Here's the Murray information you requested:

1. A comparison of current law, the Murray amendment, and the draft proposal;
2. An outline of the Murray amendment and draft proposal;
3. A copy of the Murray amendment as passed by the Senate with proposed changes;

Note: In addition to the issues we discussed, the draft proposal also precludes any state, even one with an existing waiver, from providing TANF assistance for more than five years.

Question: given this would you prefer to be silent in the Labor-HHS SAP? Alternatively, OMB has drafted language saying 'This was considered in the budget. We ended up with a GAO study and we'd rather leave it there.'

This quote may explain the "Social Security number" comment:

"Mr. President, this body is about to go to a vote that is not one that is unknown to this Senate.... that merely allows a woman who is a victim of domestic violence a temporary waiver from the work requirements if she needs to get medical care or she needs to change her Social Security number so that she is not pursued by her abuser, or to put her children in a safe place...." Senator Murray, September 10, 1997

And a closing quote:

"It has been passed by the Senate three times. Not one Senator has spoken against it. Not one Senator has voted against it. But every time it goes behind closed doors in a conference committee it is pulled out. That is what happens to abused women constantly. In the light of day, everyone is there to say, 'I support you,' but when they go behind closed doors they are abused...." Senator Murray, September 10, 1997

Domestic Violence Provisions in Current Law, Senate Labor-HHS Bill, and Draft Proposal

	Current Law	Senate Labor-HHS (Murray Amdmnt)	Draft Proposal
States can opt to exempt individuals with a history of domestic violence from work requirements and time limits.	Yes	Yes	Yes
Exemptions from work requirements and time limits must be temporary.	No	No (only "findings" say so)	Yes
The number of welfare recipients a state must put to work is lowered by the number of people granted a family violence waiver. Example: under current law, a state with 100,000 adult welfare recipients has to put 30,000 of them to work.	No -- no matter how many family violence waivers are granted, 30,000 welfare recipients must go to work.	Yes -- a state that grants 10,000 family violence waivers need only put 20,000 welfare recipients to work.	No, not directly -- a state can lower its 30,000 work requirement only for those granted temporary waivers who are provided services to help prepare them for work.
States must provide services to those victims of domestic violence who they don't put to work but want to count as working.	No	No	Yes
The number of people a state can exempt from the five year time limit is increased by the number of people granted a family violence waiver. Example: under current law, a state with 100,000 adult welfare recipients could exempt 20,000 from the five year time limit.	No -- no matter how many family violence waivers are granted, only 20,000 can be exempted from the five year time limit.	Yes -- a state that grants 10,000 family violence waivers can exempt 30,000 welfare recipients from the five year time limit.	No, not directly -- a state can increase its time limit exemptions above 20,000 only for those granted temporary waivers who are provided services to help prepare them for work.
States with prior waivers can have time limits longer than five years.	Yes	Yes	No

Outline of Murray Amendment

(b) Clarifications --

(1)(C) States shall not be limited in the number of waivers they grant.

(1)(D) Individuals receiving waivers shall not be including for the purposes of determining a state's work participation rate, its time limit exemptions, or penalties for failure to meet minimum participation rates, failure to comply with child support requirements, or failure to comply with five year time limit on assistance.

(2) Provision shall be made effective as if enacted in the welfare reform law.

(c) Federal Parent Locator -- adds additional safeguards that information from the Federal Parent Locator used to locate deadbeat parents will not be disclosed if it could put at risk the health, safety, or liberty of a parent or child.

Proposed Amendment

(Additions to Murray Amendment are underlined; deletions are ~~stricken~~)

SEC. . PROTECTING VICTIMS OF FAMILY VIOLENCE.

(a) Findings.--Congress finds that--

(1) the intent of Congress in amending part A of title IV of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) in section 103(a) of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (Public Law 104-193; 110 Stat 2112) was to allow States to take into account the effects of the epidemic of domestic violence in establishing their welfare programs, by giving States the flexibility to grant individual, temporary waivers for good cause to victims of domestic violence who meet the criteria set forth in section 402(a)(7)(B) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C.602(a)(7)(B));

(2) the allowance of waivers under such sections was not intended to ~~be limited by other, separate, and independent provisions of part A of title IV of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 601 et seq.)~~ undermine the law's goals of work and personal responsibility;

(3) under section 402(a)(7)(A)(iii) of such Act (42 U.S.C. 602(a)(7)(A)(iii)), requirements under the temporary assistance for needy families program under part A of title IV of such Act may, for good cause, be waived for so long as necessary; and

(4) good cause waivers granted pursuant to section 402(a)(7)(A)(iii) of such Act (42 U.S.C. 602(a)(7)(A)(iii)) are intended to be temporary and directed only at particular program requirements when needed on an individual case-by-case basis, and are intended to facilitate the ability of victims of domestic violence to move forward and meet program requirements when safe and feasible without interference by domestic violence.

