MEMORANDUM FOR ERSKINE BOWLES

THROUGH: Jack Lew

FROM: Donald R. Arbuckle

SUBJECT: HHS's interim final rule on Medicare+Choice program

In the next few days, we will be completing review of a Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) interim final rule that establishes the new Medicare+Choice (M+C) program. The rule is very time sensitive because HHS has already missed its statutory deadline of June 1 required by the Balanced Budget Act of 1997. The rule is expected to have budget savings of $30 billion over the next five years.

One of the major provision in the rule is allowing Medicare eligible individuals who opt for this program a choice about the type of health care service they want. The choices include M+C coordinated care plans -- from health maintenance organizations (HMOs) and preferred provider organizations (PPOs) to the new provider-sponsored organizations (PSOs); M+C Medical Savings Accounts plans; and M+C private fee-for-service plans. The regulation requires Medicare beneficiaries to receive comparative information to aid their plan selection. The Health Care and Financing Administration will coordinate an annual election period, the first one will begin November 1998, for initiation of the program in January 1, 1999. In addition, the Medicare+Choice program will reimburse plans on a capitated basis.

The health care industry is anxious for expeditious publication of this rule, since the plans must be prepared for beneficiary enrollment in November 1998. Many of the rule's policies are identical or similar to existing Medicare HMO, private accreditation, and quality assurance policies. However, the implementation of these policies in the Medicare+Choice program is on a larger scale and the program marks the first time that different service delivery options (including the new PSOs) will be presented side-by-side to Medicare beneficiaries. We believe this is a good rule implementing important and beneficial policies. HHS expects significant comment on the rule, and anticipates that future refinements may be necessary.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Carper and Chiles' offices called to express disappointment/frustration that today's tobacco letters did not reference the $196.5 billion; believe that the sentence "In its current form.." seems to abdicates our agreement with the Governors, and wondered why we used "Minimizing additional changes," instead of something stronger like "Preventing..."

Please let me know by 6:00 if you think any revision is required.

One issue I should flag for you: I have listed Snowe #1 as oppose. Our policy is that we want the lookback surcharges to go into public health -- the entire account (22% of total). The bill as currently written -- if it incorporates a technical amendment that is in Commerce's technical amendments package -- does this. The Snowe amendment is thus a narrowing amendment, which would put 20 percent of the funds into cessation only.

Currently, the section 451(b)(1) of the bill says that two types of funds go into the public health account: 1) 22 percent of the overall trust fund and 2) all the funds credited under section 401(b)(3), which in turn -- and here's where we need the technical fix -- cites section 202 of the bill.

Section 202 of the bill originally and now with the Durbin amendment, is the "purposes" section of the lookback subtitle. Commerce Committee's planned technicals would change it to section 204, which would have worked under the pre-Durbin language; now it should be 205, or I think to be safe, subtitle A of Title II, i.e., the entire lookback subtitle.

bFOP President to Join Secret Service Uniform Division in Collective

To: National and Assignment Desks
Contact: Tim Richardson of the Fraternal Order of Police, 202-547-8189

WASHINGTON, June 15 /U.S. Newswire/ -- Gilbert G. Gallegos, national president of the Grand Lodge, Fraternal Order of Police, will demonstrate in favor of collective bargaining in a June 17 event hosted by the Labor Committee of the U.S. Secret Service Uniform Division's Labor Committee and the Jerrard F. Young District of Columbia Lodge No. 1.

``We obtained a promise from President Clinton in September 1996,`` reported Gallegos, ``that he would work with the FOP in securing collective bargaining rights for these and other federal officers. Despite meetings and promises, the administration has done nothing to address the concerns of federal officers and done nothing to deliver on the president's promise.

``The Grand Lodge is doing everything we can to support the officers of the Secret Service Uniformed Division," said Gallegos. "I hope the support that the FOP can demonstrate next week will underscore how unfairly these officers are being treated by the Secret Service."

The Grand Lodge has pledged financial assistance for USSSUD Labor Committee, which is engaged in a lawsuit against the Department of the Treasury. In April 1996, Deputy Chief Steve Johnson ordered USSSUD officers not to make arrests for violation of District of Columbia law, and threatened to put officers who made such arrests "on a bus back to the White House." The remarks were videotaped and since, the Secret Service has actively harassed the men and women of the Uniformed Division with terminations and other relativity acts.

