BR, EK, et.al.:

At the close of today's juvie meeting, Peter expressed that: (1) we would defer to the House and Senate Dems on whether or not we'd except the substance of the current juvie crime bill (the R's caved on most of their demands); and (2) even if the Dems were okay, we would insist on a handful of our own proposals before agreeing to include it in the omnibus.

The D's are sorting things out with their members and visiting w/the leadership. Peter will hear back from them soon, and their may be another meeting with the R's. In the meantime, I've drafted a one-pager on what we should insist on if all the D's agree to go with the bill. If not, oh well...

Let me know if this doesn't work for folks...jc3

ADMINISTRATION CHANGES TO BE DRAFT JUVENILE CRIME BILL

1. Prosecutors/Courts Initiative

The bill should guarantee a percentage of funds for the Administration's $100 million prosecutors/courts initiative -- just as it does with other programs. This could be accomplished by amending the current authorizing language, which guarantees 45% of the funds -- or $450 million -- for the Republicans' Accountability Block Grant, to say that 10% of the funds -- or $100 million -- are reserved for a prosecutors/courts program, and 35% of the funds -- or $350 million -- are reserved for the Accountability Block Grant.

2. Juvenile Brady -- Gun Ban for Violent Juveniles

The most recent draft of the juvenile crime bill includes a juvenile Brady provision that is unacceptable. Not only would it allow states to circumvent the ban by easily restoring a juvenile's right to own a gun, but its effective date is contingent on the Attorney General making a determination that the records to enforce this new ban would be "routinely available" through the National Instant Criminal Background Check System. We should insist on our tougher version of juvenile Brady.

3. Increased Penalties for the Youth Handgun Safety Act

The draft juvenile crime bill does not include increased penalties for juvenile handgun possession (from mandatory probation to up to 1 year imprisonment) or for transferring a handgun to a juvenile (from 1 to 3 years imprisonment). Generally, these penalty increases have not been considered controversial, and they have most likely been dropped to deny the Administration a "gun victory." We should insist on their inclusion.

4. Postpone Juvenile Crime Bill Funding Formula Until FY 2000

The current Commerce-Justice-State (CJS) appropriations bill includes language that would allow any juvenile crime legislation that passes to supersede the juvenile crime allocations already included in the CJS appropriation. This would effectively cut prevention funding for FY 1999 and should be deleted. The juvenile crime bill's funding formula should not go into effect until FY 2000.

REPORT ON SUCCESSFUL BILINGUAL EDUCATION PRACTICES

Sec. ----. Subpart 2 of Part A of title VII of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 is amended by adding at the end thereof a new section 7137 to read as follows:

“Section 7137. SPECIAL REPORT. (a) The Secretary shall commission a report on successful education practices for limited English proficient children. The report will identify a number of highly successful projects, including Transitional Bilingual Education Programs, Two-Way Bilingual Education Programs, English as a Second Language, and English immersion programs, funded from any source, to help limited English proficient students in high poverty schools attain proficiency in English and high levels of academic achievement. The report shall identify the features of each project that made it successful, and for each program, shall specify the characteristics of its children, schools and communities.

(b) The report is to be submitted by the Secretary to the President and to the Congress not later than September 30, 1999, with such interim reports as may be necessary.

(c) There are hereby appropriated $500,000 to carry out the purposes of this section.

The Managers note that there are a number of techniques in use to help Limited English Proficient children learn English and acquire academic skills rapidly and efficiently. Grantees under the Bilingual Education Act should have information on the features of program designs that work well, in order to design the best programs to meet the needs of their children.

The Act includes language directing the Secretary to develop a report on successful practices for use by grantees and to inform the Congress' deliberations on reauthorization of Title VII of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act in the next Congress.

WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE ON SCHOOL SAFETY

DATE: October 15, 1998
LOCATION: The East Room
BRIEFING TIME: 12:15 pm - 12:35 pm
EVENT TIME: 12:45 pm - 2:30 pm
FROM: Bruce Reed

I. PURPOSE

To bring together a broad coalition of youth violence experts and advocates, educators, elected officials, law enforcement, and prevention and intervention practitioners -- as well as communities across the country through the 600 satellite sites -- to help them learn more about how they can make their own schools and communities safer.