(b) Clarification of Waiver Provisions.--

(1) In general.--Section 402(a)(7) of the Social Security Act (41 U.S.C. 602(a)(7)) is amended by adding at the end the following:

(C) No numerical limits.--In implementing this paragraph, a State shall not be subject to any numerical limitation in the granting of good cause waivers under subparagraph (A)(iii).

(D) Waivered individuals not included for purposes of certain other provisions of this part. -- A state will be eligible for a reasonable good cause exception as defined in Section 409(b) if it demonstrates that its failure to meet the requirements of Section 407(a) or 408(a)(7) are attributable to its provision of good cause domestic violence waivers. --Any individual to whom a good cause waiver of compliance with this Act has been granted in accordance with subparagraph (A)(iii) shall not be included for purposes of determining a State's compliance with the participation rate requirements set forth in section 407, for purposes of applying the

~~limitation described in section 408(a)(7)(C)(ii), or for purposes of determining whether to impose a penalty under paragraph (3), (5), or (9) of section 409(a).'~~

(E) Good cause domestic violence waiver defined. -- A good cause domestic violence waiver means a waiver granted in accordance with subparagraph (A)(iii) that is (i) temporary; (ii) based on an individualized evaluation of need; and (iii) includes services designed to ensure safety, promote independence, and prepare for employment.

(2) Effective date.--The amendment made by paragraph (1) takes effect as if it has been included in the enactment of section 103(a) of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (Public Law 104-193; 110 Stat. 2112).

(c) Federal Parent Locator Service.--

(1) In general.--Section 453 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 653), as amended by section 5534 of the Balanced Budget Act of 1997 (Public Law 105-33; 111 Stat. 627), is amended--

(A) in subsection (b)(2)--

(i) in the matter preceding subparagraph (A), by inserting 'or that the health, safety, or liberty of a parent or child would be unreasonably put at risk by the disclosure of such information,' before 'provided that';

(ii) in subparagraph (A), by inserting ', that the health, safety, or liberty of a parent or child would be unreasonably put at risk by the disclosure of such information,' before 'and that information'; and

(C) in subparagraph (E), by striking 'of domestic violence' and all that follows through the semicolon and inserting 'that the health, safety, or liberty of a parent or child would be unreasonably put at risk by the disclosure of such information pursuant to section 453(b)(2), the court shall determine whether disclosure to any other person or persons of information received from the Secretary could place the health, safety, or liberty of a parent or child unreasonably at risk (if the court determines that disclosure to any other person could be harmful, the court and its agents shall not make any such disclosure);'.

(3) Effective date.--The amendments made by this section shall take effect 1 day after the effective date described in section 5557(a) of the Balanced Budget Act of 1997 (Public Law 105-33).

Subject: Q&A on NAFTA & UR Impact on Imported Food -Forwarded

The attached paper is interesting in underscoring two points: The increase in U.S. food imports is not related to recent trade agreements (UR or Nafta) but is driven by consumer demand; and while that growth has been substantial since 1993 (53%) this is a systems and resources issue as to inspections (exactly how the Administration is handling it), not a trade issue.

Is Sec. Glickman responding to the Gerth article? If so information in the attached should be included in the response letter. I'll be on the Hill for the next couple of hours, please reach Chris in my office if you need immediate information. Please advise. jz

Trade Liberalization and U.S. Imports of Fresh Fruits and Vegetables

Question: What impact have the NAFTA and Uruguay Round had on U.S. imports of fresh fruits and vegetables?

Answer: The NAFTA and Uruguay Round have had a negligible impact on U.S. imports of fresh fruits and vegetables. Prior to these agreements, U.S. import tariffs on fresh fruits and vegetables were relatively low. The United States market was open to imports, and the tariff reductions called for in NAFTA and the Uruguay Round were very small. Other factors such as currency fluctuations, weather conditions, and consumer demand in the United States account for nearly all of the rise in fresh fruit and vegetable imports.

For those few commodities where U.S. protection was high--imports of cantaloupe from Mexico were 25% prior to the NAFTA for example--long phase in periods for tariff reductions and the fact that we are just four years into NAFTA have meant that today's import protection remains relatively high.