"With a collective bargaining system in place," Gallegos noted, "labor-management relations would not have deteriorated to this level."

The rally will take place on Wednesday, June 17, at East Executive and Pennsylvania avenues, from noon to 4 p.m.

Subject: Uniform Division Protest

Hate to be the bearer of bad news, but the Uniform Division of the Secret Service will be protesting outside the WH on June 17th. The FOP already announced this on Bloomberg radio today. Gil Gallegos, the FOP President, will be coming in town for the event. I think we should talk about this
-- and we should definitely make sure not to do the vest bill signing on the same day.

TEXT:

The latest version of HUD's State of the Cities report prominently features estimates from a forthcoming USCM report (to be released at their meeting) that show a shortfall of 353,000 jobs for welfare recipients in 74 urban areas. We have not yet seen the report (it is supposed to be on its way over right now), but the study was done by Regional Financial Associates who also did a flawed study last year. The executive summary of HUD's report that Paul shared with you on Friday hits the high(or low) points. Aside from likely methodological problems with the study, our bigger question is whether HUD should be embracing the USCM report and estimates in its State of the Cities report. I worry that the press will report "HUD cites 400,000 job gap for welfare recipients". While HUD also points out that they believe this gap is surmountable -- for examle, the economy has produced 400,000 jobs in the last 6 weeks alone-- this does not seem like it's going to help the welfare reform message. HUD has structured its report around 3 findings, including three opportunity gaps: jobs, education, and housing and wants to use these gaps to motivate mayors to push for our urban budget initiatives.

We may need to elevate the issue of whether and to what extent HUD relies on the USCM job gap estimates and would like to know your reaction.

FROM: OMB LEGISLATIVE AFFAIRS

DATE: JUNE 15, 1998

SUBJECT: LEGISLATIVE REPORT

CONGRESS -- TODAY (6/15):

SENATE:

Continued consideration of S. 1415, the Tobacco bill. While under consideration of the bill, the Senate failed to table (47-47) the Reed 2nd degree amendment that disallows the advertising tax deduction for companies that violate FDA smoking regulations. Subsequently, the Reed amendment was adopted by voice vote. McCain offered a motion to reconsider upon adoption of the amendment.

In other action, the Senate adopted (UC) H.Con.Res. 75 regarding repeat offenders and appointed conferees to the following:

- o H.R. 629 - Texas Low-Level Radioactive Waste Compact
- o H.Con.Res. 284 - Budget Resolution

HOUSE:

Pro forma session.

CONGRESS -- TOMORROW (6/16)

We need to also send a tobacco letter to Senator Kerry - draft below.
Also attached is the latest draft of the McCain letter. Please call me at 5-4790 as soon as possible with clearance. Thank you.

The Honorable John F. Kerry
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Kerry:

You requested our views on amendments to the tobacco legislation proposed by Senator Gramm and others that would eliminate any restrictions on uses of funds in the State Litigation Settlement Account. The Administration strongly opposes such amendments because they would eliminate the requirement that states use part of tobacco funds for programs that improve public health and support children. The current structure of the State Litigation Account reflects a careful balance between the interests of the states in flexible use of tobacco receipts and the Federal interest that their use be accountable and contribute to public health.

We believe that additional changes to this carefully constructed agreement would harm the goal of passing historic comprehensive, bipartisan tobacco legislation.

We thank you for your support, and look forward to continuing working with you and your colleagues to enact comprehensive, bipartisan tobacco legislation.

Sincerely,
Jacob J. Lew
Acting Director

cc: Honorable John McCain

REVISED MCCAIN LETTER:

The Honorable John McCain
Chairman
Committee on Commerce, Science & Transportation
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Mr. Chairman:

You asked for our views on a series of possible amendments that may be offered to S. 1415 that would undermine the present structure and/or uses of the State Litigation Settlement Account. In its current form, S. 1415 represents a careful balancing between the states and the Federal government, advancing the public health and other goals we share.

