Summary

This collection consists of records mentioning former British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher who left office two years prior to the beginning of the Clinton Administration. The records consist of congressional correspondence, greeting cards, letters, memos, notes, and routing forms. Topics cover congratulations, greetings, invitations, the general secretariats of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the United Nations, and the North American Free Trade Agreement.

Scope and Content Note

The materials in FOIA 2014-0045-F are a selective body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about additional related materials. FOIA 2014-0045-F concerns records on former British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher who left office two years prior to the beginning of the Clinton Administration. The records consist of congressional correspondence, greeting cards, letters, memos, notes, and routing forms. Topics cover routine congratulations, greetings, and invitations. Records of note include Thatcher’s letter to President Clinton upon his election in 1992. This letter went astray and was not answered until almost two years later. President Clinton’s belated response to Thatcher is included in the same folder. Please see FOIA case 2006-0216-F for complementary information about the subject.