II. BACKGROUND

Although schools are generally safer today than they were just a few years ago -- and statistics show that students are safer sitting in a classroom than walking down a street -- there is still much more that we can do to improve school safety and security. In particular, the multiple shootings that took place in schools in Pearl, MS, Paducah, KY, Jonesboro, AK, and Springfield, OR, serve as painful reminders that no community is immune from senseless violence -- and that all communities must do their best to prevent such tragedies from ever occurring.

At the conference, you will unveil the first Annual Report on School Crime and Safety, prepared by the Departments of Justice and Education as you directed in your radio address after the Paducah shooting in December. The report is intended to give parents, principals and policy makers a yearly snapshot of school crime, as well as to provide information on what practical steps they can take to make their schools safer. [*KEY FINDINGS OF THE REPORT ARE ATTACHED.]

In your opening remarks you will announce the following new initiatives that address many of the problems identified in the Annual Report:

(1) A New Federal Response for Violent Deaths in Schools. You will propose a $12 million plan to create Project SERVE, a federal School Emergency Response to Violence effort, to help schools and local communities respond to school-related violent deaths, such as those that occurred last year in Jonesboro Arkansas, Paducah Kentucky, Pearl Mississippi and Springfield Oregon. Based on the experiences of these communities last year--and with input from local officials and educators in these and other communities-- the plan will enable the federal government to assist local communities in much the same way FEMA assists in response to natural and human-caused disasters.

(2) Targeted Resources for Schools with Serious Crime Problems. To help give the estimated 10% of schools with serious crime problems the tools they need to put the security of our children first, you will announce a new $65 million initiative to hire 2,000 community police and School Resource Officers to work in schools -- and to train police, educators and other members of the community to help recognize the early warning signs of violence.

(3) Reforms to Help Make All Schools Safe, Disciplined and Drug-Free. You will announce your plan for a significant overhaul of the nearly $600 million Safe and Drug-Free Schools and Communities Program. Under this proposal, schools will be required to adopt rigorous, comprehensive school safety plans that include: tough, but fair, discipline policies; safe passage to and from schools; effective drug and violence policies; annual school safety report cards; links to after school programs; efforts to involve parents; and crisis management plans.

(4) A Community-Wide Response to School Safety and Youth Violence. To help communities throughout the country promote a coordinated, comprehensive response to school safety, you will launch a new Safe Schools -- Safe Communities initiative designed to help 10 cities develop and implement community-wide school safety plans. A minimum of $25 million in discretionary grants from the Departments of Education, Justice and Health and Human Service -- or $1-3 million per site -- will be made available for this initiative.

You will also kick-off an MTV-sponsored, year-long media campaign on school and youth violence. Working with the Departments of Education and Justice, and the National Endowment for the Arts, MTV will distribute a Youth Action Guide that aims to engage youth in solutions to violence. In an earlier panel, the First Lady introduced one of the MTV media campaign segments.

- Annual Report and Summary of Key Findings.

- Suggested Sequence of Events.

- Conference Agenda

SUMMARY OF KEY FINDINGS OF THE ANNUAL REPORT

- Students less likely to be victimized but more likely to feel unsafe. Although the number of multiple homicide events at schools has increased since 1993 (from 2 to 6 -- and with 4 times as many victims), the overall school crime rate has actually dropped (from 164 crimes per 1,000 students in 1993 to about 128 such crimes in 1996). However, the percentage of students reporting that they felt unsafe at or on their way to school has increased.
- Most schools safer than community at large. While the overall level of school and non-school crime is about the same (about 3 million crimes in each setting), students are more than twice as likely to experience serious violent crime while out of school. And the very worst violent victimizations -- murders and suicides -- rarely occur in or near schools. Fewer than 1% of the 7,357 thousand children who were murdered in 1992-93 -- or 63 -- were killed at school.
- Serious crime and violence concentrated in a small percentage of schools. Only about 10% of public schools report serious or violent crimes to their local police departments. Nearly half -- or 47% -- of schools report less serious or non-violent crimes to police, and 43% report absolutely no crimes at all.
- Violence more likely in larger, urban schools and with older students. One third of large schools (1,000+ students) report serious violent crimes to police, compared with less than one tenth of small schools. Also urban schools are twice as likely as rural schools to report serious violent crimes, and middle and high schools are 4 times more likely than elementary schools to report such crimes.
- Fist fights and theft the most common crimes. Overall, physical attacks and fights without weapons are the crimes most often reported to police by middle and high schools. Theft is the most common school crime overall. In 1996, less than 10% of crimes against students were of a serious or violent nature.
- Fewer weapons in schools. About 6% of high school seniors -- less than in recent years -- are carrying firearms and other weapons to schools. Also, the percentage of seniors intentionally injured -- with or without weapons -- has not changed significantly over the past 20 years.
- Gang presence has nearly doubled. Between 1989 and 1995, the percentage of students reporting the presence of street gangs in their schools increased from 15% to 28% -- including large increases at urban, suburban and rural schools.
- Violence and drugs linked. Students who reported being the victims of violent crimes at schools were more likely to report the availability of drugs at school. The presence of gangs and guns is also related to school crime and the victimization of students.
- Teachers often crime victims. On average, 3% of teachers are the victims of violent crimes, and nearly 5% are the victims of theft.

