THE WEEK AHEAD

December 15 - 21

(All items are subject to change.)

Monday (12/15): No message event scheduled. Possible afternoon announcement concerning Bill Lann Lee.

Tuesday (12/16): President Clinton will present awards to the fourteen 1997 recipients of the nation's highest science and technology honors, the National Medal of Science and the National Medal of Technology. The President will use the event to emphasize the critical roles science and technology play as pillars of America's economic strength. Recognizing that advances in technology drive our new economy -- in particular advances that make our computers and other information technologies "smaller, faster and cheaper" -- the President will reaffirm the Administration's commitment to supporting basic scientific research.

In the afternoon, President Clinton will hold a press conference at the State Department.

Wednesday (12/17): President Clinton will attend a ceremony to confer the Congressional Space Medal of Honor posthumously on two astronauts, Lt. Col. Ed White and Roger Chaffee, who died in 1967 in a launch pad fire on Apollo 1. The medal is awarded for distinguished service and exceptional contributions to the nation's space program.

Thursday (12/18): President Clinton will continue a holiday tradition by reading the "The Night Before Christmas" to a group of local children.

Friday (12/19): President Clinton will present the Malcolm Baldrige Quality Awards to businesses that have established themselves as outstanding leaders in their industries. During his remarks, the President will discuss the emerging new economy and will articulate his vision and strategy for helping Americans make the most of this new economy and the challenges and opportunities of the 21st century.

In the afternoon, President Clinton will meet with a group of conservatives to discuss a variety of issues raised by the Initiative on Race. At this meeting we expect the President to hear a wide range of conservative positions being voiced as part of the dialogue fostered by the Initiative.

Saturday (12/20): Radio Address, topics being discussed are homelessness, the role of service and the spirit of holiday giving or announcing a drug report on teenage drug use that says usage is leveling off and the attitudes of teens toward drugs is improving.

Sunday (12/21): No message event scheduled.

TEXT:

Thanks for your guidance. I would like to send Bishop Fiorenza the following letter:

Dear Bishop Fiorenza:

Thank you for your recent letter regarding physician-assisted suicide, and the Drug Enforcement Administration's recent ruling. I have relayed your concerns to the President's Domestic Policy Council, which informs me that the issue is currently under review by the Department of Justice, so any substantive comment by me or other White House personnel would be inappropriate.

But please know that your voice and the voices of others who share your views is being heard. And on a personal level, please feel free to continue to contact me if I can ever be of assistance in the future.

But if I may weigh in for a moment, I think it would be tragic and unwise to allow Oregon or any state to prescribe lethal poison in the name of medicine. I suppose states have the right to amend their murder statutes to permit it under certain circumstances, and the voters of Oregon are clearly of a mind to do so. But that does not carry with it a concomitant Federal obligation to facilitate the means. I don't think it's prudent to allow states to amend federal drug laws as they see fit.

I'd be happy to discuss if you're interested. But in any event, let me know if the above language is going to cause any problems.

Today we are announcing a partnership between the President's Initiative on Race and the U.S. Department of Education. Building on the effort by the Race Initiative to collect promising practices from around the country, the partnership will identify and perform in-depth case studies of places around the country that are creating high expectations for, and raising achievement of, students of all races and ethnicities.

For 21st Century Learning Center program, OMB uses the following numbers (from DOE):

$40,000/yr per site

$800/yr per child

So, for the 2 options in the OMB memo:

(1) $60 million increase in FY99 (100 million total), 1,500 additional sites would be reached and 75,000 additional school-age children served; and

(2) $160 million increase in FY99 (200 million total), 4,000 additional sites would be reached and 200,000 additional school-age children served.

Also, one additional question from OMB re: Early Learning Fund. For OMB's options memo, they included, per your discussion with Barbara, $400 million per year. Did you anticipate that to be phased in the out years?

The meeting with the conservatives is Friday, December 19th at 2:45pm, and will last approximately an hour and a half. This is one of the President's regular outreach meetings, though the scheduling was likely influenced by the Franklin statement about Connerly. Richard did not have a complete list of attendees, but it includes Kemp, Connerly and Linda Chavez. Though members of Congress are not usually included in these meetings, the President has invited both Lott and Gingrich.

The general format is that the President says what is on his mind, and then gives each person present an opportunity to do the same. There is usually some give and take, but not necessarily with each person present.

Maria E. is in charge of the briefing. Richard thinks that it is a good idea for us to be involved in the briefing. He is meeting with Maria now, so we will know the schedule, etc. soon.

