PRESIDENT LAUNCHES NEW CAMPAIGN TO ENSURE THAT LOW-INCOME MEDICARE BENEFICIARIES RECEIVE PREMIUM ASSISTANCE
July 6, 1998

Today, the President announced a new outreach campaign to help millions of low-income seniors and people with disabilities get assistance in paying Medicare premiums. A study by Families USA reports that over 3 million low-income Medicare beneficiaries are not enrolled in the Qualified Medicare Beneficiary (QMB) and related programs that pay for Medicare premiums and (for some) copayments and deductibles. This assistance was expanded last year in the Balanced Budget Act. However, as this new report underscores, many eligible beneficiaries are not aware of these cost-sharing protections and others have difficulty accessing this critically needed assistance.

To address this problem, the President has requested that the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) and the Social Security Administration (SSA) launch a multi-faceted effort to enroll eligible Medicare beneficiaries in QMB and related programs. These new initiatives, which build on existing efforts to help identify and enroll eligible beneficiaries and parallel the President's efforts on children's health outreach, include:

- Launching major new initiatives to educate Medicare beneficiaries about premium assistance programs. HHS and SSA will make unprecedented efforts to ensuring that beneficiaries know about these programs by distributing clear, plainly written information about these programs by:
 - Sending written information to all 38 million Medicare beneficiaries about this program through pamphlets that will be sent to all beneficiaries this fall.
 - Informing every one of the 1.8 million new Medicare beneficiaries about this program in the Medicare initial enrollment package that is sent to these beneficiaries.
 - Including information describing this program and an eligibility screening worksheet on the new Medicare Internet site, "www.medicare.gov," which is used by millions of older Americans and their families, as well as others who work with the elderly and people with the disabilities.
 - Sending program information to more than 36 million individuals receiving Social Security benefits in the annual cost-of-living adjustment (COLA) notices this fall.
 - Distributing 450,000 pamphlets as well as placing posters in SSA's 1,300 field offices where millions of beneficiaries go to enroll and ask questions about these programs. SSA will direct its field office employees to reach out to the millions of beneficiaries they see every day to ensure they are informed about QMB and related programs.

- Encouraging the use of a simplified application process. In July, the Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA) will send a letter to State Medicaid agencies that includes a model, simplified application as well as examples of successful outreach and enrollment programs. HCFA will encourage states to adopt simple, user-friendly procedures such as a mail-in application.

- Creating a Federal-State-consumer advocate task force to develop new strategies to enroll eligible beneficiaries. Beginning this month, HHS, SSA, the National Governors' Association, and advocates of the elderly and people with disabilities will collaborate to identify and implement strategies to educate beneficiaries about this program and to make it easier to enroll.
- Targeting eligible beneficiaries through direct mailings. This fall, HCFA will send a letter to a targeted group of beneficiaries who are likely to be eligible for these protections. The targeting population list will come from a list of beneficiaries supplied by SSA that the agency believes may be eligible. The letter will explain the program and encourage beneficiaries to apply.
- Providing the State Insurance Counseling and Assistance Programs (ICAs) with materials to assist beneficiaries in enrolling in the premium assistance programs. ICAs provide assistance on insurance and benefits to millions of older and disabled Americans.

These new initiatives build on an ongoing commitment by HCFA and SSA to target and enroll these vulnerable, low income Americans. For example, HCFA has provided training materials on identifying and assisting potential beneficiaries to providers, advocates and States. SSA has included information on programs in SSA pamphlets and handouts that could reach potential candidates and conducted training for staff who interact with beneficiaries.

Background on the QMB and related programs. The following table shows eligibility for premium and cost sharing assistance programs, which are offered in all States.

