Honorable Richard A. Gephart
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515-2503

Dear Congressman Gephart :

Thank you for your letter to the President asking him to consider establishing a national recognition program for students who remain fight-free throughout their schooling. Please forgive the delay in response.

White House and Department of Education staff have studied your proposal carefully and agree that if our nation's schools are to be free of violence and drugs and offer a disciplined environment for learning, students must be encouraged to conduct themselves in a fight-free and drug-free manner .

Unfortunately, at the present time neither the staff nor the resources exist that would be necessary to effectively develop a new national-level program recognizing individual students. However, the Department of Education is in the process of developing criteria to recognize schools and school districts demonstrating that their efforts have led to the creation of safe and drug-free learning environments. The Department Education is planning on announcing this recognition program this fall. The Department would be delighted to work with you or your staff in the development of this important program.

Thank you for your continued interest in education and in creating safe environments for learning. If you or your staff have interest in learning more about the Department's Safe and Drug-Free Schools Recognition Program, please contact Mr. William Modzeleski, Director, Safe and Drug-Free Schools Program. Mr. Modzeleski can be reached at (202) 260-1856.

Sincerely,

Bruce Reed
Assistant to the President for Domestic Policy

Charlie Norwood
Member of Congress
1707 Longworth Office Building
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Norwood:

Thank you for writing to the President on race relations. Please forgive the delay in response. As you know, on June 14th, the President announced that he was initiating a year-long dialogue on race with the American people. To this end, he appointed a seven-member commission to help educate Americans about the facts surrounding issues of race, to encourage leadership at all levels to help breach racial divides, and to recommend concrete solutions to our problems. I have shared your recommendation on the work of the Society of the Heritage Crest with the White House staff members working with the race initiative.

Again, thank you for contacting the President on this very important matter.

Sincerely,

Bruce N. Reed
Assistant to the President for Domestic Policy

TEXT:

I received a call from Sec. Riley late yesterday seeking my views on the likelihood of support by Cong. Xavier Becerra for a Spanish equivalent reading test that is available by commercial company. His idea was to offer this in lieu of the national reading test in English to designated Spanish speaking students. I agreed to work with Janet Murguia to contact Xavier to run the idea by him to see if there was sufficient interest to pursue this with the President as an option BEFORE the Secretary went any further. Janet spoke to Xavier last night. He is interested in discussing this option with us. I reported this to the Secretary. He would like us to consider how best to get the President's consideration of this option, and if approved, how best to open discussions with Xavier on it.

Late in my dealings with this issue yesterday, I inadvertantly came across a memo to the President from Bruce, Mike, and John dated Oct. 2 on this very subject. The Secretary indicated he had not seen it yet. I read parts germane to this subject to him by phone. Elena is in today and has agreed to meet with Maria, Janet, and I to revisit the memo in light of yesterday's activity. Sec. Riley wants to hear from us today on what next.

Again, I appeal to DPC to keep me, Maria, and Janet in the loop on all Correspondence related to our national standards and testing initiative. Each of us has different and important responsibilities to help with this initiative. I have also alerted the Staff Secretary's office to my concern. Thanks.

THE ECONOMY REMAINS ON THE RIGHT TRACK: LOW UNEMPLOYMENT, STRONG JOB GROWTH, AND LOW INFLATION

October 3, 1997

TODAY'S DATA SHOW CONTINUED JOB GROWTH WITH HISTORICALLY LOW UNEMPLOYMENT.

- Unemployment is at 4.9 percent, as low as its been in 24 years.
  - The September unemployment rate was 4.9 -- its 37th consecutive month below 6 and as low as it's been since 1973. The unemployment rate has been at or below 5 for six months now with no signs of inflationary pressures. In 1992, the unemployment rate was 7.5. [Source: BLS.]
  - The combined rate of unemployment and inflation has been lower under President Clinton than any other Administration since Lyndon Johnson was President. [Source: Based on data from BLS.]
- 13.2 Million New Jobs.
  - During the Clinton Administration, the economy has added 13.2 million new jobs -- a faster annual rate of job growth (2.5 percent per year) than any Republican Administration since the Roaring 1920s. [Source: Based on data from the Bureau of Labor Statistics, Current Employment Statistics survey.]
  - The economy has added 2.7 million jobs over the past year.
- Strong Private-Sector Job Growth.
  - Since President Clinton took office, the private sector of the economy has added over 12 million new jobs -- with 2.5 million jobs added in the past year -- much more than during the entire four-year period before President Clinton took office. [Source: Based on data from BLS.]
  - 93 percent of the 13.2 million new jobs under President Clinton have been in the private sector -- that's a higher percentage than any Administration since Truman. [Source: Based on data from BLS.]
- Turning The Corner In Basic American Industries.
  - After losing 667,000 jobs in construction during the previous four years, 1.1 million new construction jobs have been added since January 1993 -- that's a faster annual rate than any other Administration since Harry S Truman was President. [Source: Bureau of Labor Statistics, Current Employment Statistics survey.]
  - After losing 35,000 jobs in the auto industry during the Bush years, we have 129,000 new auto jobs since President Clinton took office. [Source: Bureau of Labor Statistics, Current Employment Statistics survey.]