In Secretary Glickman's report to the Congress on the Effects of the NAFTA on Agriculture and the Rural Economy, USDA concluded that:

- Although U.S. agricultural imports from the NAFTA partners grew from $7.3 billion in 1993 to $10.5 billion in 1996, U.S. agricultural imports from Mexico and Canada were only about 3 to 5 percent higher, respectively, in 1996 than they would have been without the agreement.
- For U.S. imports of winter vegetables, only a small increase in imports can be attributed directly to the NAFTA tariff changes. NAFTA tariff reductions on U.S. imports of winter tomatoes from Mexico have been very small, less than 1.5 percent on an ad valorem basis. The peso crisis in Mexico, technological shifts in tomato production, and unusual weather in Florida were far more important than the NAFTA tariff reductions.
- Because Mexico's tariffs on agricultural imports from the United States were much higher than U.S. tariffs on agricultural imports from Mexico, Mexican tariffs have been reduced substantially more than U.S. tariffs.

Background

U.S. total imports of fresh fruits and vegetables (excluding bananas) were $2.95 billion in 1996, up 53 percent from the $1.93 billion imported in 1993 (the year before NAFTA began).

U.S. imports of fresh fruits and vegetables (excluding bananas from Mexico) were $1.61 billion in 1996, up 52 percent from the $1.06 billion imported in 1993.

TOPIC: MEETING WITH CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS ON TOBACCO

DATE: OCTOBER 1, 1997

LOCATION: DIPLOMATIC RECEPTION ROOM

TIME: 11:15 a.m.

FROM: BRUCE REED
JOHN HILLEY

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of this meeting is to (1) set a bipartisan tone with Congress and (2) emphasize that tobacco legislation should be a top priority for the coming year.

II. BACKGROUND

The Administration is in a strong position to push tobacco legislation through Congress over the next year. Your announcement earlier this month united the public health community for the first time and attracted bipartisan support from the nation's attorneys general and many members of Congress.

Nevertheless, any tobacco bill will have to make its way through a tangle of overlapping committee jurisdictions and agendas. At least six committees in the Senate and four in the House can lay claim to some piece of this legislation, and dozens of members in both parties have a longstanding interest in tobacco from the standpoint of reducing teen smoking or protecting tobacco farmers. Republicans in particular recognize the political potency of the President's plan, and are very nervous about being trapped into the appearance of defending the industry.

The first step must therefore be to reassure the leadership and key committee chairs like Rep. Bliley that the Administration is indeed serious about passing a bipartisan bill, and not just looking to sandbag them in an election year. The meeting with Congressional leaders, committee chairs, and ranking members is therefore an important opportunity to set the right tone from the outset: you are eager to work together to pass bipartisan legislation as early as possible next year, and we are ready to work in a collaborative fashion to get it done.

Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion

Our next step should be for representatives of the Administration (including the Vice-President, Erskine Bowles, Secretary Shalala, Secretary Glickman, John Hilley, and Bruce Reed), to meet with the key players in both parties over the remaining weeks of this session, to offer the Administration's expertise and to try to marshal bipartisan coalitions in both houses to prepare bills for introduction in January. It is too early to tell which members are in the best position to lead that effort. (Bliley is the key House Republican, Waxman and Fazio are important House Democrats; Hatch, Lugar, McCain, Jeffords, Mack, Campbell and several Republican moderates may be helpful in the Senate; Conrad, Lautenberg, Kennedy, and others are strong Senate Democrats). Ideally, we can lay the groundwork for a center-out coalition in the Senate, along the lines of Hatch-Kennedy or the Breaux-Chafee group, and work closely with Bliley, Waxman, and others in the House.

Senate committees have already held several hearings on tobacco over the past three months. Secretary Shalala testified before Jeffords' committee last week. The House may hold hearings in November-December after adjournment.

The goal should be to forge a bipartisan vehicle you can endorse in January, and to make that the central focus of next year's State of the Union.

Opponents of the legislation will make three types of arguments to slow it down. First, Nickles and others have criticized the Administration for failing to submit full legislative language to Congress and blamed the Administration for any delay in passage of a bill. Second, some will use the complexity of the issue as an excuse to go slow, eventually permitting perhaps only restricted portions of a bill to advance following lengthy hearings. Finally, opponents of legislation may focus on flashpoints such as farmers, restrictions on class action suits, or legal fees.

The Administration has a number of arguments to deploy in response to these expected attacks. The strongest argument is to rise above partisan bickering, and stress the urgency of solutions that will protect America's children. In addition, you have a strong history of leadership on smoking issues and can draw upon public support in future disagreements with Congress.

