TEXT:
THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release
January 13, 1999

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT AND FIRST LADY

Today's retirement announcement by Michael Jordan marks a sad day for all those who love basketball and for sports fans around the world. In his many years on the court, Michael brought superhuman skill and unmatched athleticism, competitive fire, dedication, and teamwork to the all-American sport he loves. Like those other American pioneers, the Wright Brothers, Michael Jordan proved that humans can indeed fly.

Beyond his uncanny ability to defy gravity or hit the crucial shot when everything depended on it, Michael showed generations of young sports fans how to be a good person while being a great champion. Although we will miss seeing him play, we know at least that his career ended exactly as it should have, with one last game-winning basket to bring the Chicago Bulls, their sixth championship.

As a daughter of Chicago, Hillary is especially sorry to see him go. We wish Michael, Juanita, and their family all the best in the future.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release

January 13, 1999

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT AND FIRST LADY

Today's retirement announcement by Michael Jordan marks a sad day for all those who love basketball and for sports fans around the world. In his many years on the court, Michael brought superhuman skill and unmatched athleticism, competitive fire, dedication, and teamwork to the all-American sport he loves. Like those other American pioneers, the Wright Brothers, Michael Jordan proved that humans can indeed fly.

Beyond his uncanny ability to defy gravity or hit the crucial shot when everything depended on it, Michael showed generations of young sports fans how to be a good person while being a great champion. Although we will miss seeing him play, we know at least that his career ended exactly as it should have, with one last game-winning basket to bring the Chicago Bulls, their sixth championship.

As a daughter of Chicago, Hillary is especially sorry to see him go. We wish Michael, Juanita, and their family all the best in the future.

Subject: Gov Patton

I understand that you have been made aware that Gov Paul Patton is quite upset with the Administration over a number of recent events and policy announcements. His anger boiled over in a meeting today with Nancy Ann and the senior staff of HCFA where he angrily stormed out and then colorfully expressed his anger to me in the hall. It had been building over the past few months. A brief synopsis:

1. Kentucky CHIP. Kentucky recently had its state CHIP plan approved but the plan did not include coverage of the dependents of Kentucky state employees. The state originally believed it had been assured by HCFA that the children of state employees would receive coverage and had represented that widely in state legislative hearings when Kentucky passed its plan. When it was learned that this assumption was wrong, the Kentucky legislature and the Kentucky Teachers Assoc. went nuts. This is the pressure Patton is reacting to.

The federal law says that the federal govt. cannot cover the dependents of state employees where the state already does so or provides a benefit to the employee that can be used to cover their dependents. In Kentucky the state provides a cash stipend that is used by the employee to cover the cost of insurance. The weighted average cost of a state employees insurance package is $199 and the state employee subsidy is $203. (So the average net subsidy "benefit" is $4) All of the printed materials given to employees are drafted to assume this stipend covers only the employee. But, since it is possible for a state employee to opt for one of the less expensive plans and then have a cash/stipend balance which could be used for additional coverage for kids, HCFA concludes that a dependent benefit has been achieved and therefore the feds cannot cover the kids. The goal of the law was to prevent the states from using federal money to replace pre-existing state commitments.

Kentucky points out that only a small minority of the 160,000 state employees buy a smaller policy than what the stipend covers, and those that do usually first add spousal coverage not dependent coverage.

So, if in fact there are cases where state money is being used by individual employees to buy dependent coverage, it is very few and the dollars used to do so are tiny. Of particular frustration is that HCFA has approved two state plans (NC and Mississippi) which are similar except they provide their employees a plan itself rather than a subsidy to pay for the plan. The Governor sees HCFA as turning him - and the kids of Kentucky - down for coverage over the $4 difference.

The two obvious remedies are (1) Kentucky can change its state law, and (2) the Congress can change the federal law. Neither are likely to be achieved before Governor Patton's 1999 election date.

If you want more, Chris Jennings and I will come up and brief you.

