THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release
January 14, 1999

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM DAY, 1999

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

On Religious Freedom Day we commemorate a landmark achievement in the history of our Nation: the adoption in 1786 by the Virginia legislature of a religious freedom statute. This historic legislation, drafted by Thomas Jefferson and co-sponsored by James Madison, was designed to prevent religious discrimination and to protect Virginians from pressure to join or support any church. It served as the model for the First Amendment of our Constitution, the guarantee of freedom of religion that has beckoned so many people fleeing persecution to seek sanctuary in this land.

Americans are a deeply religious people, and our right to worship as we choose, to follow our own personal beliefs, is the source of much of our Nation's strength. Our churches, synagogues, mosques, temples, and other houses of worship are centers of community service and community life. They preserve and promote the values and religious traditions that have infused our efforts to build a civil society based on mutual respect, compassion, and generosity. They provide our children with the moral compass to make wise choices.

America's reverence for religious freedom and religious tolerance has saved us from much of the hatred and violence that have plagued so many other peoples around the world. We have always been vigilant in protecting this freedom, but our efforts cannot stop at our own shores. We cannot ignore the suffering of men and women across the globe today who are harassed, imprisoned, tortured, and executed simply for seeking to live by their own beliefs. Freedom of religion is a fundamental human right that must be upheld by every nation and guaranteed by every government. The promotion of religious freedom for all peoples must continue to serve as a central element of our foreign policy.

Reflecting our steadfast commitment to this goal, last fall the Congress passed, and I was proud to sign into law, the International Religious Freedom Act of 1998. This legislation enhances our ability to advance freedom of religion for men and women of all faiths throughout the world. It also establishes a new position at the Department of State -- the Ambassador at Large for International Religious Freedom -- to ensure that religious liberty concerns receive consistent and appropriate attention at the highest policymaking levels.

On Religious Freedom Day, let us give thanks for this precious right that has so profoundly shaped and sustained our Nation, and let us strengthen our efforts to share its blessings with oppressed peoples everywhere.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. CLINTON, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the United States, do hereby

proclaim January 16, 1999, as Religious Freedom Day. I call upon the people of the United States to observe this day with appropriate ceremonies, activities, and programs, and I urge all Americans to reaffirm their devotion to the fundamental principles of religious freedom and religious tolerance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this fourteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and ninety-nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and twenty-third.

WILLIAM J. CLINTON

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release

January 14, 1999

A PROCLAMATION

On Religious Freedom Day we commemorate a landmark achievement in the history of our Nation: the adoption in 1786 by the Virginia legislature of a religious freedom statute. This historic legislation, drafted by Thomas Jefferson and co-sponsored by James Madison, was designed to prevent religious discrimination and to protect Virginians from pressure to join or support any church. It served as the model for the First Amendment of our Constitution, the guarantee of freedom of religion that has beckoned so many people fleeing persecution to seek sanctuary in this land.

Americans are a deeply religious people, and our right to worship as we choose, to follow our own personal beliefs, is the source of much of our Nation's strength. Our churches, synagogues, mosques, temples, and other houses of worship are centers of community service and community life. They preserve and promote the values and religious traditions that have infused our efforts to build a civil society based on mutual respect, compassion, and generosity. They provide our children with the moral compass to make wise choices.

America's reverence for religious freedom and religious tolerance has saved us from much of the hatred and violence that have plagued so many other peoples around the world. We have always been vigilant in protecting this freedom, but our efforts cannot stop at our own shores. We cannot ignore the suffering of men and women across the globe today who are harassed, imprisoned, tortured, and executed simply for seeking to live by their own beliefs. Freedom of religion is a fundamental human right that must be upheld by every nation and guaranteed by every government. The promotion of religious freedom for all peoples must continue to serve as a central element of our foreign policy.

