Summary

This collection consists of records that highlight the First Lady’s speeches given at domestic events and on foreign trips from 1993 to 1997. It contains “Talking it Over” drafts written by the First Lady and edited by Muscatine and other members of the speechwriting and First Lady’s staff as well as editorials, book introductions, and Op-Eds. It also contains administrative files from the speechwriting office, background information for trips and speeches, and drafts/final copies of scripts for videos by HRC. This collection contains press releases, reports, speeches, faxes, email, handwritten notes,correspondence, memos, and schedules of the First Lady.

Scope and Content Note

Alison “Lissa” Muscatine served as a Presidential Speechwriter, 1993-1995, Special Assistant to the President and Presidential Speechwriter, 1996-1998, and Deputy Assistant to the President and Director of Communications for the First Lady, 2000-2001. While serving in her position as Presidential Speechwriter, Lissa Muscatine was a lead speechwriter for First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton and wrote speeches for her domestic events, campaign events, foreign trips, and columns. She also assisted with edits for the First Lady’s columns and editorials. Prior to entering public service, Ms. Muscatine was a reporter and editor at the Washington Post, the Washington Star, and the Delta Democrat Times. She received her B.A. in history from Harvard University and was awarded a Rhodes scholarship to Oxford University. While working as a speechwriter, Muscatine’s work was split between the President and the First Lady. She assisted the First Lady with speeches (including the First Lady’s speech at the United Nations Fourth World Conference on Women in Beijing), her column Talking it Over, and her 1996 book It Takes a Village. 2017-1164-S http://www.clintonlibrary.gov 2 After the White House, Muscatine spent two years collaborating with Hillary Clinton on her book “Living History,” worked as a speechwriter for Hillary Clinton’s 2008 Presidential Campaign, and as Chief of Speechwriting and Senior Adviser to Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton at the U.S. Department of State, 2009-2011. As of 2019, Lissa Muscatine and her husband are co-owners of Politics and Prose Bookstore in Washington, D.C. This collection highlights the First Lady’s speeches given at domestic events and on foreign trips from 1993 to 1997. It contains Talking it Over drafts written by the First Lady and edited by Muscatine and other members of the speechwriting and First Lady’s staff as well as editorials, book introductions, and Op-Eds. It also contains administrative files from the speechwriting office, background information for trips and speeches, and drafts/final copies of scripts for videos by HRC. The records include correspondence, memos, schedules of the First Lady, articles, press releases, reports, speeches, faxes, email, handwritten notes, and publications.
