Summary

This Mandatory Declassification Review contains memoranda of telephone conversation (telcons) from January 1995 between President William J. Clinton and Mexican President Ernesto Zedillo regarding the Mexican Financial Crisis. Also included is a briefing memorandum for the President from Anthony Lake regarding Mexico's finances.

Record Type

Textual

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of William Jefferson Clinton’s presidency are housed at the Clinton Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Geographic Place

Mexico

Topical Subjects

Financial crises

Related Collections

2018-0530-S

Content Available Online