Reflecting our steadfast commitment to this goal, last fall the Congress passed, and I was proud to sign into law, the International Religious Freedom Act of 1998. This legislation enhances our ability to advance freedom of religion for men and women of all faiths throughout the world. It also establishes a new position at the Department of State -- the Ambassador at Large for International Religious Freedom -- to ensure that religious liberty concerns receive consistent and appropriate attention at the highest policymaking levels.

On Religious Freedom Day, let us give thanks for this precious right that has so profoundly shaped and sustained our Nation, and let us strengthen our efforts to share its blessings with oppressed peoples everywhere.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. CLINTON, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the United States, do hereby proclaim January 16, 1999, as Religious Freedom Day. I call upon the people of the United States to observe this day with appropriate ceremonies, activities, and programs, and I urge all Americans to reaffirm their devotion to the fundamental principles of religious freedom and religious tolerance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this fourteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and ninety-nine, and of the Independence of the United

Please read the announcement below regarding service opportunities for MLK day. Volunteers are especially needed for

Garfield Terrace aft 1-5pm;
Martha's Table aft 2-4pm
Horton's Kids 1-4pm

Since SOTU is an especially busy time for DPCers, I'll be forwarding information about another less time-consuming activity as well.

If you would like to sign-up for this , please send an email to Andrew Mayock, ASAP.

□&Everybody can be great because anybody can serve -- you only need a heart full of grace and a soul generated by love.□8 MLK, Jr.

Next Monday is Martin Luther King Day, and President Clinton is challenging Americans to make Martin Luther King Day a day of national service - a day on, not a day off. On January 18, members of the Cabinet and other Administration officials will participate in service activities throughout the country. Last year, more than 100 White House volunteers (including friends and families) served the D.C. community - - painting at Cardozo High, running around the Natural History Museum with Horton's Kids and sorting long underwear at Martha's Table. This year, we invite you, your family and friends to make it another "day on" at one of the following locations. Please review the list below and sign up early:

Join AmeriCorps participants and other volunteers for a four-hour morning or afternoon shift to renovate a high-rise apartment complex for low-income, senior citizens in Northwest Washington.

Join the children from Horton's Kids for a three-hours in the afternoon to celebrate MLK Day by participating in a □&scavenger hunt□8 at the Lincoln Memorial.

Join the folks at Martha's Table for a two-hours in the morning or afternoon to help feed the homeless.

Sign up today. Details below.

Garfield Terrace Apartments - Up to 100 White House volunteers can be accommodated over two shifts. The DC Housing Authority is a sponsor for a long term project that will get a head start from a burst of one-day energy by community volunteers. Volunteers will do light carpentry work and painting of the hallways and common areas throughout the building will take place, including a space that will become a health center for the seniors living in the building. The Garfield Terrace Senior Apartments are located at 2301 11th Street, N.W. Volunteers report to the apartments at 9:00am for the morning shift and work until 1:00pm. Afternoon volunteers will work from 1:00pm - 5:00pm.

Horton's Kids at the Lincoln Memorial - Up to 30 WH staff volunteers can join the children from Horton's Kids for a "scavenger hunt" from 1-4pm at the Lincoln Memorial. The "scavenger hunt" will be a search for answers to questions about President Lincoln and the Civil War, the life and work of Martin Luther King, Jr and the "I Have a Dream Speech." Horton's Kids is a volunteer-run, non-profit organization that provides tutoring, mentoring and other support to roughly 200 children living in the Wellington Park housing project in the Anacostia section of Washington, D.C. Each volunteer will be responsible for helping 2 children (ages 5-12) find answers to questions about President Lincoln and the Civil War, the life and work of Martin Luther King, Jr and the "I Have a Dream" Speech.

Martha's Table - Up to 12 White House volunteers can serve during each of the two time periods 9am - 11am and 2pm - 4pm. This event provides an opportunity for folks to go to Martha's Table to make food for the homeless.