The Post has positive article on the front page of the Metro section discussing Baileys Elem. school. It discusses in brief (not many details) the problems initially faced by the school when English speaking parents were zoned to the school, and the limit on the number of "outside boundary" students admitted to the school in its "magnet" incarnation, but on the whole treats it all as a success. Two good points included as part of the formula for success: reduced student-teacher ration in the first grade and less "ability grouping" than in other schools (with a school policy of high expectations for all kids, and that "mixed ability" classes produce success for all).

Though we still have to prepare for land mines in the case study, this coverage is encouraging.

Voinovich will make Block Grants a major initiative at the Feb NGA mtg. One of the proposals of greatest concern is a block grant on education. Romer seems ready to sign on, and in the absense of support from other Governors, Jonathan Jones says Carper will not oppose. If we want to beat it back, we will have to push. I suggest we arrange a meeting with Jennifer Davis and possibly DPC to discuss further.

EK:

Below please find the few sentences you requested on Treasury/ATF's expansion of the Youth Crime Gun Interdiction Initiative (YCGII) in the budget. The initiative received no special funding in FY 97. It received a $1 million line-item in FY 98 and should also receive $10 million from the Treasury Secretary's Forfeiture Fund. However, the current funding has generally not provided for ATF to hire/dedicate additional agents to the project or to increase investigations on gun traffickers (funding to date has generally provided training to state and locals, computer equipment/software and contract personal to do tracing).

The current OMB recommendation for FY 99 proposes $28 million for the YCGII -- $12 million that is already built into the base and an additional $16 million that they are supporting from the Presidential Priority Reserve (PPR). These funds will be used, in part, for new agents. Treasury is appealing for an additional $4 million in personal from the PPR.

Youth Crime Gun Interdiction Initiative -- The proposed FY 99 budget includes $28 million to expand the President's Youth Crime Gun Interdiction Initiative (YCGII). This includes $16 million in new funds to hire 162 ATF agents to crackdown on illegal gun traffickers in the 27 youth crime gun cities, and $12 million to continue the Administration's comprehensive gun tracing in these cities. ATF's crime gun tracing has been a key component of Boston's successful youth violence strategy.

NB: If Treasury wins its appeal for an additional $4 million, which I believe DPC and Rahm should support, we could add 27 agents (mostly for training), 33 inspectors to visit firearms dealers, and 50 clerical and support staff to the above total.

You recall that OLC's opinion on HHS's draft definition sent HHS back to the drawing board.

Latest problem: HHS must have been telling advocacy groups for months that they were going to define this term in a way that would protect most programs. The advocate Cecilia Munoz told me today that the field is panicking because they "thought they were OK," but now they hear we may be taking a tougher stance on this. I told her that there are legal questions that HHS is examining in order to arrive at a definition. Her rhetoric was that she hoped the Administration "that fought with us on the Gallegly amendment" wouldn't work against them.

MEMORANDUM FOR WHO, OVP, OPD, NSC AND CEA STAFF

FROM: VIRGINIA R. CANTER
ASSOCIATE COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT
DAWN M. CHIRWA
ASSOCIATE COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: REMINDER: December Ethics Training

The critics have spoken and "INTEGRITY" gets rave reviews!

You won't want to miss your chance to compete against fellow staff members in our new ethics game show, "INTEGRITY" hosted by a special VIP mystery guest! Also scheduled is our critically acclaimed performance of "The Grinch Who Said No to Gifts!"

While attendance will be fun, it is MANDATORY that you attend one of the sessions in order to fulfill your yearly ethics training requirements. The only remaining December training date is:

Tuesday, December 16, 4:00 pm

The session will be held in OEOB 450 and last approximately 1 hour.

There will also be make-up sessions in January, but you won't want to miss the holiday fun!

Folks--I'm assuming I'm responsible for the briefing here, although help will be greatly appreciated, particularly for providing background information for the participants. If Michael, Janet and Ann would coordinate research on our participants and would provide a couple of paragraphs on each participant that would be great. Thoughts on what else should be in the briefing memo please send forward; thank you.

