THE WHITE HOUSE AT WORK

Thursday, May 15, 1997

TODAY: PRESIDENT HONORS POLICE KILLED IN LINE OF DUTY

Today, President Clinton speaks at the Peace Officers' Memorial in DC to honor those who have fallen in the line of duty, and to honor those who serve us every day:

- The President will renew his call for Congress to pass real Juvenile Justice legislation, with new prosecutors and tougher penalties, tough measures to cut-off young people's access to guns (including child safety locks), and targeted crime prevention to steer young people away from gangs.
- Two months ago, after the tragedy on the Empire State Building, the President directed the ATF to require people who buy guns to prove that they are not just passing through. Today, the President is announcing the release of new application forms to make certification of residency an unavoidable step for gun purchasers. If they can't prove residency, they can't purchase a gun.
- Under President Clinton, serious crime has dropped for five years in a row, and in 1996, the number of law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty dropped 30% from 1995, to its lowest level in 37 years.

WEDNESDAY: PRESIDENT HAILS NATO-RUSSIA PARTNERSHIP

Yesterday, President Clinton welcomed the historic agreement to form a practical partnership between NATO and Russia:

- The agreement is a major step toward a peaceful, undivided, democratic Europe for the first time in history, and helps to pave the way for NATO to take in new members.
- It builds on President Clinton's commitment to adapt NATO to new missions in a new century, to open its doors to Europe's new democracies; to strengthen its ties to non-members through the Partnership for Peace, and to forge a strong, productive relationship between NATO and a free, democratic Russia.
- President Clinton said: "We can build a better Europe...with real security, real peace, and real hope for all its citizens. A more secure, peaceful, and hopeful Europe clearly means a better world for Americans in the 21st century."

TOMORROW: PRESIDENT CLINTON RECOGNIZES SURVIVORS OF STUDY AT TUSKEEGEE

Tomorrow at a White House ceremony, President Clinton will recognize the injustice done to survivors of the U.S. Public Health Service Syphilis Study conducted in Macon County, Alabama.

- The President will issue a formal apology on behalf of the federal government, and announce new actions to ensure that the lessons learned in Tuskegee are never forgotten.

Subject: Press Plan on Race Initiative

Please send me your comments/thoughts by Thursday afternoon.

Race/Reconciliation

Thus far, coverage of the race/reconciliation issue has been both accurate and positive. It has piqued the interest of many reporters -- stories have already appeared in the New York Times, Knight-Ridder, Newsday, the Chicago Tribune and many others. CNN, TIME, US News & World Report and Newsweek are all looking at big packages they would like to run in the next few weeks. Most of them understand that the President has a long-term commitment to the issue. To a person, the reporters see the President's initiative as transcendent and historical.

The problem we face is that there has been such a long buildup to this speech that when June 14 actually comes, reporters will look for something tangible (besides the names of the commission members) to come out of the speech. If they consider this speech mushy, we will face the headline "there is no there there." It is essential that our administration talkers stress that the President wants to set a tone and spark a dialogue on race -- that in and of itself is progress.

Goals

1. Inform reporters about the President's long-term commitment to and understanding of the issue of race in America. (Background as a white Southerner, significant speeches on race, the affirmative action review, etc.)
2. Plan to give out some information regarding the structure of the commission, its scope, agenda, etc. to White House press corps via tongs and structured interviews.
3. Make certain that alternative media are aware of the President's initiative on race.

Calendar

May 12 - 16

Surrogate list - Develop a solid list of "talkers" both within and outside of the Administration to refer to reporters. (ie - Slater, Mathews, Nash, Emanuel, McLarty, Stephanopoulos, Leopoulos)

May 16 Tuskegee Apology

The Tuskegee story will be the hook for many of our reporters to write about the race initiative. This event will showcase the President's historical interest in the subject of race in America, and his intimacy with the issue of Southern segregation. East Room Event

The President's speech will not be targeted to an African-American audience, but it will address science, technology and ethical dilemmas. It will reference the Tuskegee apology and will tie it to the role of ethics in science and technology.