The Administration opposes changes to this agreement that would harm the goal of passing historic comprehensive, bipartisan tobacco legislation. States efforts have been central to the development of this legislation and they deserve recognition of their efforts through protection against amendments that further reduce the amount that states receive in the Account.

We also recognize the importance of the carefully constructed balance between restricted and unrestricted funds, and the menu of uses that would be supported by the former. It is for this reason that we also oppose additional amendments that would change the parameters for or uses of the restricted funds.

Minimizing additional changes to the State Litigation Settlement Account is important to assure that the bill represents a fair balance between flexibility and accountability, and helps protect the states, very legitimate interest in this legislation. As always, we look forward to continuing working with you to produce a bill that will make a major contribution to public health, our children and our nation.

Sincerely,

Jacob J. Lew
Acting Director

cc: The Honorable Ernest F. Hollings
The Honorable John F. Kerry

FYI: Per David Haun's note of last week, we received a draft of INS' proposed restructuring legislation on Wednesday, June 10. The Department of Justice told OMB that it wanted to clear the bill prior to any official OMB circulation and said it could clear the bill by Monday, June 15th. On Monday, the Department returned the bill to INS telling them that they needed to redraft the restructuring section of the bill -- telling INS that from the Department's perspective it did not pass the "laugh test." On Monday I also talked with INS Legislative Affairs and suggested the restructuring section needed to be expanded along the lines Elena mentioned two weeks ago. INS asked that I recommend some language. Attached is what I have informally submitted to INS this evening for consideration as they attempt to expand the restructuring section of the bill.

I will talk with INS tomorrow in an effort to nail down a date when they plan to resubmit the bill to the Department for clearance. Even an optimistic scenario, however, make clearance of the Administration's restructuring proposal prior to Senate Appropriations Subcommittee markup next Tuesday, highly unlikely.

TITLE I -- AGENCY ORGANIZATION

SEC. 101. AGENCY ORGANIZATION. -- The Immigration and Naturalization Service [the Service] shall be responsible for enforcing the immigration laws of the United States as codified in the Immigration and Nationality Act as amended. The Service will be organized in a way that ensures the effective implementation of border enforcement strategies through border management controls and the timely and efficient provision of immigrant services and benefits that safeguard integrity. The Service will be structured along programmatic lines and composed of an: (1) Office of Immigrant Services, (2) Office of Enforcement Operations, and (3) Office of Shared Support Services.

(a) Headquarters Operations -- The Service will be lead by a Commissioner and Deputy Commissioner who will focus on immigration enforcement and service policy and establish a framework to implement national priorities. In addition, headquarters operations will be responsible for strategic planning and the development of agency goals, objectives and performance targets; agency-wide management support and coordination; and budget formulation and execution. All line management and operational authority for agency-wide support systems like finance, budget, information resource management policy, research and development and records management will be consolidated within headquarters.

(1) Chief Financial Officer -- A Chief Financial Officer (CFO) is established to coordinate budget formulation, execution and agency-wide financial management operations. The CFO will be responsible for the effective and efficient management and accountability of Service resources. The CFO will coordinate the formulation and execution of the Service's budget through a director of budget. To address the Service's diverse funding sources, the CFO will be responsible for ensuring sound agency-wide financial management systems and processes through a director of finance.

(2) Strategic Planning and Statistical Measures -- A director of planning will be responsible for developing the long term-strategy for the Service and facilitating the process of designing programs to execute that strategy. This office will develop long-range strategic and performance measurement planning, in cooperation with program components. In addition, this office will be responsible for establishing and strengthening Federal immigrant statistical policy and measurement operations.