EARLIER THIS WEEK, WE LEARNED THAT THE INCOME OF THE TYPICAL AMERICAN FAMILY HAS INCREASED NEARLY $2,200 SINCE 1993, ADJUSTED FOR INFLATION. SINCE PRESIDENT CLINTON TOOK OFFICE, THE PRIVATE SECTOR OF THE ECONOMY HAS GROWN 3.6 PERCENT PER YEAR AND BUSINESS INVESTMENT HAS GROWN BY 11 PERCENT PER YEAR -- THE FASTEST FOR ANY ADMINISTRATION SINCE KENNEDY WAS PRESIDENT. THE ECONOMY CONTINUES TO EXPERIENCE ROBUST GROWTH, STRONG INVESTMENT, AND LOW INFLATION.

EXPERTS AGREE THAT THE AMERICAN ECONOMY IS STRONG:

- Alan Greenspan, Chairman of the Federal Reserve, 7/22/97: "The recent performance of the economy, characterized by strong growth and low inflation, has been exceptional--and better than most anticipated."
- David Berson, chief economist, Fannie Mae, 6/14/97: "What we have now is the best combination of sustained growth and low inflation that we have had in at least a decade."
- Fortune, 6/9/97: "Business is booming, inflation is falling, jobs are plentiful, and American industry is way out in front. The U.S. economy is stronger than it's ever been before."
- Business Week, 5/19/97: "Clinton's 1993 budget cuts, which reduced projected red ink by more than $400 billion over five years, sparked a major drop in interest rates that helped boost investment in all the equipment and systems that brought forth the New Age economy of technological innovation and rising productivity.”

TEXT:

Next Friday, October 10, a plan for the race initiative will be presented to Erskine Bowles. Yesterday, a planning meeting was held to prepare for the EBB meeting in which we began to identify specific goals and a process for achieving those goals.

At yesterday's meeting, we developed WH-PIR working groups to prepare for the EBB meeting and develop a process for achieving the race initiative goals (e.g., recruiting leaders) and conducting the necessary functions of the race initiative (e.g., communications). (See lists below.) These groups do not represent the definitive or complete working groups. They are a starting point for this process.

This Monday, we will hold a large-group meeting to discuss the development of the particular areas. After the Monday meeting, each of the groups will be expected to meet individually and flesh out their area. On Wednesday or Thursday, another large-group meeting will be held to review the working groups' plans and develop a more formal, overall presentation for the Friday EBB meeting.

If you have questions, give me a ring 6-7492.

Thanks.

Great press on the announcement. The President even had the NYTs on his side. I'm impressed.

I have heard second hand that staff from USDA and HHS, at a food safety meeting convened today, spent a 1/2 hour discussing FDA's belief that the agencies needed to issue a Federal Register notice in the next 90 days. The FR notice would be in addition to the report due in 90 days and seemed to be related to the guidance. What are the next steps that you are expecting?

PRESIDENT WILLIAM J. CLINTON
RADIO ADDRESS ON RESPONSIBILITY
THE WHITE HOUSE
October 4, 1997

Good morning. Today I want to talk to you about how we can each take responsibility for raising our children and strengthening our families. And I want to focus especially on the responsibilities of men.

That family is the cornerstone of our society unites all faiths. This week, Jewish parents at Rosh Hashana services say a blessing for the family and over their children. And the U.S. Catholic Conference has noted, "The most important work to help our children is done quietly -- in our homes and neighborhoods, in our parishes and community organizations. No government can love a child and no policy can substitute for a family's care, but clearly families can be helped or hurt by the actions of government."

