Please submit proposed agenda items for this Wednesday's Minority Issues meeting by noon on Tuesday, Oct. 7. Thank you.

New York Provider Tax Issue. On Monday, DPC, NEC, OMB, and HHS will be briefing Erskine on our plans for opening discussion with New York about their provider taxes that may be out of compliance with current law. This meeting is to prepare for the scheduled HHS meeting with Governor Pataki's office next Wednesday. At this meeting, HHS will advise New York that we can administratively release a regulation that effectively eliminates two-thirds (over $1 billion) of their provider tax liability by clarifying that their regional provider tax is legal. Although this is good news for New York, there is little doubt that the state will want its entire liability waived. As a result, the delegation's public response can be expected to not be overly positive. We will try to mitigate their immediate reaction by stressing that this is just the beginning of a negotiations process.

Because of the political sensitivity of this issue, our roll-out on the Administration's position on provider taxes in New York (and all other 36 potentially affected states) must be carefully implemented. In order to assure that we treat all states uniformly, we plan on releasing our interpretation of the status of permissible taxes in all states. We will be submitting a memorandum on the status of our plans early next week.

Satcher Confirmation Hearing. The Senate Labor and Human Resources Committee will be holding Dr. Satcher's confirmation hearing next Wednesday. The day before, a major coalition of medical groups will hold a press conference to highlight the broad-based support Dr. Satcher enjoys. As of this point, there appears to be no major hurdles facing the CDC Director, although there is little question that Committee Members will raise questions about needle exchange, the ethics of the AIDS trials in Africa, and our proposal to combine the Office of the Surgeon General with the Assistant Secretary of Health. We will be conducting prep sessions early next week, but even now we feel fairly confident that Dr. Satcher will perform exceptionally well.

FDA Reform. Next Tuesday, the House will is scheduled to take up (and pass) their version of the FDA reform bill. We anticipate the bill they pass will be extremely close to something we can recommend that you sign.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: Bruce Reed
Elena Kagan

RE: DPC Weekly Report

1. Welfare Reform: Arizona Privatization Waiver -- This week, USDA requested more information from the state of Arizona on its privatization waiver request, meeting the welfare law deadline that it must approve, deny, or request more information on waiver requests within 60 days. Arizona wants to privatize food stamp and Medicaid operations in 13% of the state, as well as the authority to expand privatization state-wide in two years. USDA expects to take final action on the request after Congress adjourns. During the fight over Texas's proposal to privatize state-wide, we indicated some openness to a good demonstration affecting only part of a state.

2. Welfare: New Maryland Study on Recipients Leaving the Rolls -- A new study of Maryland's welfare reform program found that 54 percent of former recipients were working within three months of leaving the rolls. By the sixth month, 17 percent of recipients had returned to the rolls. The study's author, Professor Catherine Born of the University of Maryland, did not account for the remaining recipients, but plans to try to do so for a follow-up report to be released in January. This interim report tracked five percent of the state's caseload for six months after they left the rolls.

Not surprisingly, welfare recipients with recent work experience were more likely to be working once they left the rolls (66 percent vs. 54 percent) and those welfare recipients with younger children were more likely to return to the rolls. Notably, the study found no increase in foster care caseloads as a result of welfare reform. This research project will track this sample of recipients for two years.

3. Welfare: New Caseload Numbers --Welfare caseloads have dropped another 250,000 to just below 10.5 million -- a 1.7 million decline since last August and a 26 percent decline since January 1993. We are currently considering how to release these numbers, which are from June.

4. Welfare: October 1st -- As you know, there was a great deal of media interest in the start the new fiscal year on October 1st. We won't have end-of-year data on state work programs until mid-November, however, and because of staggered TANF start dates, only two-thirds of states are required to report what will be three months or less of data (from 7/1/97-9/30/97). Most states expect to meet the 25 percent overall work rate, but about 20 expect to fail the 75 percent rate for two parent families. We will have the option of fining them up to 5 percent of their block grant or letting them enter into correction action plans.

On October 1st, the National Directory of New Hires went on-line, enabling states to locate parents who owe child support and live in different states. HHS estimates that the directory will help collect $6 billion more in child support over the next ten years. October 1st also marks the deadline for states to have in place comprehensive state-wide child support computer systems, as required by the Family Support Act. Seventeen states, including California, are expected to fail. As you know we will be working with the House Ways and Means Committee to develop a legislative proposal which will enable us to penalize these states without withholding all federal child support funds. In addition, HHS this week released several grants authorized by the welfare reform law. One provides $50 million for programs to promote abstinence; another provides $10 million to promote access and visitation of children by their non-custodial parents. As you may know, many fathers rights groups believe increased father involvement will not only be good for children but will make fathers more likely to pay child support.