Category	Income (Poverty)	Annual Income (1998)		Medicaid Pays For:
		Individual	Couple
QMBs: Qualified Medicare Beneficiaries	0 to 100%	Up to $8,290	Up to $11,090	Medicare Part A & B premiums, deductibles, copayments
SLMBs: Specified Low-Income Medicare Beneficiaries	100-120%	$8,291 to 9,900	$11,091 to 13,260	Medicare Part B premium
QI-1s: Qualified Individuals 1	120-135%	$9,901 to 11,108	$13,261 to 14,888	Medicare Part B premium
QI-2s: Qualified Individuals 2	135-175%	$11,109 to 14,328	$14,889 to 19,228	Part of Medicare Part B premium

Notes: Income guidelines include a $240 unearned income disregard; poverty thresholds are different in AK and HI. There is also an assets limit of $4,000 for individual and $6,000 for couples for all groups. QI programs are subject to the availability of capped funding allotments.

GOP Tries To Stop Clinton's Ban on Discrimination of Gays

By JOAN LOWY

WASHINGTON -- Republican lawmakers will attempt next week to approve legislation preventing President Clinton from implementing his recent executive order barring discrimination against gays and lesbians in the federal workplace.

The Republican effort follows controversial remarks by several GOP leaders regarding homosexuality and sets the stage for a showdown between conservatives and the president over gay rights just four months before the midterm election.

Rep. Joel Hefley, R-Colo., with the backing of GOP leaders, plans to offer an amendment to an annual spending bill that would prevent federal agencies from spending any money to implement the anti-discrimination policy.

The bill is expected to be one of the first measures the House takes up when lawmakers return to work.

Clinton said in May that he was expanding an existing executive order signed in 1969 by President Richard Nixon to include a ban on discrimination based on sexual orientation in the federal civilian workforce. Nixon's order already prohibited discrimination based on race, religion, color, sex, national origin, handicap or age.

Most federal agencies already have policies banning discrimination against gays and lesbians in hiring, but Clinton said the executive order would bring a uniformity to those policies.

"There are all kinds of laws on the books to protect against discrimination in employment, we shouldn't be creating a protected class," Hefley said. "When you do that, invariably you get quota systems and all kinds of things."

Rebecca Isaacs, political director of the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force, rejected the assertion that adding sexual orientation to federal non-discrimination policies creates a "special right" for homosexuals, as critics of the policy contend.

"There is nothing special about equal rights and being free from discrimination," Isaacs said. Nor would the policy create hiring quotas for gays and lesbians as critics claim, she said.

"Have they noticed any other quotas? The brazen lying doesn't seem to phase [sic] them at all. They are completely dishonest," Isaacs said.

Hefley also said he believes Clinton was misusing his power to issue executive orders. He said he wasn't familiar enough with Nixon's order to say if that also was an inappropriate use of power.

The debate arises at a time when Republican congressional leaders are under pressure from Religious Right activists to more vigorously pursue a conservative social agenda.

Republican leaders are refusing to allow a vote to confirm philanthropist James Hormel, who is gay, to be ambassador to Belgium, even though he clearly has the support of a majority of senators.

Senate Republican leader Trent Lott of Mississippi provoked a national controversy recently when he told a conservative radio talk-show host that he considers homosexuality to be a sin and likened it to psychological illnesses like kleptomania. Similar comments were made by other GOP leaders, including Senate Republican Whip Don Nickles of Oklahoma and House Republican leader Dick Arme of Texas.

Lott was scolded for his comments by Democrats and some moderate Republicans, but he was applauded by conservatives.

"I believe the Bible defines this practice as a sin," Lott explained in a recent column distributed to newspapers. "I know from the thousands of calls my office has received from Mississippians and others across the country that most Americans overwhelmingly share my view on this subject.

"There is a philosophy in our society today that suggests individuals can define what is right and wrong for themselves," Lott continued. "But in my view right and wrong is ultimately outlined by our maker, not individuals."

Gay rights activists accuse GOP leaders of gay-bashing in order to energize conservative Christian voters whom they need to turn out in strong numbers on election day in order to retain control of the House.

