from May 2000 to January 2001. The records in this collection cover subject areas including briefing and trip books of the President, schedules of the President, and various memos and letters with the previously mentioned “President Has Seen” stamp. Other topics include pardons, climate change, records of gifts, Cabinet weekly reports, and State of the Union addresses. The records contain letters, memos, reports, remarks and speeches, invitations, schedules and calendars, newspaper articles, handwritten notes, and briefing books.