VI. REMARKS

* Thank you for coming to talk about this vital issue for America's future. (Acknowledge Gingrich, Gephardt, Nickles, Daschle, Bliley) This is an issue that touches on many aspects of American life -- our health, our economy, our laws, and our children -- and I want to acknowledge the hard work of so many of you in this room on this issue. In particular, I want to thank the Vice-President for his very important contribution. You are all here because of the critical role you will play as we work to pass legislation together. It is complicated, but I'm confident we can put politics aside and get this done.

* You and I are here because this is a crucial issue for America's future. Three thousand kids start smoking everyday, it shortens the lives of one thousand of them. As I've said before, this is not about money, and it shouldn't be about politics. It should be about trying to reduce this problem of teen smoking.

* Two weeks ago, I outlined the most significant elements I thought should be contained in a bill. First, that we should reduce teen smoking with tougher penalties, that we shouldn't hamstring FDA authority to regulate tobacco, that there should be some changes in the way tobacco is marketed, that we need to make more progress on other health goals like cancer research and second hand smoke. Finally, and this is very important to me, we need to protect farmers and their communities. This bill can't devastate those communities. They must be protected.

* This should not be a partisan issue, I'm going to put it at the top of my agenda for the next year, and I hope you will join me in making bipartisan legislation to reduce teen smoking a top priority for all of us in 1998

* This bill will go through many committees and it affects many people and many states. It is not going to happen by fiat, but after you hold hearings, and work through the difficulties of legislation. And I'm sure we will have our differences. But this is too important for us not to get done. And it can't wait until we all agree on every word. We should work together and try to move ahead.

* I've said in some detail what I believe is the most important here. I've asked several members of my administration -- the Vice-President my Chief of Staff Erskine Bowles, Secretary Shalala, Secretary Glickman, Bruce Reed-- to work side by side with you to get this done.

* But I asked you here not just to tell you what I think about the issue but to hear what you think-- how we can work together, how we can get this done. So I'll ask Vice-President Gore to give some of his thoughts, and I'd like to hear what directions you are going to take on tobacco legislation, where the problems might be and how we can work together.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. Why don't you submit legislation on tobacco?

A. We're happy to offer Congress our expertise and any other help in translating our principles into bipartisan legislation. I don't think there is any doubt where I stand. The five principles I set out in my plan are very clear. This is the first time I can remember Congress asking us to write the bill -- I recall a somewhat different reaction when we sent up legislation on health care. Members should introduce legislation, hold hearings and move for votes and I will play as constructive a role as possible.

Q. When should a bill pass?

A. It is at the top of my agenda for the coming year. There is nothing more important than saving thousands of children from taking up smoking. Three thousand are starting everyday.

Q. Will negotiations include industry?

A. The industry is a piece of this, but there isn't a need to negotiate with them.

Q. What is the role of the Vice-President?

A. The Vice-President will take a leadership role in the legislation and in building support for our plan.

Q. Will you support limits on liability?

A. I've said repeatedly that a cap on liability wouldn't be a deal breaker for us. But if we're going to do that, we should make sure we're passing a strong comprehensive plan to cut teen smoking.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE SECRETARY OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES
SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE

SUBJECT: INITIATIVE TO IMPROVE THE SAFETY OF BOTH DOMESTIC AND IMPORTED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

During my Administration, we have taken significant steps to strengthen our entire food safety system, including expanded research, education, and surveillance activities. We also have put into place enhanced safety standards relating particularly to meat, poultry, and seafood products. These measures will greatly improve the safety of the nation's food supply.

We need to build on these efforts, and today I ask you to do so by focusing on the safety of fruits and vegetables. Although the produce Americans eat is very safe, we can and must do even better, including with respect to produce imported from foreign countries. Last year, 38 percent of the fruit and 12 percent of the vegetables consumed by Americans came from overseas. We must ensure that these fruits and vegetables are as safe as those produced in the United States, especially as we upgrade our own domestic standards.

I will propose legislation that will help accomplish this task. This legislation will authorize the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) to halt imports of fruits, vegetables, and other food from any foreign country whose food safety systems and standards are not on par with those of the United States. This authority, which is similar to authority the USDA currently has to halt the importation of meat and poultry, will enable the FDA to prevent the importation of potentially unsafe foreign food products. In addition, I will provide the necessary funds in my Fiscal Year 1999 budget to enable the FDA to expand dramatically its international inspection force. With this greatly increased ability to inspect food safety conditions abroad and at our ports of entry, the FDA will be able to determine when to halt the importation of fruits and vegetables from foreign countries.