PRESIDENTIAL PANEL SEQUENCE

[From the Podium]

- The Vice President makes remarks, introduces the President, and takes a seat at the table.
- The President makes remarks and then takes a seat at the table.
- The President moderates the discussion by calling on each individual to share their experiences. After each statement, the President, the Vice President, and the First Lady will be free to ask follow up questions.

[All panelists and the First Lady will be seated at the table during the opening remarks.]

Jamon Kent, Superintendent of Springfield Public Schools, Springfield, Oregon

Superintendent Kent has also served as a teacher and principal throughout his 26 years in education. He lead the community-wide effort to promote school safety that has been ongoing since before the shooting occurred, which includes creating alternative programs for at-risk students and turn-around programs for students in adjudication or who have been expelled.

POTUS SUGGESTED QUESTION: When I visited your community after the shooting everyone there was struggling to cope with this terrible tragedy. There was so much that needed to be done, which is one of the reasons why I am proposing a federal response SERV team to help communities in a time of crisis. Do you feel this type of federal action would have helped your community?

FLOTUS SUGGESTED QUESTION: How did you forge partnerships with the surrounding community before this tragedy? How did these partnerships allow you to better cope with this crisis?

VPOTUS SUGGESTED QUESTION: Can you tell us about how the mental health community played a role in helping the community heal during this terrible tragedy? And how did you reestablish a feeling of safety and security for students when they returned to school this fall?

Police Commissioner Paul Evans, Boston, Massachusetts

Commissioner Evans led Boston's innovative Operation Ceasefire, which has dramatically reduced youth violence through a comprehensive community approach.

POTUS SUGGESTED QUESTION: You have incorporated the principles of community policing to the greatest extent possible. How have police officers adjusted to their role in crime prevention?

VPOTUS SUGGESTED QUESTION: I know the faith community is also very involved in your efforts to reduce juvenile crime. Can you elaborate on their role?

FLOTUS SUGGESTED QUESTION: Initially, did different parts of the community resist working together? How did you manage to develop these unique bonds in your community and what suggestion do you have for other cities?

Liberty Franklin, National Boys and Girls Club Youth of the Year, Everett, Washington

She turned to the Boys and Girls Club to give her a safe haven where she could learn and grow. She was raised by a single mother in a housing project with older brothers who were in and out of jail. When she joined the Boys and Girls Club in the sixth grade she began to have an adult mentor who helped her succeed in school and stay out of trouble. She is now a high school senior with a 3.95 GPA working at Washington Mutual Bank to save money for college. She is interested in becoming an Orthodontist and providing free care to low-income children.

POTUS SUGGESTED QUESTION: You see up close the issues confronting your peers. What more do you think adults should do to help young people?

FLOTUS SUGGESTED QUESTION: How specifically has mentoring helped you and are you mentoring others now?

VPOTUS SUGGESTED QUESTION: You have been very successful as a student and a leader within the Boys and Girls Club. Do you feel that your experience was unique, or do you feel that other students benefit equally?

