TEXT:

This e-mail lists ideas for Executive Orders relating to tobacco which we are pursuing. (The attached chart describes agency policy on filming privileges on federal property, mentioned below.) Any feedback on these ideas would be greatly appreciated.

1) Applying the FDA Rule to Federal Property -- An Executive Order could apply the FDA rule to Federal property, by directing agencies that contract with entities operating on Federal land to include provisions in their contracts requiring compliance with the FDA rule. HHS likes this idea, and we plan to ask Justice to draft language for an Executive Order. We would also need to run this idea by Interior, DOD and other agencies that regulate federal property.

2) Prohibiting Underage Smoking on Federal Property -- DOJ is determining whether there is statutory authority to issue an Executive Order making underage smoking on federal property illegal. There would be no penalty for violations, other than confiscating the tobacco product. Justice likes this approach, but HHS is concerned about the way it would play in the press (they think the press would make fun of the idea). HHS also does not like anything that appears to punish minors because they believe it is ineffective in deterring youth smoking.

3) Smoking and Filming Privileges on Federal Property

(a) Prohibiting the Filming of Movies on Federal Property that Promote Smoking -- As you know, Senator McConnell said on the Senate floor that he would offer an amendment to the McCain legislation which would require federal agencies to prohibit the filming of movies on federal property which depict the use of tobacco or illegal drugs as healthy, desirable, or socially acceptable. He also said that the President could issue an Executive Order to this effect. McConnell does not target the portrayal of youth smoking, but smoking in general.

We met yesterday with the Justice Department and the various Federal agencies which allow filming on federal property (Departments of Defense, Transportation (Coast Guard), Interior (Park Service), and Agriculture (Forest Service)) to learn more about their policies and procedures for granting filming rights, and to elicit their views on the McConnell amendment. As you can see from the attached chart, their policies and procedures vary a great deal. For example, while the Park Service is explicitly prohibited from examining content in granting filming rights (they only seek to protect park resources and visitors), the DOD and the Coast Guard look closely at content. While the process for granting filming rights is very centralized for some agencies, it is very decentralized for others (ie. operating on a park by park basis).

All of the agencies raised objections to the McConnell amendment. The Park Service said that McConnell would directly contradict their policy which prohibits them from examining content. A number of agencies expressed strong concern about this route being a slippery slope, that could result in prohibiting the portrayal of other behavior (gay relationships, etc.), down the road. The DOD asserted that if they started engaging in this type of censorship, production companies would go elsewhere and they would be out of business. Of course, some of the agencies are concerned about the administrative burden involved with reviewing thousands of scripts in this kind of detail.

The Justice Department's initial reaction is that McConnell's amendment raises First Amendment constitutional concerns because it is not viewpoint neutral. (They also privately expressed concern that current agency practice in granting filming privileges could be potentially unconstitutional as well.) They are in the process of researching the issue. They also want to explore whether we could regulate this type of speech because it results from a form of government subsidy (under Rust v. Sullivan), although they think this may be a stretch. They plan to give us an answer to these questions by the end of the week. The Supreme Court is expected to decide a case on Thursday or Friday on the National Endowment for the Arts which could shed some light on these questions, particularly in terms of free speech and government subsidies.

(b) Prohibiting the Filming of Movies on Federal Property that Portray Illegal Smoking - We have also asked the Justice Department to explore other alternatives to the McConnell amendment that would be viewpoint neutral, such as narrowing McConnell to prohibit the portrayal of illegal youth smoking. We will let you know what they say as soon as we hear from them.

4) Requiring OSHA to Issue a Standard on Environmental Tobacco Smoke -- OSHA has been working on a standard for almost a decade which would regulate indoor air quality, including ETS, Legionnaire's disease, etc. The standard is still several years away from completion. The President could issue an Executive Order directing OSHA to issue the ETS standard separately. OSHA believes that it would take two years to issue the ETS standard -- less time than completing the indoor air quality standard. OSHA is writing a memo providing us with the pros and cons of this approach. (A BNA reporter called OSHA about this today, because ASH is pushing the idea. OSHA had no comment.)===== ATTACHMENT 1 =====

[INTERNAL WORKING DRAFT]