If only we had known the purpose of the race initiative was to go around the country and NOT talk about race, we could have saved ourselves a lot of trouble. Could we get that in the charge to the commission?

DRAFT: TUSKEGEE AND MORGAN STATE

Two events coming up this week offer opportunities to talk about the President's initiative on racial reconciliation:

- Tuskegee Apology: a ceremony recognizing the survivors of the study at Tuskegee, to be held at the White House on Friday May 16; and
- Morgan State Commencement: a commencement address at Morgan State University in Baltimore, Maryland on May 18.

General

When commenting on these events you may want to make these points:

- Both events are examples of the President's commitment to the issues of racial reconciliation, and to moving beyond past discrimination to current and future practices.
- Note the President's personal leadership in these events. (This is an opportunity to deal with the commission questions -- e.g. whose on it, what is it, etc. -- make the point that these events and the idea of a commission appointed by the President are not the story.)
- These events are part a comprehensive Presidential Initiative in which Bill Clinton, with his personal history and commitment, is directly and regularly involved. It is a process in which he has been engaged in over the last four years (e.g. Memphis and Austin speeches) and throughout his life, and which will intensify in the near future as he calls the American people's attention to this issue.

Tuskegee Apology

- The President will issue an apology on behalf of the federal government to the survivors (including families) of the study at Tuskegee. He will then go on to make several policy announcements which will address this issue, and help ensure that future scientific research will be more inclusive of, and sensitive to, racial minorities.
- The study at Tuskegee is a shameful episode in our nation's history, and it has left a legacy of distrust between the African American community and the research community. The right thing to do is to acknowledge and apologize for the past, and then to institute action steps for the future. This is a model for the kinds of action you may see recommended in the President's Initiative when appropriate.

Morgan State University

- In choosing to make his first commencement address at Morgan State University, a historically-black school, the President is also addressing the issue of racial division, but indirectly in that he is not delivering a speech on race to an African-American audience. It will be a major address about the role of science in preparing America for the 21st century.
- Thus, instead of speaking about race to a minority audience, the President will speak at Morgan State about an issue of national interest that transcends race; and will address the topic of race at the University of California at San Diego, a college and state with many races and ethnicities. This is an example of how he hopes in the coming year to inspire dialogue and conversation both about the issue of race itself, and among Americans of different races about the issues and values that bring us together.
- Of course, there is an obvious connection, which the President will address, between the role of science, the importance of having ethics that inform and guide our approach to science, and the study at Tuskegee .

TEXT:

Today you asked about HR 1385, the Employment, Training and Literacy Enhancement Act that is scheduled for House floor consideration tomorrow. Here's a quick summary/status report, based on some materials assembled by OMB and discussions with folks at the Department of Education.

This bill, sponsored by subcommittee chair Rep. McKeon, would consolidate existing federal employment, training, and literacy programs into three block grants to states and localities for 1) adult employment and training for disadvantaged workers, 2) disadvantaged youth (including high school dropouts), and 3) adult education and family literacy. While JTPA programs for youth would be consolidated into the block grants, Federal administration of Job Corps would be maintained.

The legislation would also reauthorize the Vocational Rehabilitation Act for 3 years.

The bill not address vocational education programs (nor school-to-work programs), which are now under the jurisdiction of a different subcommittee.

The Administration is preparing to send up a SAP that compliments the bill as incorporating many of the principles in the President's GI Bill for America's workers, but noting generally concerns with provisions on adult ed and voc rehab. Among other features, the bil would require adult training to be provided through skill grants, distributed via a statewide employment and training delivery system. The SAP follows a similarly positive letter from the President made available at the Committee markup.

The Department of Education has raised concerns, not fully discussed in the SAP, of accountability, principally having to do with the grounds for state plan approval (mere technical compliance versus quality and promise of meeting purposes of the act) and the ability to negotiate over indicators of program performance. Education is also concerned that the bill needs to be more explicit on the role of the State Educational Agency (SEA) in governance. DOL is concerned that the legislation does not assure that consolidated state youth programs will include a summer jobs component, and that the bill does not provide for adequate worker representation on local boards.

