PRESIDENT WILLIAM J. CLINTON
CLOSING REMARKS
AT THE WHITE HOUSE STRATEGY SESSION
ON CHILDREN, VIOLENCE AND RESPONSIBILITY
THE ROSE GARDEN
May 10, 1999

We have just concluded a very productive strategy session in the East Room here at the White House. I'm encouraged by the many good ideas I heard. . . by the many ways Americans are already working together to reduce youth violence. . . and by our resolve to redouble those efforts.

When I first called upon this group of Americans, representing all sectors of society, I had hoped for this sort of session. Earlier this morning, I said we wouldn't be asking who takes the blame, but who takes responsibility. And today, the answer these leaders have given is a powerful one: they've said, we're all in this together. We may not agree on every issue, but we do agree on this plain and simple truth: a civilized society keeps its children safe.

In the weeks and months ahead, as we launch our national campaign to prevent youth violence, we will build on this strong foundation. And we will draw upon the ideas and experiences shared at this morning's session. I know we will all think of the children who spoke today with such bravery and maturity. We'll remember the religious leaders, the educators and, especially, the parents struggling to give their children strong values -- struggling, at the same time, against a swelling tide of images and ideas, sweeping into their homes and threatening to submerge those values.

As our national campaign gets underway, we know that we can overcome the challenges we face by challenging ourselves to do better, to overcome old ways of thinking and of doing business. We have seen some of that resolve already, in the support that the gun manufacturers here today have given to our common-sense gun measures. And we have seen it in the efforts of networks like ABC and CBS, and private family foundations like Kaiser, and agencies like the FCC, to give parents tools like the V-Chip to protect children from violent programming.

We know there is more that each of us can and must do. At home and at school, in Hollywood and in the heartland, and here in Washington, we must challenge every parent, every teacher, and every leader to step up to our responsibility.

First, and most fundamentally, we must remember that the most important influence in a child's life is a parent. I challenge parents to turn off the television when they don't like what they see, keep an eye on the computer screen, and refuse to buy products that glorify violence. If no one consumes these products, no one will produce them. Simply put, they won't build it if you won't come.

To the media and entertainment industries, I say this: enlist wholeheartedly in our cause, in our national campaign. You have enormous power -- not just to entertain our children, but to educate them. I challenge you to embrace that responsibility. Ask yourselves whether it is really necessary to assault the eyes and ears of youth with what degrades and destroys. Consider the consequences of what you produce. And let me say this to anyone who makes a violent movie, CD, or video game: if you make it, at least don't market it to children.

Finally, I urge the Congress: Step up to your responsibility. I have introduced legislation to keep guns out of the hands of both criminals and children. As this group of gun manufacturers and sportsmen has made clear, these are common-sense measures. So I challenge Congress: pass these gun proposals now. Give America's children the safe childhoods they deserve.

If Americans meet these challenges, coming together from all walks of life to seek and share solutions, then we can truly put an end to the culture of violence -- and build in its place a culture of values we would all be proud to pass along to our children. Thank you.

PRESIDENT WILLIAM J. CLINTON
OPENING REMARKS
AT THE WHITE HOUSE STRATEGY SESSION
ON CHILDREN, VIOLENCE AND RESPONSIBILITY
THE EAST ROOM
May 10, 1999

I want to welcome everyone here to the White House, and to thank you for coming to our Strategy Session on Children, Violence, and Responsibility. This is a diverse and impressive group: parents and children, teachers and religious leaders, law enforcement and government officials, gun manufacturers and sportsmen, and representatives of the entertainment industry. The Vice President, Tipper, Hillary and I wanted to bring together so many sectors of society for a simple reason: because America's children deserve safe childhoods.

On Friday, I announced that we would launch a national campaign to prevent youth violence -- a grass-roots effort to involve all Americans, from every community and all walks of life, in protecting our children from violence. I hope the ideas generated here will lay the groundwork for that campaign, and help us to find common ground and concrete solutions.

We're not here to debate who takes the blame, but to show who takes responsibility. I want to be sure that the government continues to do its part. In the weeks to come, I hope to work with Congress to pass legislation that makes our schools and streets safer, and keeps guns out of the wrong hands. Today, I am also directing the Surgeon General to conduct a ground-breaking study -- the first report in more than a decade on youth violence and its causes. This report will infuse our efforts with a new urgency and understanding.

Many of you are already stepping forward and stepping up to your responsibility. I am pleased, first of all, that the gun manufacturers represented here today have expressed support for several important gun measures we proposed here at the White House two weeks ago. Together, we have found common ground on some common-sense measures: banning violent juveniles from buying guns for life; raising the age for handgun ownership from 18 to 21; closing the gun show loophole so criminals can't buy guns; holding reckless parents responsible for giving children access to guns; and reducing illegal gun trafficking by helping law enforcement trace weapons used in crimes. I commend the gun manufacturers here today for taking responsibility.

Others have agreed to do their part. A few years ago, through the Vice President's leadership, we were able to put in place a voluntary ratings system for television. Les Moonves, the head of CBS, and Bob Iger, the head of ABC, have led the way by putting their networks behind this effort; and they are here today. This year, half the new TV sets sold in America will contain the V-Chip, which parents can use to protect their children from violent programming.

