Yes, steal it, enhance it, improve it, claim it. No one else has thought of the internapping label.

Jose just sent me the OMB request for views on a child exploitation sentencing enhancement bill (Feingold and DeWine) reported from Senate Judiciary on October 9 that increases penalties for use of a computer to exploit a child. The idea had come up in earlier meetings with Bruce and the Post reported that there weren't appropriate penalties... I think we should consider stealing it.
