There will be a trip meeting this afternoon regarding the President, Vice President, and First Lady's travel to Buffalo, NY and Montgomery County, PA the day after the State of the Union. The scheduling desk for the trip called me to inquire about potential messages for the events at these stops. Do we have specific recommendations I can talk about at the meeting today for what policies we would like to have highlighted at these events?

01/12/99 DRAFT

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS OF THE CHILD LABOR REFORM ACT OF 1999

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE; REFERENCE.

Section 1 provides the short title and provides that, whenever the Act references a section or other provision, the reference is to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 201 et seq.)

SECTION 2. AGRICULTURAL EMPLOYMENT.

Current Law: Under the current statute and the Department's regulations, children of any age may work at any time in any occupation on farms owned or operated by their parents or legal guardians ("family farm" exemption). In addition, children aged 12 and older may work on a farm where their parent works ("parental co-employee") or with a parent's written consent ("parental consent") in any non-hazardous occupation outside of school hours; and children as young as 10 may work outside of school hours with parental consent in short season crop cultivation under very narrow waiver conditions established by the Secretary of Labor ("short season work" sometimes called "tiny tots" exemption). Hazardous occupations restrictions in agriculture apply to children under age 16, who may not work in any agricultural occupation which the Secretary has, by regulation, declared particularly hazardous.

Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion

Description of provision: Section 2 repeals certain exemptions from child labor prohibitions for agricultural employment (parental co-employee; parental consent; short season work); applies the same age restrictions to agricultural employment as to other forms of employment; and preserves the "family farm" exemption exactly as it operates under current law. This section raises from 16 to 18 years old the minimum age for engaging in hazardous agricultural employment, but also authorizes the Secretary to exempt from the hazardous occupations restrictions children aged 16 and 17 who either are employed as vocational agriculture student-learners, have successfully completed a Federal Extension Service training program, or have successfully completed a vocational agriculture training program.

SECTION 3. PEDDLING BY CHILDREN.

Current Law: There is no current statutory or regulatory prohibition on peddling by children. Activities of such peddlers are subject to the current statutory prohibition on employment of minors under age 14 in any non-agricultural employment (except if employed by parent or legal guardian), and to current regulations setting limits on hours during which younger teenagers may work (14- and 15-year-olds).

Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion

Description of Provision: Section 3 amends the definition of the term "oppressive child labor" to include "peddling by children", and prohibits the employment of individuals under age 16 in "peddling". However, section 3 excludes from the definition of peddling by children volunteer selling of goods or services on behalf of not-for-profit organizations. Except for such volunteer activities, this section makes peddling by children under age 16 subject to the Fair Labor Standards Act.

SECTION 4. CIVIL AND CRIMINAL PENALTIES FOR CHILD LABOR VIOLATIONS.

Current Law: The maximum civil money penalty is $10,000 per child, per violation. In criminal prosecution, a person convicted of a willful violation of child labor rules is subject to a fine of not more than $10,000, or to imprisonment for not more than six months, or both. However, imprisonment is available only upon the person's second conviction for a willful child labor violation.

Description of Provision: Section 4 increases civil and criminal penalties for child labor violations. The maximum civil money penalty would be $15,000, and this maximum penalty could be increased by a factor of five for: (1) a willful or repeat violation that results in or contributes to a fatality or permanent disability of a minor employee, or (2) a violation that is concurrent with a serious or willful violation of the Occupational Safety and Health Act.

Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion

Additional criminal penalties would be available in certain types of serious cases: $15,000 maximum fine, or imprisonment for up to 5 years (without a previous conviction), or both, for a willful or repeat violation that results in or contributes to a fatality or permanent disability of a minor employee, or a violation which is concurrent with a criminal violation of any other FLSA provision or any other Federal or State law. In addition, Section 4 defines "repeated violations" and "willful violations"; these definitions would apply to civil and criminal money penalties, and to the statute of limitations, under the FLSA.

SECTION 5. GOODS TAINTED BY OPPRESSIVE CHILD LABOR.

Current Law: Current law prohibits shipment or delivery for shipment in interstate commerce of any goods produced in an establishment where illegal child labor occurred in the thirty days prior to the removal of the goods. Where such goods are removed, they are "hot" and their movement may be enjoined. Current law does not identify any means by which child labor "hot" goods may be returned to commerce; the Department deals with this issue on a case-by-case basis.