Today, the FCC is announcing a V-Chip Task Force to make sure that next year, every new set contains the V-Chip; and the Kaiser Family Foundation is announcing a massive new public education campaign to make sure parents know about it and how to use it. Also, following this meeting, Kaiser and the Ad Council will produce a campaign of anti-violent ads called "Talking with Kids About Tough Issues."

I am encouraged by all these efforts; and I hope everyone here will talk about the ways we can, together, live up to our responsibility to create a safe future for our children. I'm looking forward to hearing your ideas. I'm especially interested to hear what these young people have to say.

May 10, 1999

The Honorable C.W. Bill Young
Chairman
Committee on Appropriations
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman:

As you prepare for conference, the purpose of this letter is to provide the Administration's views on H.R. 1141, the FY 1999 Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act, as passed by the House and by the Senate and on H.R. 1664, the FY 1999 Kosovo and Southwest Asia Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act, as passed by the House. This letter supplements the views provided in the Administration's letter to the conferees of April 26th regarding H.R. 1141 and our May 6th Statement of Administration Policy on H.R. 1664.

As indicated in these earlier letters, there are a number of very troubling issues in this conference and the President's Senior Advisors would continue to recommend that he veto this legislation unless the objectionable provisions are resolved in a satisfactory manner. As the conferees develop a final version of this important legislation, your consideration of the Administration's views would be appreciated.

During February, the President submitted several requests to Congress for emergency assistance and other critical programs. The Central American emergency relief package remains urgent and should be approved without offsets. Every day we delay means another day the people of Central America lose hope in their ability to rebuild their homes, earn their livelihood, and achieve a prosperous future in their homeland. Also of critical importance is our request for emergency agricultural relief to our farmers, which also should be approved without offsets. In addition, the FY 1999 supplemental request for $100 million in assistance for Jordan is critical to stabilizing the Jordanian economy, ensuring a smooth transition of leadership and promoting the goal of peace in the Middle East that we all share. The Administration has consistently urged the Congress to avoid confrontation by acting quickly to enact these requests without extraneous riders and spending.

On April 19th, the President requested $6.05 billion for the Department of Defense, the Department of State, and other international programs to provide the funds necessary to cover the costs of the military and humanitarian operations related to the crisis in Kosovo. Also included were funding requests to cover costs associated with ongoing, enhanced operations in Southwest Asia. The Administration's package: protects the military readiness of those forces in the Balkan theater and all other U.S. forces; ensures that our military has the full measure of resources necessary to carry out the Kosovo air campaign; and, funds the U.S. commitment to provide humanitarian relief now and respond to potential future refugee assistance needs.

While the House Republican leadership chose to fund the Kosovo supplemental bill as an emergency, regrettably, the House-passed bill, which totals over $13 billion, goes well beyond the funding requirements of the mission in Kosovo and the need to maintain current readiness. It includes funding of over $1 billion for military construction projects, most of which may not begin construction for several years and many of which are not even included in the Department's long-range plan. The bill includes significant increases for operation and maintenance programs that have been budgeted for in the FY 2000 Budget and that should be considered during the FY 2000 appropriations process, not in an emergency supplemental bill. With regard to Kosovo funding, we continue to believe that the Administration's request is the appropriate level of funding, and we continue to urge the conferees to reduce the level contained in the House-passed bill.

With regard to H.R. 1141, regrettably, the House and Senate Republican leadership chose to insist on offsets for the humanitarian relief for the victims of Hurricane Mitch in Central America and for the agricultural relief for America's farmers. On what basis this decision was made is not clear. The emergency requests made by the President were based on the same authority used by President Bush for Desert Shield/Storm and for the victims of Hurricane Andrew and by President Clinton for the victims of the Northridge Earthquake, the Midwest Floods and agricultural relief provided to our farmers.

In addition, the Senate chose to include a number of strongly objectionable and extraneous riders related to the environment, tobacco and the rights of Native America Indians. An emergency spending bill should not be used to enact objectionable environmental riders such as the provisions contained in this bill that reopen a balanced agreement on protecting the natural resources and wilderness values for the Glacier Bay National Park, a provision delaying the oil valuation rule and a provision delaying hard rock mining regulations. Nor should such a bill be used to enact a provision that would allow States to keep $246 billion in tobacco settlement funds without any commitment to use these funds to stop youth smoking or for other public health initiatives. Similarly, this bill should not be used to direct the Department of Interior not to approve any new, non-State, approved Indian gaming compacts or to overturn the Department's plan for reorganizing the Office of Special Trustee for American Indians. The attached position statements detail these concerns.

Despite months of allied diplomatic efforts to achieve a balanced peace plan in the Balkans, the government of Slobodan Milosevic defied the international community and pursued a course of repression and terror against the people of Kosovo. We determined that we could not allow these actions to go unchallenged. Now, we have a responsibility to our country and to the men and women serving our country in the Balkans and to address the humanitarian crisis provoked by the Milosevic government. Now is not the time to slow progress on our emergency supplemental request by adding funding unrelated to the mission or to maintaining current readiness or by adding extraneous provisions. We strongly support efforts to reduce the amount of unrequested, non-emergency defense funding and the elimination of objectionable offsets and riders.

We ask the Congress to act quickly upon these requests and send a clear message to Milosevic – his actions will not be tolerated and we are prepared to back our words with action. We must also move forward now to provide agricultural assistance to our farmers and to reach out with a helping hand to the victims of Hurricane Mitch.

