PREVENTING INSURANCE DISCRIMINATION BASED ON GENETIC INFORMATION

Today the President pledged his commitment to enacting bipartisan legislation in this Congress to prohibit health plans from inappropriately using genetic screening information to deny coverage, set premiums, or to distribute confidential information. In so doing, he released a new report from the Department of Health and Human Services that summarizes the promise and perils of genetic screening. He also announced that the Republican Chair of the Senate Labor and Human Resources Committee, Senator Jim Jeffords, and the Public Health and Safety Subcommittee Chair, Senator and Doctor Bill Frist, have indicated their support for passing a bipartisan bill that is consistent with the goals and general recommendations of the HHS report.

The Progress and Promise of Genetic Testing. Genetic testing has the potential to identify hidden genetic disorders and spur early treatment. Tests for genetic predisposition to certain diseases and conditions -- such as Huntington's disease and certain types of breast cancer -- are already available and more genetic tests are on the horizon.

Genetic Discrimination: The Perils of This Progress. But genetic testing also can be used by insurance companies and others to discriminate and stigmatize groups of people. Studies have shown that:

- Over one-fifth of people in families where someone has a genetic disorder report that they, or a member of their family, had been discriminated against by an insurance plan.
- 85 percent of Americans report that they are extremely concerned with the possibility that their genetic makeup will be used to discriminate against them or a member of their family.

Building on Kassebaum-Kennedy. Kassebaum-Kennedy took steps to prohibit genetic discrimination by preventing insurers from using genetic information as a "pre-existing condition" and denying or limiting coverage in group markets. However, Kassebaum-Kennedy falls short in three areas. It does not: (1) prevent health plans in the individual market from denying coverage on the basis of genetic information; (2) assure that premium settings are in no way based on genetic information both in the group and individual market; and (3) prevent health plans from disclosing genetic information to insurers, to plan sponsors, and other entities regulated by state insurance laws, such as life, disability, and long-term care insurers.

State laws are insufficient. Nineteen states have already enacted laws to restrict the use of genetic information in health insurance and many others have introduced legislation. However, state legislation is insufficient to solve this problem. First, private sector employer sponsored health plans, which cover half of all Americans, are exempt from state insurance laws due to ERISA preemption. Second, current state laws generally focus on genetic tests rather than a broader definition of genetic information such as family history, medical records, and physical exams. Finally, the variability among state bills will lead to a lack of uniformity across the nation as to whether and how genetic information may be used by health plans.

Building on the existing bipartisan commitment to the President's challenge. Several bills have been introduced in this Congress which prohibits health plans from requesting or using genetic information to deny health care coverage or raise premiums. The bipartisan legislation introduced by Rep. Louise Slaughter, H.R. 306, addresses the three major gaps left by the HIPAA legislation and represents a strong foundation for this much-needed reform. It has already attracted over 150 cosponsors. The HHS report released today recommends building on this legislation and enacting a bill that protects all Americans from the threat of genetic discrimination.

We need to start setting this meeting up! Should Laura just schedule for this Tuesday or Thursday with Jen, Cynthia, Elena if possible, and Carol Williams and Mary Bourdette? I am turning into a pumpkin for a week starting today, so I guess Cynthia will be stuck following up with you all.

Subject: Meeting with Rep. Waters' staff on grandparents

I've followed up with Rep. Waters' staff, Katherine Atkins, to tell her that we would very much like to meet with her to discuss grandparents.

To remind Jen of the genesis of this issue, Waters has a bill to exempt grandparents who take care of kids on welfare from the welfare law's work requirements. HHS has told her (nicely) that we can't support that, and that we think the law has sufficient flexibility to take this population into consideration. However, her staff has now asked if we are interested in discussing other approaches or initiatives to supporting this group, and Elena asked me to send back a very clear "yes" signal to her, which I have done.

Unfortunately, Rep. Waters would really like the meeting to be next week, ideally Tuesday or Thursday. We need to decide which of us should go, both from DPC and from HHS. I am assuming we need you or Nicole, Jen, to be there to talk about the issue. I asked Atkins what agenda she envisions for the meeting -- she said she'd like to discuss what areas we have identified as needing work, and what initiatives we may be undertaking. She said perhaps we would undertake some activities together.