2. Kentucky Locks. The Governor has asked for our commitment to allocate $20 million in FY 2000 for the replacement of the 60 year old lock on the Tennessee River at the Kentucky Dam which is the linchpin for Commerce moving between the Ohio River and the Tennessee River. In the last two years he made a similar request but we did not include this in our 98 or 99 budget. Sen. McConnell inserted approx. 8.4 million in last years budget and 4.2 mil in the 98 budget. Elgie Holstein informs us that this year we will include between 8 and 10 million for the lock. This is less than what the Gov is seeking, but is very helpful, and I suspect a smart hedge against another McConnell budget addition.

3. Transportation money. Last year, DOT awarded discretionary grants under section 1101 of the TEA-21 Act to all but three states. Kentucky was one of the 3 states. (I can give you DOT's individual justifications for each proposed project denial if you need them) Unfortunately this was more painful because Gov Patton was the lead Governor on Transportation and was very active in the lobbying for TEA 21. DOT is currently looking at the next batch of awards for next year.

4. EPA Air regs. As the Governor of a coal state, Patton lobbied hard against the recently promulgated rule on NOX emissions. He argued for less stringent standards, and was frustrated that the decision process did not permit him to make his case directly to the President. His industry feels as though he was unable to use his "clout" with the democratic administration to adequately convey the economic harm the new regs will do to his energy producers.

As you can see, we have had a string of bad luck. In addition, of course he hasn't been thrilled with much of our position on tobacco.

Now, all of this is not to say that we haven't had successes. We have worked with him successfully on federal funding for his home visitation project and early childhood development proposal, for his VINE program on sex offenders, Appalachian Regional Council (ARC) reform, etc. and he has been included in a number of high profile events at the White House. We have a warm personal relationship, and Audrey's joining MEGs staff has assured that good relations remain. But he is hoppin' mad on the "big" issues and is seeking our help.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: GENE SPERLING

SUBJECT: Edley Memo

Chris's attached memo stresses two areas in economic opportunity and development where he feels our efforts so far are inadequate. While we will agree that if we had unlimited resources it would be good to do even more and while there are legitimate differences on how best to tackle these challenges, it is important to put his ideas in both areas in perspective.

Economic Development:

On top of your Empowerment Zones, the Community Reinvestment Act, the Community Development Financial Institution (CDFI) fund, you will announce on Friday the New Markets Initiative, which will dramatically expand capital investments in our underserved areas. This initiative will include:

- A New Market Investment Tax Credit: You will propose a new $1 billion tax credit, which will be available for qualified equity investments in a range of vehicles financing businesses in America's new markets. An investor will receive total tax credits up to a fixed percentage of his/her investment. This tax credit will leverage $6 billion in additional investment in our distressed communities.
- The Creation of America's Private Investment Companies (APIC): In response to concerns that the SBICs are too limited in size to meet the need for larger-scale investment in underserved areas, you will propose a new program to provide government guarantees for investment partnerships targeting larger businesses relocating or expanding in inner cities and rural areas. This initiative will allow government guarantees on debt up to two times the amount of equity investment allowing up to five investment firms each with up to $300 million to invest -- or up to $1.5 billion in investment.
- New Markets Venture Capital Firms (NMVC): To help small-sized firms in underserved areas that need investment and technical assistance, you will propose that SBA finance investment firms offering a new combination of investment and technical assistance to smaller businesses in targeted areas. The program should provide long-term, patient growth capital and facilitate critically needed technology and management skills development for these firms.
- SBIC Targeting for Underserved Areas: In order to meet better the needs of minority firms and underserved markets, SBA will hold a series of workshops throughout the country to educate the business and investment community about the SBIC program and to promote the formation of SBICs focused on equity capital for underserved areas. SBA will also provide a new financing mechanism and more favorable regulatory treatment, if an SBIC invests in businesses in underserved areas (or which draw a significant proportion of its employees from those areas).

Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion

- 250 Percent Expansion of Microenterprise Investment: In many underserved areas, fostering opportunities for the smallest of entrepreneurs can help to build the job base and provide economic stability to a community. Your budget calls for a 250-percent increase in funding for technical assistance and lending to very small businesses.

Chris recommends re-chartering the Federal Home Loan Bank System (FHLBS) to create a National Community Investment Bank with the goal of promoting community development. While we share Chris's interest in the potential of GSEs doing more to meet public policy objectives, the issues involving Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, and the FHLBS are complex and delicate. In the end, we believe that our chances are far greater to get a sound New Markets Initiative passed by this Congress than a prudent new GSE.

