Dear Bill,

I spoke with you by phone just before noon today and requested that you speak at the National Legislative Seminar of the United States Forum of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society International. The Seminar takes place in Washington at the Hilton Hotel and Towers from March 18-21, 1998.

You were recommended as a presenter by Sondra Seba at the White House Office of Women's Initiatives as being knowledgeable and an excellent speaker. Although you seemed to deny that as we spoke, I will still go with Sondra's recommendation and hope that you would accept our invitation. If, however, you are unable to accept I would appreciate your asking another person who is equally knowledgeable.

The details of the session are as follows:

1. Friday, March 20, 1998 9:40-10:50 A.M.

2. Topic concerns the following:
- As Insiders what roles do these insiders play?
 - What staff is involved and what does staff do?
 - How does the Executive get and use its power in the legislative process?
 - Describe the gamesmanship that is involved in the process
 - Identify the government agencies particularly involved in education legislation

I can forward additional questions when a speaker is identified.

Join the coalition of leaders and concerned educators from across the United States in this effort. Women in key positions will be poised to implement action in the nation's capital and their own communities.

The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International, an honorary group of key women educators, supports key legislative advocacy. The U.S. Forum is an assembly of United States members who come together for an open discussion of current, common concerns.
