By LAURAN NEERGAARD

WASHINGTON (AP) - Several of President Clinton's AIDS advisers say they are considering resigning to protest the White House's refusal to spend federal money on buying clean needles for drug addicts.

Some members of the Presidential Advisory Council on AIDS said Wednesday they also are upset the administration has not implemented other council recommendations.

``I think it's fairly serious,'' Dr. Scott Hitt, a Los Angeles physician who chairs the 30-member council, said of the resignation threats.

Leading the protest is council member Robert Fogel, a Chicago lawyer and Clinton fund-raiser. He said Wednesday he plans to seek a vote on the resignation at the council's next meeting in December.

``Somebody up there is thinking more about politics than health,'' Fogel said. ``If they're not going to listen to us and do the right thing, I for one, and a number of other people on the council, can't think of any more excuses or apologies to give on this subject.''

Fogel said ``quite a few'' members of the council would consider resigning, mostly because of anger over needle exchanges.

Hitt has not taken a position on the idea of resigning. But he has met recently with Health and Human Services Secretary Donna Shalala and White House aides in hopes of getting some action before the council issues its evaluation of national AIDS policy in December.

Hitt said the report will have ``some fair but harsh things to say.'' He said he had recently told Clinton in a letter there is ``growing perception that in your second term, HIV/AIDS issues are not the high priority that they were'' previously.

``It's not like we're asking for pie-in-the-sky or perfection in this, but there are a few basic things that need to be done,'' Hitt said in a recent interview.

An administration plan announced this spring to expand Medicaid coverage to HIV patients appears stalled because of budget concerns, Hitt said. The administration also has not lifted restrictions on the content of federal HIV-education materials or revised ``scientifically discredited'' guidelines against HIV-infected health care workers.

``This administration has an extraordinary record in fighting the HIV/AIDS epidemic,'' responded Melissa Skolfield, a spokeswoman for Shalala, who met with concerned council members last month.

An estimated one-third of American adults with AIDS got the killer virus through contaminated needles or sex with injecting drug users. Scientific studies indicate that programs that let addicts exchange used needles for fresh ones cut HIV's spread. The National Institutes of Health has called such needle-exchange programs a powerful weapon against AIDS that has been blocked by politics.

Congress in 1988 outlawed federal money for needle exchanges until there is proof that they don't encourage drug use. That question ``has not been answered conclusively,'' said Skolfield.

Over 80 needle exchanges paid for by private or other nonfederal money already operate in the United States, but AIDS activists say expanding them will require federal money.

Fogel said he was concerned because a House-approved spending bill would strip from Shalala the ability to approve federal money for needle exchanges, even if it's proved they don't encourage drug use.

The Senate version of the bill retains the 1988 language and negotiators for both houses are trying to work out differences on needle exchanges and other differences in the two measures.

``At the moment, we just have to wait to see what happens,'' Fogel said Wednesday. ``If they (administration officials) lose that authority, or retain it but choose not to exercise it, that will be a factor in deciding whether to resign.''

The Women's Office is hosting a briefing/discussion for the 75+ state coalition leaders from the National Network To End Domestic Violence with Administration officials next Tuesday, October 14th, from 11:00 am - 12:30 pm, in the WHCC Truman Room. The group will be here for their annual meeting and leadership institute from October 14-17. They have requested this meeting to discuss issues relative to domestic violence including: funding for battered women's shelters and programs; VAWA; Family Violence Option; and welfare implementation particularly at the state level.

Audrey Tayse Haynes will moderate the panel of Administrations folks, which includes: Bonnie Campbell (confirmed), Ann Rosewater (confirmed), Olivia Golden (tentative), Susan Liss (tentative), and you (hopefully). We would like for each of you to make 5-7 minute presentations the first half of the program, and then open it up for discussion for the last half.

Please let me know as soon as you can if you or another DPC representative will be able to participate. Give me a call at 6-7310 if you have any questions. Thanks!

Rahm/Elena/Karen/Bruce/Leanne:

Attached please find an initially cleared draft of the proposed directive on modified assault weapons. Rahm wants to temporarily hold this. Karen wants to review it one more time w/counsel. And I would like to get some back-up from Treasury on the #s and types of weapons involved. Thus, we should all review this w/the expectation of doing it pretty soon, but not just yet...

BR and EK: you guys have yet to review this. I'll start drafting the Feinstein letter on this and the other two issues, with an eye towards circulating at the start of next week.

Regards,
Jose'

MEMORANDUM FOR THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

Subject: Importation of Uzi and Galil Firearms

The historic Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994 banned 19 specific assault weapons, duplicates of those 19 firearms and certain other semiautomatic weapons possessing various military style features. The Administration and Congress worked to ban these deadly firearms because -- as the weapon of choice for gangs and drug dealers -- they were being recovered at numerous crime scenes and resulting in criminals being better armed than the nation's law enforcement officers. Last year, in part as a result of the ban on assault weapons, fewer police officers were slain in the line duty than any year since 1960, and no law enforcement officer was killed by an assault weapon.