Description of Provision: Section 5 authorizes the Secretary to determine the circumstances under which goods tainted by oppressive child labor may be allowed to be shipped or delivered for shipment in interstate commerce.

Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion

SECTION 6. COORDINATION.

Current Law: Under current law, the Secretary may, with the consent and cooperation of State agencies, "utilize the services of State and local agencies and their employees" for carrying out the Secretary's functions and duties. The Secretary may reimburse these agencies for services rendered. The Department interprets this provision to authorize the use of State officials in investigations and other similar activities, under memoranda of understanding.

Description of Provision: Section 6 directs the Secretary to establish closer working relationships with non-governmental organizations and with State and local government agencies having responsibility and authority for administering and enforcing labor and safety and health laws; requires State and local government agencies to submit information to the Department on the Department's request (to the extent permissible under applicable law) regarding injuries and deaths of employees; and authorizes the Secretary to reimburse such agencies for such services.

SECTION 7. REGULATIONS AND MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING.

Current Law: There is currently no requirement for a memorandum of understanding between the Secretaries of Labor and Agriculture to coordinate the development and enforcement of standards to eliminate oppressive child labor. The FLSA currently authorizes the Secretary to promulgate regulations for various purposes in child labor.

Automated Records Management System
Hex-Dump Conversion

Description of Provision: Section 7 authorizes the Secretary to issue "such regulations as are necessary to carry out this Act and the amendments made by this Act." The provision also directs the Secretaries of Labor and Agriculture to enter into a memorandum of understanding to coordinate the development and enforcement of standards to eliminate oppressive child labor.

SECTION 8. AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.

Section 8 authorizes appropriations to carry out this Act and the amendments made by this Act.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release
January 14, 1999

PRESIDENT CLINTON NAMES LORRAINE PRATTE LEWIS AS INSPECTOR GENERAL OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

The President today announced his intent to nominate Lorraine Pratte Lewis as Inspector General of the Department of Education.

Ms. Lorraine P. Lewis, of Washington, DC, has served as General Counsel at the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) since 1993. She is the chief legal advisor to the Director of OPM, and has led the legal support of reinvention initiatives, including the privatization of two major OPM programs and the abolishment of the Federal Personnel Manual. From 1987 to 1993, she served with the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee as General Counsel, Counsel, and Assistant Counsel. She played a lead role in the development and passage of the 1988 Inspector General Act Amendments and the Civil Liberties Restoration Act. She also conducted oversight of the federal inspector general offices. In 1986, Ms. Lewis was a volunteer attorney for the Washington Lawyer's Committee for Civil Rights Under Law, where she assisted staff attorneys in conducting employment and fair housing discrimination litigation. From 1984 to 1985, she was an associate at the Washington, D.C. law firm of Feder and Etes, where she represented and advised trustees of multi-employer benefit funds, pension beneficiaries and unions. She was a field attorney with the National Labor Relations Board in Chicago from 1982 to 1984.

Ms. Lewis received a B.A. degree from Yale University and a J.D. degree from Harvard University.

The Inspector General of the Department of Education is responsible for conducting investigations and audits of all Department activities to promote efficiency and prevent fraud and abuse.

TEXT:

During his meeting with the AIDS Council, they expressed concern about the level of US support for international AIDS activities through USAID. In response, the President said that he would "put some money in there" (see relevant dialogue from transcript at end).

We had requested that OMB respond to this commitment; unfortunately, to our knowledge, USAID is being level-funded for FY2000. Moreover, OMB tells us that USAID may cut AIDS funding by $3-4 million if they receive no new money overall (allocations to AIDS programs are at the USAID Administrator's discretion and are not typically earmarked here or in Congress). We are concerned that the President's commitment to the Council will be unfulfilled, and that funding may in fact be cut instead of increased.

Another issue is the AIDS orphan funding announced by the President on December 1. This $10 million was part of a $50 million emergency plus-up for child welfare at USAID (Rep. Callahan pushed it, Rep. Pelosi got the AIDS orphan cut). The fact that this money was "one time only" was also raised by the Council. Sandy is about to set off for a trip to Africa to prepare for the larger visit requested by the President. USA Today is accompanying Sandy on the trip, and is expected to do a major piece on the issue. Our ability to provide some kind of responsive funding would be very helpful; conversely, with PM Blair just announcing a $185 million increase in their AIDS support to southern Africa, the lack of increased US support will be a vulnerability.

