WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 /PRNewswire/ -- The Rev. Fred Phelps, who brandishes signs such as "God Hates Fags" and declares that homosexuals are beyond redemption, "is promoting a viewpoint that conflicts with Christian teaching," Family Research Council's Director of Cultural Studies Robert H. Knight said Monday. "Mr. Phelps' public pronouncements were seen most recently outside the Human Rights Campaign dinner on Saturday night and magnified by national media coverage. His contention that certain people are automatically excluded from the possibility of God's grace is unbiblical. In 1 Corinthians 6:9-10, homosexuals are included in a list of sinners, who, if unrepentant, will not inherit the kingdom of God. Verse 11 says, however, 'And that is what some of you were. ...'

"The implication," Knight added, "is clearly that the apostle Paul's followers included former homosexuals. So where do Mr. Phelps and his group come off saying that these people are unworthy of the same salvation that he claims to have? God does condemn homosexuality, but he doesn't 'hate' homosexuals. We believe that he wants them to change -- like any other sinners.

"We regret that Mr. Phelps has offered the media a crude caricature of Christian resistance to the homosexual agenda. His views do not represent those of Family Research Council or any other pro-family organization with which we work. While we share Mr. Phelps' opposition to homosexual activism we believe that homosexual individuals deserve compassion and are capable of hope, healing and salvation. We also call on the leaders of the Human Rights Campaign and other homosexual activists to expunge the word 'hate' from their regular discourse. We respect them as individuals even though we are compelled to resist their agenda. Their personal attacks on people who disagree with their point of view are unwarranted and divisive," Knight said. "Recasting a sincere policy disagreement as simply a form of 'hate,' as some participants at the White House Conference on Hate Crimes this week have often done, is a flagrant breach of civility and an attempt to intimidate individuals who merely seek to exercise their freedoms of speech and conscience.

"Personal testimonies from former homosexuals can be seen and heard on our new video documentary: Hope & Healing: Stories of Coming Out of Homosexuality. A companion booklet, also entitled Hope & Healing, offers an authentic Christian approach of ministering to people struggling with homosexuality," Knight concluded.

DRAFT
Labor-HHS-Education Budget Victories
An Historic Investment in Educational Opportunity
November 13, 1997

*Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion*

Now I ask you -- and I ask all our nation's governors; I ask parents, teachers, and citizens all across America -- for a new nonpartisan commitment to education -- because education is a critical national security issue for our future, and politics must stop at the schoolhouse door.
President Clinton, State of the Union Address, February 4, 1997

The Labor-HHS-Education Appropriations bill which the President signed today meets our national commitment to expand educational opportunities for all students. In addition to an 8% increase in Head Start, the bill increases discretionary funding for Education Department programs by more than $3.2 billion over FY 1997 -- $200 million more than the President won in the Balanced Budget Agreement. Overall, the bill represents the largest increase in America's national education investment in thirty years. The bill also contains an important agreement allowing continued progress toward high national standards and voluntary national tests in the basics of reading and math.

HELPING YOUNG CHILDREN GET READY TO LEARN

Head Start

The legislation includes the President's $324 million (8%) [Barry had $374 million over the FY 1997 level] increase in Head Start, allowing 836,000 children to be served. With this increase, Head Start funding will have increased 55% since 1993, continuing progress toward the President's goal of serving one million children.

RAISING STANDARDS: HELPING STUDENTS MASTER THE BASICS AND ADVANCED SKILLS

Voluntary National Tests

The bill allows continued development of national tests in 4th grade reading and 8th grade math, based on widely accepted national standards used in the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP). It shifts control over test policies and development to the independent, bipartisan, National Assessment Governing Board (NAGB), as the Administration had proposed. The bill provides $16 million to support the testing plan, and allows for pilot testing of test items to begin next Fall. The bill also provides for a feasibility study to determine if existing state tests can be linked to the NAEP standards, and to each other.

America Reads

The Corporation for National and Community Service -- AmeriCorps -- won an increase of $64 million in the two bills that fund the program. This is more than a 10 percent increase, a stark contrast to the 31 percent cut in the House versions of the bills, and more than the increases provided by the Senate. The new funds will be used to expand the America Reads program, connecting AmeriCorps members with schools to recruit and coordinate trained volunteers to provide children with the extra practice they need to learn to read well and independently by the end of third grade.

The bill also provides for $210 million in FY 1999 for the America Reads Challenge legislation that is currently moving through Congress. In addition, funds are provided in FY 1998 to help train college work-study tutors.

