Flo,

I spoke with Bruce today re: this effort. You and I need to talk with Melanne and Linda Lader (if she is still involved) about creating some sort of structure or entity around this to formalize the effort. Melanne is now out of town, but as soon as she returns, I'll set up some time for us to talk.

I talked with Flo McAfee re: the Congressional Prayer breakfast. The White House is taking part in the Feb. 5 evening pre-meeting. Apparently the President can't go but the First Lady might go. According to Flo, a decision was made to wait for the faith communities to come forward with a specific pledge. During the Feb. 5 pre-meeting, part of the discussion will center around what sort of commitments the faith community might make outside of their original general pledge to help. Flo doesn't think the faith communities will be ready with commitments until late February.

How should I proceed?

Subject: Religious communities welfare to work effort

Just checking in on this. There will be no announcements at the prayer breakfast or pre-meeting next week. FLOTUS is probably speaking informally Wend. night and will talk to the Evangelical group about an adopt a family idea they have. She will also encourage them to become very involved in the welfare to work effort. The President will speak to them Thursday morning and FLOTUS may speak again to the full group. I am preparing briefing info. Q&A, etc. for FLOTUS for the meeting.

This is just the Evangelicals they are meeting with. My understanding of the faith community challenge/effort, is that it will involve all the faith communities. Flo and I will be working on this.

Bruce, let me know if i should be doing any different. Thanks.
