NYTimes reports this morning that Justice has decided not to object to the NY legislation changing the role of community school boards. Good news for the forces of education reform!

Elena, the ED/Justice meeting is still on today as far as I know, and I understand that you and Rob Weiner will be attending. I'm checking with Judy Winston's office for precise time and location -- I lost track of that when it looked like it would be rescheduled. I'll get the info. to you and Rob as soon as I get it.

Subject: scheduling meeting

1. chief state school officers is on for the 17th.
2. the schedulers are dubious about whether they can fit in an event sat. morning. don and i agreed that if they can't, we should at least revisit the "weekend package."
3. Gene thinks doing the medicare fraud package in this way (even with an event) is a waste. He thinks we can make a much bigger deal out of it by doing something that will take on the ama. He said this to me alone, but loud enough so that don heard and opined that "the policy people should get it together."
4. People are still talking about the VP announcing the welfare/govt workers directive. I said we didn't think that made much sense. Don said that he thought the VP wanted to do it. The VP's office had no comment.
5. The Pres will recognize the Teacher of the Year on April 14. (We obviously should try figuring out an announcement for this.)
6. The Pres is going to do a tobacco related event on April 15. Don is keen on the internet idea.
7. The Pres could make a keynote address at the VP's empowerment conf on April 16. Don said he thought we should only do this if the speech really said something. Gene said he'd think about what kind of announcement would be appropriate for this speech. He mentioned education. We should do this jointly, though I didn't say anything.
8. The schedulers proposed April 9 as a date the Pres could participate in a memorial service for al shanker. They asked for our help in hooking up with the AFT on this, and I volunteered Mike's services.