Our suggestions

Given that the budget numbers are locked down, we suggest that USAID be asked to provide a modest (+/- $5 million) increase for FY2000 in its AIDS budget, and that we commit to work with them to obtain additional appropriations in Congress.

An effort should be made during Congressional negotiations to support a $50 million increase in the child-survival funding at USAID, with a portion allocated to AIDS orphan relief.

Relevant Sections from Transcript of AIDS Council Meeting (12/18/98)

MR. ISBELL: Mr. President, six million people become infected with HIV each year around the world, half of them under the age of 25. More than 90 percent of the infections in the world happen in the developing world where there is little or no access to the drugs that have made such a big difference to people in this country.

We were extremely impressed and heartened by your use of World AIDS Day to highlight the need for American leadership in the global fight against HIV. We strongly support the $10 million program that you announced to address the needs of women and orphans of AIDS. And we would strongly support you making this one-time funding a permanent part of USAID. Despite this initiative, Mr. President, U.S. funding for global AIDS activities has declined in real dollar terms since 1993. Just last year the administration proposed a 10 percent cut in federal support for funding for infectious disease programs throughout the world. We believe that we cannot turn the tide against HIV throughout the world without the aggressive, bold, energetic leadership of the United States. And we would strongly encourage in your next budget, Mr. President, that you're about to send to the Hill, that you include substantial increases for international AIDS programs at USAID and the CDC.

Just also to close, we'd also strongly support an improved coordination of the many federal programs that happen all across the government that have a role to play in the international AIDS efforts. Secretary Albright has announced, as you know, a plan to draft a U.S. international AIDS strategy, and we would hope that you would look to this as a first step toward making sure that all the federal agencies are reading off the same page and that they're part of the same team -- because it's an urgent problem and it requires an urgency of the entire U.S. government.

THE PRESIDENT: Well, in general, let me say I think the budget should reflect better attention both to prevention at home and to the communities of color. And I've been trying to get more money for the USAID mission and we'll put some more money in there. I think I'd like to make two points.

One is that this budget year will be more difficult than the last one because we got such big increases in everything last time and because of the global economy kind of slowing down, we don't expect the same amount of revenues to come in this time. And we have to fund all the big increases we got last time again. But we'll do the best we can.

The second thing I would like to say is I think that it would be very helpful to have all of you using your, whatever influence you have, with members of Congress in both parties to support more global efforts, because eventually all this is going to a menace to the United States. So it's not only a moral imperative, it's also very practical over the long run.

One of the things that has kind of bothered me is that in the aftermath of the Cold War we were able for several years to reduce our defense budget, and that was a good thing and everyone --and even the Pentagon wanted to do it. There reduced like by about 300,000 the number of civilian employees. And they plan for further reduction there.

But during that time, we actually needed to make a larger commitment on the diplomatic front or in the non-defense security areas, if you will. And with the exception of the special efforts we made in the former Soviet Union to dismantle and destroy nuclear weapons, basically there's been a wholesale effort to cut back on our diplomatic budget, even though, contrary to popular wisdom, the United States spends a smaller percentage of our income on international affairs than any other major country.

And one of the things that I have seen -- almost no one knows this, but it's true -- one of the things that I have -- now, to be fair, we also spend more on defense and a lot of our defense goes to protect other countries, as you see in the last couple of days. But, still, for the numbers -- are so much more modest, not only for -- if you just look at the USAID program, the health programs, the empowerment of women and children, especially young girls, initiative, the small scale microeconomic development -- all that stuff that doesn't cost much money and it has a huge impact. And especially a lot of the things we can do in public health.

And, interestingly enough, a lot of the preventive activities that we would engage in with regard to AIDS, for example, would go quite well with other things we need to be doing out there with these large populations anyway in a lot of countries that have severe public health problems.

So we've been sitting here meeting in our -- I've been having each of the last three or four days rather long, detailed budget sessions, trying to figure out how to get more blood out of that turnip. And one of the things that I'm trying to do is to figure out how to make the case to the Congress in an effective way that the United States has enormous interest, as well as obligations, in making these kinds of investments beyond our borders.