We have worked hard to help parents take responsibility for their children. We passed the family leave law, to allow parents take time off to care for sick children or welcome new babies. We raised the minimum wage and increased the Earned Income Tax Credit, so no American who works full-time should have to raise their children in poverty. We cracked down on "deadbeat dads," increasing child support collection by 50% and building a new system of welfare that reflects our values. From improving schools, to expanding access to health care, to punishing domestic violence, families have always been our focus. And, of course, the strong economy we have helped to build has created millions of high-paying jobs, bringing dignity, stability and opportunity to millions of families.

But the most important work in support of families is done in the hearts and homes of individuals. It's clear that in recent decades, too many men have not taken seriously their responsibilities -- to their families, their children, and themselves. This has serious consequences: We know, for example, that failure to pay child support is one of the chief reasons women and children go on welfare. And this week, Vice President Gore and Education Secretary Riley released a report showing that when fathers take an active role, their children do better in school.

The need for men to take responsibility for themselves and their families is something that unites Americans of all faiths and backgrounds and beliefs. Today, thousands of members of a Christian men's organization are meeting on the Mall in Washington. Their presence underscores the compelling national need to strengthen our families -- and there is nothing more important. When all of us -- men and women -- take responsibility for raising our children and passing on our values, our families are strengthened. And when American families are stronger, America is stronger.

When I think of how my mother struggled and sacrificed, like so many other single parents -- when Hillary and I look with bittersweet pride at our own daughter now off in college -- I am more acutely aware than ever of the special responsibilities and wonderful rewards of parenthood. For me, there has been no job that's more important -- and that should be true for all mothers, and all fathers. The future of our children is truly in our hands. Thanks for listening.

Draft 3:30pm 10/3/97

PRESIDENT WILLIAM J. CLINTON
RADIO ADDRESS ON RESPONSIBILITY
THE WHITE HOUSE
October 4, 1997

Good morning. Today I want to talk to you about how we can each take responsibility for raising our children and strengthening our families. And I want to focus especially on the responsibilities of men.

That family is the cornerstone of our society unites all faiths. This week, Jewish parents at Rosh Hashana services say a blessing for the family and over their children. And the U.S. Catholic Conference has noted, "The most important work to help our children is done quietly -- in our homes and neighborhoods, in our parishes and community organizations. No government can love a child and no policy can substitute for a family's care, but clearly families can be helped or hurt by the actions of government.

We have worked hard to help parents take responsibility for their children. We passed the family leave law, to allow parents take time off to care for sick children or welcome new babies. We raised the minimum wage and increased the Earned Income Tax Credit, so no American who works full-time should have to raise their children in poverty. We cracked down on deadbeat dads, increasing child support collection by 50% and building a new system of welfare that reflects our values. From improving schools, to expanding access to health care, to punishing domestic violence, families have always been at the heart of our concern. And, of course, the strong economy we have helped to build has created millions of high-paying jobs, bringing dignity, stability and opportunity to millions of families.

But the most important work in support of families is done in the hearts and homes of individuals. It's clear that in recent decades, too many men have not taken seriously their responsibilities -- to their families, their children, and themselves. This has serious consequences: We know, for example, that failure to pay child support is one of the chief reasons women and children go on welfare. And this week, Vice President Gore and Education Secretary Riley released a report showing that when fathers take an active role, their children do better in school.

The need for men to take responsibility for themselves and their families is something that unites Americans of all faiths and backgrounds and beliefs. Today, thousands of members of a Christian men's organization are meeting on the Mall in Washington. Their presence is another example of national attention to the need to strengthen our families.

I deeply believe there is nothing more important. When all of us -- men and women -- take responsibility for raising our children and passing on our values, our families are strengthened. And when American families are stronger, America is stronger.

When I think of how my mother struggled and sacrificed, like so many other single parents -- when Hillary and I look with bittersweet pride at our own daughter now off in college -- I am more acutely aware than ever of the special responsibilities and wonderful rewards of parenthood. For me, there has been no job that's more important -- and that should be true for all mothers, and all fathers. The future of our children is truly in our hands. Thanks for listening.

I understand the final Update on National Tests is now complete and out. I have a new copy. The change we discussed on page three (adding "Republican" was not added. I assume others did not agree with us. This continues to bother me because it is not accurate as stated in my view but in the end, I understand this is your call.)

After our meeting today, Michael and I continued our discussion regarding a WH Conference of Mayors on Public Schools. We agreed that I should try to pull a meeting together next week as early as possible with OPL,NEC and DPC to discuss the possibility with an eye towards announcing this conference at the OCT. 15 meeting in Detroit of the Great City Schools and USCM. What say you on this?