"This shows what a stranglehold the right wing has on the House and Senate Republican leadership," said Winnie Stachelberg, political director of the Human Rights Campaign, a leading gay rights group.

Said Isaacs: "Gay people are not allowed to live in peace and work on merit and live their lives without interference from these folks, who are really scary."

The Family Research Council, a leading religious right lobbying group, labeled the Hefley amendment an "urgent pro-family vote" in a recent flyer, urging lawmakers to "oppose funding for special privileges for homosexuals."

"Why is there this constant drumbeat that the federal government, or different levels of government, are supposed to put their seal of approval on a type of activity (homosexuality) when many people personally feel it is wrong?" said Marty Dannenfelser, the council's chief lobbyist.

A close vote is expected on the amendment. A majority of the House, including 70 Republicans, have signed pledges not to discriminate against gays and lesbians in their congressional offices.

Nancy Zurkin of the American Association of University Women recently commissioned a poll to be conducted by Celinda Lake on " The Attitude of Women toward the role of Federal Government in Education." In discussing the poll results with Nancy, 78% of the women felt that the government should have a strong federal role in education. The poll will cover such issues as block grants, school safety, standards, etc. On Tuesday, July 14, 1998 at 3:00 p.m. in the Roosevelt Room, Celinda and Nancy have agreed to brief the White House staff on the results of the poll before they become public. They will hold their official press conference on July 16th.

If you are interested in attending, please confirm your participation with TANYA LOPEZ in the Women's office at X67395.

Gene mentioned this morning in Senior Staff that NEC and DPC have been working with the Presidential Task Force on Employment of Adults w/ Disabilities to look at possible policy announcements or actions involving disability policies that might be made on July 26 in conjunction with the anniversary of ADA. Gene also seemed to make a comment indicating that these discussions might be complicated by a variety of issues -- and that a late July event / announcement might not be a sure thing.

Alexis Herman has requested that Erskine meet with and Tony Coelho, Seth Harris and Becky Ogle to discuss the Task Force's work. In a short memo from Sec. Herman's office, four discussion topics were listed for the meeting:

- 1) Task force progress;
- 2) President's Participation in Second Task Force Meeting;
- 3) Collaboration with White House Officials; and
- 4) Presidential Directives.

It sounds like the meeting's agenda is to get a commitment from Erskine that the White House will try to have the President attend the Task Force's July meeting and make an announcement endorsing the principles underlying Kennedy-Jeffords, as well as a commitment to work with the two Senators to produce a mutually agreeable bill the President could sign.

In light of Gene's comments, we wanted to check:

- Should Erskine attend the meeting? Can we do it in a way that won't disrupt the already working process?
- Who should be part of the meeting from the White House? (Chris Jennings, Diana Fortuna)
- Is there any paper we can give Erskine when we give him this request that will help him understand what's been happening from a WH perspective?

Thanks guys. k

The President could direct the AG and the Sec'y to establish a task force to assist states with their Medicaid suits. The interdisciplinary task force would be capable of providing legal and scientific assistance, and it would study past suits to determine winning strategies.

BTW... Now that tobacco legislation is stuck, we need to revisit the Medicaid Federal share issue. Strategically, pursuing our share might add pressure to states to help resurrect comprehensive legislation. Politically, you probably don't need my advice.

TEXT:

Rep. Doggett has asked to meet with the VP about his bill, the International Tobacco Responsibility Act of 1998. I think his bill has been included as a title in the House D's tobacco bill.

I think that Doggett just wants to tell the VP about it and ask for White House support.

The meeting is set for Friday afternoon at 4:20 pm. I have a summary of the bill which I will fax to you. Will you please take a look at it and let us know what position the VP should take. I'll put together a briefing memo on Thursday and would really appreciate your input. If it is necessary, we can do a 5 minute briefing with him prior to the meeting on Friday.