(b) The Office of Immigrant Services will be headed by a Senior Executive who will report directly to the Commissioner. The Executive Associate Commissioner (EAC) for Immigrant Services will be responsible for establishing an operational chain of command dedicated solely to immigration services, focusing comprehensively on providing quality, timely and efficient services to the immigrant community. The EAC will be responsible for all aspects of INS service and benefit operations and the Office of Immigration Services will be organized around four functional goals: providing efficient, accurate benefit processing from service centers and service area operations, ensuring secure documents with uncompromising integrity, serving the refugee and asslyee population through humane and timely service and benefits, and ensuring timely processing and courteous service for the immigrant community through nationally-established customer service standards. The responsibilities and duties of the EAC for Immigrant Services include:

(1) Service Center Operations -- Service center operations will include automated assembly-line processing for all applications and petitions that do not require immigrant interviews. In addition, the service centers will provide front-end fee receipt, data entry and scheduling for all applications and petitions that require interviews. The EAC will be responsible for the collection of all management reporting information relative to the service centers, for budget formulation and execution for the service center budgets, for ensuring the accuracy and quality control of the adjudication of benefits at the service centers, for all employee hiring and grievance issues at the centers and for monitoring, overseeing and executing the mail file and data entry operations. Additionally, the EAC is responsible for coordinating, with the Office of Shared Support Services, the effective acquisition and utilization of shared support items including information technology, financial management, facility construction, personnel and training, etc.

(2) Service Area Operations -- Service area operations will be located in immigrant communities around the United States. The EAC will be responsible for ensuring that these offices provide efficient and effective service, while maintaining the integrity of application processing. These offices will provide information to applicants, take fingerprints and photographs, test applicant for benefits where necessary, and interview aliens, as required by law. Some offices will be configured as full-service offices and others will serve as satellite locations. All will have a standard "look and feel" with clear signs, comfortable waiting rooms, evening and weekend hours, and other customer-friendly features. The EAC will be responsible for effectively operating these decentralized offices, and developing and maintaining performance measures for the activities that take place within these offices to ensure uncompromising integrity and customer service.

(3) Foreign Operations -- The EAC will be responsible for all overseas operations involving benefits processing and overseas enforcement of the immigration laws of the United States. All foreign activities will be monitored and overseen by the EAC for Immigrant Services, including refugee, and asylee processing, and addressing the threat of international anti-terrorism and related enforcement support efforts.

(4) Telephone Center Operations -- The Service will operate a coordinated telephone answering system to respond to customer inquiries. The EAC for Immigrant Services will be responsible for designing and operating a telephone system that relies on all assets of the Service to ensure that customer inquiries are promptly and accurately addressed. This will include operating and maintain the telephone centers, any contract call answering facilities, and utilizing an overflow telephone call answering capacity designed to access information officers at the service centers and service area offices as needed.

(c) The Office of Enforcement Operations will be headed by a Senior Executive who will report directly to the Commissioner. This Executive Associate Commissioner (EAC) for Enforcement will be responsible for establishing an operational chain of command dedicated solely to immigration enforcement, focusing comprehensively on illegal immigration problems at the border, and ensuring better linkages with interior enforcement through a single point of accountability for performance. The EAC for Enforcement Operations will be responsible for all aspects of the Service's enforcement and border management operations and be organized around four functional goals: managing the border; conducting inspections and managing all port of entry operations; overseeing investigations and removals; and detention. Additionally, the EAC is responsible for coordinating, with the Office of Shared Support Services, the effective acquisition and utilization of shared support items including information technology, financial management, facility construction, personnel and training, etc. The responsibilities and duties of the EAC for Enforcement Operations will include:

(1) Border Management -- The Border Patrol will perform its current border management and control functions of deterring illegal immigration and apprehending illegal aliens, between ports of entry. In addition, the Border Patrol will continue to work with Federal, State and local law enforcement agencies to effectively administer laws related to the interdiction of drug trafficking activities and local criminal alien activities. Port of Entry management is a key component of border management due to the interrelationship between activities at and between land border ports of entry. Aliens attempting illegal entry at land, air and sea ports of entry will be swiftly apprehended and removed from the United States. The EAC will be operationally responsible for carrying out these duties in compliance with applicable law and policy and will be responsible for effectively monitoring resource utilization and maintaining accurate performance measures for these activities. By restructuring both Border Patrol and Inspection activities under a single EAC for Enforcement Operations, the Service will be able to provide seamless border enforcement along the Nation's borders.

(2) Interior Enforcement and Removals -- The EAC will be responsible for consolidating investigators, intelligence officers and deportation officer functions into one coordinated multi-disciplinary component to focus on illegal alien removals and to vigorously combat immigration document fraud, smuggling and illegal employment in the workplace. This consolidated approach will ensure swift and proper apprehension, incarceration and removal of those illegally residing and working in this country.