Filming for Entertainment Purposes on Federal Property --
Agency Policy
June 23, 1998

Agency	Is there a Written Policy?	Does Agency Issue Permits?	Does Agency Review Script?	Does Agency Oversee Filming?	Does Agency Review Content?/ What is Content Policy?
Agriculture (Forest Service)	Forest Service generally uses guidelines adopted by Southern California forest service. ¹	Yes. There is a fee schedule. Process for granting permits is decentralized.	Agency may request story boards in order to determine if activities are incompatible with Forest policy.	A Forest Service Officer may monitor filming to protect park resources and guard against fires.	Yes. Concerned only with scenes set on park land. Ensures that content does not depict practices that are prohibited on National Forest land; content also should not encourage unauthorized uses of National Forest land (ie. unauthorized vehicle use, littering, etc.) Also looks at depiction of Forest Service employees. They also have the discretion to consider nudity/profanity.
Interior (Park Service)	Yes -- Draft guidelines. These are explicit that Park Service should not regulate content.	Yes. Process for granting permits is decentralized.	No.	No.	No. Park Services issues permits to protect park resources and the public's enjoyment of the park.
GSA	N/A. Rules of occupying agency apply for each property. Smoking is not allowed on GSA property.	N/A.	N/A.	N/A.	N/A.

Agency	Is there a Written Policy?	Does Agency Issue Permits?	Does Agency Review Script?	Does Agency Oversee Filming?	Does Agency Review Content?/ What is Content Policy?
Defense	Yes.	No. DOD enters into license agreements with production company -- there is no fee. Process is very centralized.	Yes.	Yes. Project officer monitors compliance with script.	Yes. DOD is concerned with how military personnel are depicted. Looks for illegal and improper activity committed by military personnel (murder, treason, drug use). ² Tries not to be arbiter of morality when it comes to violence/nudity/smoking. Will determine whether portrayal of smoking in a given setting is realistic (ie., on a submarine).
Transportation (Coast Guard)	No. Bases its policy on DOD.	No. Coast Guard enters into licensing agreement with production company.	Yes.	Yes. A technical advisor ensures compliance with script.	Coast Guard reviews scripts for accurate portrayal of Coast Guard personnel. It is concerned about portraying the Coast Guard in a negative light. It will also look at the overall context of the project in terms of violence, nudity and levels of profanity.

² DOD guidance also says, "The production should not appear to condone or endorse activities by private citizens or organizations when such activities are contrary to US Government policy".

FYI. Broderick is trying to set up meetings with Hill staff for tomorrow afternoon (after 5:30pm). The group will likely include a mix of Democratic authorizers and appropriators (both within and without the CBC) and Cassandra from Gephardt's staff. Martha is still a bit worried that we will be talking to the staff before we have fully resolved all of the five remaining issues (particularly the one about allocation of lawyers' time between litigation and charge processing). However, she agrees that we have to talk to them soon to get them to understand where we are.

EK -- I am checking with Laura re: your availability.

Also, I just got word from Martha that the EEOC got $18.5 million in the subcommittee mark-up. This is half of the President's request of $37 million. There was no report or bill language and nothing in the mark-up notes. Also, there was very little discussion during the mark-up on this. Mollohan stated that he didn't know how the EEOC could address the backlog without the full amount requested and that he will work on this (getting more money) as the process continues. Dixon said that he wanted to work with the Chairman on report language (for the full committee's report).

TEXT:

It looks like the House and Senate are at or close to a pretty reasonable deal on the child support incentives bill. The House may pass the compromise today. Here are some highlights:

On penalties for failure to have a certified child support computer system, they found a middle ground. Penalties would be 4%, 8%, 16%, 25%, and 30% for years 1-5, respectively, beginning in FY98.

There are two breaks on penalties. First, if a state cleans up its act and gets certified during a fiscal year, it would have 90% of that year's penalty forgiven. Second, there is a special break for FY98 penalties: if a state asks HHS to review its computer system by August 1, 1998 and then gets certified as a result of that review, it would have no penalty for FY98.

No special help or relief for LA County.