The Administration's own Adult Education Act reauthorization proposal has recently been introduced as HR 1562. My understanding is that the McKeon bill has incorporated many of the key elements of the Administration proposal.

I am not currently aware of any issues or controversies expected to arise in the context of floor consideration tomorrow, but I will keep checking around.

Hope this is helpful.

SUBJECT: LEGISLATIVE REPORT

CONGRESS TODAY (5/15):

SENATE

The Senate failed to invoke cloture on the substitute to S. 4, the Family Friendly Workplace Act, by a vote of 53 to 47. Senators D $\square$ , Amato and Spector crossed party lines and voted against cloture on the bill.

[SAP sent, 5/9: President will veto]

The Senate continued consideration of H.R. 1122, the Partial Birth Abortion. While under consideration, the Senate defeated (28-72) the Feinstein amendment and defeated (36-64) the Daschle amendment.

[Senate SAP sent, 5/14: President will veto]

HOUSE

Approved H.R. 1469, the FY 1997 Supplemental Appropriations Act of 1997 by a vote of 244 to 178.

[SAP sent, 5/15: President will veto if the automatic CR provision is included]

While under consideration, the House took up the following amendments:

- o Adopted (227-197) the Gekas (R-PA) amendment to add an automatic continuing resolution provision to the bill.

- o Adopted (338-89) the Kaptur/Riggs amendment to increase WIC funding from $38 million to $76 million, offset by a NASA windtunnels rescission.

- o Adopted (voice vote) a McKeon (R-CA) amendment to provide $650,000 for a new higher education commission. For four months the commission will study the increase in post-secondary education tuition and make recommendations before the upcoming reauthorization of the Higher Education Act. The makeup of the commission will be addressed in conference.

- o Adopted (voice vote) a Dingell (D-MI) amendment to provide $300,000 for Monroe County, Michigan for costs incurred by the Comair crash.

- o A Thune/Pomeroy (R-SD, D-ND) amendment to transfer $500 million from FEMA disaster relief to the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program was adopted by voice vote. This funding would affect all areas affected by disasters, not just those in the Upper Midwest. Debate on this amendment addressed concerns on providing grants to privately owned for profit utilities, a waiver of public hearings, a waiver on providing funds to those other than low income families, additional regulations related to this funding, and potential problems related to relocation and the short construction season of the Upper Midwest. These matters will be addressed in conference.

- o A Sam Johnson (R-TX) amendment was withdrawn that would have directed approval of the Texas public assistance contracting out program. Rep. Johnson said he was meeting with Erskine Bowles on this subject on Friday.

- o A Maloney amendment to restore $1.7 million for the FEC was struck on a point of order by Chairman Livingston.

- o Adopted (voice vote) a Traficant (D-OH) amendment to add a "Buy American" provision to the bill was adopted by voice vote.

- o Defeated (100-134) a Neumann (R-WI) amendment, opposed by Chairman Livingston, to strike $2.4 billion of FEMA funding, strike the $3.8 billion HUD assisted housing rescission, and substitute a $3.6 billion unallocated rescission of non-defense discretionary funding (requiring the OMB Director to make such reductions).

- o Approved (345-74) a Diaz-Balart/Meek (R-FL, D-FL) amendment to extend SSI and related Medicaid benefits to the end of FY97 for legalized aliens.
- o Sustained a Smith (R-OR) motion to strike on a point of order a provision limiting Conservation Reserve Program acreage enrollment.
- o Sustained a Young (R-AK) motion to strike on a point of order a provision concerning Endangered Species Act compromise language.
- o Sustained a Bachus (R-AL) motion to strike on a point of order $1.6 billion of transportation trust fund contract authority cuts.
- o Sustained a Kolbe (R-AZ) motion to strike on a point of order a provision concerning the earmark for VA garage in Cleveland.
- o Approved (voice vote) a Barr (R-GA) amendment, which provides $2 million for a Law Enforcement Commission.
- o Adopted (voice vote) a Barcia (D-MI) amendment related to funding for Bay City, Michigan.
- o Defeated (115-305) a Neumann (R-WI) amendment that would have reduced FEMA funding by $1.7 billion.