However, the complexity and unlikelihood that Chris's proposal will pass Congress in a sensible form are not sufficient enough reasons to exclude it from a visionary statement. You should know, though, that experts within your Administration have significant problems with the proposal on substance grounds.

For example, there is much skepticism that political dynamics will allow us to add new public purpose obligations on the FHLBS -- the off-budget subsidies of which Chris writes -- and reduce arbitrage significantly at the same time. More likely, some fear, the mission will be expanded and the leakage of federal subsidy to private hands will grow. Treasury has thus far insisted that these "abuses" be stemmed before any -- even modest -- mission expansion can go forward.

If you would like to pursue this idea further, we can convene a process to evaluate this option and develop a pro/con memo to inform your decision on how to proceed.

Youth Jobs:

We share Chris's goal of "breaking the back of endemic hyper-unemployment in distressed communities." However, we must respectfully disagree with Chris's belief that your Youth Opportunities Initiative is not a good answer because it is too concentrated in a few areas and will serve "only" 60,000 poor children this year.

The overwhelming weight of the academic research shows that in order to truly help out-of-school youth we need to saturate small areas with a lot of resources so that we change the culture of joblessness and high unemployment. This is precisely what the Youth Opportunity

Hex-Dump Conversion

Initiative will do. It is important to note that serving 60,000 out-of-school youth nationwide is not a "drop in the swimming pool." For example, last year, there were 280,000 unemployed African-American teenagers. Therefore, we are taking an significant first step toward addressing the problem.

Finally, it is important to note that Youth Opportunities Areas was only one piece of your agenda to help politically powerless disadvantaged youth. Besides the $250 million in last year's budget for the new Youth Opportunity Areas, you won $120 million for GEAR-UP -- a program based on solid research on mentoring programs -- and $70 million more to help minorities prepare for college and stay in college through the TRIO program. In sum, you won $510 million more in FY99 than in FY98 -- an enormous one-year increase for investments in poor children.

If you include the doubling of GEAR-UP, a new $50 million regional youth initiative, the new $100 million Right-Track partnership, and the expansion of existing programs in your FY2000 budget, our investments in programs specifically targeted at poor children will be $902 million higher than in 1998. (See attached table) In the face of a partisan Republican Congress, this is quite significant progress and will certainly purchase more than "a wrench and two screws."

21st Century Policing Initiative Event
January 14, 1999
Questions and Answers

Q: Can you explain how the President's 21st Century Policing Initiative is different from the current COPS Program?

A: The Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS) program created in the 1994 Crime Act authorized $8.8 billion over six years to help communities hire and redeploy 100,000 officers to our nation's streets and to promote community policing in other ways. To date, COPS has awarded over $5.3 billion in grants to more than 11,300 state and local law enforcement agencies -- helping to fund more than 92,000 officers on the beat and train more than 21,000 officers and community residents. Under COPS, the number of police departments engaged in community policing has grown exponentially -- from several hundred to many thousands.

For the most part, however, the current COPS program has focused on hiring new officers and redeploying veteran officers to the streets. For instance, the COPS Universal Hiring Program provides three-year grants to help hire new officers, and the COPS MORE program provides grants for agencies to pay for technology, equipment, and civilian personnel that will free officers from their desks and redeploy them to the community and on the beat.

The initiative launched today builds on the success of the original COPS program, but it also takes a giant step forward by giving law enforcement the tools and partners it needs to keep crime coming down well into the 21st Century. First, the 21st Century Policing Initiative continues the Administration's commitment to keep the number of officers on the beat at an all-time high, by helping communities to hire, redeploy, and retain police officers. Second, the initiative provides significant new funds to give law enforcement access to the latest crime-fighting and crime-solving technologies -- improved police communications, crime mapping, laptop computers, crime lab improvements, and more. And third, the initiative makes an unprecedented commitment to engage the entire community in the hard work of preventing and fighting crime -- by funding new community-based prosecutors, and partnerships with probation and parole officers, school officials, and faith-based organizations.

Q: How many officers have been funded by the COPS Program and when do you think you will reach your 100,000 goal?