And I think anything you can do to help that, I would appreciate it. I mean, there is this sort of general awareness in Congress that the world is becoming more interdependent. There's a much more sophisticated understanding of the economics, for example. But it's not just economics. It's the environment, it's the public health, it's all these other things where we are becoming more and more caught up with each other.

Our major military mission in the last six months, before the operation in Iran, has been to send several thousand of our uniformed personnel to Central America to help them rebuild after Hurricane Mitch. It's not only the right thing to do from a humanitarian point of view, it is in our national interest. Because if those countries don't rebuild they will become highly vulnerable to all the drug traffickers. And if they don't rebuild then all their people will have to come here. And if they can't get here legally will try to come illegally. So there's all these things that we need to begin to see our relationships beyond our borders, as more of an extension of our relationships with one another, rather than as something totally different and apart from our relations with one another.

And, anyway, I don't mean to give you a speech on that; I know you believe that. But the point I want to make is, most people who run for Congress never have to think about these things unless they have a large immigrant population within their district from a particular place. So it doesn't -- this kind of discussion we're having, because you understand the HIV/AIDS issue -- I'm preaching to the choir here. But anything you can do to sort of just sit down and walk through this with congressional delegations, or their chiefs of staff, or whoever the appropriate people are from around the country, I would really appreciate.

Because I think there is a lot of support. For example, you can always get good support in Congress, bipartisan, for a big increase in the Ryan White Act. And now, we've finally got pretty good support in Congress, this whopping increase we had to help people purchase the drugs, the medicines. But it drops off markedly when you try to talk about the connection between what we're doing here at home and beyond our borders. And I really think you could help, because this is one example of a more general challenge the country will have to face -- more every year for the next 20 years. Maybe forever, but certainly for the next 20 years.

REMARKS OF THE PRESIDENT
IN HIV-AIDS ADVISORY COUNCIL MEETING

The Cabinet Room

5:45 P.M. EST

MS. THURMAN: Good afternoon, everybody. I want to thank you all for joining us this afternoon. Those of us who are gathered in this room today are partners in a battle that, while we've had significant successes in recent years, has no end in sight. Our victory over AIDS will require incredible resolve, persistence, and steadfast leadership.

This is a struggle which we all know has had all too few national leaders, but has always had the support of this leader. It is my distinct honor to present to you our leader, the President.

THE PRESIDENT: I want to get right to the subject of listening to all of you, but I would like to say that, as all of you know, we had a very good couple of days when we finally made the budget last year -- we've had a lot of good increases, a lot of things that I know you care so much about. But we've got a lot of work to do, especially in prevention and in the vaccine development I think we're going to -- (inaudible) -- pretty soon.

I would prefer, I think, because we've met before and I'm trying to stay familiar with your concerns -- I think we've done a good job of getting the money into the programs this time, but there's a lot more we can do -- (inaudible.) However you organized this -- (Laughter.)

DR. HITT: Okay, we want to start off by having Reverend Mother Altagracia Perez lead us in a short prayer.

REVEREND PEREZ: Thank you. Thank you, Mr. President, for this moment where we can gather our thoughts and especially bring to mind all those who today are in need of courage and strength, so if we could have a moment of silence.

Spirit of life and justice and power, we welcome you in our midst. We've been brought together by a desire to improve the quality of life for all the people that we serve and represent. We're especially conscious at this moment of the men and women, that right now, are in harm's way. Our thoughts are with them and their families, as we await their safe return.

We're also ever-mindful of those who are gathered here with us and, through us, all those who struggle daily with a virus that has no cure and is hard to live with. They are here with us; the people who called us to this work; those who have gone and who have left us their legacy of courage and perseverance.

We especially gather in a spirit of gratitude for our President. We remember all too well those dark years, when a meeting like this would have never happened. We are grateful for his life and for his leadership, and we pray that you sustain him through the power of your spirit. Give him strength and courage, and stamina, and wisdom, as he continues to lead us through this dark time.

There's still so much that we have to do. Let us especially remember our communities of color and those most vulnerable throughout the world who today, and every day, are living in a state of emergency. May each of us leave this encounter with our vision of what we can do together restored, and our strength renewed, to go forward and face the challenges that await us. In the name of the One who came with hope and brought us light, we pray. Amen.