Talking Points on FLSA
5/15/97

This Administration is committed to moving people from welfare to work. This Administration is also committed to making sure that workers get paid at least the minimum wage for their efforts.

- That means all workers who do real work -- whether or not they come off the welfare rolls.
- You know as well as I that there are complicated legal questions here, involving who counts as a "worker" and who as a "trainee" under the minimum wage law.

Our agency lawyers believe that the welfare law says that that people who leave welfare for work should be treated like other workers:

- If they are workers, not trainees, they should receive the minimum wage, overtime, and unemployment insurance.
- Their employers must adhere to the Occupational and Safety Act and anti-discrimination laws.

Not all welfare to work activities will be considered "work" under the Fair Labor Standards Act. But those that are work should be treated like work. That's not just our view -- it is the law.

Q&A

Question: Won't this end welfare reform as we know it by making work more expensive?

Answer: Not at all. States that want to have workfare programs can do so -- combining TANF and food stamps will pay the minimum wage for 20 hours a week in virtually every state [except Mississippi]. Besides, welfare reform is about placing people in real, private sector jobs -- workfare should be only a temporary last resort. A better alternative would be for states to use the welfare funds to subsidize private sector jobs.

Question: Are most welfare recipients who are working going to be considered "employees"?

Answer: Welfare recipients would probably be considered employees in most of the work activities described in the new welfare law. Exceptions are most likely to include individuals engaged in job search, vocational education, and secondary school. The Labor Department will advise states based on their particular programs.

Question: What's the difference between a trainee and a worker under FLSA?

Answer: An individual is in training if:

- Training is similar to that given in a vocational school;
- Training is for the benefit of the trainee;
- Trainees do not displace regular workers;
- The employer derives no immediate advantage from the trainees' activities;
- Trainees are not entitled to a job after training is completed; or
- The employer and trainee understand that the trainee is not paid.

Question: Can Food Stamps count as wages?

Answer: We believe that through waivers or other mechanisms such as the Simplified Food Program option now in law, states would be able to count food stamps as wages for all those required to work under the new welfare law.

IMPACT ON STATES
Example: Family of Three

Minimum Wage Costs

The monthly cost of a $5.15 minimum wage for 20 hours a week is $443 and for 30 hours a week is $664. The welfare law's work rates for single parent families are currently 20 hours a week; they rise to 30 hours in the year 2000.<sup>2</sup>

If States Use TANF Funds as "Wages"

In 36 states, current TANF benefits are not enough to pay for 20 hours a week at the minimum wage. In 48 states (all but Alaska and Hawaii), current TANF benefits are too low to pay for 30 hours per week of work at the minimum wage.

If States Use TANF and Food Stamps Funds as "Wages"

In one state, Mississippi, the combined TANF and food stamp grants are not enough to pay for 20 hours a week of work at the minimum wage. In 20 states, the combined benefits are not enough to pay for 30 hours a week of work. These states are:

Nevada	Oklahoma	North Carolina	Louisiana
Arizona	Florida	Kentucky	Texas
Ohio	Missouri	West Virginia	Tennessee
Delaware	Indiana	Arkansas	Alabama
Idaho	Georgia	South Carolina	Mississippi

<sup>1</sup> This table points out the potential shortfall for workfare programs, in which public funds would be the only source of wages for the recipient. In a wage subsidy program, the shortfall would be filled by a contribution from the employer. Thus, the application of the minimum wage will likely encourage states to have work subsidy, rather than workfare, programs.

<sup>2</sup> The new law requires for single parent families a minimum of 20 hours of work a week in 1997 and 1998, 25 hours in 1999 and 30 hours in 2000. The minimum for two parent families is 30 hours a week for all years. These calculations assume an average of 4.3 weeks per month.