A: Through the COPS Program, more than 92,000 additional community policing officers have been funded to date. We expect the program to meet its goal of helping communities fund 100,000 more police officers by this summer -- under budget and ahead of schedule.

Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion

Q: How many officers are actually on the street?

A: According to the COPS Office most recent survey this summer, nearly 50,000 officers were already on the streets, and about another 25,000 were in the process of being recruited, screened, tested and trained. The COPS Office is in the process of completing another survey that should be ready in the upcoming weeks.

Q: How do you explain the discrepancy between the 92,000 officers number you use and the much smaller number on the street?

A: The remaining police officers are in the process of being recruited, screened, tested or trained -- a process that, on average, takes about 18 months. The funds to pay these officers are available to local police departments just as soon as they are ready to hire their new recruits.

The COPS office expects -- in fact, it demands -- that local law enforcement agencies stick to their normal rigorous recruiting and hiring procedures in filling all COPS-funded positions. Nothing could be more important than hiring qualified and fully screened police to entrust with the public's safety.

Q: There have been news reports that audits of COPS grants by the Office of Inspector General. The reports suggest that there is substantial misspending by police departments of COPS grants. How widespread is this and what are you doing about it?

A: The COPS Office and the Inspector General work together to monitor COPS grants to ensure that funds are being spent properly. Many of the audits reported in the news have already been certified as closed by the Inspector General. In every other case, the COPS Office is working with the local agency to resolve any outstanding issues and bring grantees into compliance. It is important to note, however, that the audit reports reported in the news represent less than one percent of all COPS grants.

Q: What happens when the three-year federal grant runs out? Are police departments allowed to lay off officers hired with these funds?

A: Every agency knows from the outset that it is expected to pick-up the long-term costs of a COPS officer when the federal grant expires. This is part of the commitment law enforcement agencies make in order to receive the federal COPS grant. More importantly, Justice Department monitoring and media stories confirm that the majority of grantees are fulfilling their responsibilities under COPS grants.

Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion

Nonetheless, we understand that there may be some unforeseen circumstances, fiscal emergencies, or natural disasters that may prevent a police department from retaining its COPS-funded officers. In these case, the Attorney General has the authority to extend funding in special circumstances and for certain small communities (populations below 50,000). In addition, the President's new 21st Century Policing Initiative will provide even further relieve for economically distressed communities that are having difficulties with the long term costs of retaining their officers.

Justice Department Crime Statistics

Q: What do the statistics released today show?

A: For the first part of 1998, crime continued to decline significantly. Notably, we expect serious violent crimes to fall below 3 million for the first time since the National Crime Victimization Survey began in 1973. By the end of 1998, both the overall violent and property crime rates will have fallen by well over 20 percent since 1993.

Q: How is the data you are releasing today different than the crime statistics that were recently released by the FBI?

A: Today's statistics are part of the National Crime Victimization Survey (NCVS) administered by the Justice Department's Bureau of Justice Statistics. The NCVS is a household survey that interviews about 80,000 persons age 12 and older in 43,000 households across the country twice a year. The survey measures the number and types of crimes as reported by the victims themselves, and therefore covers crimes that go unreported to the police. In contrast, the FBI's Uniform Crime Report (UCR) provides crime data on specified offenses as reported by the nation's state and local law enforcement agencies. Interestingly, while the UCR and the NCVS use different methods of data collection, the findings are the same: that serious violent crime is declining for the 7th year in a row.

FROM: GENE SPERLING

SUBJECT: Edley Memo

Chris's attached memo stresses two areas in economic opportunity and development where he feels our efforts so far are inadequate. While we will agree that if we had unlimited resources it would be good to do even more and while there are legitimate differences on how best to tackle these challenges, it is important to put his ideas in both areas in perspective.