Let us work together.

Sincerely,

Jacob J. Lew
Director

The Honorable C.W. Bill Young
Chairman
Committee on Appropriations
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman:

As you prepare for conference, the purpose of this letter is to provide the Administration's views on H.R. 1141, the FY 1999 Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act, as passed by the House and by the Senate and on H.R. 1664, the FY 1999 Kosovo and Southwest Asia Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act, as passed by the House. This letter supplements the views provided in the Administration's letter to the conferees of April 26th regarding H.R. 1141 and our May 6th Statement of Administration Policy on H.R. 1664.

As indicated in these earlier letters, there are a number of very troubling issues in this conference and the President's Senior Advisors would continue to recommend that he veto this legislation unless the objectionable provisions are resolved in a satisfactory manner. As the conferees develop a final version of this important legislation, your consideration of the Administration's views would be appreciated.

During February, the President submitted several requests to Congress for emergency assistance and other critical programs. The Central American emergency relief package remains urgent and should be approved without offsets. Every day we delay means another day the people of Central America lose hope in their ability to rebuild their homes, earn their livelihood, and achieve a prosperous future in their homeland. Also of critical importance is our request for emergency agricultural relief to our farmers, which also should be approved without offsets. In addition, the FY 1999 supplemental request for $100 million in assistance for Jordan is critical to stabilizing the Jordanian economy, ensuring a smooth transition of leadership and promoting the goal of peace in the Middle East that we all share. The Administration has consistently urged the Congress to avoid confrontation by acting quickly to enact these requests without extraneous riders and spending.

On April 19th, the President requested $6.05 billion for the Department of Defense, the Department of State, and other international programs to provide the funds necessary to cover the costs of the military and humanitarian operations related to the crisis in Kosovo. Also included were funding requests to cover costs associated with ongoing, enhanced operations in Southwest Asia. The Administration's package: protects the military readiness of those forces in the Balkan theater and all other U.S. forces; ensures that our military has the full measure of resources necessary to carry out the Kosovo air campaign; and, funds the U.S. commitment to provide humanitarian relief now and respond to potential future refugee assistance needs.

While the House Republican leadership chose to fund the Kosovo supplemental bill as an emergency, regrettably, the House-passed bill, which totals over $13 billion, goes well beyond the funding requirements of the mission in Kosovo and the need to maintain current readiness. It includes funding of over $1 billion for military construction projects, most of which may not begin construction for several years and many of which are not even included in the Department's long-range plan. The bill includes significant increases for operation and maintenance programs that have been budgeted for in the FY 2000 Budget and that should be considered during the FY 2000 appropriations process, not in an emergency supplemental bill. With regard to Kosovo funding, we continue to believe that the Administration's request is the appropriate level of funding, and we continue to urge the conferees to reduce the level contained in the House-passed bill.

With regard to H.R. 1141, regrettably, the House and Senate Republican leadership chose to insist on offsets for the humanitarian relief for the victims of Hurricane Mitch in Central America and for the agricultural relief for America's farmers. On what basis this decision was made is not clear. The emergency requests made by the President were based on the same authority used by President Bush for Desert Shield/Storm and for the victims of Hurricane Andrew and by President Clinton for the victims of the Northridge Earthquake, the Midwest Floods and agricultural relief provided to our farmers.

In addition, the Senate chose to include a number of strongly objectionable and extraneous riders related to the environment, tobacco and the rights of Native America Indians. An emergency spending bill should not be used to enact objectionable environmental riders such as the provisions contained in this bill that reopen a balanced agreement on protecting the natural resources and wilderness values for the Glacier Bay National Park, a provision delaying the oil valuation rule and a provision delaying hard rock mining regulations. Nor should such a bill be used to enact a provision that would allow States to keep $246 billion in tobacco settlement funds without any commitment to use these funds to stop youth smoking or for other public health initiatives. Similarly, this bill should not be used to direct the Department of Interior not to approve any new, non-State, approved Indian gaming compacts or to overturn the Department's plan for reorganizing the Office of Special Trustee for American Indians. The attached position statements detail these concerns.

Despite months of allied diplomatic efforts to achieve a balanced peace plan in the Balkans, the government of Slobodan Milosevic defied the international community and pursued a course of repression and terror against the people of Kosovo. We determined that we could not allow these actions to go unchallenged. Now, we have a responsibility to our country and to the men and women serving our country in the Balkans and to address the humanitarian crisis provoked by the Milosevic government. Now is not the time to slow progress on our emergency supplemental request by adding funding unrelated to the mission or to maintaining current readiness or by adding extraneous provisions. We strongly support efforts to reduce the amount of unrequested, non-emergency defense funding and the elimination of objectionable offsets and riders.

We ask the Congress to act quickly upon these requests and send a clear message to Milosevic – his actions will not be tolerated and we are prepared to back our words with action. We must also move forward now to provide agricultural assistance to our farmers and to reach out with a helping hand to the victims of Hurricane Mitch.

Let us work together.

Sincerely,

Jacob J. Lew

NACARA reg - I have reviewed the reg and I believe that it will be well received but some groups may still argue that the regulation does not go far enough to provide parity.

The INS Commissioner will announce the reg the afternoon of 5/20 with briefings in the morning - Hill, groups, and press.