Thanks for your help. -- Kay

TEXT:

FYI. I just heard from the Labor Department that Sen. Graham's office called to say that he plans to introduce his H2A legislation this week (Friday). According to Earl (from DOL) this bill should look like the prior version -- creation of a registry of H2A workers; funded through H2A fees (equal to what the employer would have to pay under FICA if hired a U.S. worker); eliminates the adverse effect wage rate and instead requires payment of 105% of the prevailing rate (based on a regional survey by DOL). It is still not clear whether this kind of legislation has legs, though Earl remains skeptical. We hope to see a copy of this soon.

PRESIDENT CLINTON: INCREASING ACCESS TO HEALTH CARE

Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion

July 7, 1998

"This is a moment of unsurpassed hope and opportunity. If we put aside partisanship for the sake of progress, we can give all Americans the health care protections they deserve and strengthen the nation for the 21st Century."

President Bill Clinton
July 7, 1998

Today, President Clinton issues an Executive Memorandum directing the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) to take all necessary actions, up to and including termination from the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program (FEHBP), against health insurers of federal employees who do not comply with the protections afforded by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA). In addition, the President announces that the Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA) and the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) will forward any reports of violations to OPM.

REPORTS SHOW POSSIBLE EVASION OF KASSEBAUM-KENNEDY. The HIPAA law helps individuals keep health insurance when they change jobs, guarantees renewability of coverage, and insures access to health insurance for small businesses. According to the General Accounting Office (GAO), HCFA, and press reports:

- Some insurers are giving insurance agents incentives to avoid enrolling qualified Americans with pre-existing conditions who are guaranteed access to coverage under HIPAA;
- Agents have reportedly delayed processing applications submitted by HIPAA-eligible individuals or small groups in order to ensure that applicants have a sufficient break in their coverage to lose eligibility for Kassebaum-Kennedy protections.

PRESIDENTIAL ACTION TO STEM ABUSE. Today, the President takes strong action against insurers who violate the Kassebaum-Kennedy protections, including:

- Directing OPM To Ensure Health Plans Are In Compliance with Kassebaum-Kennedy in order to participate in the FEHBP. These health insurers will be required to certify that they are providing access to health insurance consistent with HIPAA protections;
- Instructing OPM To Take All Action, Including Termination of health plans that delay or deny coverage to federal employees who are eligible for health insurance under Kassebaum-Kennedy. This action will help ensure that the 350 participating carriers in this program, who serve 9 million enrollees, are providing access to health insurance to all qualified Americans;
- Directing HCFA To Report Any Abuses To OPM. The President is directing the HCFA to inform OPM of any actions taken by an insurer or an insurer's representative that in any way precludes or inhibits access to the insurance protections provided by HIPAA;
- Announcing A Collaborative Effort To Help Stop Abuses. The NAIC has also committed itself to identifying and reporting to OPM any instances of insurers denying or delaying access to Kassebaum-Kennedy protections;
- Requesting A Report In Six Months from the Departments of Labor and Health and Human Services measuring the successes and obstacles of implementing HIPAA protections.

INCREASING ACCESS TO HEALTH CARE. The President has led the fight to assure HIPAA provides millions of Americans access to health insurance. When the President first learned of reports of insurers circumventing HIPAA, he instructed HHS to take appropriate action to stop health insurers from engaging in these forms of harmful and likely unlawful practices. HCFA responded immediately by mailing a guidance bulletin to all state insurance commissioners for distribution to private insurers. This bulletin advised insurance companies that denying or delaying HIPAA protections was unlawful and underscored the federal government's commitment to ensuring compliance. The President also fought for key reforms that were included in Kassebaum-Kennedy, including:

- An increased insurance tax deduction for self-employed Americans from 30 to 80 percent, with a phase in to 100 percent under the Balanced Budget Act of 1997;
- A coordinated effort by the HHS Office of Inspector General and the Department of Justice to combat waste, fraud, and abuse that has, in its first year, saved the Medicare Trust Fund nearly $1 billion;
- Making private long-term care more affordable by guaranteeing employer sponsored long-term care is given the same tax treatment as health insurance;
- Implementing new consumer protections to assure that any tax favored product meets basic consumer and quality standards.