Joanna Quintana Barroso, 3rd Grade Teacher, Coral Way Elementary, Miami, Florida
Joanna will speak about the successful anti-crime efforts at her school including school uniforms, gun safety curriculum, DARE officers, and alternative classes for at-risk youth. She will talk about the importance of reducing class size in order to identify troubled youth and for students to learn well. She will also talk about the business efforts to encourage students to work hard including Pizza Hut reader of the week awards which entitle students to a free meal and helps to promote hard work.

VPOTUS SUGGESTED QUESTION: The President has fought hard to reduce the size of classes nationwide to an average of 18. I understand your classes have over 30 students in them. How do you think smaller classes would benefit your students?

FLOTUS SUGGESTED QUESTION: Who do you find your students are most influenced by? Parents? Teachers? Media?

Thelton "Tony" Earles

Professor, Harvard School of Public Health

Conducted research on Human Development in Chicago Neighborhoods which found that neighborhood cohesiveness and responsible adult interaction with children reduces juvenile crime and delinquency.

POTUS SUGGESTED QUESTION: You have made a strong a strong case for the importance of adults taking responsibility to promote positive values in their community. What do you think the government and other public figures in this country can do to encourage parents and other adults to become more involved in the lives of children?

FLOTUS SUGGESTED QUESTION: What does your research show about community involvement in the schools and did you find that children learn more in schools where there is active parental involvement?

Mayor Deedee Corradini, President of the U.S. Conference of Mayors, St. Lake City, Utah

Mayor Corradini will present the U.S. Conference of Mayors' Action Plan, compiled at the recent Mayors Conference on School Safety in St. Lake City, which describes the unique role of cities in preventing youth violence.

POTUS SUGGESTED QUESTION: I understand that you invited police chiefs to your conference to help contribute to the Mayors Action Plan. What role can mayors play in bringing together law enforcement and the education community.

VPOTUS SUGGESTED QUESTION: Tell us what you think the most striking part of the Conference was?

Subject: Re: Budget

Mickey--lots of things in flux, but these issues are on the radar screen in one way or another--for on tobacco, --elena, on rum tax--this may be part of extenders, unclear but it's in gene's shop-I'd call john kaplan to find out the latest, on chip, ed-flex and medicaid alloca--barbara chow's office should have latests; indian gaming--part of interior discussions, wes warren might be able to help (on this, I think there is resolution). While a budget briefing would make it easier--too many people working on all these issues (and more) and it's constantly changing.

Subject: Budget

It would be very helpful to IGA to get a budget briefing on where we stand with about a half dozen remaining priority issues for IGA. They include Ed Flex, Medicaid Cost Allocation, Tobacco medicaid recoupment, Indian Gaming (Enzi-Sessions amendment), Rum Tax Cover Over, and CHIP dollars for Puerto Rico and Virgin Islands. What would you suggest?

TEXT:

I spoke with Phil Caplan and he does not think the President will be able to look at pre-briefing materials tonight, so we should submit the final briefing materials to the President by noon tomorrow so that he can review them during phone and office time. This means that by COB today Laura Emmett should be emailed all DPC briefing documents so that Elena can edit them tomorrow morning.

DPC Documents:

- Overall two-pager on announcements at the Conference (Jose)
- Fact Sheet: Reauthorizing Safe and Drug Free Schools (Tanya)
- Fact Sheet: Community-Wide Solutions (Neera)
- Fact Sheet: COPS Funding and School Uniforms (Leanne)
- Fact Sheet: Federal Response to Violent Deaths (Leanne)
- Script for President's Panel (Christa)
- Briefing Memo (Christa)

Richard is assembling other briefing materials including the agenda, audience list, etc...Richard, let's plan on having the final briefing materials by 11:00ish and we can assemble them, plus a copy of both the Annual Report and the Mayor's Action Plan for the book. Does that sound okay to you?

Please let me know if I left anything out. Thanks.

TEXT:

Sen Mack has told Gov Chiles that Sen Lott asked Erskine if we were ready to talk about tobacco and whether we would buy the Chiles proposal. Erskine reportedly said no. Chiles is worked up thinking this violates the commitment made at the meeting between Chiles and Erskine that we attended. I fully appreciate how vague Chiles request was, and how vague but generally supportive ("we can do business on this") we were. There must be some fine print here not getting reported. Do either of you know what transpired and have advice for what to tell Chiles.

