TEXT:

Gene Sperling and Rahm Emanuel would like to compile a report of all of the activities undertaken as a part of the budget rollout since Friday, May 2.

Please send a reply email to me by noon tomorrow (Wednesday) with a list of what you, your office, and your principal have accomplished since Friday. Specifically, your list should include a report on those activities and calls listed on the strategy document that was circulated on Friday as well as any other activities or calls that you have completed (e.g., press calls, outreach calls, documents faxed).

Please also list the activities that you, your office, and your principal plan to conduct in the days ahead (e.g., constituency briefings, conference calls, follow-up press calls). Following up on this effort -- and on your reports -- we plan to hold a meeting later in the week to discuss further budget rollout activities.

Thanks very much, both for your timely response to this email, as well as for your patience and efforts on Friday.

TEXT:

Folks,

I brought up the idea of a joint DPC/NEC decision process with Gene Sperling at the NEC staff meeting on Friday and he said we should go ahead and get this started so we can come to an agreement in relatively short order.

My thinking on this is that we should let the current process involving IRS, Labor, and HHS and focussing on administrative solutions chug along to determine the appropriate interpretation of current law. But we should set up a parallel process with these agencies (and any other interested ones) to develop a legislative solution to this issue. There is a chance that such a legislative fix can be added to whatever tax bill will be constructed this summer. I suggest that we try to convene a group from Labor, HHS, Treasury, DPC, NEC, OMB, and CEA this coming week to get this process started. What do you think?

Mark

TEXT:

Elena,

Thanks for your note. I think that a decision process on the taxation of workfare benefits should not pre-judge the outcome, and so I respectfully disagree with your proposal to limit the process to filling in the details of how workfare benefits should be non-taxable (for income and FICA purposes). The DPC/NEC work group is likely to end up with this conclusion, but I would prefer to hear this issue out (I know Treasury has done some thinking about the appropriate tax treatment and that some NEC staffers feel very strongly that workfare benefits should be subject to income tax, so that recipients can qualify for the EITC). Personally, my feeling is that the benefits are akin to welfare (AFDC) benefits and should be treated the same, but if presented with persuasive evidence to the contrary, my beliefs could also change.

Is there a problem with seriously looking at this issue anew?

Mark

Elena,

Any word from Bruce on this? As I mentioned to you, there are some NEC staffers with a very keen interest in this issue and they will be bringing it up with Gene at Monday's NEC staff meeting. It would be helpful to have some indication of where we stand on this. Thanks,

Mark
