Robert G. Dussault

P6/(b)(6)

April 1, 1996

The White House
Washington, DC

Dear Mr President,

My wife and I request you not to veto the Congressional Bill to ban partial birth abortions in our nation. We find the procedure unbelievably terrible and totally inconsistent with the oath Doctors take and the majority will of the American people. Our land has already lessened the value of life in the world. We stop killing viable babies and return to a strong government support for the sanctity of life values which, for so long, made our nation the world standard and an example way of life for many nations. Please, let our light continue to shine in the world because we believe in life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness even for babies.

Sincerely,

Bob & Ann Dussault