Thank you.

If there is no deal on tobacco recoupment I don't want there to be blame placed on us. My reports are that our opposition to a unrestricted deal is being used to blame us for no deal. I think we should now be pro-active in indicating that we are willing to accept a deal with the McCain menu and committing that to paper. A Bowles letter perhaps. I recognize that pressure from Myers etc may make this difficult, but if we can do it, it would improve our posture with the states looking to place blame.

Draft Signing Statement for S. 53

I am pleased today to sign into law S. 53, the Curt Flood Act of 1998. This legislation is the successful culmination of bipartisan efforts to treat employment matters with respect to Major League Baseball players under the antitrust laws in the same way such matters are treated for athletes in other professional sports. I particularly want to thank Chairman Hatch, Senator Leahy, Chairman Hyde and Representative Conyers for their efforts in guiding this legislation through Congress.

The Act appropriately limits baseball's special judicially-created antitrust exemption by expressly applying the antitrust laws to certain conduct of Major League Baseball. The legislation would not affect the applicability of those laws to certain matters that, it has been argued, the exemption would legitimately protect (including franchise relocation rules and the minor leagues). The Act provides that certain conduct of Major League Baseball is subject to the antitrust laws; the applicability of the antitrust laws with respect to all other conduct is unchanged. The Act in no way codifies or extends the baseball exemption.

The Act does not in any way limit the standing of the United States to bring an antitrust action. The antitrust laws protect the public's interest in the efficient operation of the free market system, thereby protecting consumers, and the United States has standing to sue to enjoin all violations.

Treating employment matters with respect to Major League Baseball players under the antitrust laws in the same way such matters are treated for athletes in other professional sports is sound policy. I know I am joined by millions of baseball fans in hoping that the Curt Flood Act of 1998 helps baseball avoid stoppages of play it has too often experienced as a result of player/owner disagreements.

We've already given the press office our announcement from the Hate Crimes Conference, the Q&A, and the Administration's accomplishments document. Here are some additional updates:

1. Based on the press reports detailing the facts, the Wyoming case would clearly fall within the Administration's proposed federal legislation according to Neil Kravitz in the Civil Rights Division at the Department of Justice. Under the existing federal hate crimes law, however, this case would not be covered because sexual orientation is not a protected class.

2. As the result of the Hate Crimes Conference, the President instructed the approximately 100 U.S. Attorney's offices to set up hate crimes working groups that would work with the community to prevent and prosecute hate crimes. The working group in Wyoming has been operational since early this year. Participants in the Wyoming working group include the U.S. Attorney's Office, the FBI, ATF, and the state division of criminal investigations. The Wyoming working group is working with the local prosecutor on the case; however, it would be inappropriate to comment on the specifics regarding this ongoing investigation.

3. The 1997 FBI data on hate crimes will not be available until the end of this month or the beginning of November.

Let us know if we can send this to the press office. Thanks, Mary Subject: state settlement

Two news items from Gary Black: Timing slips to week of 10/26, and Scruggs's secret plan on Medicare rider isn't much of a secret.

October 9, 1998

HIGHLIGHTS

1. Anticipated timing of the new AG settlement has slipped to the week of 10/26. This was said to be due to a prior scheduling conflict by lead AG Gregoire, but may reflect additional time needed to get a critical mass of AGs behind the deal prior to its announcement. Or, it may reflect the industry needing time to digest what has become a very complex set of renegade provisions.

2. Our biggest fear is not the renegade issue (which the industry has overblown), or that states won't sign up (they want the money), but that after the deal is consummated, state legislators will pass legislation that imposes licensing fees -- but fail to give credits to companies who signed the accord. This would effectively raise taxes twice on deal signatories, and once on non-signatories. We don't believe the AG settlement can be voided, for instance, if a state passed a licensing law at odds with the spirit of the deal.

3. Washington update: Before Congress adjourns Monday, we could see efforts to attach two tobacco-related riders to the omnibus appropriations bill (which effectively allows the government to avoid shutting down in the absence of formal appropriations bills):

One rider sponsored by senators from Florida and Texas allows states to keep all of their tobacco settlement proceeds, rather than give the federal government its share under HCFA. This would increase the appeal of the new AG deal to the states.