Parity Legislation - DOJ has accepted the State Dept.'s rationale and will draft legislation that is broad (cover all Central Americans, Haitians and Eastern Europeans in the US as of 1995). Given the shorten time frame, we (Scott, Caroline and I) do not think it is necessary to send up legislation on the same day as the reg is announced but shortly thereafter. However, if asked about the legislation we will indicate that the President will submit legislation to address the inequities that remain soon.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Thanks.

The 21st Century Law Enforcement and Public Safety Act
May 12, 1999

Today, President Clinton will announce that the Administration will reach its goal of helping communities fund the hiring and redeployment of 100,000 more police officers. Additionally, he will propose new legislation -- The 21st Century Law Enforcement and Public Safety Act -- that builds on the successful 1994 Crime Act, which has helped to drive down crime rates for more than six years in a row. This new legislation will renew the Justice Department's Community Oriented Policing Services program (COPS), and include new provisions to reduce juvenile and drug crime, protect all crime victims, and combat international crime and terrorism.

- Helping fund 100,000 more police. President Clinton will announce the availability of more than $95 million for 526 communities to hire approximately 1,500 new police officers. With these new grants, the COPS office will have provided ___ cities with $___ billion to help hire and redeploy more than 100,000 police officers across the country -- fulfilling the President's 1992 pledge.
- Building on what works. The President will also propose new legislation -- The 21st Law Enforcement and Public Safety Act -- that builds on the successful programs enacted as part of the 1994 Crime Act. The President's new legislation will:
 - (1) Keep our commitment to law enforcement by renewing the COPS program and providing funds to hire and redeploy between 30,000 and 50,000 more police, giving police the high-tech tools they need to do their job, and hiring more local prosecutors to target local crime problems.
 - (2) Punish and prevent youth crime and violence by giving prosecutors new tools to punish the most violent juveniles and curb gang witness intimidation; promoting swift and certain punishments for all juvenile offenders; and working to prevent at-risk youth from committing serious crimes in the first place.
 - (3) Break the cycle of drugs and crime by expanding drug courts and helping states and localities implement "zero tolerance" drug supervision programs that drug test, treat, and punish all drug offenders; and by enacting tough new money laundering provisions that help staunch the flow of illegal drug profits.
 - (4) Protect all crime victims by enhancing penalties for child abusers who kill and adults who commit violent crimes in the presence of a child; providing new authorities for federal law enforcement to protect older Americans from illegal telemarketing, nursing home neglect and abuse, retirement rip-offs, and health care fraud; and by keeping up the fight against domestic violence.
 - (5) Combat international crime and terrorism by prohibiting certain possession and unsafe handling of biological agents and toxins, and making it more difficult for them to fall into the hands of terrorists.

KEEPING OUR COMMITMENT TO LAW ENFORCEMENT

- Renewing the COPS program. The President's 21st Century Law Enforcement and Public Safety Act extends the COPS program and proposes spending $1.3 billion annually to help communities continue to hire, redeploy, and retain police officers. It will also give law enforcement officers access to the latest crime-fighting technologies, and target funds to engage the entire community in the fight against crime. Specifically, the bill will provide:
 - $600 million for more police on the street. These funds would be used primarily to hire and redeploy between 30,000 and 50,000 more law enforcement officers over five years, with an effort to target new police officers to crime "hot spots." A portion of the funds would also be used to help economically-distressed communities absorb the long-term costs of their new police hires, and for programs to train, educate, and recruit police officers -- including efforts to train police officers in ethics and integrity, and to promote minority recruitment.
 - $350 million for crime-fighting technologies. These funds would be used to help state and local enforcement agencies tap into new technologies that will allow them to communicate more effectively, solve more crimes, and conduct comprehensive crime analysis. For instance, these funds could be used to: utilize computers and wireless communications to send data and images seamlessly from a police department in one jurisdiction to a patrol car in the next; improve the state of the nation's overburdened and underfunded crime labs, and to make high-end technologies -- such as DNA analysis -- more widely available; and expand the use of crime mapping and other technologies that improve law enforcement's ability to analyze, predict and respond to local crime trends and problems.
 - $200 million for community prosecutors and neighborhood district attorneys. As police and community residents have joined forces to fight crime on a proactive basis, communities also have turned to local prosecutors to play a more active role in community crime-fighting efforts. These funds will help communities hire more prosecutors to target neighborhood crime problems.
 - $150 million for community-wide crime prevention. The President's new legislation specifically provides funds to engage the entire community in preventing and fighting crime. These funds could be used to: work with local school officials in adopting community-wide plans to prevent school violence; involve faith-based organizations in juvenile crime prevention efforts; and establish citizens' police academies that teach neighborhood residents problem-solving skills.
- Supporting Law Enforcement. The President's new crime legislation will also make it a federal crime for criminals to use a bullet-proof vest during the commission of a crime, extend federal grants to help police departments purchase bullet-proof vests for their police officers, and allow a portion of COPS funds to be used to help current police officers pay for a college education or graduate school.