Subject: Friday's "PIR" meeting

I think it is critical that we touch base with the groups, and make sure we give everyone a chance to vent before Friday. I suggest that the two of you pull together a small WH staff meeting to go through the politics of the Friday meeting, and to do some scripting for it as well. The VP will participate, and i can do some of this myself, but I don't think that 's the right way to do it. Also, I think we need to have in mind some very clear objectives for this meeting, and it would be helpful for me, in pr paring the VP for this, to talk through them with you and others. (VP is likely to miss the POTUS prebrief because of foreign policy scheduling requirements so we will need to brief him separately on Thursday, and I hope you can participate in that.) Finally, Maria, who will be doing the briefing material for this, and how extensive will it be? Is someone summarizing the writing of some of these folks? I think the VP and POTUS will want and will benefit from something more extensive than the regular format. thanks!

FYI, here's what OMB is carrying in legal immigrant benefit restorations.

1. Food Stamps -- $2.7 billion over 5 years

Restore benefits to:

all families with children

disabled/elderly population who got SSI/Medicaid benefits restored (i.e., here when law was signed)

Let refugees/asylees get benefits for 7 years after arrival. (Current law is 5 years; we extended it to 7 years for SSI/Medicaid, so this would conform to that for food stamps.)

Possible ways to scale this back are to:

drop the disabled/elderly (saves about $600 million)

drop non-working parents -- i.e., cover working parents only (also saves about $600 million)

OMB is pushing to include non-working parents on the theory that they're the poorest. Also, if we cover kids but not parents, advocates will argue that we're still hurting the kids, since the household eats together.

These restorations would cover both people here when the law was signed and new entrants. The strategy is that we should let Congress propose scaling it back.

There will probably be some action on this issue early on, when the "Ag research" bill comes up. This is the vehicle to spend the $1 billion+ in cost allocation savings. The expectation is that this money will be divided among crop/agriculture and legal immigrants, with perhaps $400 million in restorations potentially happening at that time.

2. State Option to Cover Legal Immigrant Children under Medicaid and CHIP -- $200 million

This is small and politically popular. It only applies to children entering after the law was signed, since those who were here in 8/96 are already covered.

TEXT:

Update on Bailey:

The federal law has a 5-year mandatory penalty for anyone who "uses or carries a firearm" during or in relation to a drug or violent crime. Two years ago, the Supreme Court ruled in the Bailey case that to "use" a firearm under the statute, it must be actively deployed-- a much narrower construction than we wanted.

Legislative Action. Our juvie bill proposed to fix the limiting effect of the Bailey decision by adding "possession" to get the 5-year mandatory sentence. Neither the Senate nor the House added anything on Bailey to their juvie bills; however, the full Senate passed a separate bill similar to our Bailey proposal. The House Judiciary Committee passed a bill to broaden what would be covered under the statute (e.g., possessing, brandishing) and would dramatically increase the mandatory penalties.

Supreme Court. The Court has now agreed to review what it means to "carry" a firearm under the statute. The Justice Department has taken the position in the lower court litigation (we are litigants in the case) to view the term broadly to include transporting firearms.

The early Justice read is that no matter how the Court ultimately decides, we should continue to pursue our legislative fix to add possession to the statute.

Subject: Activities of President's Advisory Board on Race

In order to insure the most effective coordination of our activities, we have scheduled a meeting on Tuesday, December 16, from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., in Room 180 OEOB, to discuss future activities of the President's Advisory Board on Race. We will outline the proposed schedule of Advisory Board meetings, as well as outreach activities to the corporate community, the faith community, and the education community in which Board members are involved, and we will seek your suggestions and ideas on all of these activities. I hope each office will designate at least one representative to attend.

We are extremely grateful for the cooperation we have received from all White House offices. I hope that by reviewing with you our plans well in advance and obtaining your input at an early stage, we can further strengthen cooperation among all of us. Thanks.

BR/EK:

FYI -- General McCaffrey has scheduled a Southwest Border meeting w/ the whole spectrum of military and enforcement types for 2pm in his office. While we're not invited, DOJ and Treasury called to ask me about his claim that the President and Erskine have tasked him to get his border review effort up and running. The AG and Ray Kelly will be there. So too will reps from FBI, DEA, INS, DOD, Customs, and others. I don't think any WH types were invited.

I've talked to Danny Werfel and Susan Carr who are handling this at OMB to suggest this may need to be on a fast track for mid-January. Danny says that is achievable. EEOC voted to approve sending over the regs Monday, Ellen Vargyas says they will be sent over this week. EEOC will be coming in to brief OMB the beginning of January. Agencies are sending in their criticisms already.

[REDACTED] P6/(b)(6)

[REDACTED] P6/(b)(6) Ellen suggests that Sally Katzen will be the ultimate person to deal with on this. I'll call her unless you want to.
