Summary

This collection consists of records relating to the 1993 Presidential Inaugural Committee (PIC). The Inaugural Committee was responsible for the planning and staging of all the official inaugural events. They worked to prepare guest lists and invitations, they distributed tickets, selected parade units, selected ball and gala entertainers, prepared event lists, provided housing and transportation, built parade reviewing stands and bleachers, arranged the media coverage, authorized the concessions, and marketed a variety of commemorative items including the official program and official medal. The files contain correspondence, memoranda, guest lists, invitations, reports, press articles, newsletters, diagrams, floor plans, schedules, calendars, post cards, and memorabilia (inaugural tickets, badges, credentials, passes, etc.)

Scope and Content Note

Please note that for Case Number 2013-0848-F, the Clinton Library's "withdrawal sheet" and "withdrawal form" cite Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) exemptions as the authority for withholding certain records. However, FOIA is not the appropriate authority as these records are donated historical material and are not subject to the Federal Records Act (FRA) or the Presidential Records Act. As such, this material should be considered to be withheld under NARA's general restrictions as outlined at 36 CFR 1256.44 to 1256.62. See the following chart. Clinton established the 1993 Presidential Inaugural Committee (PIC) in November 1992, under the provisions of the Presidential Inaugural Ceremonies Act (36 U.S.C. section 721, et. seg.). This Inaugural Committee was responsible for the planning and staging of all the official inaugural events. The Executive Directors of the 1993 PIC were Rahm Emanuel and Mel French. Serving as Co-Chairpersons were Ron Brown, Linda Bloodworth Thomason and Harry Thomason. The PIC was divided into the following offices: Finance, Advisory, Special Advisor, General Counsel, Administration, Communications, Marketing, Public Liaison, Scheduling and Advance, Political Affairs, Operations, Events, Transportation, Security, Press, Invitations & Tickets Division and the Office of Inaugural Historian. These divisions worked together to prepare guest lists and invitations, They also distributed tickets, selected parade units, selected ball and gala entertainers, prepared event lists, provided housing and transportation, built parade reviewing stands and bleachers, arranged the media coverage, authorized the concessions, and marketed a variety of commemorative items including the official program and official medal. The records in this collection contain reports that were prepared by various departments of the PIC and give detailed information on the planning and operations of all the inaugural events. They contain information on the duties and the day-to-day operations of the committee as well as problems encountered and lessons learned and suggestions for future inaugural committees. The records also contain correspondence, memoranda, press articles, newsletters, diagrams, floor plans, schedules, calendars, post cards, and memorabilia (inaugural tickets, badges, credentials, etc). They also contain materials regarding talent information, parade and event schedules, organizational flow charts, proposed inaugural sites information, guest and guest list information, operational plans, list of attendees to balls, dinners, and events, seating diagrams, maps and architectural drawings. The collection also contains parade script books, material on media arrangements, communications information, tickets and ticket information, briefing books, and the Presidential Inaugural Fact book. The PIC was in charge of over 36 inaugural events in 1993. Some of the more notable events were, the Washington Hilton Ball, Washington Sheraton Dinner, Omni Shoreham Dinner, Air & Space Ball, Press Gala, Pension Building Dinner, Salute to Children, Salute to Youth and the Presidential Gala. The three largest events were “Bells for Hope”, “Americas Reunion on the Mall” and “Faces of Hope” luncheon. The “Bells for Hope” was held on January 17, 1993. President-elect Clinton led a procession across the Memorial Bridge from Washington, D.C. into Arlington, VA and then at 6 pm people around the nation along with President-elect Clinton, Vice President-elect Gore and their families, would simultaneously ring bells to show unity of the nation. “Americas Reunion on the Mall” was an outdoor festival celebrating cultural diversity, held on the National Mall from January 17-19, 1993. The festival included regional food, music, and crafts. One million people attended this festival. The “Faces of Hope” luncheon was to honor people that President-elect Clinton, Hillary Clinton, Albert Gore, and Tipper Gore all met at some time while campaigning. These individuals had overcome adversities in their lives and had stories of hope and inspiration.