Please let me know your thoughts on who should attend. Elena, do you want to try to come? We need to start setting this up on Friday, either by Laura or by our new support person, Linda Cooper. From HHS, is it still Carol Williams? Elena, I assume you would be anxious to make this work for Waters at the time she wants. (I'm out next week, so I'd like to get this set.)

As we approach the anniversary of the ADA, we would like to move forward on a good idea that has been floating around for some time -- expanding the Defense Department's "CAP" program. It has minor budget implications.

The Defense Department's Computer Accommodations Program ("CAP") purchases equipment for DOD employees with disabilities to allow them to keep working if they become disabled, or for new employees just joining the workforce. By using a central $2 million fund for such purchases, individual offices do not have to bear the cost within their own budgets, and are less likely to be deterred from hiring a person with a disability. CAP is also able to get better prices on equipment through its bulk purchases and expertise. It has a showroom to help employees try out appropriate adaptive devices (CAP makes the decision on what equipment is purchased, not the employee). It has provided over 9,000 accommodations since its inception in 1990.

This program is a good example of how employers and employees are taking advantage of new (and increasingly cheap) technology, such as computers for the blind that talk and listen, and alternative computer keyboards for people with dexterity problems, that allow people with disabilities to work.

For some time, the Administration's appointees with disabilities have been pushing the idea of expanding the CAP program to cover all Federal employees, not just those at Defense. This is a particular priority for Tony Coelho, chair of the President's Committee on Employment of People with Disabilities. The idea was presented to Erskine when he met with the appointees several months ago, and he felt it was a promising idea.

OMB staff believe that a centralized fund is unnecessary because agencies are already obligated under current law (Section 504 of the Rehab Act) to provide such accommodations today. However, many do not, and a centralized fund has many advantages.

Defense has estimated that it would cost $8 million a year to expand CAP government-wide, but this is definitely overstated since CAP now serves the entire Defense Department for $2 million a year. A more realistic range is $2 - 5 million a year. While having DOD perform this service for all federal employees is a bit unusual, they have a great deal of expertise at this task and they are ready to take on the added responsibility.

If we were to announce this in connection with the ADA, the appointees with disabilities would view this as a positive step but would not be exceptionally grateful for it, since they view it as overdue and are also hoping that we will be able to come to an agreement on an executive order on employment of people with disabilities. We are continuing to work on that possibility.

Subject: Draft memo on expanding Defense Dept's CAP program

If we want to push OMB to expand the DOD computer accommodations to the whole government, here is a draft memo explaining what the program is and why it should be expanded. I know I can't make it happen by talking to OMB, so if we want to do it, we have to convine Frank/Jack or, more likely, get Vicki to do something, given that Erskine made positive noises about it when he met with the appointees. At the moment, it's in the draft executive order.

We did, and then we unaccountably let it slip. It seems as if someone canceled a meeting on the subject (to be attended by DPC, HHS, and Waters staff) and then it was never rescheduled. We will make sure to make contact her office again on Tuesday. As you know, both we and HHS have substantial policy concerns about her proposal, but we should be giving her every opportunity to make her case.

Bruce, you passed along to me an invitation to appear on a panel at next week's meeting of the state welfare directors. At first, I assumed I'd do it; now I'm reconsidering whether it's a good idea.

It's not that I mind appearing on a panel with Robert Rector and Bob Greenstein about the goals of welfare reform; it's that I'd hate to have the White House put on the spot on workfare, minimum wage, worker protections, privatization, etc. just as we're immersed in delicate negotiations. The Administration will be well represented elsewhere at the conference (by Olivia Golden and others).

I can still get out of this. I think I should. Do you?

At the Friday afternoon meeting, John Hilley proposed that leg affairs coordinate an effort to get at least 40 Senators to sign a letter saying they'd vote to uphold a Byrd rule challenge against the FLSA and privatization provisions.

I spoke to Joan Huffer of Senator Daschle's staff this weekend to see if the Senate Parliamentarian had ruled on these provisions already. She said he has not, but she would work with Budget and Finance Committee staff to get a ruling from the Parliamentarian as soon as possible. (The Parliamentarian had previously ruled on the Senate version of privatization (which applied only to the state of Texas), and had indicated that he was skeptical of FLSA, but had not actually ruled on the exact House-passed provisions.)