Clinton Proposes Cigarette Tax Hike

By Laura Meckler
Associated Press Writer
Thursday, January 14, 1999; 5:56 p.m. EST

WASHINGTON (AP) -- President Clinton, who has been rolling out a series of spending initiatives, will propose paying for them with a new 55-cent-a-pack cigarette tax, an administration official said Thursday.

The cigarette tax, which will surely be opposed by Republicans in Congress, would raise some $8 billion for the domestic spending initiatives, according to the official, who spoke on condition of anonymity.

The Clinton administration also will insist that states turn over some of the money they will get from a giant settlement with tobacco companies, but not this year. Clinton's plan doesn't count on that money until 2001, meaning he does not need it for the fiscal 2000 budget he will submit to Congress next month.

In recent weeks, Clinton has touted a number of new ideas but avoided discussing how he would pay for them. Still, he has promised his budget surplus -- making it nearly impossible to pay for new spending without new taxes.

On almost a daily basis, Clinton has put forward spending proposals, including more money for after-school programs, new defense spending, tax incentives for long-term care and money to help people with disabilities go to work. The plans announced Thursday were for more money to fight crime and to aid people with mental illnesses.

But congressional Republicans have consistently warned Clinton against paying for his plans with increased taxes, including cigarette taxes.

``Raising taxes has never been the answer to our nation's problems,`` Rep. Bill Archer, R-Texas, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, wrote the president last week.

Archer's spokesman, Ari Fleischer, said Thursday Republicans are concerned that other tax increases may be in the offing: ``This (cigarette) tax hike is not enough to pay for all the president's new spending programs, not even close,`` Fleischer said.

Last year, Clinton proposed paying for new domestic spending with a massive fine on the tobacco industry, envisioned as part of sweeping tobacco legislation. But that legislation fell apart under criticism that it was too hard on the industry.

The states responded by settling lawsuits with tobacco companies on their own. Cigarette makers agreed to pay 46 states $206 billion over 25 years, raising prices by 45 cents a pack. That contributed to a 30 percent jump in cigarette prices in December, the government reported. Four other states previously had settled their suits independently.

State lawmakers and governors are already debating how to spend the money, but the federal government has long held that it has a right to much of it. Many state lawsuits had sought to recover money

1000 New Teachers for Native American Students

Only two-thirds of Native Americans successfully complete high school, a figure much lower than for the rest of the population. Recognizing this need, the President has included in his budget a proposal to train 1000 new Native American teachers who will teach in areas that will benefit Native Americans. The President's goal is to both increase the number of American Indians entering the teaching field and to enhance the skills of those already in the pipeline. This $10 million proposal has three parts: (1) a program that will support the training of 1000 new American Indian and Alaska Native teachers over 5 years by providing for their expenses while attending school, including child care; (2) funding for 20 grants to educational institutions, with priorities for those institutions that partner with tribal colleges or consortia including tribal colleges, to create teacher training programs in Native American communities; and (3) funding for five of the 20 grantees to create professional development centers to provide continuing education for in-service teacher training to improve the quality of teaching in Native American communities.

Providing Basic Health Care for Native Americans

The President's budget proposes an increase for the Indian Health Service (IHS) of $170 million or 8 percent over the FY 1999 level. This increase would enable IHS to continue expanding accessible and high-quality health care to its 1.4 million Native American service users. The budget enables IHS to further enhance current levels of direct health care services, including providing 34,000 breast cancer screening mammographies to Native American women between ages 50-69; creating 44 new dental unit teams to provide an additional 25,000 dental visits; reducing the incidence of complications related to chronic diseases such as diabetes through clinical monitoring and health promotion on life style changes; and enabling approximately 130 new community-based public health nurses to provide outreach activities, including home visitations, well-child examinations, immunizations, prenatal care, health fairs, follow-up visits, and missed clinical appointments. Within the overall IHS increase, the budget continues to support Tribal self-determination by proposing a $35 million (+17%) increase for contract support costs, to cover the costs of existing tribal contracts and compacts.

