TEXT:

Could you please let me know by 4:30 p.m. TODAY (August 29th) if you have any comments on the Justice Report on HR1703, "Department of Veterans Affairs Employment Discrimination Prevention Act"? If I do not hear from you by then, I will assume that you do not have any comment on this report.

A reminder: OMB has previously cleared a VA letter opposing HR1703. The Justice report is secondary to that VA letter, which expresses the official Administration position.

Thank you.

TEXT:

I reviewed my notes from the meeting with the Black Leadership Forum and the follow-up notes that were sent to me by Yvonne Scruggs. Here is the statement and question Elaine raised re: test:

"The U.S. Department of Education is launching a testing initiative for 4th and 8th graders which is felt to be so dangerously inequitable that half of the states have refused to administer this test, and individual cities are being solicited to pilot the tests instead. How can we stop the implementation of this test which is unvalidated, language-biased, unstandardized, non verifiable and unregulated re: the use of its' results?"

I would imagine whoever speaks to Elaine, we should be prepared to address the above question and statement. Hope this helps!

Thanks.

Update on National Testing Initiative: A White House/Education Department team has been working to refine and implement the strategy for fighting the Goodling amendment outlined in our memo earlier this week. Among the key steps that have been taken:

Legislative

- Secretary Riley has announced that we will be sending up legislation shortly to put NAGB in charge of the tests. This has helped to solidify support in the business community. Rep. Riggs has been very supportive of this move, and will use it to explore the possibility of reaching a compromise with Goodling. We remain doubtful that Goodling wants to compromise, but have encouraged Riggs to proceed. The legislation will be transmitted by the beginning of next week. We are also reaching out to Diane Ravitch and similar opinion leaders in an effort to reinlist their support.
- Secretary Riley has been making calls to key members in both houses in an effort to shore up our support and explore any avenues for compromise. Similar staff level conversations have also been proceeding.
- Representatives George Miller, Bill Clay, and Martinez are sending a "Dear Colleague" letter in support of the tests and in opposition to the Goodling amendment.

Outreach

- Supporters in the education and business community have stepped up their efforts to contact key members of Congress; a number have also submitted op-eds in support of the tests.
- Meetings have been set up with groups from the minority community in an effort to address their concerns.
- We have enlisted the support of mayors and governors from participating cities and states.

Communications

- Your radio address will be used to highlight the importance of national standards and tests, and the threat it faces in Congress.
- Secretary Riley will participate in an event in Philadelphia on Tuesday with Mayor Rendell and Superintendent Hornbeck [Elena--POTUS knows Dave Hornbeck very well] to highlight impressive test score gains over the last two years--including gains among LEP students on tests in English.
- An education event is being planned for the Vice-President for next Thursday, and a conference call with business leaders is being arranged for Wednesday.

PUBLIC SUPPORT FOR NEEDLE EXCHANGE PROGRAMS CONTINUES TO RISE

Many Noted National Organizations Recognize Efficacy

WASHINGTON -- Needle exchange programs continue to gain support among responsible Americans as mounting scientific evidence shows they are an effective way to curb the spread of HIV and AIDS, according to the Human Rights Campaign.

"From the American Medical Association to the American Bar Association, respected professional and public health organizations are lining up behind these programs because they save lives without increasing drug use," said Kim Mills, an HRC spokeswoman.

Needle exchange programs provide intravenous drug users with sterile syringes in exchange for used ones. Such programs have been implemented in more than 100 communities around the country, and have been shown to stem the spread of HIV and other blood-borne diseases transmitted through the sharing of injection equipment.

Approximately one-third of reported AIDS cases are related to intravenous drug use. In February, a report by the Department of Health and Human Services found that needle exchange programs are effective in slowing the spread of HIV and AIDS. Six federally funded studies have reported that needle exchange programs reduce HIV transmission and do not increase drug use.