DR. HITT: Mr. President, on behalf of the Council I want to thank you for meeting with us, especially so close to your recent high profile events regarding the Congressional Black Caucus HIV Initiative for communities of color and World AIDS Day spotlight on international crisis.

Six and a half years ago I was very honored to stand with you on the stage of the Palace Theater in Los Angeles, where you outlined your commitment and genuine care and concern for those living with HIV and a really good vision of how -- (inaudible.) In light of the efforts you made in securing unprecedented funding, for starting the Office of AIDS Research, Office of National AIDS Policy, convening the White House Conference on AIDS, establishing a goal of a vaccine -- which are all landmarks I think you can be very proud of -- I am just as honored to be with you here today.

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you.

DR. HITT: In addition, I want to thank you for the humbling honor of serving this Council of incredibly dedicated and committed individuals as its chair, and to tell you on behalf of all of us how honored we are to serve your administration.

Continuing with our task of offering advice to you, we recently adopted our priorities, which reflect the community realities, especially the urgent need for action in the racial and ethnic communities, and in the youth of our country. This epidemic has been full of changes and challenges and we're really at a crossroads in this epidemic. The media all the time tells us about how people are living longer and this is a chronic, manageable disease and less people are dying overall of AIDS.

What they often fail to mention is that curb-prevention efforts are not reaching the American public. Three hundred thousand Americans don't even know they're HIV positive. And contrary to your own stated goals, we are not decreasing the numbers of new people infected. And, in fact, in many communities the numbers are increasing.

In addition, thousands of HIV individuals cannot get the early treatment the public health service guidelines tell them that they should get, but, rather, they have to wait until they become disabled from the disease before becoming eligible for treatment.

Out of all our recommendations to date, there are a few items we would like to discuss with you today that need your specific presidential intervention now if we are going to achieve these goals. Before we give you these few suggestions I want to emphasize to you that none of what we're recommending to you today would be possible without the tireless efforts of several people who serve you, this Council and the people living with HIV and AIDS -- especially in the White House and across administration. It's because of them that you've had so many successes -- namely your own NAP Director, Sandy Thurman -- (applause) -- who made real your vision of a White House office that leads the national response to this epidemic, along with the Deputy Director Todd Summers and the Council's Executive Director, Dan Montoya. And we appreciate the efforts very much.

The Rabbi has a few words.

RABBI EDELHEIT: Mr. President, we're honored to be with you today, especially so soon after your recent trip to the Mideast, where you courageously engaged in the making of peace, where you brought the gift of hope to the land of the Bible.

During this week of Hanukkah, on the eve of Ramadan and one week before Christmas, we are all reminded that all these religious holidays promise us light in the darkest time of the year. As your Advisory Council, we want to help you fulfill your vision to bring the light of hope to those living with HIV/AIDS.

HIV/AIDS still darkens the path to that bridge that crosses into the 21st century to which you have prophetically led us. We want to help you illumine the darkness that still covers the path to that bridge. We must warn you that there are some Americans who are in danger of being unable to cross when you lead our nation to that bridge into the 21st century.

How can we be sure that the African American who has no access to clean needles, nor the newest combination of drug therapies will get to the other side? What do we need to do to make sure that the Latino youth who is not eligible for Medicaid will have access to primary care and still be able to work that he, too, can cross the bridge with other Americans?

Here is a gift, Mr. President, from my four children. It is a dreidel -- that's right. I'm impressed. (Laughter.) It is the traditional spinning top we play -- and the four letters on it, Mr. President, stand for "a great miracle happened there." But, Mr. President, we know that there will be no one great miracle that ends HIV-AIDS. So we are here to help revive your vision of zero rate of transmission and an equitable access of care to all persons battling HIV disease.

We are here with you today, Mr. President, when a terrible political darkness has fallen over this land, because we want you to know that we will do whatever it takes to cross that bridge with you into the 21st century.

DR. HITT: As I said, we fought through a lot of recommendations and tried to come up with some specific new initiatives that we wanted to bring to your attention. And to start that off, I'm going to have Mr. Tom Henderson lead with one of the new initiatives.

MR. HENDERSON: Mr. President, when I stood, with many others during the stirring speeches of Bob Latoy (phonetic) and Elizabeth Glaser at the 1992 Democratic National Convention, I truly believed it would be my last national convention. But because of the remarkable progress we've made under your leadership in fighting this disease, I'm still here today, alive and well.