I did not tell Joan about the letter strategy -- Janet, I wasn't sure if we were ready, particularly since you didn't raise it at our Saturday meeting with House Dems. Janet and Susan, I assume you'll coordinate the strategy to get the signatures?

Attached is a revised list of Byrd Rule welfare-to-work issues Chuck is taking up to the Hill, hurriedly amended this morning to capture, we think, the results of the Saturday meeting with the Ds. As Chuck's note says, we can reach him if there's anything fatal in here. Let any of us know if there are significant problems you believe need to be raised, serious omissions, or other issues that we should consider.

Message Creation Date was at 14-JUL-1997 11:04:00

FOLLOWING IS A REVISED BYRD LIST, BASED UPON COMMENTS RECEIVED THIS MORNING.

I WILL BE MEETING WITH BUDGET STAFF AND WH/LA FOR THE NEXT COUPLE HOURS TO FINALIZE THE LIST. IF YOU IDENTIFY ANY OTHER PROBLEMS WITH THE LIST, PLEASE

PAGE ME. THANKS.

DRAFT - POSSIBLE BYRD RULE VIOLATIONS

[Note: the following is not intended to be a comprehensive list; it is limited to identifying which of the objectionable reconciliation provisions (i.e. objectionable on policy grounds) may also violate the Byrd Rule.]

o Privatization (Food Stamps and Medicaid): House Passed Bill (Section 1003, Food Stamps; and Sec. 3457, Medicaid). Background: The House bill permits any State to contract with a private sector entity to conduct income verification and eligibility determinations for Food Stamps and Medicaid. The Senate includes no such provisions (dropped per Byrd rule). The Administration strongly opposes the provisions in the House bill and urges the Conferees to drop them from consideration. Nature of Byrd violation: the provision does not affect federal revenues or outlays.

o Welfare-to-Work:

--Senate Section 5822(a)(2)(c) --Nonapplication of any minimum wage requirements with respect to individual sanctions. (i.e., the Nickles amendment.)

--(FLSA) House sections 5004 and 5005, and 9004, 9005 -- make people in workfare and community service activities not employees for purposes of FLSA; and counts items other than cash and food stamps for minimum wage (no budget effect)

--Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) Work Activity Rules: Would limit vocational and educational training as a work activity in TANF; House Passed Bill (sections 9003, 5002), Senate Passed Bill (Sec. 5905(k)). Background: The House bill includes two sets of provisions --one from the Ways and Means Committee and the other from the Education and Workforce Committee --which narrow the base of eligible recipients against which the cap on vocational education in TANF applies. (The Ways and Means Committee also excludes teen parents in school from the cap and sets the cap at 30 percent of the narrower base, while the Education and Workforce Committee makes no other changes.) The Senate bill maintains the existing base against which the cap on vocational education applies, but removes teen parents who attend school from the 20 percent cap on vocational education. The Agreement did not address making changes in the TANF work requirements regarding vocational education and educational services for teen parents. The Administration voiced concerns about these provisions in several letters and urged Conferees to drop them from consideration. Nature of Byrd Violation -- no effect on Federal budget

--TANF transfers to title XX: House Passed Bill (Section 9002).
Background: The provisions reported by the House would allow States to divert TANF funds away from welfare-to-work efforts to other Title XX social service activities. (The Senate included no such provisions.) The Agreement did not address making changes in the TANF transfer provisions. The Administration voiced concerns about these provisions in several letters and urged Conferees to drop them from consideration. Nature of violation: The provision does not effect federal revenues or outlays.

TEXT:
Agenda

Janet suggested on Saturday that we have an agenda to try to keep the meeting on course. Attached is one we could use (it's written fairly neutrally -- no mention of positions or fallback options).

Goals of this Meeting

In my mind, our goals are to:

- 1) Make sure Levin et. al. understand how the formula will drive funds to the neediest areas, and why competitive funds, while desirable for other reasons, won't be as desirable. Ray Uhalde is preparing a one-pager to use to help explain this. He promised me a fax tonight to review.
- 2) Ensure that Levin et. al. understand the strong effort we are making to strike the provisions in the House bill which undermine the minimum wage, worker protections, and the work requirements. Seth Harris will be about 10-15 minutes late, so I put this 2nd on the agenda so he'll be there.