The Cardin amendment will probably get jettisoned. The Senate doesn't like it. Cardin is trying to save it, but the House is prepared to proceed without it if he fails. (The Cardin amendment would require the INS to check for particularly egregious child support scofflaws who are legal immigrants at the border.)

They reached a deal a while back on making it easier to establish medical support orders.

Andrea will tell us more about the two welfare to work technical changes DOL is seeking.

The Senate is unlikely to take this up until after the recess, so that may give LA County some time to try to gin up support in the Senate over the break. (Procedurally, instead of a conference report, the House will take up the Senate bill, amend it, and send it to the Senate.)

It is appalling that Congress would decide to intervene in the drug safety practices of the Food and Drug Administration. For years, the FDA has used rigorous testing and the highest of scientific standards to protect public health. Now, this Congressional action would substitute political ideology for sound science, and that is a serious mistake. And it would restrict scientific research that can protect women's health and offer safe medical choices.

Q: Will the President veto this measure?

Since the provision was just added in one House, it's too early to say.

All:

Alan Ehrenbaum just returned from a meeting with Reyes, advocates (including MALDEF, La Raza, National Immigration Forum, and others), and Hill staff (including Gephardt, Watt, Berman, CHC, Gutierrez and Conyers staff) on INS reform. Essentially, they all communicated to Reyes that he had been working with the wrong team on this and that he should be working with the Administration. Apparently, Reyes got the same message yesterday in a meeting with Gutierrez and Becerra. At the end of today's meeting, Reyes handed out an organizational chart that reflected the latest version of his plan. According to Alan, it looks just like our plan, except the Commissioner is a Deputy Attorney General.

As soon as we can get our version of the reform legislation cleared (which should be in a couple of days at the most), we can start working with Reyes's staff on how he wants to proceed.

PRESIDENT CLINTON: STRENGTHENING CHILD SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT

June 24, 1998

"This bill today is a gift to our children and the future. The quiet crisis of unpaid child support is something that our country and our families shouldn't tolerate. Our first responsibility, all of us, is to our children."

President Bill Clinton

Today, at an Oval Office bill signing event, President Clinton announces the release of new statistics showing that the Administration's child support enforcement efforts have led to significant increases in child support collections, paternity identifications, and location of delinquent parents. The President will sign the Deadbeat Parents Punishment Act of 1998, which establishes tougher penalties for parents who repeatedly fail to support children living in another state or who flee across state lines to avoid paying child support.

LOCATING OVER ONE MILLION DELINQUENT PARENTS. As part of the 1996 welfare reform law, the National Directory of New Hires was established to help track parents across state lines and withhold wages from them. The New Hire directory enables child support officials to match records of delinquent parents with wage records from across the nation and begin collection procedures against them. This directory has now located over one million delinquent parents since its launch on October 1, 1997.

ESTABLISHING A RECORD NUMBER OF PATERNITIES. Improving paternity establishment has been a top priority of the Clinton Administration and is the crucial first step for children born out of wedlock to obtain the child support they need and deserve. In 1997, a record 1.3 million paternities were established, over two and a half times more than five years ago. Much of this success is due to the voluntary program begun by the President in 1994, which encourages fathers to acknowledge paternity at the hospital when the child is born.

RECORD INCREASES IN CHILD SUPPORT COLLECTIONS. With the passage of welfare reform, states were given new tools to go after parents who chose to walk away from their child support obligations, including the New Hire directory, streamlined paternity establishment, uniform interstate child support laws, computerized state-wide collections, and tough new penalties like driver's license revocation. In addition, the establishment of more paternities means more fathers are now legally obligated to pay support. These efforts have led to record results:

- In 1997, the state and federal child support enforcement program collected a record $13.4 billion for children, an increase of 68 percent from 1992;
- The number of families actually receiving child support payments has increased to 4.2 million, a 48 percent increase since 1992.

INCREASING PENALTIES FOR DEADBEAT PARENTS. In July 1996, the President directed the Attorney General to draft legislation with stronger penalties for parents who neglect to pay child support, and today he will sign into law a bill with overwhelming bipartisan support.. The Deadbeat Parents Punishment Act of 1998 creates two new categories of felonies against those who evade child support:

- Traveling across state or country lines with the intent to evade child support payments will now be considered a felony if the obligation has remained unpaid for a period longer than one year and is greater than $5,000;
- When a child support obligation has remained unpaid for over two years, or is in excess of $10,000, willful failure to pay this support to a child residing in another state will be considered a felony.