5. Immigration: Commission "Americanization" Proposal -- The U.S. Commission on Immigration Reform released its final report to Congress on Tuesday. In its report, the Commission calls for a new "Americanization Movement" -- a process to help immigrants integrate and become full participants in our national community. The Commission defines "Americanization" as the cultivation of a shared commitment to the American values of liberty, democracy, and equal opportunity. The Americanization proposal centers around three core elements: education, orientation, and naturalization. First, the Commission calls for a renewed commitment to the education of immigrant children, with a focus on English language acquisition. Second, it recommends that the federal government provide orientation materials to legal immigrants when they arrive as well as modest grants to states to create information clearinghouses of local resources available to immigrants. Third, the Commission proposes changes to the naturalization process (e.g., enhancing automation, improving civics and English tests, revising the naturalization oath) to enhance its credibility while maintaining an appropriate level of formality and ceremony.

Education Weekly

National Testing: We have sent you a detailed memo reviewing the current status of the testing initiative and our strategy for the next several weeks. Since that memo was written, there have been a number of additional staff-level meetings involving the appropriations conferees in which possible compromises have been raised. Porter is floating a compromise that would enable test development to proceed under NAGB's control, but would delay implementation until a fixed percentage of states had signed up for the tests. Bill Bennett and Checker Finn have floated a proposal that also allows test development to proceed under NAGB's control, requires NAGB to make the test specifications public by a fixed deadline, and enables implementation to proceed in FY 99 either through specific authorization or simply by appropriating the funds necessary for implementation. We believe the Bennett/Finn proposal is the more favorable for us, though it is not yet clear which, if either, will gain sufficient Republican support to be adopted in conference.

Charter Schools: Frank Riggs and Tim Romer are developing a bill, to be marked up next week, that would amend the existing charter schools statute. The primary intent is to provide incentives for states to enact stronger charter schools laws -- laws which place few or no limits on the number of charter schools that can be established, which provide for strong accountability as well as maximum flexibility, and which treat charter schools as separate local school districts. The draft legislation would also enable charter schools to receive start-up funds for five years, instead of three as under current law. The Education Department has been supportive of the purposes of the bill in meetings with Riggs and Romer, and has also expressed significant reservations about specific provisions in the preliminary drafts. The Department is concerned that several of the proposed changes could increase the administrative burdens on charter schools, reduce the targeting of Title 1 funds in large districts with charter schools, and reduce the funds available for new charter schools by allowing those already in existence to keep their funding for five rather than three years. We expect this legislation will move through committee relatively quickly. While the current program is working well and does not need to be amended, we believe we should support this bill if the Education Department's reservations are addressed.

The House is expected to consider the late term abortion legislation next Wednesday 10/8. The measure must pass back through the House because the original House bill was amended in the Senate to win the AMA's support for the measure. If the House passes the measure without further changes (which is anticipated) it will be ready to send to the President. We are working with Rosa De Lauro, Nita Lowey and others to plan for the floor vote. These Members have asked for a new letter from the President prior to the vote. For your information.

At the suggestion of Mayor Richard Daley (D-Chicago, IL), Mayor Tom Menino (D-Boston, MA), Mayor Dannel Malloy (D-Stamford, CT), and Mayor Beverly O'Neill (D-Long Beach, CA), the leadership of the U.S. Conference of Mayors (USCM) recently voted to formally request a "White House/Mayors Conference on Public Schools," similar to last year's White House conference on drug control. Some answers to your questions:

1. Can we combine policy and enforcement?

Sylvia sees these as separate pieces. I think this it is a good question for her during Monday's meeting. The way I see it is that you certainly could (and should) combine them for the development process for the EBB presentation - I can tell it's easier that way. However, as for treatment of these issues beyond that meeting, we'll have to deal with Sylvia. If I understand correctly, there will be a separate enforcement apparatus here at the WH, similiar to one headed by Edley and Deval during Clinton I, and that is why they are separate.

2. Can we put Tom Freedman in that group too?

Tom may certainly be in the group. In fact, I see the policy group as your group. The names in the e-mail referred only to must-members and team leaders.

3. Can you put me on the tough messages group?

I passed this onto Sylvia. I don't see it as a problem, but will let you know.