Also in February, a panel of public health experts at the National Institutes of Health concluded that needle exchange programs are a powerful and proven weapon in the war against HIV and AIDS.

Plus, a majority of the American public -- 55 percent -- favors needle exchange programs as a method to curb the spread of HIV and AIDS, according to a bipartisan poll conducted for the Human Rights Campaign.

The poll found 55 percent "strongly favor" or "somewhat favor" needle exchange programs while 38 percent "somewhat oppose" or "strongly oppose" them. The poll was conducted for HRC by the Tarrance Group, a Republican firm, and Lake Sosin Snell and Associates, Democratic pollsters. The results are based on a survey of 1,000 registered voters contacted between April 8-10.

The poll found that 64 percent of Democrats, 58 percent of independents and 45 percent of Republicans favor needle exchange programs. In addition, needle exchange finds support in every region of the country, with 64 percent of Americans favoring it in the West, 60 percent in the Northeast, 51 percent in the South and 49 percent in the Midwest. The poll's margin of error is +/- 3.1 percent.

Earlier this month, the American Bar Association endorsed the use of needle exchange programs, joining such groups as the American Public Health Association, the Association of State and Territorial Health Officials, the National Academy of Sciences, the National Black Caucus of State Legislators and the U.S. Conference of Mayors.

"Science should drive the debate over needle exchange programs and their efficacy," Mills said. "But we hope members of Congress and the administration will heed this message from their constituents and work together to allow federal funds to be used for these life-saving programs."

By law, federal funds may not be used for needle exchange programs unless the Department of Health and Human Services gives the green light, which it has not done.

The Human Rights Campaign is the largest national lesbian and gay political organization, with members throughout the country. It effectively lobbies Congress, provides campaign support and educates the public to ensure that lesbian and gay Americans can be open, honest and safe at home, at work and in the community.

Subject: CA Senate Approves Health Insurance for Domestic Partners

CAPITOL ALERT NEWS

August 29, 1997

http://www.legitech.com/calert/current/news\_ed/senate0829\_ne.htm

Senate Approves Health Insurance for Domestic Partners

Health coverage for domestic partners and stiff penalties for red-light runners and body piercing without parental permission are among nearly four dozen bills passed by the Senate.

By Corey Grice

Gay couples, unmarried seniors and others living in committed "alternative relationships" would be able to cover their dependent domestic partners under their employee health insurance if AB 1059 earns the governor's signature.

The bill, by Assemblywoman Carole Migden, D-San Francisco, passed the Senate Thursday on a 21-14 vote and will face another vote in the Assembly before going to the governor's desk.

The measure requires health plans that offer group coverage to extend those benefits to unmarried adults over age 18 who live together in a home and share living expenses in "an intimate and committed relationship of mutual caring."

Blood relatives who are not legally able to marry, such as a brother-sister combination, are not eligible under the legislation but same-sex couples and senior citizens would be extended coverage.

"There are many seniors who are unmarried and choose not to for fear of loss of benefits," Migden said.

Senate Republican Whip Ray Haynes of Murietta said the government should not mandate that health insurers provide coverage to domestic partners.

"This bill forces people to do something that they may or may not wish to do," Haynes said on the floor. "If insurance companies find this line of insurance profitable, they'll offer it."

More than 500 corporations offer coverage to domestic partners including IBM, Genentech, Disney, Chevron, Northwest Airlines and Bank of America in addition to major health insurance carriers Blue Cross, Health Net and Blue Shield.

Republican Gov. Pete Wilson is expected to veto the legislation because he views it is a mandate on health care providers.

"We shouldn't be telling these providers which products they should offer," said Wilson spokesman Steve Tatum.

"It's certainly an uphill climb but not an impossible reach," said a hopeful Migden. "I think it's an idea that will eventually take hold."

AB 1059 was one of 47 bills passed by the Senate Thursday:

DRAFT

Septembert X, 1997

Patrick J. Kennedy
Member of Congress
1505 Longworth Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Kennedy:

Thank you for writing to the President on matters relating to the juvenile justice system and race. Please forgive the delay in response.