SUPPORTING RESPONSIBLE BANKRUPTCY REFORM THAT DOES NOT HURT CHILDREN. The President will reaffirm his commitment to bankruptcy reform legislation that does not make it harder to collect child support and alimony. The Administration will work with Congress to produce responsible reform legislation that will continue to make protecting child support and alimony a top priority.

TEXT:

This bill also includes changes related to Welfare-to-Work (as Diana's earlier note mentioned) and Access to Jobs. We're happy about the Welfare-to-Work changes and can live with the ATJ changes.

Welfare-to-Work Eligibility for Non Custodial Parents

The bill clarifies two issues to facilitate serving non-custodial parents under WTW.

1) As drafted, the BBA requires that in order for a non-custodial parent to be eligible for services, the custodial parent must meet 2 of the 3 'hard-to-serve' criteria (educational deficit, substance abuse, poor work history). The bill clarifies that either the custodial or non-custodial parent can meet these criteria, thereby ensuring that the individual being served is the one with the barriers to employment and addressing the concern that the organization serving the non-custodial parent would not necessarily have access to information about the custodial parent.

2) As drafted, the BBA requires that in order to serve a non-custodial parent, the custodial parent must be a long-term welfare recipient. The bill clarifies that either the custodial parent or the minor child of the noncustodial parent must be long-term recipients. This addresses child only cases.

DOL thought these amendments were needed, and we agreed. Ron Haskins was very supportive (as was Wendell), but Dennis Smith was not. The House prevailed.

Access to Jobs Match

As you know, Access to Jobs envisioned a fairly broad notion of match, including allowing other federal funds such as WTW and TANF to be used for match. Once W&M and Sen. Finance staff eventually started paying attention to ATJ, they raised a issues that were all over the map from concern about losing control of "their" TANF funds, to allowing states to transfer funds out of TANF to ATJ, to whether this might be a vehicle for states to use TANF funds to build roads. They considered a variety of amendments to TANF in the child support bill to address these concerns--some real, some perceived. HHS managed to persuade committee staff to drop some of the weirder fixes, so what we ended up with is definitely better than what could have been, but it's not perfect. The provisions got pretty messy given multiple agencies and committee jurisdictions. There'll be an opportunity--and challenge--to work with HHS, DOL, and DOT to operationalize these provisions as DOT develops the criteria for Access to Jobs competitive grants.

What ended up in the child support bill:

1. TANF funds used as ATJ match must be used for new or expanded transportation services (and not for construction), and the preponderance of Access to Jobs funds (including TANF match) must be spent on current or former TANF recipients and noncustodial parents (ATJ has a somewhat broader eligibility criteria--current and former TANF recipients, or those up to 150% of poverty).
2. Any TANF funds used as ATJ match are subject to the 30% cap on transferability. In other words, even though there is no new authority for states to transfer funds out of TANF to ATJ, if they use TANF funds to match ATJ, this amount combined with any transfers to child care and SSBG cannot exceed 30%. We were not thrilled with the principle --if a state identifies transportation as a major need, why would we want to limit the amount they could use to leverage additional transportation resources? But, this is not likely to pose a serious practical constraint since almost all states have plenty of room under their 30% cap and ATJ is so much smaller than TANF (ATJ = up to $140 M/year while TANF = $16 B)
3. If someone receives transportation "benefits" through Access to Jobs, but is not receiving any other TANF assistance, these transportation benefits are not considered TANF assistance. This allows someone who just needs help with transportation, either after they have moved from welfare to work or in lieu of getting on welfare, to be served through ATJ (including TANF match) without invoking the time limits, child support assignment, and other TANF requirements. While there is some slippery slope concern on the definition of assistance, it did not seem appropriate to fight this issue here after we'd been so vocal about the need for transportation.

The Treasury/Postal FY99 bill is scheduled for action on the House Floor later today. The only changes from the T/P Rules SAP cleared and sent yesterday can be found in the FEHBP section, paragraph 3 on the Coburn amendment. Also, we have removed the Brady Act Dissemination of Public Information sections. We need your review immediately and provide comments/clearance no later than 6:15pm tonight. As always, thank you.