Janet -- will you want to raise the effort to get 41 Senate signatures to help us gain leverage in conference?

Elena, the staff already understand that we consider the work rates part of the parcel to strike, but the members may need to hear it from us.

Also, we may wish to raise the Nickles amendment here. DOL is preparing options which they could describe verbally (I've described them in the attached). It's premature to hand out paper, but I believe we need to alert them that "strike Nickles" is not our first choice (althought it is DOL's).

- 3) Stress that we want the Senate anti-displacement provisions applied to

ISSUES

Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion

- A. Administering Agency: Dept. of Labor/local Private Industry Councils (PICs)
- B. Distribution of Funds to High Poverty/High Unemployment Areas
  - 1. Targeting of Formula
  - 2. Percent of Funds Awarded on Competitive Basis
- C. Minimum Wage, Worker Protections, and Required Hours Per Week of Work
  - 1. Sections 5004 and 5005 of House-passed bill
  - 2. Nickles Amendment in the Senate
- D. Anti-Displacement
  - 1. Grievance/Appeals Process
  - 2. Remedies
  - 3. Types of Protections
- E. Allowable Uses
- F. Performance Bonus

Grievance --Independent State Agency

- 1) User Unemployment Compensation System (3 person independent board)
Problem: they don't know labor law
- 2) State EEOs
Possible problems:
Not always independent of governor
Won't know health and safety law
- 3) Let states choose between #1 and #2

Remedies

- 1) For anti-displacement, use Senate provisions
- 2) For gender and religion, use remedies provided by laws already covered in TANF (Age Discrimination Act, Rehabilitation Act, Americans with Disabilities Act, and Title VI of Civil Rights Act)
- 3) ?Working on health and safety ideas designed to correct hazard

Nickles

- 1) "States can sanction, but recipients must receive minimum wage" i.e. can sanction through fines only.
- 2) State can sanction through fines but if penalty would result in less than the minimum wage, the person could choose to have a deduction or to write a check (this resolves some issue with state employees)
- 3) Garnishment - State can sanction by reducing the amount of a person's pay, as long as the person making the decision to sanction cannot be the employer or the employer's employer. They believe this preserves the principle of FLSA while allowing all government agencies except the welfare agency to hire workfare recipients and sanction them through their paycheck.
- 4)(a) Allow states to do either #1 or #3
- 4)(b) Option #2, but person making the decision to sanction cannot be the employer or the employer's employer

Cynthia, I think your agenda looks fine and agree with your points in the e-mail. I mentioned to Elena that I will likely be late to the Rep. Levin Mtg. since the President will be meeting with the bipartisan Congressional leadership and budget agreement Members of interest tomorrow at 10am. I'll try to get there as soon as I can but I think you can carry it with the rest of the team. Hopefully Saturday's session will have proven helpful in getting through this meeting. Please explain my absence if appropriate. Maybe you and I can chat by phone in the morning. Thanks. Janet.

TEXT:

Rahm is going into briefing, e-mail Q&A's to Michelle Crisci asap if possible

Q: Can you say any more about the tobacco settlement now that your staff have had more time to review it?

A. I have reached a final conclusion on only one part of the settlement: the requirement that the FDA find that there will not be a black market before mandating any product changes.

That is an unreasonable requirement, which will too greatly limit the FDA's ability to make tobacco products safer or less addictive. My staff is still reviewing the settlement proposal, and I have not reached any further conclusions. As I've said before, the settlement proposal provides an historic chance to further protect our children and our country from the dangers of tobacco. We must and will respond to it in a way that best advances the public health.

Q. Some of your staff are saying that the penalties tobacco companies must pay if they fail to meet the targets for reducing children's smoking are too soft -- that those penalties must be increased or companies will still profit from hooking kids.

A. I know that my staff are looking into this. We have to ask tough questions. We have to make sure the settlement holds industry accountable for reducing the number of children who start smoking. I will be looking carefully at this question.

Q. Your advisors are meeting today with industry representatives. What do they expect to get out of this meeting?

A. Secretary Shalala and Bruce Reed will ask the industry a lot of tough questions. They will let them know we will not just rubber stamp this agreement, and they will make it clear that the bottom line for my Administration is ensuring that any agreement is good for the public health, and particularly the health of our children.