PUNISHING AND PREVENTING YOUTH CRIME AND VIOLENCE

- Cracking down on gangs and violent youth. The 21st Century Law Enforcement and Public Safety Act incorporates key provisions of the Anti-Gang and Youth Violence Strategy announced by the President in 1997. It provides new tools to help federal prosecutors go after gang criminals and serious, violent youth. Specifically, the bill will:
 - Give prosecutors the discretion to decide whether to try the most serious violent juveniles as adults, allowing them to target older and more serious offenders that may not be adequately punished in the juvenile justice system;
 - Expand law enforcement access to juvenile records, requiring that juvenile records involving gun offenses or other adult-type felonies be sent to the FBI and made available to all law enforcement in the same manner as adult records;
 - Make it easier to prosecute gang members who attempt to intimidate or retaliate against witnesses; and
 - Authorize judges to hold gang members without bail pending trial if there is probable cause to believe they have been involved in criminal activity.
- Provide certain punishment for juvenile offenders. The President's legislation also authorizes new funds for states and localities to ensure swift and certain punishment whenever juvenile offenders violate the law -- sending the message that there are clear and certain consequences for breaking the rules. These grants could be used to fund:
 - Graduated sanctions that hold youthful offenders accountable for every offense, and that escalate in intensity for repeat offenses;
 - Teen courts, or peer juries to promote zero tolerance policies for misdemeanor offenses such as truancy, vandalism, underage alcohol and tobacco use; and
 - Restitution or victim mediation, which require young offenders and their family members to meet face-to-face with the victims of their crimes and agree upon appropriate reparations -- including restitution or community service.
- Prevent serious juvenile crime in the first place. The President's bill authorizes a $95 million for comprehensive, community-based prevention programs that target at-risk youth. These funds could be used to promote mentoring, gang intervention, truancy reduction, and other such programs.

BREAKING THE CYCLE OF DRUGS AND CRIME

- Enforcing “zero tolerance” drug supervision. In 1997, more than three-quarters of the nation’s prisoners reported past drug use, and one in six committed their crimes so they could purchase drugs. The 21st Century Law Enforcement and Public Safety Act addresses this problem by establishing a new $100 million initiative to help states and localities systematically test, treat, and sanction drug-involved probationers, prisoners, and parolees. His bill also reauthorizes the successful drug court initiative established in the 1994 Crime Act, and extends funding to provide intensive, long-term drug treatment to state prisoners with serious drug problems.
- Enhancing drug penalties and enforcement. The President’s bill contains targeted drug penalty increases, for using kids to sell drugs and selling drugs on or near school property. It increases penalties for amphetamine trafficking, which is used to manufacture methamphetamine, and grants the Attorney General emergency authority to temporarily reschedule certain controlled substances, such as _____.
- Helping states fight drugs and crime. The President’s bill extends funding for the Violent Offender Incarceration/Truth-in-Sentencing (VOI/TIS) prison grant program, and gives states the added flexibility to free up additional prison beds by using up to 25 percent of already appropriated funds to implement graduated sanctions programs for non-violent offenders. Graduated sanction programs hold offenders accountable for every offense they commit and escalate in intensity with repeat offenses. The bill also reauthorizes the Byrne block grant program, which funds statewide anti-drug plans and multi-jurisdictional drug enforcement task forces.
- Cracking down on drug money laundering. Our money laundering laws have not been updated since they were first enacted in 1986. Since that time, money laundering has become a global problem -- involving international financial institutions and the smuggling of currency across borders. To take on international money laundering and drug crime, the President’s bill will:
 - Help stop the flow of cash drug proceeds by making it a federal crime to smuggle “bulk cash” (more than $10,000 in currency) out of the United States, and by cracking down on money transmitters who knowingly accept criminal proceeds from abroad or who fail to report large cash transactions;
 - Hold foreign banks that violate our laws accountable by allowing federal courts to exercise jurisdiction over them;
 - Thwart black market transactions by requiring persons who use drug proceeds to prove they didn’t know the money came from unlawful activity; and
 - Seize more illegal drug profits by doing more to confiscate the assets of criminals and encouraging more cooperation from foreign governments.

PROTECTING ALL CRIME VICTIMS

- Establishing a new safety net for seniors. Although falling violent and property crime rates mean our nation's seniors are safer, they are equally threatened today by telemarketing scams, retirement rip-offs, and abuse and neglect at the hands of the very people entrusted to care for them. To help protect seniors from these crimes and punish the criminals who prey on elderly Americans, the President's bill will:
 - Shut down fraudulent telemarketers by granting the Attorney General new authority to block and terminate telephone service to illegal telemarketers;
 - Protect nursing home residents from abuse and neglect by giving federal prosecutors new tools to halt and punish nursing home operators who repeatedly abuse and neglect the residents in their care;
 - Fight health care fraud and abuse by making it easier for the Justice Department to prosecute and punish illegal kickback schemes -- and harder for criminals to stick Medicare with the bills by declaring bankruptcy;
 - Safeguard retirement and pension plans by making it a federal crime to defraud employee pension benefit or retirement funds and increasing penalties for retirement plan managers who take bribes.
- Protecting children exposed to violence. Each year millions of adolescents are victims of violent crime and millions more witness or experience serious violence or abuse -- many of whom go on to commit violent crimes themselves. The President's bill will make it easier for federal prosecutors to charge child abusers who kill with felony murder, and provide tougher penalties for adults who commit violent crimes in front of children.
- Continuing the fight against domestic violence. The historic Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) helped to strengthen law enforcement's response to violent crime committed against women. It helped promote comprehensive law enforcement strategies, encouraged pro-arrest polices for domestic violence crimes, and provided emergency shelter to women and children fleeing abusive situations. The President's bill extends these successful program and also:
 - Targets the illegal trafficking of women and children by giving federal prosecutors new tools to bring trafficking cases, and increasing penalties for persons who transport women and children to the United States and coerce them to work in sweatshops and other forced labor.
 - Protects battered immigrant women and children by enabling them to file their own petitions for lawful status, without having to rely on abusive spouses.