H.R. 4104 -- TREASURY AND GENERAL GOVERNMENT APPROPRIATIONS BILL, FY

1999

(Sponsors: Livingston (R), Louisiana; Kolbe (R), Arizona)

This Statement of Administration Policy provides the Administration's views on the Treasury and General Government

Appropriations Bill, FY 1999, as reported by the House Appropriations Committee. Your consideration of the Administration's views would be appreciated.

The Administration appreciates efforts by the Committee to accommodate the President's priorities within the 302(b) allocation. The President's FY 1999 Budget proposes levels of discretionary spending for FY 1999 that conform to the Bipartisan Budget Agreement by making savings in mandatory and other programs available to help finance this spending. In the recently enacted Transportation Equity Act, Congress -- on a broad, bipartisan basis -- took similar action in approving funding for surface transportation programs paid for with mandatory offsets. We encourage the Congress to take advantage of such additional offsets, or to reduce appropriations for programs or projects not requested by the President in order to fund requested levels for items discussed below.

Below is a discussion of our specific concerns with the Committee-reported bill. We look forward to working with you to resolve these concerns as the bill moves forward.

Year 2000 Computer Conversion

The Administration appreciates the emphasis that the Committee has placed on year 2000 (Y2K) computer conversion activities. OMB will continue to assist all agencies in ensuring that adequate resources are available to address this critical issue. In the FY 1999 Budget, the President has requested more than $1 billion for Y2K computer conversion. In addition, the budget anticipated that additional requirements would emerge over the course of the year and included an allowance for emergencies and other unanticipated needs.

As we learn more about how to address this problem, we expect that ensuring Government-wide compliance will require flexibility to respond to unanticipated requirements. To the extent such unanticipated requirements are identified, it will be essential to make that funding available quickly. It will truly be emergency funding. The emergency mechanism recently approved by the House Appropriations Committee provides such flexibility.

Yesterday, the Rules Committee approved the rule that would strip the emergency funding mechanism from both bills. This regrettable action will not help agencies move forward in addressing this problem. We note that the Committee bill allocates funds from the emergency reserve for Treasury and other agency Year 2000 (Y2K) needs. If the emergency reserve is not funded, the Congress will need to find other ways to fund Treasury's critical Y2K needs.

The value of the emergency mechanism approved by the House Appropriations Committee is the flexibility it provides in the event that we determine that additional resources are required. We have only 555 days until January 1, 2000. We want to solve this problem as soon as possible. Delaying approval of emergency funding and reopening the issue of the use of the emergency spending authority would create controversy and delay. We hope that the House will reconsider.

Exchange Stabilization Fund

The Administration has serious concerns that an amendment to restrict severely the use of the Exchange Stabilization Fund (ESF) may be considered as part of the bill. Such an amendment would constitute an unacceptable limitation on the executive branch's ability to protect critical U.S. economic interests. The Secretary of Treasury would recommend a veto if the provision is included in the bill.

Federal Election Commission

The Administration strongly objects to language included in the bill that would limit the term of the Federal Election Commission's staff director and general counsel to four years and require a vote of four commissioners to reappoint them. This procedure is a departure from current practice, established in statute, whereby the Commission appoints a staff director and general counsel for an unlimited term. As with all Commission decisions under current practice, removal of the staff director and general counsel requires a vote of four commissioners. The Administration strongly urges the House to eliminate this unacceptable provision from the bill. Furthermore, because the provision effectively could remove the current occupants of the positions, it would raise serious constitutional questions under the separation of powers.

Executive Office of the President

The Administration is strongly concerned with a number of provisions related to the Executive Office of the President. It is our hope that any differences that exist concerning these provisions will be resolved as the bill moves through the process.

Internal Revenue Service

The Administration appreciates the Committee's efforts to fund the President's budget request for the IRS. However, if resources for Y2K are struck from the bill, IRS would be significantly underfunded. We look forward to working closely with the House to identify ways in which full funding of the President's request can be achieved.