Dear

The Administration has made clear that changes must be made in S. 1645 in order to ensure that the legislation is appropriately tailored to achieve its stated goals. Unfortunately, although S. 1645 has been revised to exclude parents from potential liability, the bill has not been amended to meet the other critical concerns raised by the Administration. Accordingly, the Administration strongly opposes S. 1645 as drafted.

Specifically, S. 1645 must first be amended to exclude close family members from criminal and civil liability. Under the legislation, grandmothers, aunts, and minor and adult siblings could face criminal prosecution for coming to the aid of a relative in distress. Imposing criminal and civil sanctions on family members for helping their relatives, however, would not promote healthy family communications. Subjecting family members to criminal or civil sanction, moreover, would further isolate the minor by discouraging her from seeking advice and counsel from those closest to her. Finally, creating a civil action that permits family members to sue each other when a minor within that family has an abortion would not foster strong families.

Second, S. 1645 must be amended to ensure that persons who only provide information, counseling, referral, or medical services to the minor cannot be subject to liability. Exposing such persons to the threat of criminal or civil sanctions would not further the interests of promoting family communication, would not deter those who would inappropriately transport minors across state lines to obtain abortions, and would provide an unintended basis for vexatious litigation against individuals and organizations.

Finally, S. 1645 must be amended to address constitutional infirmities that the Department of Justice has identified in particular provisions of the legislation. The Department will forward these and practical law enforcement concerns in a separate letter.

The Administration is concerned that S. 1645, as written, raises novel and important federalism issues, including the rights of states to regulate matters within their own boundaries. The Administration believes, however, that legislation that addresses the concerns noted above, and that is carefully targeted at punishing non-relatives who transport minors across state lines for the purposes of avoiding parental involvement requirements, would mitigate the federalism concerns.

LOG CABIN VOWS TO DEFEAT HEFLEY AMENDMENT IN HOUSE

"A Critical Moment for the Republican Majority"

(WASHINGTON) The nation's largest gay Republican organization vowed to muster as many Republican votes as possible to defeat an amendment proposed by Rep. Joel Hefley (R-CO) which would roll back a recent executive order by President Clinton codifying a federal non-discrimination policy in the executive branch that sexual orientation must not be a consideration in employment practices for federal workers.

"We will fight the Hefley Amendment, and we will be watching every Republican vote when it comes to the floor," said Richard Tafel, executive director of Log Cabin Republicans. "There will not be a vote like this one in the House before the 1998 elections, and our entire membership will mobilize to fight its passage."

The amendment will be offered to the Treasury, Postal Service and General Government Appropriations bill, managed by subcommittee Chairman Jim Kolbe

(R-AZ), who is openly gay and has announced his opposition to it.

"In particular, this will be a test of how low the religious right will stoop, forcing a vote on a measure that is not only dangerous and wrong, but slapping the face of an Appropriations subcommittee chairman in the process in very personal terms," Tafel said. "There seems to be no limit to what they will try anymore, and it is time to put an end to it."

In a letter to House Republicans, Tafel called the vote on the Hefley Amendment as a "critical moment for the Republicans Majority."

"I cannot foresee a more crucial vote to my organization and our membership in this Congress than this one," Tafel wrote. "The time has come for moral leadership, if not from those elected to lead the Conference, then by the rank and file Members themselves. Words and rhetoric about tolerance is Log Cabin Republicans is the nation's largest gay and lesbian Republican organization, with 50+ chapters nationwide, a full-time Washington office and a federal political action committee.