Technology Literacy Challenge Fund and Technology Innovation Challenge Grants

The technology education programs -- which were protected in the Balanced Budget Agreement -- received a 91 percent increase, from $305 million to $545 million. That is $39 million more than the President proposed. These programs are designed to facilitate school access to the Internet and equip teachers with skills needed to integrate computers into their classroom instruction.

Charter Schools

President Clinton's public charter schools program received a 57 percent increase, from $51 million to $80 million. This program provides start-up funding for public schools that parents, teachers, and communities create -- and that States free from most rules and regulations and instead holds them accountable for raising student achievement. The increase will help accelerate progress towards the President's goal of developing 3,000 new charter schools by early in the next century.

After-School Learning Centers

This new investment of $40 million will help extend learning opportunities for children and their families at schools across the country, keeping schools open late, on weekends, and in the summer so young people will stay off the streets and out of trouble.

Comprehensive School Reform

The bill includes $150 million in new funds for an initiative, supported by the President, to help low-achieving, low-income schools transform themselves through proven reforms, addressing failing schools without abandoning public education.

Bilingual and Immigrant Education

The bill includes a 35 increase in bilingual and immigrant education secured by the President in the Balanced Budget Agreement. This victory, increasing total funding to $354 million, will help more children master learn English and prepare to meet the same challenging academic standards as all other students.

IDEA

The bill strengthens our nation's 20-year commitment to disabled children and their parents, providing $4.4 billion dollars for special education -- an increase of $775 million over FY 1997.

Goals 2000

The bill provides $491 million for the President's Goals 2000 school reform program. Communities in every state are using Goals 2000 funds to upgrade curriculum, improve teaching, increase parental involvement in schools, and make greater use of computers in the classroom. Since 1994, over $1.3 billion has been invested in this vital initiative.

Title I

The bill provides nearly $7.4 billion to support extra help in basic and advanced skills for more than ten million disadvantaged students in elementary and secondary schools. Under the Clinton Administration, investment in Title I has grown by over $ 1 billion.

HELPING STUDENTS GET A COLLEGE EDUCATION AND CONTINUE LEARNING FOR A LIFETIME

Pell Grants

Congress adopted President Clinton's proposal to increase the maximum Pell Grant by $300 to $3,000 -- the largest increase in two decades. In addition, the program was expanded to serve an additional 210,000 low-income students who have been denied Pell Grants because of anomalies in the design of the program.

HOPE Modification to Enhance Eligibility for Financial Aid

At the last minute, appropriators added the President's proposal to ensure that families' eligibility for Federal financial aid is not reduced as a result of the tax cuts for higher education. This was a part of the Administration's original HOPE Scholarship proposal, but was not included in the recent tax legislation. In addition, a provision was added to reduce the interest rate on consolidation loans in the guaranteed student loan program to match the lower rate which has been offered under direct lending, and to allow consolidations into either program.

OTHER VICTORIES

The bill fully funds the Education Department's Office for Civil Rights; meets the President's request for increases for Historically Black Colleges and Universities and Hispanic-Serving Institutions; increases funding for teacher training in the Eisenhower Professional Development program; and maintains our investments in School-to-Work, Safe and Drug-Free Schools and Communities, College Work-Study, and other education programs. The bill also includes [increased support for Opportunity Areas for Out-of-School Youth][?].

THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES NEW WELFARE TO WORK COMMITMENTS

November 17, 1997

Today, President Clinton announced that in six months over 2,500 companies have pledged to hire new workers from the welfare rolls, far surpassing the goals set May 20th when the Welfare to Work Partnership was launched at the White House. The President traveled today to Wichita, Kansas to dedicate a new welfare to work facility at one of the Partnership's founding members, Cessna Aircraft Company, and to praise a new campaign by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce to enlist every local chamber of commerce in the welfare to work effort. The President also unveiled new work-focussed welfare reform rules which will ensure state and local governments are accountable for results and have the flexibility to use federal resources most effectively. [He also announced that welfare caseloads have continued their dramatic decline, falling __ months in a row _____ to _____, _____ less than when he became President and _____ less than when he signed welfare reform into law.]

The President Announces Private Sectors Commitments have Grown from 100 to 2,500

On May 20th, 100 company executives joined the President at the White House to launch the Welfare to Work Partnership and pledged to enlist 1,000 companies within six months. Today, the President announced that over 2,500 companies have joined the Partnership and pledged to hire welfare recipients without displacing current employees.

