Roz,

So, you thought that you had the up-to-date OMB 1995 Agency Budget Review schedule, eh? Think again! That's right, they have changed the schedule once again. In fact, according to Panetta's secretary, the schedule has been changing several times a day. I have attached a copy of the "current" schedule, although the term "current" is rapidly becoming irrelevant in this case. The best advice that OMB could give me is to call over to Panetta's office 10 minutes before the session to make sure it is still on.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Mike". Below the name is a large, stylized flourish consisting of a horizontal line that curves upwards and then downwards, ending in a sharp point.

MEMORANDUM FOR ALICE RIVLIN

FROM: CHR Carol H. Rasco

SUBJECT: JK Management and Budget Reviews for FY 1995

Per your memorandum of June 29 regarding the referenced subject, I have enclosed a list of DPC staff who will attend the agency reviews and pre-hearing meetings.

Please feel free to contact me or my assistant, Rosalyn Kelly, with any comments, questions or changes in the schedule.

Thank you.

TO: Domestic Policy Council Program Staff
FROM: Carol H. Rasco
SUBJ: Budget hearings
DATE: July 1, 1993

Happy July!

Attached is a memo I received last evening from Alice Rivlin which is a follow up to a previous meeting Bruce, Kathi and I had with her about the FY95 Budget Process. As you remember, we shared with you that OMB will be holding agency reviews to which we are invited. Also, note on the schedule that OMB will hold PRE-hearing meetings to which we are also invited.

Thank you, Mike Schmidt, for attending the first pre-hearing meeting on such short notice this a.m. I have designated the meetings I would like for persons to attend for DPC. Please, please let me/Rosalyn know if you cannot attend your assigned meetings as it is IMPERATIVE that we attend and participate in these meetings....this is our chance to be involved in a way we were not involved in the last budget cycle.

I would like to have a brief memo outlining the meetings you attend within 24 hours after the meeting, and you should feel free to come by and visit if there are things beyond the memo you feel we need to discuss.

If you have questions about the rationale behind any of these assignments, please call me.

One further business item: if you at any time prepare documents for the President whether generated by a request from me or anyone else it would be helpful if you would at least send me a blind copy....I find he asks me things related to those memos and/or other staff members come by to ask, and I can try to help the various causes around here if you'll keep me up to speed.
Many thanks!

SUBJECT: Management and Budget Reviews for FY 1995

I have spoken with each of you about Management and Budget Reviews that OMB is holding with each of the major agencies as we begin the FY 1995 cycle. Each Cabinet Secretary or major agency head will meet with Leon over the next month. A schedule of these reviews is attached, along with the schedule of "pre-briefings," in which we will discuss issues to be raised with the agencies.

Each of you is welcome to come or send one representative to the reviews and/or pre-briefings. All meetings will be held in Room 248 OEOB.

I'm sure the schedule will shift around as the month goes on, but we will try to keep you informed of the changes. In case of doubt, my assistant, Val Owens, 395-4742, or Margaret Shaw, Secretary of the Review, 395-3646, will have the latest schedule. I look forward to your participation in these reviews.