(3) Detention and Enforcement Support -- The EAC will be responsible for ensuring logistical coordination for the incarceration and transportation of criminal and illegal aliens. The EAC will be responsible for effectively managing the Service's bed spaces at both, Service-owned and contract detention facilities. Additionally, the EAC will be responsible for effectively acquiring bedspaces from State and local entities to ensure the Service can properly execute its law enforcement responsibilities.

(d) The Office of Shared Support Services will be headed by a Senior Executive who will report directly to the Commissioner. This Executive Associate Commissioner (EAC) for Shared Support Services will be responsible for establishing an operational chain of command dedicated to meeting the enforcement and services support requirements for all Service operational components. The EAC for Share Support Services will be responsible for the effective provision of shared administrative and support services to ensure that each side of the agency has the appropriate administrative and technological tools to do its jobs in the most effective and cost-efficient way. The EAC will accomplish this through four functional goals: establishing and maintaining a records management system that accurately and efficiently documents immigrant status, ensuring information and enforcement technology enhancements and initiatives are developed, implemented and maintained to operational component specifications; building and maintaining a "best in class" recruiting, hiring and training operation to meet Service employment requirements and building and managing a Service physical plant to adequately support agency housing needs. The responsibilities and duties of the EAC for Share Support Services will include:

(1) Automation and Technology -- The EAC will be responsible for ensuring that the Service establishes and maintains state-of-the-art information resources capability to carry out agency enforcement and service functions. Additionally, this EAC will be responsible for deploying and monitoring technology and ensuring that the Service's workforce operates as effectively as possible with these tools. The EAC will also establish and promulgate agency-wide policy relative to the acquisition and deployment of technology capabilities in coordinating with the operational components of the Service.

(2) Centralized Records Management -- The EAC will be responsible for maintaining a centralized repository for all Service records and will be responsible for the effective transition from paper to electronic automated files. Service records are the foundation of its work -- whether in law enforcement or for the provision of services to the immigrant community and the EAC will be responsible for establishing a records management organizational and management structure, agency-wide records management policy and building an agency-wide electronic recordkeeping system. This centralized capability will also provide the foundation for a nationwide expansion of the Law Enforcement Support Center.

(3) Personnel and Training -- The EAC will be responsible for tracking and hiring all categories of Service personnel and ensuring that all employees receive proper trained in a timely manner. Specialized training courses and a full spectrum of basic, advanced, and continuing education will be established to ensure a professional workforce. Records ensuring that all employees received requisite training will be maintained by this office. The responsibility for recruiting, hiring and promulgating all related personnel information will reside with this EAC.

(4) Facilities Management -- The EAC will be responsible, in coordination with the operational components of the Service, for planning, constructing and renovating all required Service support facilities, including Border Patrol stations, detention facilities and general support office space.

21st Century Community Learning Centers Event
Questions & Answers
June 17, 1998

Child Care

Q. What is your child care initiative?

A. The President's balanced budget proposal includes over $20 billion over five years for child care, the largest single investment in child care in the nation's history. This initiative responds to the struggles our nation's working parents face in finding child care that they can afford, trust, and rely on. The President's proposal will help working families pay for child care, build the supply of good after-school programs, improve the safety and quality of care, and promote early learning.

- Doubles the number of children receiving child care subsidies to more than two million by the year 2003 by increasing funding for the Child Care and Development Block Grant by $7.5 billion over 5 years.
- Increases tax credits for three million working families to help them pay for child care by investing $5.1 billion over 5 years in the Child and Dependent Tax Credit. The President's proposal also provides a new tax credit for businesses that offer child care services for their employees.
- Provides after-school care for 500,000 children per year by expanding the 21st Century Community Learning Center program by $800 million over 5 years to provide funds to school-community partnerships to establish or expand programs for school-age children.
- Improves child care safety and quality and enhances early childhood development by establishing a new Early Learning Fund as well as supporting enforcement of state child care health and safety standards, providing scholarships to up to 50,000 child care providers per year, and investing in research and consumer education.