The President Dedicates New State-of-the-Art Welfare to Work Facilities at Cessna

Today, the President dedicated Cessna Aircraft Company's new state of the art facilities where welfare recipients will be trained for skilled jobs at Cessna. The new _____ square foot facility will allow Cessna, one of the founding members of the Partnership, to double its welfare to work program and provide on-site child care for its trainees. The President hailed Cessna's model program for providing individualized training, a salary with health benefits, child care, and a guaranteed job upon completion of the program. Over 200 graduates of the program are now working at Cessna, at an average wage of $ _____. The new facility was built by the city of Wichita using $ _____ in loan guarantees from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, and is part of a successful urban revitalization effort. Today, the President was joined in the dedication ceremony by Cessna CEO Russell W. Meyer, Jr. and two program graduates -- _____, a _____ [year] graduate who is now a program supervisor, and _____ who just graduated in _____ [year].

The President Praises New U.S. Chamber of Commerce Welfare to Work Campaign

Today, the President praised the U.S. Chamber of Commerce's new campaign to enlist every local chamber of commerce in the welfare to work effort. U.S. Chamber of Commerce President Tom Donahue appeared with the President today to urge the hundreds of thousands of companies who belong to over 3,000 chambers of commerce nationwide to join the Welfare to Work Partnership and look to welfare recipients to fill critical labor shortages.

President Unveils New Results-Focussed Welfare to Work Rules

The President today unveiled new federal welfare reform rules which underscore his commitment to work and welfare reform. The rules provide additional guidance to states operating the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) welfare reform program and to states and localities receiving Welfare to Work (WtW) grants enacted in the Balanced Budget Act.

Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion

The new rules uphold the law's strong emphasis on work by underscoring the importance of the law's work participation rates. Under the TANF program enacted last year, states must put an increasing percentage of adults to work each year (25 percent of all families must work in fiscal year 1997 rising to 50 percent in 2002; 75 percent of two parent families must work in 1997, rising to 90 percent in 1999). The rules announced today provide a clear and firm structure of penalties for those states that do not meet these critical work rules. States that fail the work participation rates will be assessed penalties based on degree of noncompliance. They will then be given an opportunity to correct the violation -- and if they do not make substantial progress, then they will receive a financial penalty (up to 5 percent of their welfare block grant). By law, states that are penalized must expend more of their own funds to make up the penalty amount, to ensure that families are not short-changed.

The new welfare rules do recognize that some welfare recipients may, at a given time, be unable to join the work force. For example, the rules allow states to grant temporary waivers from the work rules for victims of domestic violence who are unable at that point to work, but only if they provide services to help those individuals prepare for work and become self-sufficient. States that fail the work participation rates because they grant such good cause domestic violence waivers will be eligible for reasonable cause exceptions from the penalties.

The new welfare rules ensure that states and localities have the flexibility they need to design welfare to work initiatives that meet individual needs and local conditions. Both the TANF and Welfare to Work rules provide tremendous flexibility to state and local governments to decide what programs and services will best help families become self-sufficient.

Both the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) regulations (issued by the Department of Health and Human Services) and the Welfare to Work (WtW) regulations (issued by the Department of Labor) will be published in the Federal Register this week for 60 days of public comment.

[The President Announces that Welfare Caseloads Continue their Dramatic Decline

President Clinton announced today that welfare caseloads have declined another _____, bringing the total reduction to more than ___ million since he became President, a drop of ___ percent. In the ___ from August 1996 when he signed welfare reform into law through _____ (the numbers released today), welfare rolls have declined by ___ million to just under ___ million. A total of ___ out of 50 states have lowered their welfare rolls -- ___ states by 40 percent or more.

The new caseload numbers demonstrate the success of the welfare reform law. This ___ million caseload decline is the largest in history. Today, welfare caseloads, which fell by a record 1.9 million in the President's first three-and-a-half years in office, have dropped by 2 (?) million more in the one year after signing the law (??)]

Attached is what we sent to HHS. It finally dawned on OMB that the penalties most strongly linked to child support (misuse of funds and the one related to child support) are not that likely to be imposed and therefore not that strong a disincentive for states. So they asked to piggyback onto our chosen penalties for work for the most part. We told them HHS may argue that there is no link between some of those penalties and child support.