COMBATING TERRORISM AND INTERNATIONAL CRIME

- Keeping biological weapons out of the hands of terrorists. Biological weapons pose a serious threat to the United States, particularly in the hands of terrorists or disaffected groups. The President's bill will help keep dangerous biological agents and toxins out of the wrong hands by:
 - Barring unauthorized possession and transfer of harmful biological agents;
 - Holding accountable persons who knowingly disregard public health and safety when handling deadly toxins;
 - Making it a crime to perpetrate a hoax involving biological agents; and
 - Prohibiting violent felons and fugitives from possessing dangerous biologicals agents.
- Implementing the President's International Crime Control Strategy. The President's bill includes key provisions from The International Crime Control Act he introduce last year, including measures to:
 - Create a new federal criminal penalty for port-running, an evasion tactic employed by contraband smugglers to pass through ports without stopping -- putting law enforcement and civilians at great risk;
 - Strengthen our ability to intercept drug smuggling vessels by making it a criminal offense for failing to "heave to" a vessel at the direction of a Coast Guard or other federal law enforcement official seeking to board that vessel;
 - Protect Americans abroad by strengthening our authority to investigate and prosecute organized crime groups who commit crimes against Americans abroad;
 - Respond to emerging international crime problems by enhancing enforcement tools to combat international arms trafficking, and requiring additional "end-use" verification of certain precursor chemicals used to manufacture illegal drugs; and
 - Deny safe haven for international fugitives by excluding drug traffickers, their immediate family members, and others who attempt to enter the United States to avoid prosecution in another country.

BACKGROUND ON THE CLINTON-GORE ADMINISTRATION'S COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT AGENDA

TODAY'S ANNOUNCEMENT BUILDS ON PRESIDENT CLINTON'S AND VICE PRESIDENT GORE'S SIX-YEAR RECORD OF PROMOTING GROWTH AND OPPORTUNITY IN AMERICA'S COMMUNITIES

Since 1993, President Clinton and Vice President Gore have been committed to tapping the potential of America's urban and rural communities. They have a demonstrated record of creating new initiatives and expanding existing initiatives to promote community and economic development. The Clinton-Gore Administration has worked with the private sector, states, and localities to help revitalize America's communities by bringing capital, jobs, and opportunity to distressed areas and cleaning up the urban environment. President Clinton and Vice President Gore have created or expanded the following initiatives over the last six years:

Helping to Bring Private Enterprise and Capital to Distressed Areas. The Clinton-Gore Administration has renewed the commitment of the Federal government to help bring private enterprise into underserved communities and improve access to capital for low-income households, minorities, and traditionally underserved borrowers.

- 125 Empowerment Zones and Enterprise Communities. The Clinton Administration has announced 105 EZs and ECs across the country. This effort was proposed by President Clinton and passed by Congress in 1993. The EZ/EC effort has generated more than $2 billion of new private sector investment in community development activities. The President has also signed into law a second round of EZs -- 15 new urban and 5 new rural zones -- which will include tax incentives, small business expensing, and private activity bonds. In FY 1999, President Clinton and Congress provided first-year funding of $55 million for the new EZs, and $5 million in first-year funding for 20 new rural Enterprise Communities announced in January.
- Strengthened and Simplified the Community Reinvestment Act (CRA). In April 1995, the Clinton Administration reformed the CRA regulations to emphasize performance. According to the National Community Reinvestment Coalition (NCRC), the private sector has pledged more than $1 trillion going forward in loans to distressed communities -- and more than 95 percent of these financial commitments have been made since 1992. Banks made $18.6 billion in community development loans in 1997 alone. Lending to minority and low-income borrowers is also on the rise.
- Created the Community Development Financial Institutions Fund (CDFI). Proposed and signed into law by the President in 1994, the CDFI Fund, through grants, loans, and equity investments, is helping to create a network of community development financial institutions in distressed areas across the United States. The CDFI fund was established in 1994. In FY99, funding was increased 19 percent to $95 million from $80 million.
- The Economic Development Initiative and Section 108 Loan Guarantee. EDI grants are used to infuse capital into community development projects, enhancing the debt financing provided by the Section 108 loan guarantee program. Together, the programs support critical economic development in distressed communities. Estimated jobs supported by EDI and the Section 108 loan guarantee have grown by 300,000 from 1994 to 1998. During this time period EDI and the Section 108 loan guarantee program have funded $3.5 billion for more than 650 separate project commitments.