The Administration appreciates congressional support for IRS information technology investments. However, tying obligation of funds to GAO review of expenditure plans is objectionable since the Administration has no control over the nature or timing of any prospective GAO review.

U.S. Customs Service

The Administration is concerned about the funding level for Customs, Automated Commercial Environment (ACE). Without major revisions to the existing system, Customs cannot keep up with increasing trade volumes nor can it be responsive to the requirements stated in the 1993 Modernization Act and the needs articulated by industry. The Committee has funded only $8 million of the requested $56 million level, which would cause the modernization effort to come virtually to a halt. To accommodate the full amount requested, the Administration has proposed funding the majority of ACE requirements through a user fee paid by those who stand to benefit most from this system, the trade community.

Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms

The Administration appreciates the efforts of the Committee to fully fund the President's Youth Crime Gun Interdiction Initiative (YCGII). This initiative is an important part of the Administration's overall strategy to curb youth gun violence. The Administration welcomes an opportunity to report on the performance of the YCGII.

The Administration requests reconsideration of the Violent Crime Coordinator initiative, as the U.S. Attorneys have requested additional ATF support for bringing cases involving violent criminals to the Department of Justice for prosecution.

We are pleased that the Committee shares the Administration's view that relocation of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms headquarters staff remains a key concern due to inadequate security at the present headquarters site. We hope that the Congress will continue to consider funding for this priority when the review process is completed.

Federal Employees Health Benefits Program

The Administration strongly opposes sections 514 and 515 of the bill. These provisions would restrict Federal Employees Health Benefits Program (FEHBP) coverage for abortions except in situations where the life of the mother is endangered or the pregnancy is the result of rape or incest. While the President believes that abortion should be safe, legal, and rare, the Administration does not believe that Federal employees and their families should be precluded from choosing to purchase health insurance that includes broader coverage. The Administration believes that the decision to cover abortion should be left to each health plan participating in the FEHBP. Thus, Federal employees who wish to purchase health coverage that does not include abortion services would have that choice. The provision in the Committee bill does not allow Federal employees and their families to make that choice.

The Administration supports the Committee reported provision which requires coverage of prescription contraceptives by health plans participating in the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program (FEHBP) and would oppose an amendment to strike it. We support improvements in basic health care coverage for women and the goal of the amendment -- to reduce unwanted pregnancies and the need for abortion. However, the Administration urges the Congress to give authority to the Office of Personnel and Management to waive the requirement for plans that are sponsored by organizations whose religious beliefs do not support artificial methods of contraception.

The rule under which the bill will be considered by the House makes in order an amendment that would restrict the definition of contraceptives to exclude any drug, device, or procedure "which has as one of its known effects the interference with the implantation of a fertilized human ovum or embryo." The Administration would strongly oppose such an amendment, which could result in the denial of safe and legal contraceptive options to Federal workers. Further, such an amendment would interfere with physician decision-making and communication with patients, as it may restrict the ability of physicians to discuss such treatment options with patients.

Pay Raises

The Administration shares the Committee's concern with the current system for setting and adjusting Federal pay. However, the potential costs and programmatic disruptions should section 644 of the Committee bill be enacted are significant. A Federal employee pay raise of about 15 percent would be automatically triggered in January 2000. Therefore, the Administration urges that this provision be dropped. Under the leadership of the Office of Personnel Management, the Administration is working expeditiously on a reform proposal and, as part of this process, will consult with appropriate stakeholders, including the Congress.

The Administration is disappointed that the bill includes a proposal to eliminate the 1999 pay raise for Federal judges and employees paid under the Executive Schedule. Failure to provide pay raises for senior executives is eroding the value of their pay, causing severe pay compression in the executive ranks. Pay adjustments have been made for such individuals only once in the last five years. If continued, this failure will affect the Government's ability to attract and retain the executive talent that it needs. We urge the House to restore the pay raise for Federal judges and the Executive Schedule.

Firefighter's Pay

The Administration commends the Committee for including a provision (section 639) in the bill to reform the overtime pay system for Federal firefighters. A more rational, understandable, and uniform system for calculating the overtime pay of Federal firefighters is long overdue. The Committee provision would accomplish this important and much-needed legislative change and reflects a consensus agreement among the various stakeholders, such as affected executive branch agencies and employee organizations.