Here are the penalty links we made by area:

- | | |
|------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| Work | Child Support |
| 1. Participation Rates | 1. Participation Rates |
| | 2. Failure to require individuals |
| to coop. | |
| | w/child support rules |
| 2. Time Limits | 3. Time Limits |
| 3. Failure to maintain assistce to | |
| parents who can't get child care | |
| for child under 6 | |
| 4. Failure to sanction indivs | 4. Failure to sanction |

DIVERSION TO STATE-ONLY PROGRAMS

Note: See attached charts for illustration of which of the 14 penalties these provisions would apply to and which they would not.

REG LANGUAGE:

271.51: Degree of Non-Compliance and 272.5 -- Reasonable Cause Exception

Here is the language HHS has already agreed to:

We will not forgive the state penalty under 272.1(a)(4) [work participation rate penalty] based on reasonable cause unless a state demonstrates as part of its reasonable cause application that it has not diverted cases to a separate state program for the purpose of avoiding the TANF work participation requirements.

Possible revision:

Work: We will not forgive the state penalty under 272.1(a)(4), 272.1(a)(9), 272.1(a)(11), or 272.1(a)(14) based on reasonable cause if we detect a significant pattern of diversion of families to a separate state program that achieves the effect of avoiding the work participation rates.

[Note: 4 penalties above are work participation, time limit, failure to maintain assistance to parent who can't get child care for child under 6, and failure to sanction individuals who refuse to work.]

Child Support: We will not forgive the state penalty under 272.1(a)(4), 272.1(a)(6), 272.1(a)(9), or 272.1(a)(14) based on reasonable cause if we detect a significant pattern of diversion of families to a separate state program that achieves the effect of preventing the federal collection of child support.

[Note: 4 penalties above are work participation, failure to require individuals to cooperate with child support rules, time limit, and failure to sanction individuals who refuse to work.]

272.6(I) -- "Some or all" of penalty after corrective compliance plan fails:

Work: We will not reduce the penalty under 272.1(a)(4), 272.1(a)(9), 272.1(a)(11), or 272.1(a)(14) if we detect a significant pattern of diversion of families to a separate state program that achieves the effect of avoiding the work participation rates.

Child Support: We will not reduce the state penalty under 272.1(a)(4), 272.1(a)(6), 272.1(a)(9), or 272.1(a)(14) if we detect a significant pattern of diversion of families to a separate state program that achieves the effect of preventing the federal collection of child support.

[Note: same penalties as under reasonable cause.]

PREAMBLE LANGUAGE:

In several places where we discuss penalties, we note that we will not forgive certain penalties due to reasonable cause, reduce certain penalties after a corrective compliance fails, or reduce the work participation rate penalty based on the degree of non-compliance if we detect a significant pattern of diversion of families to a separate state program that achieves the effect of avoiding the work participation rates. The same is true for certain other penalties if we detect a significant pattern of diversion of families to a separate state program that achieves the effect of preventing the federal collection of child support.

We plan to monitor states' actions to determine if they constitute a significant pattern of diversion. For example, if we came to the conclusion through an examination of statistical or other evidence that a state was assigning people to a separate state program in order to prevent federal collection of child support, or in order to evade the work requirements, we would conclude that this is a significant pattern of diversion, and would deny that state certain types of penalty relief.

A state would be permitted the opportunity to prove that this pattern was actually the result of state policies and objectives that were entirely unrelated to the goal of diversion, but we would make the final judgment as to what constitutes a significant pattern of diversion.

Work Rates: Proposal Would Deny the Following Relief from Penalties to States that Divert Hard-to-Employ Families from TANF to Avoid Work Participation Requirements

Penalty	Set Based on Degree of Non-Compliance	Reasonable Cause Exception	Corrective Compliance Plan	Can be Reduced After Plan Does Not Correct Violation

Judy Winston's staff is going to call Harris Wofford/the Corporation to set up a time to talk about race and service. I will be included in any meeting. But the race staff (Michele Cavataio) is anxious to explore this and I don't think it's productive to try to stand in the way at this point. She is even pushing to involve Gen. Powell and America's Promise, so I think it's safer for them to talk to the Corporation at this point.

I hear that 2 concepts for the Dec. race town hall are being presented to the President this morning; not clear to me whether one of them is service. I hear the location is Akron. I have not been able to identify any loop to get myself into on this process. Even if the town hall is not on service, I may argue that we announce the MLK Day grants and maybe the Kindness/Justice curriculum that day, if the link isn't too strained.