In addition to the prohibitions contained in the 1994 ban on assault weapons ban, the 1968 Gun Control Act further restricts the importation of firearms unless they are determined to be particularly suitable for or readily adaptable for sporting purposes. To enforce this law, the Treasury Department has developed a factoring system to determine whether handguns meet this sporting purposes test and are thus importable. The Department also determined that semiautomatic assault type rifles do not meet the sporting purposes test and are not importable.

I am now informed that 2 of the 19 assault weapons that were specifically banned from importation in 1989, the Galil and the Uzi, have been re-designed in order to circumvent the ban. Moreover, permits allowing the importation of thousands of these firearms have been approved. The Galil and Uzi, which are manufactured by Israeli Military Industries, were specifically banned because these weapons were manufactured and used for military purposes and had no legitimate sporting function. It is now appropriate to determine whether the modified weapons would have legitimate sporting purposes in this country and are approved for continued importation under the provisions of the Gun Control Act of 1968.

My Administration has aggressively enforced all applicable laws to keep non-sporting firearms and other munitions posing a threat to public safety from entering the country. Therefore, I direct you to:

- 1) Take the necessary steps to reexamine and determine whether the sporting purposes test should be modified with respect to the importation of the Galil, Uzi and any other firearms that have been similarly adapted or re-engineered to circumvent the 1989 ban on the importation of semiautomatic assault rifles or the 1994 ban on semiautomatic assault weapons;

- 2) Suspend action on pending applications to import these weapons effectively immediately; and
- 3) Delay final action on any application until this review process is completed.

Nothing herein shall be construed to require actions contrary to applicable provisions of law.

Charter Schools Bill Approved by House Education Committee on 24-8 Bipartisan Vote.

On Thursday ten Democrats and fourteen Republicans voted to approve amendments to the ESEA Public Charter Schools Program. The bill would give priority for new grants to states which give charter schools a high degree of autonomy over expenditures, allow the number of charter schools to increase, and periodically review each school to ensure academic performance requirements are met. The bill also incorporates the President's goal of increasing the number of charter schools to 3,000 by the year 2000. Prior to committee action the bill was substantially improved in response to concerns raised by the Department of Education, and Rep. Roemer joined Rep. Riggs as a co-sponsor. One outstanding issue is that the bill would allow subgrants to existing charter schools to be lengthened by two years, potentially reducing start-up funds available to new schools and risking long-term dependence on federal funding. Administration staff will continue to work with the sponsors to strengthen the legislation.

DATE: OCTOBER 9, 1997

SUBJECT: LEGISLATIVE REPORT

Stevens and Byrd late today introduced a bill to disapprove 36 of the 38 Mil Con item vetoes. The disapproval bill covers all the cancellations except for #31 (aviation support facility in S. Dakota) and #41 (an aerial port training facility in Wisconsin). Earlier in the afternoon, Stevens and Byrd chaired an appropriations hearing where Senators expressed their opposition to the cancellations and questioned witnesses from the Army, Navy and Air Force regarding the various items.

Senators Gramm, Byrd, Warner and Baucus announced their intention today to offer an amendment to the highway bill (following the recess) to increase contract authority by $31 billion over the 6 years. Domenici has stated his intention to raise a 60-vote budget point of order, but it's unclear if Domenici has 41 votes to sustain the point of order.

House Budget Committee Ranking Member Spratt hosted a briefing today on the FY 1997 deficit number for Committee Democrats, interested public and press. CBO Director O'Neill and Bob Reischauer of Brookings Institution spoke and answered questions. The event was designed to underscore the benefits OBRA 1993 has had on the deficit and overall economy and to give credit to the law's supporters.

The House and Senate are in recess until Monday, October 20th.

 Elena, et. al.:

Attached please find a one-pager I did for press/comm. for the radio address to be taped tomorrow at 2:30pm. I told Anne Lewis that I'd get it to her by about noon. It's not too eventful, interesting, etc., but let me know you're thoughts.

EK -- if you hadn't heard late today; the radio address in on the Treasury/Postal approps and its inclusion of the anti-drug media campaign. Also, Leanne will send Q/A's on this separately for review. It will be largely based on some ONDCP factoids, and will probably also serve as our submission for the press conference (they requested a domestic drug prevention Q/A, and what could be more appropriate for Saturday in Brazil -- but info related to the previously taped radio address. Right?

MC -- I have no idea where Rahm is on this somewhat ad hoc plan for the radio address. Any thoughts? I imagine a draft speech will be circulated in the morn.