Second rider clarifies a 1960s statute that the federal government can bring a Medicare recovery action against the tobacco industry. Given no appetite by Republicans to bring new claims against the industry, odds of this passing are very low.

4. We reiterate outperform ratings on Philip Morris, RJR, and UST. While timing on this deal remains slippery, which naturally fuels investor uncertainty, we believe 1) there will be a new AG deal that will be supported by a critical mass of AGs announced within a few weeks; 2) Virtually all states will ultimately embrace the deal, given overall weakness of AG cases, and few suitable alternatives with which to put new regulations on the tobacco companies. Our expectation now is that stocks will not trade off when the deal is announced, given the short (7-14 day) opt-in period

ADDITIONAL DETAILS

1. Settlement update: Below, we have clarified some outstanding issues about which we have been asked on the new settlement:

Cost -- The cost to settle with the remaining 47 states (including Puerto Rico) will be about $180 billion. This would bring the total cost of the deal to $220 billion -- in line with our expectations, but higher than some analysts are predicting.

Renegade credits -- The exact mechanism by which renegade credits are allocated appears to be more of a compromise between PM and RJR than we had indicated in our note last week.

Credits would be allocated to those who actually lose share, but only to a certain threshold.

Once that threshold is crossed, the credits get divided based on market share.

Marketing restrictions -- The industry would agree to ban billboards and transit signs, product placements in movies, branded merchandise, and all but one sponsorship per manufacturer.

Size limits would be imposed on outdoor signage at retail and on signage that faces out of retail locations (14 sq. feet). Cartoons would be banned in advertising, but not humans or animals.

Licensing fees -- The industry's goal is to get all of the states to pass licensing fees for manufacturers who do not sign onto this accord. We believe the vehicle used would be that each state would impose licensing fees for all manufacturers, but exempt manufacturers who sign the new accord. This, combined with the provision that smaller manufacturers (under 3% share) be a part of this agreement at no cost as long as they don't grow share, makes it difficult to see why smaller players wouldn't sign this deal. If a renegade joins, and holds share, he pays nothing. If a renegade doesn't join, and the state passes a licensing fee, the renegade will have to pay on all units sold, and not just those above last year's share.

State licensing incentives -- States that pass tobacco licensing laws, with credits for those who sign the accord, would be exempted from having to contribute to the renegade credit pool back to the industry if overall renegade share increases. The As more states adopt licensing provisions, the pressure grows for the remaining states to do the same -- or they will have to give back more of the payments. Example: If 30 states pass licensing provisions, the remaining 20 states would split the costs of the renegade credits. If 40 states pass licensing provisions,

10 states split the same costs of the renegade credits. If all 50 states pass licensing laws, there would be no renegade credit. There would also be no renegade credit if share merely shifted from one of the signatories to another signatory (i.e., Philip Morris takes share from RJR).

Liggett -- We believe that Liggett (1.4% share) could void his agreements with most of the 47 states involved in the new deal under most favored nations provisions in the old deals. This new deal, which allows Liggett to be covered at essentially no cost (for smaller players, any volume below last year's share is grandfathered in free), is better than Liggett's old deal, which compels Liggett to pay on average 27.5-30% of pretax profits to the 42 states with whom Liggett has settled.

2. Bye, bye Congress. Congress is now expected to adjourn on Monday. Given the ongoing impeachment inquiry, the House will be adjourned subject to the call of the Speaker, which means House members will likely return for impeachment hearings after the Election. The Senate is effectively gone until January, beginning Monday.

There are two tobacco issues that could become riders on the omnibus appropriations bill that will be passed by Congress to keep Washington running in the absence of a formal budget:

Provision that allows states to keep all their Medicaid winnings. Senators from three of the four states that have settled with the industry (Bilirakis from FL, Bailey from TX, Lott from MS) have proposed a rider to be attached to the omnibus appropriations bill (to keep the government running) that would preclude the federal government from taking any percentage of funds that states receive from tobacco settlements. Under federal statutes governing Medicaid (Title 19 of Social Security Act), the federal government is entitled to reclaim its Medicaid % contribution (on average, federal government pays 60% of each state's Medicaid bills, percentages vary from 50% - 80%) from states that get Medicaid reimbursement from third parties. We put high odds on this rider passing, given Lott's involvement. Clinton is unlikely to insist that the rider be struck. If passed, this will give a hostile state a further incentive to embrace the AG settlement, since they would get to keep their entire settlement amount, but have to give back the federal share if the state won a judgment at trial.