That's primarily because I'm fortunate enough to be employed and adequately insured and, therefore, able to enjoy the benefits of the new combination drug therapies. For those who must rely on Medicaid, however, for their health care, the story is often much different.

On one hand, we have new public health service standard-of-care guidelines that call for early treatment of HIV prior to disability. But on the other hand, in many cases, accessing Medicaid requires individuals to be already disabled. Instead of being able to enjoy the benefits of living longer and better lives, many are still forced to wait until they're sick and unable to work before they can even begin treatment.

Not only is that inhumane, Mr. President, it's costly as well. Access to quality medical care for those living with HIV who are incarcerated is also a major problem. In most cases, there is no preparation for connecting those individuals to medical care, once they are released back into the community.

In April of 1997, the Vice President asked HCFA to evaluate the possibility of expanding access to Medicaid for poor HIV-positive individuals, prior to becoming disabled. HCFA/HHS has concluded that can't be done in a budget-neutral manner. Now, some would suggest that the only near-term solution is to rely on the demonstration programs called for in the Jeffords/Kennedy legislation. Mr. President, we reject those conclusions. We believe there are two things that can be done now, without legislation, to solve this problem. First, OMB currently requires finding offset cost savings within Medicaid only to determine budget neutrality. Any savings generated within other federal programs can't be considered to determine budget neutrality.

Also, current policy only allows looking at a five-year budget window. We believe those hurdles can be overcome, but only if you make the decision to include a broader look at cost savings, and a longer budget window, and then direct the Secretary of HHS, and the Director of the OMB, to modify current policy to account for any resulting savings.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release

January 14, 1999

PRESIDENT CLINTON NAMES LORRAINE PRATTE LEWIS AS INSPECTOR GENERAL OF THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

The President today announced his intent to nominate Lorraine Pratte Lewis as Inspector General of the Department of Education.

Ms. Lorraine P. Lewis, of Washington, DC, has served as General Counsel at the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) since 1993. She is the chief legal advisor to the Director of OPM, and has led the legal support of reinvention initiatives, including the privatization of two major OPM programs and the abolishment of the Federal Personnel Manual. From 1987 to 1993, she served with the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee as General Counsel, Counsel, and Assistant Counsel. She played a lead role in the development and passage of the 1988 Inspector General Act Amendments and the Civil Liberties Restoration Act. She also conducted oversight of the federal inspector general offices. In 1986, Ms. Lewis was a volunteer attorney for the Washington Lawyer's Committee for Civil Rights Under Law, where she assisted staff attorneys in conducting employment and fair housing discrimination litigation. From 1984 to 1985, she was an associate at the Washington, D.C. law firm of Feder and Etes, where she represented and advised trustees of multi-employer benefit funds, pension beneficiaries and unions. She was a field attorney with the National Labor Relations Board in Chicago from 1982 to 1984.

Ms. Lewis received a B.A. degree from Yale University and a J.D. degree from Harvard University.

The Inspector General of the Department of Education is responsible for conducting investigations and audits of all Department activities to promote efficiency and prevent fraud and abuse.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release

January 14, 1999

PRESIDENT CLINTON NAMES RICHARD BARNES AS DIRECTOR OF THE FEDERAL MEDIATION AND CONCILIATION SERVICE

The President today announced his intent to nominate Richard Barnes to serve as Director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

Mr. Richard Barnes, a native of Chattanooga, Tennessee, has served as Deputy Director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service since 1996 and was instrumental in resolving the 1997 UPS/Teamsters strike. He has served with the FMCS for eleven years. In 1996, he was a Regional Director, overseeing operations in fifteen southern states. From 1994 to 1996, he served as District Director, overseeing operations in nine southern states. He was a Commissioner from 1987 to 1994, mediating disputes in the Atlanta Field Office. From 1972 to 1987, he served as an International Representative and
District Council Business Manager of the Laborers' International Union of North
America. Mr. Barnes received a B.A. degree from Antioch University.

The Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) assists labor and management in resolving disputes in collective bargaining contract negotiations through voluntary mediation and arbitration services. The FMCS also provides training to unions and management in cooperative processes to improve long-term relationships under the Labor Management Cooperation Act of 1978, and awards grants to joint labor-management committees to encourage innovative approaches to cooperative efforts.