Here's my Cliff Notes version of the HHS proposals (Elena, I faxed you the pages):

Waivers:

1) A state that wants to continue inconsistent time limit and work requirement waivers must have the Governor certify which ones, why, and what standards the state will use to assign individuals to alternate work assignments or to grant time limit exemptions or extensions;

2) A state that continues inconsistent waiver policies and still fails the work rate or time limits a) will not be eligible for a reasonable cause penalty exception and b) would have to consider changing their policy as part of the corrective action plan.

3) The Secretary will make public what how states performed compared to other states without waivers.

Fingerprinting:

Rule language is as we proposed Monday, but it adds the word "calculable" back in, i.e., "A State need not factor out calculable effects of enforcement mechanisms or procedural requirements....etc.

TEXT:

The review with Raines on civil rights is going well -- from our point of view. Raines emphasized the notion of compliance/ADR as key -- making employers feel like the process would be less difficult (adversial, slow) for them.

OMB has made the four points of mediation, compliance, technology and data gathering its theme, but the budget numbers arguably don't fully support that storyline. Given what Raines said, I think they will be ready to move even more in that direction and we have the supplemental materials from the agencies on how to do this.

The meeting got about halfway through before Raines had to leave.

MEMORANDUM TO DISTRIBUTION LIST

FROM: Bruce Reed
Assistant to the President for Domestic Policy

SUBJECT: November 13, 1997 CRIME MEETING

On Thursday, November 13, at 4:00 p.m. in Room 474 (The Indian Treaty Room) the Old Executive Office Building, we will hold the Weekly Crime Meeting.

Thank you.

DRAFT
1998 Education Budget:
An Historic Investment in Educational Opportunity
November 13, 1997

*Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion*

Now I ask you -- and I ask all our nation's governors; I ask parents, teachers, and citizens all across America -- for a new nonpartisan commitment to education -- because education is a critical national security issue for our future, and politics must stop at the schoolhouse door.

President Clinton, State of the Union Address, February 4, 1997

HIGHLIGHTS: The President's signature on the Labor-HHS-Education Appropriations Bill today, along with the education tax cuts enacted in August, take us an historic step closer to reaching the President's goal of making sure that every 8-year old can read, every 12-year old can log on to Internet, every 18-year old can go to college, and all Americans can keep on learning throughout their lifetimes. These investments represent the largest increase in our education investment in a generation, including the biggest increase in college aid since the GI Bill 50 years ago. The bill being signed today:

- promotes high standards and continued development of voluntary national tests;
- increases Pell Grants to $3,000 -- the largest increase in two decades;
- expands Head Start;
- funds America Reads to help all children read well and independently by age 8;
- brings technology to the classroom;
- expands choice and accountability through public Charter Schools.

HELPING YOUNG CHILDREN GET READY TO LEARN

Expands Head Start toward 1 Million Children. The bill provides nearly $4.4 billion for Head Start, continuing on track with the President's commitment to the goal of serving one million children. With this $374 million increase, Head Start funding will have increased 57% since 1993. The program will serve an estimated 836,000 children in 1998.

RAISING STANDARDS: HELPING STUDENTS MASTER THE BASICS AND ADVANCED SKILLS

Continues Development of Voluntary National Tests. The bill allows continued development of national tests in 4th grade reading and 8th grade math, based on widely accepted national standards used in the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP). It shifts control over test policies and development to the independent, bipartisan, National Assessment Governing Board (NAGB), as the Administration had proposed. The bill provides $16 million to support the testing plan, and allows for pilot testing of test items to begin next Fall. The bill also provides for a feasibility study to determine if existing state tests can be linked to the NAEP standards, and to each other.

Provides Funding for the America Reads Challenge. The bill provides $301 million in new America Reads funding. This builds on current AmeriCorps tutoring efforts, and more than 800 colleges that have committed to using Federal work-study slots tutoring children who need help in reading.

- AmeriCorps and the senior volunteer programs won an increase of $64 million in the two bills that fund National Service program ($39 million in the bill being signed today). This will fund more than 3000 AmeriCorps members and senior volunteers who will recruit more than 100,000 volunteer tutors.
- State teacher training and family literacy efforts are increased a total of $47 million, and $5 million is provided to help provide training for tutors.
- $210 million for pending legislation based on the President's America Reads initiative. The House version of that legislation -- promoting tutoring, family literacy, and teacher training -- passed the House with the Administration's support on November 8.