Provision that clarifies that federal government can sue the tobacco industry. Separately, anti-tobacco senators, egged on by plaintiff counsel Richard Scruggs, want to include a rider in this omnibus appropriations bill clarifying the federal government's authority to bring a direct action for Medicare recovery under statutes that govern Medicare (Title 18 of Social Security Act). Remember, Scruggs' plan was to get the federal government to bring a federal recovery claim, and then get the industry to settle with the federal government for $150 - $175 billion, with offsets for settlements or judgments for class actions, punitive damages, consolidations, and other exposures not covered by the AG settlement, but which were included in the original June 20 accord. Scruggs' incentive, of course, is probably higher fees for Scruggs. We put low odds on Richard Scruggs convincing Republicans to include a rider in this omnibus bill

clarifying that the federal government can sue the tobacco industry.

Must-have items:

- o a formula that is targeted
- o the report card and accountability provisions
- o the changes to the Purpose

Non-Starter Items that must be deleted because they drain resources from class size funding:

- o in the 4th bullet under Uses of Funds, delete “costs associated with teaching children identified with special needs”
- o any use of funds for instructional materials

Can Trade Away:

- o in Special Priorities -- delete language we added on “teacher of limited-English proficient students, teachers in subjectare with a shortage of qualified teachers, and teachers in large class sizes.”

Fall-Back Positions:

Funding formula -- If the Republicans reject using the Title I formula for State and within State distribution, propose using the Title VI formula for distribution to States, and Title I for sub-state distribution. This will focus funds within States on higher poverty areas.

Local Control -- If you cannot delete “Local Control”, then get it modified:

- A) so that it bases LEA determination on “has met its goals for reducing class size in regular classrooms and raising student achievement”; or
- B) to base the determination on achievement of an average class size of 18.

Maintenance of Effort -- If our proposed MOE language is not acceptable, we will propose alternative MOE language.

SUBJECT: Class Size Proposal

Our proposal makes modifications to the Republican proposal that we received last night. We just learned that Obey's staff does not believe that we should be working in the framework of the Republican proposal, and believes instead that we should modify our own proposal to address some of their concerns. We will now start working on modifying our bill to address Republican concerns.

Must-have items:

- o a formula that is targeted, preferably using Title I (as was in the original Republican offer) but see fall-back position below. The formula will be very sensitive; we should vet our Fallback before offering it.
- o the report card and accountability provisions
- o the changes to the Purpose
- o maintenance of effort

Non-Starter Items that must be deleted because they drain resources from class size funding:

- o local control provision, but see fall-back position below.
- o in the 4th bullet under Uses of Funds, delete "costs associated with teaching children identified with special needs"
- o any use of funds for instructional materials

Can Trade Away:

- o in Special Priorities -- delete language we added on "teacher of limited-English proficient students, teachers in subject areas with a shortage of qualified teachers, and teachers in large class sizes."

Fall-Back Positions:

Funding formula -- If the Republicans reject using the Title I formula for State and within State distribution, propose using the Title VI formula for distribution to States, and Title I for sub-state distribution. This will focus funds within States on higher poverty areas. (Attached)

Local Control -- If you cannot delete "Local Control", then get it modified to base the determination on achievement of an average class size of 18. (Attached)

Maintenance of Effort -- If our language is not acceptable, we will do a new MOE.

PROPOSED MODIFICATIONS TO THE GORTON/GOODLING DRAFT PROPOSAL FOR LOCAL TEACHER QUALITY GRANTS -- 10/13 REVISED

NEW LANGUAGE IN ITALICS; DELETIONS WITHIN BOLD BRACKETS

Local Teacher Quality and Class Size Reduction Grants

Purpose

Amends Title VI of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act to create a new Part D. The purpose of this new part is to provide funds to local educational agencies to allow such agencies to hire high quality teachers, including special education teachers, [and] reduce class size in the early grades to a national goal of 18, and raise student achievement.