Economic Development:

On top of your Empowerment Zones, the Community Reinvestment Act, the Community Development Financial Institution (CDFI) fund, you will announce on Friday the New Markets Initiative, which will dramatically expand capital investments in our underserved areas. This initiative will include:

- A New Market Investment Tax Credit: You will propose a new $1 billion tax credit, which will be available for qualified equity investments in a range of vehicles financing businesses in America's new markets. An investor will receive total tax credits up to a fixed percentage of his/her investment. This tax credit will leverage $6 billion in additional investment in our distressed communities.
- The Creation of America's Private Investment Companies (APIC): In response to concerns that the SBICs are too limited in size to meet the need for larger-scale investment in underserved areas, you will propose a new program to provide government guarantees for investment partnerships targeting larger businesses relocating or expanding in inner cities and rural areas. This initiative will allow government guarantees on debt up to two times the amount of equity investment allowing up to five investment firms each with up to $300 million to invest -- or up to $1.5 billion in investment.

The program should provide long-term, patient growth capital and facilitate critically needed technology and management skills development for these firms.
- SBIC Targeting for Underserved Areas: In order to meet better the needs of minority firms and underserved markets, SBA will hold a series of workshops throughout the country to educate the business and investment community about the SBIC program and to promote the formation of SBICs focused on equity capital for underserved areas. SBA will also provide a new financing mechanism and more favorable regulatory treatment, if an SBIC invests in businesses in underserved areas (or which draw a significant proportion of its employees from those areas).

- 250 Percent Expansion of Microenterprise Investment: In many underserved areas, fostering opportunities for the smallest of entrepreneurs can help to build the job base and provide economic stability to a community. Your budget calls for a 250-percent increase in funding for technical assistance and lending to very small businesses.

Chris recommends re-chartering the Federal Home Loan Bank System (FHLBS) to create a National Community Investment Bank with the goal of promoting community development. While we share Chris's interest in the potential of GSEs doing more to meet public policy objectives, the issues involving Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, and the FHLBS are complex and delicate. In the end, we believe that our chances are far greater to get a sound New Markets Initiative passed by this Congress than a prudent new GSE.

However, the complexity and unlikelihood that Chris's proposal will pass Congress in a sensible form are not sufficient enough reasons to exclude it from a visionary statement. You should know, though, that experts within your Administration have significant problems with the proposal on substance grounds.

For example, there is much skepticism that political dynamics will allow us to add new public purpose obligations on the FHLBS -- the off-budget subsidies of which Chris writes -- and reduce arbitrage significantly at the same time. TEXT:

I used our farmer budget OMB paragraph but changed it: 1. to say we "strongly support" the current negotiations for farmer money instead of we are "monitoring" it and 2. said we looked forward to working with everyone, including Members of Congress, as this process continues.

Q. What steps is the Administration considering to protect farmers from the negative impact of an increase in tobacco taxes?

A. The Administration remains committed to protecting tobacco farmers and their communities, and strongly supports on-going efforts by state, farmer, and industry representatives to provide resources and purchase commitments to tobacco farmers. Farmers who never marketed cigarettes to children and worked hard to sell a legal crop should be protected. The Administration looks forward to working with all parties as this process continues, including Members of Congress, to ensure the financial well-being of tobacco farmers, their families, and their communities.

Eric Olsen from USDA just called with what they call a "clarification for adulteration policy for E Coli 01577:H7 in beef." Since 1994, FSIS has considered raw ground beef contaminated with E Coli 01577:H7 adulterated unless it is processed in a manner to make it safe (e.g., fully cooked). In 1998, an advisory committee said this policy should apply to all raw beef that has been cut, injected, sectioned etc. (non-intact beef), not just hamburger. The notice, scheduled to be put on display tomorrow, will clarify FSIS's policy to state that all non-intact beef contaminated E Coli 01577:H7 is adulterated unless processed so as to be safe. The notice seeks input from the public about regulatory requirements that might be appropriate. Simultaneously, FSIS will publish a guidance in the Federal Register to beef grinders for minimizing the impact associated with food safety hazards in raw ground beef. The decision by FSIS took Eric by surprise, the Secretary recommends we don't try and hold FSIS back -- it probably will get some attention but be somewhat controversial and USDA fears a leak saying a valid safety move is being held up for political machinations.

Also Glickman wants to leak to the food reporter at the NYT today that they are going to let meat and poultry to be able to bear the certified organic label - - this will make the organic industry and some members of Congress happy. USDA is just letting companies make the label claim - they don't think it will get as much attention as the e-coli thing does.
