

Please Join Us in Dedicating a Tree to Commemorate the

DAY OF REMEMBRANCE

in Conjunction with the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum

Tuesday, May 2, 2000

10:00 am

U.S. Department of Agriculture

Jamie L. Whitten Building, North Lawn, Mall Side
1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC

Rain Location: USDA, Jamie L. Whitten Building, Room 107A

For Additional Information

Please call James Rudolph at (202) 720-4623

List of People who helped at the Day of Remembrance Event

Text for the Certificate of Appreciation Award #1:

In recognition of your outstanding participation in the USDA's tree dedication for the Day of Remembrance: The Holocaust and the New Century: The Imperative to Remember.

May 2nd, 2000

Names of the people who should receive this award:

1. Jody Jaeger
2. Sedelta Verble
3. Priscilla Carey
4. Eva Cuevas
5. Lisa Gleeson
6. John Willard
7. Susan McAvoy
8. James Rudolph
9. Tamika Powell
10. Richard Ades
11. Kathryn Hill
12. Joan Shaffer
13. Teresa C. Maguire
14. Kerry Gorton
15. Francisco Salazar
16. Andre M. Proctor
17. Linda Lazar - Manager, Special Events U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum
100 Raoul Wallenberg Place, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20024
18. John A. Minnick - Coordinator, National Speakers Bureau U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum
100 Raoul Wallenberg Place, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20024

Text for the Certificate of Appreciation Award #2:

In appreciation of your generous contribution to the USDA's tree dedication for the Day of Remembrance: The Holocaust and the New Century: The Imperative to Remember.

May 2, 2000

1. Thomas Elias - Director of the U.S. National Arboretum
3501 New York Avenue N.E.
Washington, D.C. 20002

2. Jeff Meyer - American Forests
8701 Old Kings Road
Jacksonville, Florida 32219

Can we create something special for these people? (They were the speakers):

Secretary Dan Glickman

Sara Bloomfield - Director of the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum

Helen Luksenburg - Speaker, Holocaust survivor