TALKING POINTS ON PRESIDENT CLINTON'S COMP TIME PROPOSAL
Thursday, May 15, 1997

The President's Proposal Offers Employees Real Choice and Flexibility;
The Ashcroft Bill Gives All the Choice -- and all the Control -- to Employers

President Clinton's comp time proposal strengthens families by offering employees choice and flexibility:

- If they work overtime, they can be paid time and a half, as the law now requires, or they can take that payment in time-off to be with their families -- an hour-and-a-half off for every hour of overtime they have worked.
- Simply put, employees make the choice that is best for them -- money in the bank or time on the clock. That means more choice, and more flexibility, for working families.
- Comp time can be used for vacation, extended maternity leave, or to spend more time with one's children or parents -- making it easier to raise children and balance the obligations of home and work.

The Republican version of "comp time" legislation that is up for a vote today would make families worse off than they are today -- taking away their choice and flexibility, often denying them the benefit of time-and-a-half for overtime worked, and effectively repealing the 40-hour workweek.

Under the Ashcroft Bill, now awaiting a vote in the Senate:

- Some employees who work an extra hour would get only an hour off -- less overtime than they would be eligible for today, or under the President's proposal. That's money out of their pocket.
- Employers can force employees to make up their time off -- for example, by making them work over the weekend without paying time-and-a-half. They could not do this under the President's proposal.
- Employers can deny employees' request to use comp time for critical family needs by claiming the business would be "unduly disrupted." They could not do this under the President's proposal.
- Employers can decide to cash out an employee's earned comp time above 80 hours at any time with 30 days notice, even if the employee had a long-planned use for it -- such as maternity leave. They could not do this under the President's proposal.
- Employees are not adequately protected against losing the cash value of the comp time they have worked for and earned if their employer goes bankrupt. The President's proposal offers this crucial protection.

- Employers can eliminate paid leave plans and replace them with comp time plans, leaving employees worse off. This is flatly prohibited under the President's proposal.

THE CLINTON AND ASHCROFT BILLS ARE LIKE NIGHT AND DAY:

- The Ashcroft bill ends the 40 hour work week and the basic right to time-and-a-half pay for overtime work. The President's bill protects and guarantees them.
- The Ashcroft bill gives employers all the control and flexibility. The President's proposal gives more choice, control and flexibility to employees and their families.
- The Ashcroft bill offers no protection against unscrupulous employers. The President's proposal does.

The vast majority of our employers will be fair to their workers under any system. But as we modernize our laws to fit a changing workplace we have to uphold historic safeguards for all our employees. It should be up to employees and their families, not employers, who should choose if, when and how they take and use comp time.

As President Clinton said in his March 22 Radio Address: "The moment a responsible comp time bill hits my desk I will gladly sign it...[but] I will have to veto any legislation that fails to guarantee real choice for employees, real protection against employer abuse, and real preservation of fair labor standards including the 40-hour week."

PRESIDENT CLINTON RECOGNIZES SURVIVORS
OF THE PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE SYPHILIS STUDY AT TUSKEGEE
May 16, 1997 --- DRAFT ---

Today, President Clinton recognized the injustice done to the participants of the Public Health Service syphilis study in Tuskegee, Alabama. The President formally apologized to survivors, their families and the nation for the unethical study that left as many as 400 African American men untreated for syphilis. The Public Health Service (PHS) began the experiment in 1932 and did not end it until 1972 -- many years after penicillin was available to treat the disease.

Today, President Clinton also signed an executive order extending the charter of the National Bioethics Advisory Commission (NBAC) to October, 1999 to ensure a continued, national focus on bioethical issues. Building on the work of the President's Advisory Committee on Human Radiation Experiments, an NBAC subcommittee will make recommendations this fall for further strengthening protections for human research subjects.

President Clinton also announced 4 additional steps the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) will take to ensure we learn from the PHS syphilis study, rebuild trust, and protect human subjects in the future.