Helping to Bring Jobs and Opportunity to Distressed Areas. A cornerstone of the Administration's community empowerment agenda is helping to bring jobs and opportunity back to distressed areas:

- $3 Billion Welfare-to-Work Jobs Initiative. The Clinton Administration fought for a $3 billion welfare-to-work jobs initiative, as part of the Balanced Budget Agreement. The Administration is implementing these welfare-to-work grants directly to both cities and states for allocating additional resources to help long-term, hard-to-serve welfare recipients find and keep jobs.
- Welfare-to-Work Tax Credit and Work Opportunity Tax Credit. The Welfare-to-Work Tax Credit, enacted in the 1997 Balanced Budget Agreement, provides a credit equal to 35 percent of the first $10,000 in wages in the first year of employment, and 50 percent of the first $10,000 in wages in the second year, to encourage the hiring and retention of long-term welfare recipients. This credit complements the Work Opportunity Tax Credit (WOTC), which expands eligible businesses to include those who hire young adults living in Empowerment Zones and Enterprise Communities. In FY 1999, the President requested and Congress accepted extending the credit through June 30, 1999.
- Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Expansion. President Clinton's FY 2000 budget included an expansion of CDBG. The final budget increases funding for CDBG from $4.750 billion in FY 1999 to $4.775 billion in FY 2000, a $25 million expansion this year.

Cleaning Up the Urban Environment. The Clinton Administration has launched a landmark effort, including the Brownfields Tax Incentive, to clean up and redevelop Brownfields sites. In total, the Brownfields action agenda has marshaled funds to clean up and redevelop up to 5,000 properties, leveraging between $5 billion and $28 billion in private investment and creating and supporting 196,000 jobs.

PRESIDENT CLINTON AND VICE PRESIDENT GORE ARE BUILDING ON THEIR PAST ACHIEVEMENTS THROUGH A NUMBER OF NEW INITIATIVES THIS YEAR.

While Americans are enjoying the fruits of our strong economy, we still need to do more to improve conditions in underserved urban and rural communities. To address this need, President Clinton and Vice President Gore are working on several fronts:

The New Markets Initiative. President Clinton's FY 2000 balanced budget provides a new initiative designed to create the conditions for economic success by prompting approximately $15 billion in new investment in urban and rural areas through:

- The New Markets Tax Credit. To help spur $6 billion in new equity capital, this tax credit is worth up to 25 percent for investments in a wide range of vehicles serving these communities, including community development banks, venture funds, and the new investment company programs created by this initiative (see below). A wide-range of businesses could be financed by these investment funds, including small technology firms, inner-city shopping centers, manufacturers with hundreds of employees, and retail stores.
- America's Private Investment Companies (APICs). Just as America's support for the Overseas Private Investment Corporation helps promote growth in emerging markets abroad, APICs will encourage private investment in this country's untapped markets, by leveraging up to $1.5 billion in investment in new development projects and larger businesses that are expanding or relocating in inner city and rural areas.

- SBIC's Targeted to New Markets. For over 40 years, SBA's Small Business Investment Company (SBIC) program has provided roughly $20 billion in equity and debt financing to more than 85,000 different companies, helping them to grow from small businesses to household names, like AOL and Staples. However, too little of the capital invested has benefited our cities and rural distressed communities. SBA now will be offering more flexibility and new financing terms for Small Business Investment Companies (SBICs) that invest in underserved areas.
- New Markets Venture Capital (NMVC) Firms. NMVC firms will make both capital and expert guidance available to small business entrepreneurs in inner-city and rural areas. Ten to twenty NMVC firms are planned. SBA will match the equity and technical assistance of private investors.
- New Markets Lending Companies (NMLC). For the first time in many years, SBA will approve approximately 10 new non-bank lenders --- firms authorized to originate loans under SBA's largest loan program -- the 7(a) General Business Loan Guaranty program. Under the 7(a) program, SBA guarantees up to 80% of a loan made by a lender to a creditworthy small businesses that cannot otherwise secure financing on reasonable terms. Firms must have a strategy to target lending to underserved areas.
- Microenterprise Lending and Technical Assistance. Microenterprise initiatives in the FY 2000 budget include the proposed PRIME Act, under which the CDFI Fund will provide microenterprise technical assistance through competitive grants to microenterprise development organizations that focus on low-income entrepreneurs. President Clinton's and Vice President Gore's proposal also includes a doubling of support for technical assistance in SBA's Microloan Program and a doubling of support for SBA lending to leverage over $75 million in new microlending. The microenterprise strategy will also involve new funding for Individual Development Accounts (IDAs) and for SBA's One-Stop Capital Shops.
- Regional Connections. Regional Connections will provide competitive funding to States and partnerships of local governments to develop and implement new, locally driven "smarter growth" strategies that create more livable communities by addressing economic and community development needs across jurisdictional lines. Regional Connections, as part of the Administrations' Livability Agenda, will complement existing federal programs that respond to growth and investment patterns. The budget proposes funding at $50 million in FY 2000.
- The Economic Development Initiative and Section 108 Loan Guarantee Program. This program supports critical economic development in distressed communities in conjunction with the Section 108 loan guarantee program to help bring economic development to residents. In FY 2000 many projects will be eligible to participate in the Community Empowerment Fund Trust, a pilot program, which will enable the pooling of loans and the creation of a private sector secondary market for economic development loans. The CEF specifically targets Welfare-to-Work and City-Suburb Business Connections, building upon the success of HUD's EDI and Section 108 loan guarantee program.
- Empowerment Zones and Enterprise Communities. The 2000 Budget proposes mandatory funding for ten years: $150 million a year for urban EZs and Strategic Planning Communities; $10 million a year for rural EZs; and $5 million a year for rural ECs.
- Community Development Financial Institutions (CDFI) Fund. The budget proposes to expand funding for the CDFI Fund to $125 million--a $30 million increase from 1999. The Fund increases the availability of credit, investment capital, financial services, and other development services in distressed communities.

