Summary

This collection highlights Elizabeth “Julian” Potter’s work as Special Assistant to the President as the Presidential Liaison to the gay and lesbian community for the Office of Public Liaison from 1999-2001 and also contains records from Marsha Scott (1995-1996) and Richard Socarides (1996-1999) while they served in this role. The collection contains news briefs, draft legislation, Q&A’s, talking points, fact sheets, press releases, faxes, memoranda, news articles, newspaper clippings, SAPs (Statement of Administration Policy), speeches, reports, magazines, books, contact lists, handwritten notes, emails, cables, pamphlets, booklets, brochures, and correspondence from Congress, federal agencies, LGBTQ non-profits and interest groups, and the public.

Scope and Content Note

Elizabeth “Julian” Potter served as Special Assistant to the President as the Presidential Liaison to the gay and lesbian community for the Office of Public Liaison from 1999-2001. Potter also worked for the Office of the Vice President from 1998-2001 to assist the Vice President with his outreach to the gay and lesbian community through speech prep and event planning and briefings. This collection also contains records from Marsha Scott (1995-1996) and Richard Socarides (1996-1999) during their role as liaison to the gay and lesbian communities. This collection highlights Scott, Socarides, and Potter’s work on issues that affected the gay and lesbian community from 1995 to the end of the Clinton administration. Marsha Scott was the first White House gay and lesbian liaison appointed by President Clinton in 1995; Richard Socarides was the first gay man to hold the position in 1996; Julian Potter was the first lesbian woman to be appointed to the position in 1999. Topics highlighted in this collection are gay-lesbian marriage and domestic partnerships, “Gays 2 2023-0849-S in the Military,” E.O 10450 relating to federal government security clearances, gay and lesbian discrimination within the federal government, the Ryan White Care Act, AIDS and its effect on the gay and lesbian community, “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell” policies, the Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA), ENDA [Employment Non-Discrimination Act], Hate Crimes, the White House Conference on HIV/AIDS, and the White House Conference on Hate Crimes. The records include news briefs, draft legislation, Q&A’s, talking points, fact sheets, press releases, faxes, memoranda, news articles, newspaper clippings, SAPs (Statement of Administration Policy), speeches, reports, magazines, books, contact lists, handwritten notes, emails, cables, pamphlets, booklets, brochures, and correspondence from Congress, federal agencies, LGBTQ non-profits and interest groups, and the public.
