DRAFT

Dear Governor _____:

I write to you again to seek your assistance and cooperation on one of our most important responsibilities -- protecting our children from violent, sexual predators. Nothing is more threatening to our families and communities than criminals who move from neighborhood to neighborhood looking for children to prey on. That is why we must do everything we can to track these offenders and keep them away from our children.

With your support we have already enacted critical legislation -- such as the Jacob Wetterling Act, the Pam Lychner Act and Megan's Law -- to help our communities guard against repeat sex offenders. These laws now serve as the foundation for many state sex offender registration systems and for notifying communities of released sex offenders. Congress is now considering -- and I strongly support -- additional legislation to help states implement these registration systems and to make sure that sex offenders convicted in federal or military courts are covered by these laws.

Equally important, my administration has worked hard to defend the constitutionality of state sex offender registration systems and community notification laws. And I am pleased to report that three federal courts of appeal have now upheld sex offender statutes in New Jersey, New York, Connecticut and Washington against constitutional challenges. My Administration will continue to fight to uphold these laws in the courts, including -- if necessary -- the United States Supreme Court.

Last year, I directed the Attorney General to create a national sexual offender registry to join together the efforts being made in all fifty states to track sex offenders. Our national registry will only be effective if every state participates and shares its data on sex offenders with other states. Although our interim registry became operational this spring, only 11 states are currently participating. With an incomplete registry, the law is unable to follow dangerous sex predators wherever they go -- state by state, neighborhood by neighborhood. I urge you to move expeditiously to participate in our national registry for the safety of the public and our children.

I can not emphasize enough how important your continued support and personal involvement is to the success of these initiatives. Through our combined efforts, we can be confident that we will have taken decisive steps to help families across the country protect their children.

TEXT:

Ann Grady/Senator Murray has some revised statutory language -- I think as a result of our conference call -- which she faxed to Mary Bourdette and may be offering in the Labor-HHS conference tonight. It is an attempt to come closer to us, but it doesn't quite do the trick. Here's how it seems to work:

- 1) States can grant as many domestic violence waivers as they want (current law);
- 2) Individuals with waivers are not counted in the work participation or time limit calculation (same as Murray's prior proposal);
- 3) If a state would have failed the participation rate or time limits but for step #2, then the Secretary may review the waivers granted by the state and may "revoke any waivers" that the "Secretary finds were not granted in good faith." Presumably this "revocation" puts those individuals back in the calculation.

Problems I see:

- a) The Secretary doesn't have the authority to revoke the waivers granted to individuals...and thus they wouldn't be put back in the calculation...so the mechanism doesn't quite work here.
- b) The burden of proof has shifted somewhat: here, the Secretary finds "bad faith waivers" in order to increase the participation rate, rather than lowering the participation rate for waivers granted appropriately.
- c) Waivers don't have to include services, or be temporary, or be granted based on an individual assessment, i.e., to people who really need them.

Anil, I'll fax you a copy.