FACT SHEET: PRESIDENT CLINTON'S LINE ITEM VETO OF PROJECTS IN THE
FY 1998 MILITARY CONSTRUCTION APPROPRIATIONS ACT
OCTOBER 6, 1997

Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion

- 38 Projects Cancelled. Today, President Clinton announced that he will line item veto 38 projects in the Military Construction Appropriations Act of 1998 using the authority given him in the Line Item Veto Act.
- Saving Taxpayers Nearly $290 Billion. The President's action will reduce budget authority by $287 million in fiscal 1998.
- Bill Included 145 Projects Not Requested by the President. The Military Construction Act included funding for 145 projects that were not requested by the President in his 1998 Budget.
 - The Administration has carefully reviewed those unrequested projects and has concluded that while a majority of them have merit, a number of them do not.
- The President Is Using His Authority to Veto Projects that Meet All of the Following Three Criteria:
 - (1) The project was not requested in the President's FY 1998 Budget;
 - (2) The project would not substantially improve the quality of life of military service members and their families; and
 - (3) The project is unlikely to begin construction in FY 98 since the Department of Defense reports that no design work has been done on it.
- The President's Action Will Do Nothing to Undercut Our National Security, The Readiness of our Forces or their Operations in Defense of our Nation.
 - Based on these criteria, the President left over 400 projects in the Military Construction Appropriations Act, including 107 added by the Congress, reflecting his commitment to the quality of life of the forces and their families and his understanding of Congress' role in shaping appropriations bills. In fact, the President's actions accept a net of over $500 million in military construction funding he did not request.
- Under the Line Item Veto Act, which was signed into law on April 9, 1996, the President is authorized to cancel tax and spending items if he determines that cancellation will:
 - reduce the Federal budget deficit,
 - not impair any essential government functions, and
 - not harm the national interest.
- In addition, the Act requires the President to transmit to Congress a "special message" explaining his decision to cancel any tax or spending item pursuant to the Act.

FACT SHEET: PRESIDENT CLINTON'S LINE ITEM VETO OF PROJECTS IN THE
FY 1998 MILITARY CONSTRUCTION APPROPRIATIONS ACT
OCTOBER 6, 1997

Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion

- 38 Projects Cancelled. Today, President Clinton announced that he will line item veto 38 projects in the Military Construction Appropriations Act of 1998 using the authority given him in the Line Item Veto Act.
- Saving Taxpayers Nearly $290 Million. The President's action will reduce budget authority by $287 million in fiscal 1998.
- Bill Included 145 Projects Not Requested by the President. The Military Construction Act included funding for 145 projects that were not requested by the President in his 1998 Budget.
 - The Administration has carefully reviewed those unrequested projects and has concluded that while a majority of them have merit, a number of them do not.
- The President Is Using His Authority to Veto Projects that Meet All of the Following Three Criteria:
 - (1) The project was not requested in the President's FY 1998 Budget;
 - (2) The project would not substantially improve the quality of life of military service members and their families; and
 - (3) The project is unlikely to begin construction in FY 98 since the Department of Defense reports that no design work has been done on it.
- The President's Action Will Do Nothing to Undercut Our National Security, The Readiness of our Forces or their Operations in Defense of our Nation.
 - Based on these criteria, the President left over 400 projects in the Military Construction Appropriations Act, including 107 added by the Congress, reflecting his commitment to the quality of life of the forces and their families and his understanding of Congress' role in shaping appropriations bills. In fact, the President's actions accept a net of over $500 million in military construction funding he did not request.
- Under the Line Item Veto Act, which was signed into law on April 9, 1996, the President is authorized to cancel tax and spending items if he determines that cancellation will:
 - reduce the Federal budget deficit,
 - not impair any essential government functions, and
 - not harm the national interest.
- In addition, the Act requires the President to transmit to Congress a "special message" explaining his decision to cancel any tax or spending item pursuant to the Act.

Did you see the clip that Gilbert Casellas, chair of the EEOC, announced he was resigning? I meant to show you when I got back, it was in Thursday's paper. It could offer an opportunity for a high-profile or agenda-minded appointment.

Our proposal allows states to grant temporary waivers from the work rules and time limits to victims of domestic violence, which is the primary goal of the Senate provision.

However, our proposal achieves this goal through a different mechanism than the Senate. Rather than exclude victims of domestic violence from the work rates and time limits altogether, our proposal ensures that states that fail to meet the work rates or time limit standards because of domestic violence waivers will not receive financial penalties.

Our proposal goes further than the Senate in encouraging states to provide services to victims of domestic violence, exempting states from penalties only if they provide services based on an individual assessment.

TEXT:

The Doggett Amendment basically seeks to ban export promotion for tobacco and stop State from fighting prejudicial tobacco bans. His amendment was attached to state/commerce approps. in the House version and is not in Senate version, Some reports have the issue being taken up in Conference as early as this week. NSC says that is unlikely.

Substance: This Administration effectively banned export promotion, so this is not far from where we apparently already are. Problems: 1. while we don't promote cigs anymore, USDA seems to help tobacco (and therefore farmers). Doggett is not attached to the ag. approps. but his amendment does mention both tobacco and tobacco products. We're talking to USDA about this late today. 2. Doggett has called evidently asking for support. Should the Administration position be not to endorse specific tobacco bills yet?
