DRAFT AGENDA AND NOTES ---Your working copy.

Carol, Pat tells me that your schedule on that day would permit you to leave the WH as early as 11:15 (to arrive at the meeting site circa 11:30) and that you need to return here by no later than 1:45. This window would give you up to 2 hours for the brown bag lunch cum meeting and socializing. Is that o'k?

I'm not sure how much time we want to allot to the IDEA discussion. I've called Judy's office to ask how long a paper she intends to distribute, and to offer her a set of labels so that they can be responsible for getting the paper to the invitees ahead of time.

Between the dotted lines, I'd recommend selecting 1 or 2 of the three possible agenda items. Alternatively, you could reference some of that in your closing remarks when you set the next meeting.

We now have a meeting site: the Secretary's Conference Room in his new office building. Details are attached in the draft letter of invitation for your review.

TO: Stanley S. Herr
FROM: Carol H. Rasco
Economic and Domestic Policy
SUBJECT: Appointees meeting

Changes to Letter (I am open to critique if you think this is "too cute" but I am tired of constant stuffy DC meetings day in, day out:

Paragraph 1:
Delete sentence one and substitute:
It's back to school time!

Paragraph 3:
"advice" to "advise". Add a sentence something to the effect:
Judy would also like to hear from you about your level of knowledge about IDEA as she wants to make the presentation as meaningful as possible. (Stan, you can change up that sentence as you like.)

LEAVE the asterik in paragraph one after BYO and put the following at the bottom of letter:

*Make sure your brown bag includes food AND a drink. Who knows, we might even get into the lunchroom game swapping chips for cookies, peanut butter sandwich for caesar salad!

Agenda looks fine...I'd say Judy does not need to stress transition, we might have a sep. meeting on that. I would like to suggest that she put some thought provoking questions at the end of the paper she distributes...I want people to have really thought about the issue and I think some will certainly do that with the arrival of the paper and some questions.

I would like for you to do the report on Federal Disability Accomodations Working Group and then move on formal agenda to Open Forum and closing. We may add something at last minute.

Thanks...it will be a great meeting!

revised draft 7-18-94 for your use -- with approximate times per your e-mail

Meeting of Appointees with Disabilities

July 22, 1994, 2:30 - 4:00

Agenda

Welcome, Introduction and Survey Results	Carol Rasco [10 min]
Issues of ADA Progress and Enforcement	John Wodatch [15 max]
The White House ADA Event	Mike Lux [10 min]
ADA activities in the Agencies and In-town	Judy Heumann, and others [20 min or less]
Health Care Reform Update	Greg Lawler [10-15min]
Open Forum	All [20 min]
Closing	Carol Rasco

* Liz apologizes for her absence, but she and Deval Patrick have their own executive meeting to attend. John Wodatch, the Chief of the Public Access Section in the Civil Rights Division, is a very good career official who is well-equipped to discuss their T.A. and enforcement activities. Justice is also making a PSA on the ADA that John can mention, too. After his presentation, he is prepared to leave to preserve the appointee flavor of the meeting.

 Judy is now unable to attend due to a streep throat, and is having Kate Seelman present her paper on ADA anniversary activities, etc. We do not appear to have Tony Coelho or Karen Meyer or other attendee from the President's Committee on Employment so perhaps you may simply want to mention in their absence that they are organizing some business rountable on the ADA.