Child Care Block Grant Increase	$7.5 billion over five years
Child and Dependent Tax Credit Reform	$5.1 billion over five years
Tax Credit for Businesses	$500 million over five years
After-School Program	$800 million over five years
Early Learning Fund	$3 billion over five years
Head Start Increase	$3.8 billion over five years
Standards Enforcement Fund	$500 million over five years
Child Care Provider Scholarship Fund	$250 million over five years
Research and Evaluation Fund	$150 million over five years
TOTAL:	$21.6 billion over five years

Q. The Kerry-Bond amendment targeted funds from the tobacco legislation specifically to child care. Will you support this proposal in the House if the tobacco bill makes it out of the Senate?

- A. The President believes that some funds from tobacco legislation should be spent on child care. We were pleased that we were able to reach agreement with Senator McCain before he brought the bill to the floor to add important language to the bill's spending provisions to provide funding for child care. Under that agreement, if states spent their restricted funding in proportion to current expenditures, at least 40 of the funds, or over $5 billion over 5 years, could have been spent on child care. We did not support the Kerry-Bond amendment because of that agreement. We will continue to work for adequate child care funding in the House.

[The McCain bill provides that 40 percent of funds received will go to the states, totaling $196.5 billion over 25 years. Half of these state funds must be used for designated programs to enhance the health and well-being of children and families most in need, including child care. Kerry-Bond would earmark half of these restricted funds for child care.]

21st Century Community Learning Centers Program

Q. What is the 21st Century Community Learning Centers Program?

- A. The 21st Century Community Learning Centers program supports before- and after-school, weekend, and summer programs in rural and inner-city schools, giving children a safe, drug-free and supervised environment.

Today, the President is announcing nearly $40 million in grants to support over 300 centers in 98 communities and 36 states that will serve roughly 35,000 children. The President has requested $200 million for this program in 1999 and $1 billion over five years, which will support nearly 4,000 centers (through grants to approximately 1,000 communities) serving a total of a half-million children each year. In expanding the current program, the President's proposal requires a local match to leverage $2 billion nationally for after-school programs over five years; better targets funds to high-need communities; requires that schools work closely with community organizations in establishing these programs; and reserves up to 10 percent of the funds available for community-based organizations working collaboratively with public schools.

Q. Is there really a need for new investment?

- A. There is a huge, and largely unmet, demand for quality after-school programs that can help children learn and develop in a safe, supervised location. Today, roughly 28 million school-age children have both parents or their only parent in the workforce.[BLS, 6/98] At least 5 million latchkey children -- and possibly as many as 15 million -- are left unsupervised each week. Research indicates that during these unsupervised hours children are more likely to engage in at-risk behavior, such as crime, drugs, and alcohol use. In fact, statistics show that most juvenile crime takes place between the hours of 2 p.m. and 8 p.m, and that children are also at much greater risk of being the victims of crime during the hours after school. But despite the need and the strong public support, the majority of the nation's public schools do not offer after-school programs, often because of a lack of resources. Among seventh and eighth graders, less than 1 percent were enrolled in after-school programs.

Q. What are the prospects on the Hill for the President's proposed expansion of the 21st Century Community Learning Centers Program?

A. Despite the tight budget caps in both the House and the Senate, there is a great deal of bipartisan support for expanding the 21st Century Community Learning program. Senator Jeffords, who sponsored the legislation that established this program and has been a real leader in working to expand it. In the House, a number of Republicans support increased appropriations for the program, as indicated by a letter to Appropriations Committee Chair Bob Livingston (R-LA), which was signed by over 60 Members from both sides of the aisle.

Q. Who are receiving grants and how were they chosen?

A. Ninety-eight communities are today receiving nearly $40 million in grants to establish 21st Century Community Learning Center after-school programs. These three-year grants will support 315 school-based centers in 36 states that will serve roughly 35,000 children. The grants range in size from $47,600 (for one rural center) to $2,279,838 (for 12 urban centers) per year.

This was one of the most highly competitive programs ever managed by the U.S. Department of Education. The Department received nearly 2,000 applications, participated in regional workshops attended by over 5,000 educators and community organization representatives, and responded to nearly 20,000 inquiries about the competition. Applications were received from every state, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and several Pacific territories. The sites chosen were required to serve middle school children in rural or urban areas and were evaluated based on their quality. The total amount of funding for after-school programs requested by the applicants was nearly $700 million per year. Unfortunately, only 1 out of 20 applicants could receive grants at the 1998 funding level.

