Summary

This collection consists of the records of Bobbie Green from her time in the First Lady’s Office. Greene was Deputy Assistant to the President and Deputy Chief of Staff to the First Lady from August 1997 to October 1998. This series highlights topics relating to Save America’s Treasures, the preservation of the White House, National Endowment for the Arts, the President’s Committee on the Arts and the Humanities, First Lady’s Office staffing, Christmas, child care, health care, women, the White House Sculpture Garden, records management, Presidential Libraries, and the early planning stages of the William J. Clinton Presidential Library. The records include reports, schedules of the First Lady, handwritten notes of Maggie Williams and Bobbie Greene, Maggie William calendars from 1993-1994, Maggie William call lists, Bobbie Greene and Maggie Williams memoranda, articles, emails, faxes, and correspondence both to and from the First Lady, Bobbie Greene, and Maggie Williams.

Scope and Content Note

Within the First Lady’s Office, Roberta ”Bobbie” Greene was Deputy Assistant to the President and Deputy Chief of Staff to the First Lady from August 1997 to October 1998. In her position, Ms. Greene acted as backup to Chief of Staff Melanne Verveer, and handled a range of administrative tasks as well as assisting in the coordination of events relating to women, children, health care, and White House preservation. Bobbie Greene began her career at the John F. Kennedy Presidential Library, working on the Robert F. Kennedy Oral History Project from October 1968 to October 1979. She went on to work for the nonprofit organizations Indo-China Refugee Action Center, Committee for National Security, The Forum Institute, and the People for the American Way before she started her position in the First Lady’s Office. After leaving the White House, Bobbie Greene continued her work in nonprofit as the director of Save America's Treasures at the National Trust for Historic Preservation and the Vice President of Development and Engagement of Vital Voices Global Partnership—two organizations she interacted with and assisted during her time in the First Lady's Office. 2012-0872-S http://www.clintonlibrary.gov 2 This series highlights topics relating to Save America's Treasures, the preservation of the White House, National Endowment for the Arts, the President's Committee on the Arts and the Humanities, First Lady's Office staffing, Christmas, child care, health care, women, the White House Sculpture Garden, records management, Presidential Libraries, and the early planning stages of the William J. Clinton Presidential Library. The records include reports, schedules of the First Lady, handwritten notes of Maggie Williams and Bobbie Greene, calendars from 1993-1994 for Maggie Williams, call lists for Maggie Williams, Maggie Williams and Bobbie Greene memoranda, articles, emails, faxes, and correspondence both to and from the First Lady, Bobbie Greene, and Maggie Williams.