LAUNCHING THE PRESIDENT'S ANT-DRUG MEDIA CAMPAIGN
OCTOBER 11, 1997

- The President's First Priority. The number one priority in the President's 1997 National Drug Control Strategy is to motivate our kids to reject the use of illegal drugs. That's why his Drug Strategy and Balanced Budget included substantial funds for an unprecedented, paid media campaign to teach our kids about the dangers of drug use.
- Media Campaign Now Law. Yesterday, by signing the Treasury and Postal Appropriations bill into law, the President officially launched his media campaign. Working with Congress, the private sector and others, the Office of National Drug Control Policy will now begin to shape specific drug-related messages to virtually all of the nations youth (ages 9-17).
- Why a Paid Media Campaign? There are several important reasons why President Clinton has proposed a paid media campaign:
 - (1) More kids using drugs. While overall drug use is down 50 percent over the last 15 years, adolescent drug use has been rising -- and the perceived risks of drug use falling -- since 1990;
 - (2) Fewer anti-drug messages. Free public service announcements (PSAs) are down by about 30 percent, and almost none are now aired during prime time viewing hours; and
 - (3) Need for a targeted, updated strategy. The media campaign will allow us to target specific programs or time slots that attract the young viewers we need to reach. And it will allow us to utilize modern media -- such as the internet -- to make sure our message is getting out to everyone.
- Reaching Kids Early. Statistical evidence shows that if a child can reach the age of 21 without using drugs, he or she will probably never use them. And studies also show that children who use drugs are even more likely to use other and more serious drugs. In fact, a recent study by Columbia University's Center on Addiction and Substance Abuse (CASA) showed that kids who smoke marijuana are 85 times more likely to use cocaine than kids who did not.
- Having the Right Tools. The President's media campaign is designed to give government the same resources and tools to help kids reject illegal drugs that advertising agencies use ever day to market consumer products and foods. That's the least we can do.

Surgeon General Confirmation. The Senate Labor and Human Resources Committee held its confirmation hearing for Dr. David Satcher this Wednesday. The hearing went extremely well, and Senators on both sides of the aisle praised Dr. Satcher. Few controversial issues were raised. He was not questioned on many of the high profile issues we were expecting, including needle exchange and AIDS research in Africa. It appears likely that the final full Senate vote on Dr. Satcher's confirmation will take place as early as the week of October 20th.

New York Provider Tax. On Thursday HHS met with Governor Pataki and members of the New York delegation as it released its announcement of how the Administration will work towards ensuring that all states' provider taxes are in compliance with the law. Clearly Governor Pataki chose to portray our response as being completely unsatisfactory. This is the case despite the fact that our position on provider taxes is the most favorable position we could have taken for New York (and all other states with potentially impermissible provider taxes) within the constraints of the law. If this wasn't the case, we would not be having to ask for legislation to give the Secretary authority she does not now have to waive up to all past liability for currently impermissible taxes. It is further validated by those staff members of the House Committee of Jurisdiction (who hate provider taxes) who are criticizing us for being too favorable to New York and resentful that we are pushing a legislative strategy. All things considered, however, we believe that our positioning on this issue is as well as could be hoped for and most realistically positions us to eventually and most expeditiously ensure that all states come into compliance.

FDA Reform. FDA reform passed the House this week and is now moving into conference. We are hopeful that the outstanding issues will be resolved in conference and that you will be sent a bill that we would recommend signing.

Kassebaum-Kennedy Implementation. As you know, there was a story in The New York Times last Sunday that reported that some insurers are giving agents incentives to not enroll high-risk populations. Such actions are completely inconsistent with the spirit of the Kassebaum-Kennedy law. We are meeting with HCFA, the agency responsible for administering this provision of the new law, to review all of the Federal and State statutory authority to stop such practices. We will keep you apprised as we move forward.

Confirmation of Nancy-Ann Min DeParle as HCFA Administrator. Nancy-Ann Min DeParle, your new appointment for HCFA Administrator, has had two Senate holds placed on her confirmation. Senator Harkin (D-IA) has placed a hold because of his frustration with the Administration's lack of enforcement of his fraud and abuse priority initiatives. Senator Kyl (R-AZ) has just placed a hold apparently because of his concern about the Administration's opposition to his amendment to reopen up the balanced budget act to allow physicians negotiate private contracts with Medicare beneficiaries.

On Wednesday Nancy-Ann met with Senator Harkin's staff and made a commitment to address many of the Senator's priorities. The Senator and his staff seemed quite pleased and it appears likely that Harkin will soon release his hold. Since Senator Kyl's hold was placed on Thursday of this week, we have not had the opportunity to arrange an acceptable arrangement to remove his hold. We are still conducting a thorough policy review on the Kyl Amendment, but are concerned that it could lead to more fraud and abuse in Medicare and dramatically increase beneficiary out-of-pocket costs.

We believe that the fact that Nancy-Ann has not been confirmed undermines her ability to be as effective as possible in administering one of the most complex and complicated agencies in the Federal government. We have and will continue to make her confirmation one of our highest priorities this fall.

MIAMI (CNN) -- A settlement was reached Friday between the tobacco industry and flight attendants, who filed a lawsuit claiming second-hand smoke sickened them.

The settlement was said to be worth hundreds of millions of dollars, but the exact amount was not immediately disclosed.

Attorneys for both sides met Friday with Dade County Circuit Court Judge Robert Kaye to discuss the settlement.