United States Trade Representative

The Administration opposes the provision that would make the U.S. Trade Representative the United States representative to the Universal Postal Union. The U.S. Trade Representative lacks the resources and expertise in postal administration to take on this responsibility. In addition, this provision would repeal the authority of the Postal Service to establish international postage rates. We urge that this provision be dropped.

United States Postal Service

The Administration is concerned that the Committee bill would prohibit the Postal Service from initiating new non-postal commercial activities or pack and send services. An appropriations bill should not be used to legislate such restrictions on Postal Service operations.

Office of National Drug Control Policy (ONDCP)

The Administration appreciates the support the Committee has provided for drug control efforts in general, and for ONDCP in particular. The Administration encourages the House to provide the full amount requested for the Special Forfeiture Fund as anything less would adversely impact our ability to continue moving towards our mutual goal of reducing drug use. Failing to fully fund this request would negatively impact the National Drug Control Strategy and our efforts to meet the targets established in the Performance Measures of Effectiveness system. The House could fund this spending, in part, by reducing amounts earmarked by the Committee for an unrequested technology transfer program.

Federal Buildings Fund

The Committee has not provided $14 million requested for the design of a new Department of Transportation (DOT) Headquarters. Instead, the Committee urges GSA to enter into a lease transaction, as authorized by the House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee and the Senate Environment and Public Works Committee. The Administration requests that the House provide funding for the design of a new DOT Headquarters. Providing for a government-owned building would save taxpayers approximately $190 million, in present value terms, compared to the cost of entering into a lease.

The Committee bill would delay the availability of funding until September 30, 1999, for the repair and alterations program ($19 million) and building operations program ($223 million). The Administration is concerned that a delay in obligations of this amount for buildings operations would impede GSA's ability to operate and maintain Federal facilities under its control.

The Administration is also concerned that the Committee bill has approved over $500 million for 15 unrequested courthouse construction projects.

National Bioethics Advisory Commission

The Administration objects to section 628 of the Committee bill, which would prevent interagency funding of the National Bioethics Advisory Commission. The work of the Commission affects at least 15 Federal agencies. Access to interagency funding is essential for continued operations of this small, but important commission.

Potential Amendment Related to Peer Review

The Administration strongly opposes an amendment that may be offered mandating peer review of scientific data supporting final regulations. The Administration is committed to using the best possible science and peer review for rule-making. However, this amendment is unnecessary, inappropriate and wasteful. Peer review is currently incorporated in the Government-wide rule-making process where it is needed through extensive outreach, public comment, and scientific advisory boards. This amendment as drafted mandates a one-size-fits-all requirement that would serve only to delay important government action, in particular, rules designed to protect health safety and the environment. It would impose a costly additional step in the regulatory process and would cover a large heterogeneous set of rules, as diverse as meat and poultry inspection rules, airplane and automobile safety standards, FDA drug and device approvals, and rules to ensure safe drinking water and clean air. This would impose an undue burden on numerous final rules by requiring substantial personnel and other resources and could result in significant delays on important public health and safety rules.

Bureau of Engraving and Printing

The Administration objects to section 116 of the Committee bill, which would prevent the Bureau of Engraving and Printing from awarding a contract for currency paper under an ongoing competitive procurement without prior congressional approval. The Administration will interpret such provisions to require notification only, since any other interpretation would contradict the Supreme Court ruling in INS vs. Chadha.

UPDATE FROM EVAN WOLFSON

ny's legislature adjourned without taking up the anti-marriage bill. ohio and new jersey's bills are still pending, but seem unlikely to advance. once again we have beaten back more assaults this year than we have lost. we continue to hold a critical mass of states, even as we must fight the anti-marriage constitutional amendments coming november in hawaii and alaska.

now we must spend the next several weeks fostering public dialogue and building coalitions, which we will need as soon as the courts rule... whether it be this month, next month, or after the november votes in hawaii and alaska. the key is for local groups to identify target non-gay allies, clergy, organizations, etc. -- and ask for their support. use the marriage resolution or any other approach ("invitation to dialogue," chain letter, letters to editor) that you choose.

below is the current count as we head into the second half of 1998.