TEXT OF LETTER TO HOUSE REPUBLICANS:

Dear Republican Members of the House:

I am writing to you in strong opposition to the Hefley Amendment, which will be offered by Rep. Joel Hefley of Colorado to the Treasury, Postal Service and General Government Appropriations bill. I will not mince words

-- this amendment is not only morally wrong and politically dangerous, it flatly contradicts the stated values of the Republican Party and is designed merely to attack gay and lesbian Americans. I urge you not only to vote against the amendment, but to speak in clear opposition to the amendment among your colleagues and on the floor of the House of Representatives. I cannot foresee a more crucial vote to my organization and our membership in this Congress than this one; further, we view it as a critical moment for the Republican Majority.

You are well aware that Log Cabin Republicans has always been a staunch opponent of preferences and quotas and a defender of our shared Republican principles. Over 70 Republican Members of the 105th Congress have certified in writing that "sexual orientation is not a consideration in the hiring, firing and promoting practices" in their own Congressional offices.

That is the core of the employment non-discrimination Executive Order signed by President Clinton that the Hefley Amendment seeks to overturn, which added a provision to an Executive Order first enacted by President

Richard Nixon in 1972 and codified what is already in practice in every federal agency today. You will recall that in 1996, the Dole-Kemp campaign publicly pledged that a Dole-Kemp Administration would leave in place all non-discrimination policies in the executive branch which included gay and lesbian federal workers. As a Party, we Republicans have prided ourselves in defending the principle that merit should be the sole criterion by which every American is judged in the workplace -- no discrimination, no preferential treatment. The Hefley Amendment would violate all of these principles in the most sweeping manner ever attempted in the history of United States Congress, and for reasons that are morally and politically wrong.

The purpose of this amendment is blatantly clear. It is designed to pander to a narrow faction inside the Republican Party that cares nothing about our Majority and will stoop to any depth -- including the destruction of our Party -- to impose their extreme anti-gay views upon the GOP leadership. The so-called arguments in favor of the Hefley Amendment are a transparent veil that cannot cover the truth -- this intolerant faction is demanding that we make exceptions to the merit principle, that gay and lesbian Americans must never be treated equally no matter how meritorious they may be as individuals. The American people are not fooled. They can see what is going on here.

The flurry of recent anti-gay comments by senior members of the Congressional leadership have provoked alarm and serious concern among Republicans all across the country for a good reason -- these comments and actions are simply wrong -- morally, intellectually and politically wrong.

Log Cabin Republicans has been labeled "perverts" and has been compared to pedophiles and the Ku Klux Klan by the leadership of the Texas Republican Party. Senate Majority Leader Trent Lott has said that gay Americans suffer from a disorder akin to kleptomania and drug addiction. A small handful of Members in the Senate have grossly and unfairly attacked the character and reputation of the pending nominee for Ambassador to Luxembourg, Mr. James Hormel, solely because he is gay. Every poll which analyzes the problems facing the Republican Party at the ballot box show a consistent trend -- swing voters fear that our Party is controlled by the far right.

And now we have this dangerous and sweeping proposal in the Hefley

Amendment. It will impact every office, every agency and every department of the executive branch. Its reach goes far beyond the recent Executive Order. The time has come for moral leadership, if not from those elected to lead the Conference, then by the rank and file Members themselves.

Words and rhetoric about tolerance is not enough. Indeed, there comes a time in every political leader's life when he or she can no longer pander to the lowest common denominator and must do what is right. This is such a time for the House of Representatives.

Sincerely,

RICHARD L. TAFEL

Executive Director

The President could direct the AG and the Sec'y to establish a task force to assist states with their Medicaid suits. The interdisciplinary task force would be capable of providing legal and scientific assistance, and it would study past suits to determine winning strategies.

BTW... Now that tobacco legislation is stuck, we need to revisit the Medicaid Federal share issue. Strategically, pursuing our share might add pressure to states to help resurrect comprehensive legislation. Politically, you probably don't need my advice.