As you know, the President opposed the passage of H.R. 3 because it fails to provide a comprehensive plan to crack down on youth and gang violence-- including failing to provide targeted resources for after school programs to keep young people safe and off the streets.

While the Administration's Anti-Gang and Youth Violence Act of 1997 does expand the circumstances in which federal prosecutors can transfer juvenile offenders to adult criminal court, the change is designed to ensure that these decisions are made fairly and expeditiously, and that they appropriately reflect the dangers that some juveniles pose to their communities. It should be noted that in most cases, juveniles charged as adults may petition the court to be tried as juveniles.

I also wanted to thank you for sharing your proposals to address the issue of racial disparities within the juvenile justice system. As you know, on June 14th, the President announced that he was initiating a year-long dialogue on race with the American people. To this end, he appointed a seven-member commission to help educate Americans about the facts surrounding issues of race, to encourage leadership at all levels to help breach racial divides, and to recommend concrete solutions to our problems. The commission began its meetings in July, and I have shared your proposal with the White House staff members working with them on the race initiative.

Again, thank you for contacting the President on these very important matters.

Sincerely,

Bruce N. Reed
Assistant to the President for Domestic Policy

August X, 1997

The Honorable Barbara B. Kennelly
United States House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congresswoman Kennelly:

Thank you for your letter to the President in support of his efforts to reduce juvenile crime. Please forgive the delay in response.

President Clinton believes we must all take responsibility to protect our children from violent crime, including crime committed by other young people, in order to give them the safest, most secure future possible.

As you know, the President's Anti-Gang and Youth Violence Strategy contains a balanced approach to combat youth violence by combining tough punishments for gangs and guns with smart prevention and intervention programs. The President opposed H.R. 3, the House-passed juvenile crime bill, because it failed to address the juvenile crime problem in a comprehensive manner. The President's proposed legislation recognizes the need to crack down on some of the most dangerous juvenile offenders, and contains new tools for prosecutors to accomplish this goal. However, the President's balanced strategy also provides funding for after-school programs and an at-risk youth initiative, to make sure young people are given positive alternatives to gangs and drugs.

Again, thank you for writing to the President. Your support is important to him and I know he appreciates hearing about the steps your constituents are taking to address the serious problem of juvenile crime.

Sincerely,

Bruce Reed
Assistant to the President for Domestic Policy

Folks--Mark hasn't received a response to his e-mail. We have a dzn or more people coming tomorrow and we need to set the agenda and presentations. Basically, we need someone from leg to give the current status and likely votes etc and someone from DPC to explain (one more time) why we're going to fight like hell for national standards and why that's good for all students, including minorities. {Mike--did you get paper from ED re the results being announced in Philly today (I didn't see it--and I thought there might be info useful for the minority students talking points we need).}

Does anyone have any ideas for a VP message event for next Monday, 9/8?
Right now, we have nothing scheduled for that day, and while we don't want to steal any thunder from the POTUS's back-to-school event, we're looking for something to do...(maybe even on education as well?)

PENDING AUTHORIZATION CONFERENCE REPORTS

Intelligence Authorization Conference Report -- Conferees intend to file a report by the end of the week. Director of Central Intelligence George Tenet sent a letter to Conferees this week stating that "the President's senior advisors will recommend that he veto the bill if it contains the whistleblower provision in its present form." Conferees reportedly may alter the language/scope of the provision, but keep it the bill.

Defense Authorization Conference Report -- Conferees plan to meet the second week of September. We issued a veto threat for the following provisions: Bosnia, whistleblower, DOE funding, B-2, and depot maintenance.

Foreign Affairs Authorization Conference Report -- Prior to the recess, conferees completed conferencing on the bill, with the exception of the family planning provision. We issued a veto threat in our SAP for any provision that "imposes unwarranted restrictions on international family planning programs."