- BusinessLINC. The President's FY 2000 budget includes seed money to expand Business LINC --- an innovative public-private partnership launched by Vice President Gore --- for new markets in economically distressed communities. BusinessLINC (Learning, Information, Networking and Collaboration) is designed to encourage large businesses to work with small business owners and entrepreneurs.
- Low-Income Housing Tax Credit. Since its creation in 1986, the Low-Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) has given states tax credits of $1.25 per capita to allocate to developers of affordable housing. While building costs have increased 40 percent in the last decade, the amount of the credit has not been adjusted for inflation. Therefore, President Clinton and Vice President Gore propose to increase the cap on the LIHTC from $1.25 per capita to $1.75 per capita -- restoring the value of the credit to its 1986 level and helping to create additional 150,000-180,000 new low-income rental housing units over the next five years.
- Play-by-the-Rules. This program will allow renters with solid payment track records to own a home. The 2000 Budget proposes a second round of $15 million for this initiative.
- Helping America's Communities Redevelop Abandoned Buildings. Redevelopment of Abandoned Buildings, as part of the Administrations' "Livability Agenda," would attack one of the primary causes of blight in urban neighborhoods: abandoned apartment buildings, single-family homes, warehouses, office buildings, and commercial centers. Under the proposal, HUD will provide $50 million in competitive grant funds in FY2000 to local governments to support the demolition or deconstruction of blighted, abandoned buildings.

PRESIDENT CLINTON'S CHALLENGE TO INVEST IN AMERICA'S NEW MARKETS

May 11, 1999

"We must do more to bring the spark of private enterprise to every corner of America -- to build a bridge from Wall Street to Appalachia to the Mississippi Delta, to our Native American communities... Our greatest untapped markets are not overseas -- they are right here at home."

-- President Clinton, State of the Union Address, 1999

JOINING WITH CORPORATE AMERICA TO MOBILIZE INVESTMENT IN UNTAPPED MARKETS. Today, President Clinton and Vice President Gore held a roundtable with 17 Chief Executive Officers from major American corporations and investment firms to discuss ways to best mobilize new private investment in America's most economically underserved communities --- America's new markets.

ANNOUNCING A PRESIDENTIAL TRIP THE WEEK OF JULY 5 TO UNDERSERVED URBAN AND RURAL AREAS ACROSS THE COUNTRY. President Clinton announced today that in July he will take a bipartisan delegation of CEOs and Members of Congress to untapped markets throughout America, touring economically distressed communities and highlighting new opportunities being created in these communities across the nation.

- The trip will be modeled after the type of trade missions that Cabinet Secretaries and CEOs often take overseas to identify markets, which – through trade and commercial agreements – can help to create jobs and expand economic development.
- As part of the trip, President Clinton will announce new commitments and innovative programs developed by companies, community leaders, non-profit organizations and investment firms around the country.

PROMOTING EFFORTS TO ATTRACT CAPITAL TO UNDERSERVED AREAS. As part of a bipartisan focus on underserved urban and rural areas, President Clinton is seeking ways to expand current efforts. President Clinton's New Markets Initiative will build upon these existing programs and help create the conditions for economically successful investment in underserved inner city and rural areas. Included among the elements of the plan are:

- The New Markets Tax Credit. To help spur $6 billion in equity capital for investment in America's new markets, President Clinton and Vice President Gore have proposed a tax credit worth 25 percent for investments in a wide range of vehicles. Eligible investment companies include community development banks, venture funds and corporations, and the new investment company programs created by this initiative.
- America's Private Investment Companies (APICs). Just as America's support for the Overseas Private Investment Corporation helps promote growth in emerging markets abroad, APIC will encourage private investment in this country's untapped markets. HUD and SBA will guarantee loans up to $200 million, creating investment funds as large as $300 million to invest in new development projects and larger businesses that are expanding or relocating in inner city and rural areas. Under the financing structure, the private investors' funds are at risk ahead of the government
- New Markets Venture Capital (NMVC) Firms. NMVC firms will make both capital and expert guidance available to small business entrepreneurs in inner-city and rural areas. Ten to twenty NMVC firms are planned. SBA will match the equity and technical assistance of private investors.

BUILDING ON SIX YEARS OF WORK TO EXPAND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT. The Clinton-Gore Administration has made community development a priority since taking office. The efforts announced today build on a number of critical initiatives that have helped to expand economic development to communities across the country that need it most. These efforts include the Community Reinvestment Act, Community Development Financial Institutions, Micro-Enterprise Programs, the Economic Development Initiative and Section 108 Loan Guarantee Program, the Empowerment Zones and Enterprise Communities, and the Brownfields Tax Incentive.

TEXT:

The President departs on Friday for the west coast --- on Thursday he will be giving a speech about Kosovo to Veterans, we are looking for a current subject matter for a departure statement on Friday. Similarly, Saturday is armed forces day -- the radio address could be about the troops -- although if we have another policy issue we are open to it. If there is anything to announce on Monday w/o an event -- the President will be Las Vegas Nevada on Monday.

Please let me know. thanks