Brings Technology to the Classroom. Technology education programs received a 91 percent increase, from $305 million to $545 million, including:

- Technology Literacy Challenge Fund. The bill provides $425 million, more than twice as much as the $200 million appropriated last year, to help States, communities, and schools acquire hardware, software, and connectivity linkages; provide professional development in the integration of technology into the curriculum; and apply technology to support school reform efforts and opportunities for all students.
- Technology Innovation Challenge Grants. The bill includes $106 million--a 41 percent increase over last year's level of $75 million--to support 15 new projects focused on delivering the most effective training for teachers in using educational technologies, as well as 62 existing projects involving a wide range of innovative strategies for improving teaching and learning and increasing student access to technology.

Expands Choice and Accountability in Public Schools. President Clinton's Public Charter Schools Program received a 57 percent increase, from $51 million to $80 million. This program provides start-up funding for public schools that parents, teachers, and communities create -- and that States free from most rules and regulations and instead holds them accountable for raising student achievement. By the end of next year, the Department of Education will be funding nearly 1,000 locally-designed charter schools, accelerating progress toward the President's goal of developing 3,000 new charter schools by early in the next century.

Supports Certification of Master Teachers. The bill includes $18.5 million in support of the President's plan to help 100,000 teachers nationwide seek certification as Master Teachers by the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards.

Provides After-School Opportunities for Children. The bill dramatically expands support for the 21st Century Community Learning Centers program, providing $40 million to support hundreds of after-school centers in rural and urban schools across the country that will provide academic enrichment, tutoring, and other learning opportunities while giving students a safe haven during the often-dangerous after-school hours.

Supports Strategies for Transforming Failing Schools. The bill includes $150 million in new funds for an initiative, supported by the President, to help low-achieving, low-income schools transform themselves through proven reforms, addressing failing schools without abandoning public education. Will help almost 3,000 schools implement successful reforms.

Helps Children Learn English. The bill includes a 35 increase in bilingual and immigrant education secured by the President in the Balanced Budget Agreement. The bilingual education funding will help school districts teach English to more than a million limited English proficient children, as well as provide some 4,000 teachers with the training they need to do their jobs better. The Immigrant Education program will help more than a thousand school districts provide supplemental instructional services to 875,000 recent immigrant students.

Helps Children with Special Needs. This bill appropriates $3.8 billion for Special Education Grants to States, an increase of $700 million that will raise the Federal share of serving about 6 million children with disabilities by 19 percent. This increase will help States and school districts improve educational results for children with disabilities and help these children meet high standards, as called for by the recently enacted Individuals with Disabilities Act Amendments of 1997.

Promotes High Standards for All Children. The bill provides $491 million for the President's Goals 2000 school reform program. Communities in every state are using Goals 2000 funds to upgrade curriculum, improve teaching, increase parental involvement in schools, and make greater use of computers in the classroom. Since 1994, over $1.3 billion has been invested in this vital initiative.

Funds Extra Assistance for Low-Income Schools and Students. The bill provides nearly $7.4 billion in Title I to support extra help in basic and advanced skills for more than ten million disadvantaged students in elementary and secondary schools. Under the Clinton Administration, investment in Title I has grown by over $ 1 billion.

HELPING STUDENTS GET A COLLEGE EDUCATION AND CONTINUE LEARNING FOR A LIFETIME

Increases Pell Grant Award to $3,000 Maximum. Congress adopted President Clinton's proposal to increase the maximum Pell Grant to $3,000 -- the largest increase in two decades.

Approximately 3.7 million students will receive the $300 increase, and an additional 214,000 low- and moderate-income families that were not previously eligible will receive Pell Grants.

Protects Families' Financial Aid Eligibility. The bill includes the President's proposal to ensure that families' eligibility for Federal financial aid is not reduced as a result of the tax cuts for higher education. This was a part of the Administration's original HOPE Scholarship proposal, but was not included in the recent tax legislation.

Reduces Student Loan Interest Rate. A one-year provision will reduce the interest rate on consolidation loans in the guaranteed student loan program to match the lower rate which has been offered under direct lending, and will allow old loans to be consolidated into either program.

STRENGTHENING OUR NATION'S COMMITMENT TO EQUITY IN EDUCATION

Fully Funds Office for Civil Rights. The bill fully funds the Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights, meeting the President's request for a 12% increase in order to protect America's students from illegal discrimination in education.

Increases Funding for Historically Black Colleges and Universities and Hispanic Serving Institutions. The bill meets the President's request for increases for both Historically Black Colleges and Universities and Hispanic-Serving Institutions, providing greater support for these vital postsecondary institutions.

OTHER VICTORIES

The bill also maintains our investments in Safe and Drug-Free Schools and Communities, School-to-Work Opportunities, College Work-Study, and other education priorities.