The President will also continue his efforts to elevate the Director of IHS to the position of Assistant Secretary.

Improving Food Safety with Increased Inspections and Surveillance

President Clinton will recommend increasing funds by $105 million -- or 12 percent -- in his budget proposal to ensure food safety by improving inspections for both domestic and imported food and by enhancing surveillance efforts. The President's proposal would significantly expand inspections of domestic food products by enabling the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), to use more than 60 new inspectors to inspect, at least once each year, every domestic manufacturer of high-risk food products (generally, products that are not cooked by consumers) from the current level of every 3 to 4 years. Additional funds for USDA would permit the broad expansion of its science-based, prevention-oriented meat and poultry inspection system, called Hazard Analysis Critical Control Point (HACCP). The President's budget would also increase scrutiny of imported food products by permitting the FDA to more than double the number of inspections conducted of foreign food processors. The President's budget also includes a significant component for surveillance and research activities. To help officials track pathogens back to their source and prevent outbreaks of foodborne illnesses from spreading, the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) will use new funds to almost double the number of laboratories that do "DNA fingerprinting" of foodborne pathogens.

Ensuring Equal Pay

According to the Department of Labor, the average woman who works full-time earns just 74 cents for each dollar that an average man earns. For women of color, the gap is even wider. This gap is, in part, attributable to differing levels of experience, education, and skill. However, even after accounting for these factors, a significant pay gap still remains between men and women in similar jobs. Recognizing this wage disparity, the President proposes a $14 million equal pay initiative for the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) and the Department of Labor. This funding would allow the EEOC to advance outreach to businesses and employees to educate them about the legal requirements for paying equal wages, provide technical assistance, improve training for EEOC employees to better identify wage discrimination issues, and launch a public service announcement campaign to highlight the wage gap. The Department of Labor will continue monitoring pay equity to reduce occupational segregation; provide enhanced technical assistance through the Internet such as providing descriptions of industry best practices; increase outreach and education; and provide a focused effort on women in non-traditional jobs by identifying best practices and assisting contractors in recruiting and developing qualified individuals in non-traditional occupations. The President also will continue to call on Congress to pass the Paycheck Fairness Act which improves the enforcement of wage discrimination laws and provides for research, education, training of EEOC staff, and outreach on this important subject.

I think it's a fabulous idea and it's right before the sotu, so why not give it to Mrs. Gore--what is the VP going to be saying? Gene and Elena--do you have any thoughts?

Subject: Mrs. Gore's MLK Day Speech

Maria --

I understand the Administration will seek a 100% increase in GEAR-UP funding for FY 2000. Mrs. Gore's MLK speech will center around young people and developing their ability to build One America. In addition, she is speaking in Philadelphia and Rep. Chaka Fattah is attending. This would be the ideal budget preview announcement for Mrs. Gore to make. I am checking on the specifics with Josh, however, is this something you all are holding for the President to preview? If you are not, we would be VERY interested in doing this. Thank you.

P.S. Our team is snowed in New Hampshire this evening, however, I am hoping to have a draft speech ready for circulation by early afternoon. I would appreciate any comments or suggestions.

TEXT:

Statement of Gregory Craig
Assistant to the President and Special Counsel
January 14, 1999

The Senate has given us ample time to present the President's defense. It is a strong defense, and we will be making the President's case at the appointed time next week.

The purpose of my appearance before you tonight is to make a point of personal privilege on behalf of Mr. Ruff.

When he gave his opening earlier today, Mr. Sensenbrenner falsely characterized Mr. Ruff's testimony to use it against the President, and he misled the Senate. Last month, when Mr. Ruff testified before the House Judiciary Committee, Mr. Sensenbrenner asked him if the President told the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth when he was before the grand jury.

Mr. Ruff answered directly, and I quote, "He surely did."

Mr. Sensenbrenner surely knew that, and I would urge him to correct the record tomorrow.