- o Building a lasting memorial. The President announced that HHS will award a planning grant to Tuskegee University to pursue establishing a Center for Bioethics in Research and Health Care at the University. The Center would be a lasting memorial and would support efforts to address the legacy of the syphilis experiments and strengthen bioethics training.
- o Increasing Community Involvement and Restoring Trust. The legacy of the PHS study still impedes efforts to conduct promising research, particularly involving minorities, and to provide the best health care services to all Americans. Today, the President directed the Secretary of HHS to issue a report, within 120 days, detailing effective strategies to more fully involve communities, especially minority communities, in research and health care.
- o Strengthening Researchers' Training in Bioethics. The President directed the Secretary of HHS to develop bioethics training materials to help researchers effectively apply ethical principles in diverse populations. In partnership with private organizations<sup>1</sup>, within one year, HHS will complete and disseminate course materials that build on core ethical principles of respect for persons, beneficence, justice, and informed consent, and that help ensure researchers successfully apply these principles in all communities.
- o Providing Post-Graduate Fellowships to Train Bioethicists, Especially Minorities. To increase and broaden our understanding of ethical issues in clinical research, HHS will offer fellowships, beginning in September 1998, to promising students enrolled in bioethics graduate programs. HHS will make special efforts to recruit minorities currently underrepresented in the field.

<sup>1</sup>Partners will include the Association of American Medical Colleges, the Association of American Universities, the Association of Schools of Public Health, the National Association for Equal Opportunity in Higher Education, and the Association of Minority Health Professions Schools.

DRAFT: TUSKEGEE AND MORGAN STATE

Two events coming up this week offer opportunities to talk about the President's initiative on racial reconciliation:

- Tuskegee Apology: a ceremony recognizing the survivors of the study at Tuskegee, to be held at the White House on Friday May 16; and
- Morgan State Commencement: a commencement address at Morgan State University in Baltimore, Maryland on May 18.

General

When commenting on these events you may want to make these points:

- Both events are examples of the President's commitment to the issues of racial reconciliation, and to moving beyond past discrimination to current and future practices.
- Note the President's personal leadership in these events. (This is an opportunity to deal with the commission questions -- e.g. whose on it, what is it, etc. -- make the point that these events and the idea of a commission appointed by the President are not the story.)
- These events are part a comprehensive Presidential Initiative in which Bill Clinton, with his personal history and commitment, is directly and regularly involved. It is a process in which he has been engaged in over the last four years (e.g. Memphis and Austin speeches) and throughout his life, and which will intensify in the near future as he calls the American people's attention to this issue.

Tuskegee Apology

- The President will issue an apology on behalf of the federal government to the survivors (including families) of the study at Tuskegee. He will then go on to make several policy announcements which will address this issue, and help ensure that future scientific research will be more inclusive of, and sensitive to, racial minorities.
- The study at Tuskegee is a shameful episode in our nation's history, and it has left a legacy of distrust between the African American community and the research community. The right thing to do is to acknowledge and apologize for the past, and then to institute action steps for the future. This is a model for the kinds of action you may see recommended in the President's Initiative when appropriate.

Morgan State University

- In choosing to make his first commencement address at Morgan State University, a historically-black school, the President is also addressing the issue of racial division, but indirectly in that he is not delivering a speech on race to an African-American audience. It will be a major address about the role of science in preparing America for the 21st century.
- Thus, instead of speaking about race to a minority audience, the President will speak at Morgan State about an issue of national interest that transcends race; and will address the topic of race at the University of California at San Diego, a college and state with many races and ethnicities. This is an example of how he hopes in the coming year to inspire dialogue and conversation both about the issue of race itself, and among Americans of different races about the issues and values that bring us together.
- Of course, there is an obvious connection, which the President will address, between the role of science, the importance of having ethics that inform and guide our approach to science, and the study at Tuskegee .

TEXT:

House Judiciary staff (R's and D's) expect the Volunteer Liability bill to be considered by the House on the suspension calendar next Tuesday, 5/20. Currently, the House is scheduled to consider the Judiciary Committee bill and not the Senate-passed version of the bill. In preparation for the House floor, I would suggest a SAP that is drafted to clearly distinguish this legislation from anything that we might face in a products bill.