Use of Funds Part D

Local educational agencies shall use funds made available under this section to improve teacher quality, reduce the number of children in regular classes, and raise student achievement through [for] one or more of the following activities:

- Hiring new high quality teachers who have successfully completed an academic major in the subject area in which they plan to teach and possess strong teaching skills;
- Hiring new high quality certified teachers, including through State and local alternative teacher certification procedures, in order to reduce class size in the early grades;
- Reducing class size by increasing the ratio of regular classroom teachers to students;
- Providing professional development to teachers to teach special needs children [and to reduce the costs associated with teaching children identified as special education students];
- [COMBINE THE TWO PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT PROVISIONS AS FOLLOWS] Providing professional development to teachers consistent with Title II of the Higher Education Act Amendments of 1998; or, Providing for [teacher] Testing new teachers using State competency exams based on the subject areas taught by the teacher, or content deemed appropriate by the State for elementary school teachers; except that the total spent on these forms of professional development may not exceed 10% of the funds provided under Part D.
- [• Providing for the acquisition and use of instructional and educational materials to assist classroom teachers to improve students achievement;]

Funding Limitation

Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion

- None of these funds shall be used to increase the salaries or provide additional benefits to currently employed teachers.
- No local education agency may use more than 3 percent of its allocation for local administrative costs.

Special Priorities

- In hiring new quality teachers under this section, local educational agencies may give priority to hiring new special education teachers, teachers of Limited-English proficient students, teachers in subject areas with a shortage of qualified teachers, and teachers in schools with large class sizes.

Funding Formula

- Over and above the money currently allocated to Title VI activities, an additional $1.1 billion will be dispersed pursuant to this part to States in accord with the Title I formula.
- For purposes of this part, the State educational agency shall distribute 100 percent of these funds directly to local educational agencies based upon the formula in the title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act adjusted for the hold-harmless provision. [under this section (this is the current Title VI formula which is distributed based on student enrollment in public and private nonprofit schools within the local education agency based on the following criteria:

Children living in areas with high concentrations of low income families;
Children from low income families; and Children living in sparsely populated areas.))]

Application Process

There will be no new application required. Instead, Local Education Agencies will submit to the State, in its application for funds under Title VI, a description of how they will meet the requirements of this part. The State shall be responsible for ensuring compliance by the local education agencies.

Annual Public Report Card

- At the end of each school year in which a school receives funds under this program, the local educational agency shall issue a report card on that school to parents and the general public. The report card shall provide clear, and easily understandable information on (1) class size reduction goals in grades 1-3 and other grade levels determined by the LEA, (2) actual class sizes that year (3) teacher certification, licensure and related academic qualifications for teachers, (4) student achievement levels in reading in grades 1-3, and in other grade levels and subject areas determined by the local education agency.

- Based on the public report card the state may require a local educational agency to take appropriate corrective actions as a condition for continued receipt of funds.

[Local Control

If the local education agency decides by an affirmative approval of the local school board, that they do not need funds under this part for the purposes of hiring quality teachers and reducing class size, then the local educational agency can spend these funds on activities under section 6301.]

Maintenance of Effort

A local educational agency may receive grant funds under Part D only if it has on file with the SEA an assurance that the LEA will spend at least as much, from non-Federal resources, as the LEA spent in the previous year for the combination of:

- a) teachers in regular classrooms in grades 1 through 3 in schools receiving assistance under Part D;*
- b) teachers in each other grade and subject area for which funds under Part D are expended; and*
- c) the other quality improvement activities eligible for support under Part D.*

The Secretary may waive or modify this requirement if he determines that doing so would be equitable due to exceptional or uncontrollable circumstances.

Alternative Text: Funding Formula

Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion

The additional $1.1 billion will be disbursed to the States in accord with the Title VI formula. The State Educational Agency shall distribute 100% of these funds directly to local educational agencies, based upon the formula in Title I of the ESEA, adjusted for the hold-harmless provision.

Alternative Text: Local Control

If the local educational agency determines by an affirmative approval of the local school board that it has achieved an average class size of 18 in grades 1-3 in regular classrooms and therefore does not need funds under this part for the purposes of reducing class size, then the local educational agency can spend these funds on activities under section 6301.
