Below is language revised to take into account (a) the negotiations between Nita Lowey and Henry Hyde and (b) the fact that we've agreed to different language on Medicaid managed care to deal with the "conmingling of funds" issue. If you have any difficulties with the language below, please page me. Thanks.

An amendment is made in order that would include a prohibition on the purchase of health benefit coverage that includes abortion. The President believes that abortion should be safe, legal, and rare. However, the amendment would not only maintain, but further limit the range of conditions under which a woman's health would permit access to abortion. Furthermore, it and would require a physician to make a legal determination that the woman met these conditions have been met. The Hyde amendment might also be construed to curtail the availability of State-only and privately funded abortion services. Most States purchase health coverage for Medicaid beneficiaries from managed care organizations (MCOs). This amendment might be construed as prohibiting States from contracting with MCOs that offer abortion services to any woman, even using private or State funds. The Administration opposes this attempt to constrain further the availability of abortion services and strongly urges the House not to adopt the Hyde amendment. For this and other these reasons, the Administration prefers the Lowey substitute. We understand that there may be negotiations to develop an alternative to both proposals. The Administration believes that it is important that any legislation in this area be clear that limitations on the use of Federal funds to provide abortion services under managed care plans do not affect in any way the ability of states to provide such coverage using their own funds, nor the ability of managed care providers to participate in Federally-funded programs while also offering other coverage paid for by state or private funds.

Press Guidance on the Coverdell Amendment

Background

The Coverdell Amendment would have allowed parents to withdraw funds from an IRA tax-free to pay for tuition at public, private, or sectarian elementary and secondary schools. In addition to tuition, the amendment would have provided a tax subsidy for tutoring, books and supplies, equipment, transportation and supplementary expenses related to education.

The provision was removed from the budget package at the Administration's insistence, and last night the President wrote the Republican leadership indicating that he "would veto any tax package that would undermine public education by providing tax benefits for private and parochial school expenses."

Suggested Response

Q: Today Sen. Coverdell held a press conference denouncing the President's threat to veto his proposal to provide tax benefits for K-12 schooling, including private and parochial schools. Given how hard the President pushed for tax benefits for postsecondary education, how can you explain the President's position?

- A:
- This is consistent with the President's long-standing position on private school vouchers. As the President's letter indicated, the Coverdell provision would have undermined public education.
 - The Coverdell Amendment would have little practical benefit for families with students in public elementary and secondary schools, where the vast majority of students attend, and which do not charge tuition. Instead, these tax provisions would have primarily subsidized private school tuition.
 - The revenue lost from the amendment could be much better spent on efforts to improve our public schools, such as repairing crumbling buildings.
 - The amendment would have covered almost any expense even remotely connected to the costs of K-12 education, including high-priced running shoes, cellular phones, and camcorders. This would create a very real "loophole" for using funds in ways that were not intended and have opened the door to abuse.

Maria, Craig and I have submitted a scheduling request for the President to attend and give the keynote speech at the National Dinner of the Human Rights Campaign in Washington on Saturday evening, November 8th.

It is my strong recommendation that we accept this invitation. All things considered, this is the best opportunity we will get this year to address a (extremely supportive) gay audience. And as you know, the Human Rights Campaign has been extremely supportive and we owe them.

Moreover, the President's remarks could preview the Hate Crimes Conference, which takes place the following Monday.

DRAFT

July 30, 1997

Elton Gallegly
Member of Congress
2427 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Gallegly:

Thank you for your letter on July 10 requesting a White House signing ceremony for H.R. 173, which provides for the humane retirement of federal law enforcement canines. As you know, President Clinton promptly signed this legislation into law on July 18, 1997. While unfortunately, we were unable to accommodate your request for a signing ceremony for this important bill, I appreciate your writing to me about this matter. I hope you will feel free to contact me in the future on issues of concern to you.

Sincerely,

Erskine Bowles
White House Chief of Staff

The part that's true is that I told them we'd help them on FICA, FUTA, and EITC. I told them we'd never give way on FLSA.

I'm glad to see Voinovich say the WH is sympathetic while some members of Congress just don't understand.