Safe and Smart: Making the After-School Hours Work for Kids:

Q. What are the highlights of this report?

A. The key finding of this report is that quality after-school programs can both decrease juvenile crime and improve children's academic performance. The report shows that after-school programs work -- many communities with after-school initiatives have lowered juvenile crime rates in surrounding neighborhoods. The report also shows that quality after-school programs improve the academic performance of children -- helping more children stay in school, increasing aspirations for college, and lowering the number of children who must be kept back. In addition, the report identifies key components of high-quality programs, and highlights model after-school initiatives in communities across the country. Safe and Smart will be sent to community-based organizations and to every school district in the country in order to help them address the huge demand for after-school programs.

TEXT:

FYI -- Claxton have several technical amendments to the Durbin lookback amendment when we, OMB, and Treasury have scrutinized. I plan to call Tom Falletti and talk to him before sending them to Lloyd Ator. The amendments:

1) Make sure the lookback funds go to public health (since the Durbin section numbers are different, a reference in the spending title must be changed).

2) Clean up language regarding application to new manufacturers or manufacturers below the de minimus level.

3) Adds in several places "based on the annual performance survey" to make clear where the numbers will come from.

TEXT:

The Senate just adopted the Gorton amendment on lawyers fees, 49-48, with two Senators voting "present."

Under the amendment, attorneys fees would not exceed:

$4000 per hour for actions filed before 12/31/94

$2000 per hour for actions filed between 12/31/94 and 4/1/97
$1000 per hour for actions filed between 4/1/97 and 6/15/98
$500 for actions filed after 6/15/98

The amendment sets the maximum fee per hour; the actual amount could be less, and would be set by the courts based on a set of a dozen criteria including novelty of legal issues, results obtained, expenses incurred, etc.

Our position on Gorton was the same as our position on all attorneys fees amendments:

Q. What is your position on the Gorton amendment on attorneys fees?

A. The President's overriding priority is ensuring that tobacco legislation promotes the public health. He does not view the issue of legal fees as central to this effort, and he has not made a specific proposal on how the legislation should handle legal fees. In general, he believes that the lawyers who brought the tobacco suits should be fairly compensated, but that they should not be paid out of proportion to the work they actually did and the risks they actually undertook.

Boston Globe's McGrory reports, Sen. John Kerry (D-MA), "in a dramatic break" from Dem "dogma, plans to propose" 6/16 "gutting the seniority systems that protect worn-out and unqualified teachers in many of the nation's public schools, and instead providing principles and superintendents greater powers to hire and fire at will." In a "lengthy speech intended to serve as a partial foundation to build a presidential campaign," Kerry "will also propose dismantling" a teacher certification process "that he said would prevent historian Doris Kearns Goodwin from teaching high school history because she does not have a master's degree in education." Kerry "crosses traditional party lines with abandon -- embracing many traditional" GOP "themes while distancing himself in tone and substance from teachers unions, a powerful bastion" of Dem support. "Aides said ... he has spent months pondering the elements of t he speech as he tries to strengthen his standing on education issues in anticipation of a national campaign."

No To School Vouchers, Yes To Public School Choice

From the draft of Kerry's speech: "No one can convince me that a country that puts a man on the moon or balances the budget or pushes its stock market over 9,000 cannot put a good teacher in every classroom, a discipline code for every school community and a curriculum in every district that challenges our children to reach higher and higher. Shame on us all for giving up on the vast majority of our children before we've even joined the real fight." Ultimately, Kerry "said all parents should be given a choice of sending their children to any public school, though he stopped short of endorsing school vouchers." Kerry "will argue that vouchers do not aid enough children and divert attention from what he sees as the real problem: to fix public schools": "It is time we end the system that condemns each child to an administrator's choice and not a parent's choice, where possible. Public school choice -- nor private vouchers -- is also quite simply and quite realistically a practical necessity, even inevitability, because no one pretends there will ever be enough commitment or money to build an alternative system for everyone"