At the same time, I direct you to take administrative actions that will better ensure the safety of fruits and vegetables coming from abroad, while continuing to improve the safety of domestic produce. You should accelerate any food safety research that is necessary to support these actions.

First, I direct the Secretary of Health and Human Services and the Secretary of Agriculture to report within 90 days with a plan on improving the use of existing and projected resources to monitor agricultural and manufacturing practices abroad, assist foreign countries to improve those practices where necessary, and prevent the importation of unsafe produce, including the detection of unsafe food at the dock or border. I urge you to consider ways to target inspection and testing resources toward those new areas where problems are most likely to occur.

Second, I direct the Secretary of Health and Human Services, in partnership with the

Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion

Secretary of Agriculture and in close cooperation with the agricultural community, to issue within one year guidance on good agricultural practices and good manufacturing practices for fruits and vegetables. This guidance should take into account differences in both crops and regions and should address potential food safety problems throughout the food distribution and marketing system. By providing the first-ever specific safety standards for fruits and vegetables, the guidance will improve the agricultural and manufacturing practices for all those seeking to sell produce in the U.S. market. To ensure that this guidance has the widest possible effect, I also direct the development of coordinated outreach and educational activities.

These steps, taken together and in coordination with the legislation I will send to Congress, will improve the safety of fruits and vegetables for all Americans. I will also direct the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency, the Secretary of Labor, and any other necessary agencies to provide you with assistance in achieving this goal.

Initiative to Improve Safety of Both Domestic and Imported Fruits and Vegetables

Today President Clinton announced an initiative to improve the safety of fruits and vegetables, including those imported from foreign countries. This initiative builds on the President's prior actions on food safety -- including a new early warning system to detect outbreaks of foodborne illness as quickly as possible; and enhanced safety standards for meat, poultry, and seafood products.

Recognizing the need to ensure that imported fruits and vegetables are as safe as those produced in the United States, the President today proposed legislation that would authorize the FDA to halt imports of fruits, vegetables, and other food products produced in countries that do not meet U.S. food safety standards. Last year, 38 percent of the fruit and 12 percent of the vegetables consumed by Americans came from overseas. The President also directed the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) and the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) to work cooperatively to improve the safety of fruits and vegetables by developing guidelines for producers and industry to follow. This initiative has four parts.

Enhanced FDA Oversight for Imported Foods. The President proposed legislation that will authorize the FDA to halt imports of fruits, vegetables, and other food products from any foreign country with food safety systems and standards that are not on par with those of the United States, or when a foreign facility has refused to allow an FDA inspection. This authority, which is similar to authority the USDA currently has to halt the importation of meat and poultry, will enable the FDA to prevent the importation of potentially unsafe food products. In coordination with international agencies and organizations, the FDA, USDA, and the CDC will develop information to help target import inspection and testing resources. The Administration also supports efforts on the part of the FDA and USDA to encourage exporting countries to develop their own good practices to address potential food safety issues in those countries. The FDA and USDA will engage in technical assistance, training, and cooperative research efforts with exporting countries to improve the safety of imported fruits and vegetables.

Development of Good Agricultural and Good Manufacturing Practices Guidance. FDA and USDA will work cooperatively with the fruit and vegetable industry and others to develop good agricultural and good manufacturing practices guidance within one year. This guidance will take into account differences in both crops and regions and will address potential food safety problems throughout the food production and distribution system such as sanitation and water quality. The guidance will improve the agricultural and manufacturing practices of all those seeking to sell produce in the U.S. market, both foreign and domestic. To ensure that this guidance has the widest possible effect, the FDA and USDA will develop a series of coordinated outreach and educational activities.

Expanded Federal Resources for Testing and Inspecting Fruits and Vegetables. The President called for an increase in FDA funding in FY 99 to allow the FDA to expand dramatically its international inspection force. These funds will allow the hiring of new FDA inspectors to inspect food controls in the exported country and to inspect food imported into this country and will support research to improve our knowledge of disease-causing pathogens in food, including, but not limited to, developing methods to detect and prevent contamination.

Improve the use of existing and projected resources for food safety. The President directed the Secretary of Health and Human Services and the Secretary of Agriculture to report within 90 days with a plan to improve the use of existing and projected resources to monitor agricultural and manufacturing practices abroad, assist foreign countries to improve these practices, and prevent the importation of unsafe produce, including detecting unsafe food at the dock and border. The President urged consideration of ways to target inspection and testing resources toward those areas where problems are most likely to occur.
