Summary

This collection contains records maintained by Eugenia Chough. Chough was Assistant Director of the Domestic Policy Council from March 1999 through April 2000. She was a Budget and Policy Analyst with the Department of Health and Human Services from August 1997 through February 1999. The files contain correspondence, memorandums, reports, publications, newspaper articles, and Ms. Chough's handwritten meeting notes. These materials concern welfare reform employment programs and incentives, such as the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Act, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, Welfare to Work Partnership, fathers' employment, Medicaid, food stamps, child care, child support, Work Opportunity Tax Credit, Earned Income Tax Credit, and Charitable Choice. This collection also includes records pertaining to the Framework Convention on Tobacco Control, youth smoking, tobacco industry litigation, and discussion of an excise tax on tobacco products.

Scope and Content Note

Eugenia Chough was Assistant Director of the Domestic Policy Council from March 1999 through April 2000. She was a Budget and Policy Analyst with the Department of Health and Human Services from August 1997 through February 1999. This collection includes correspondence files, meetings files, publication files, and subject files regarding domestic policy topics, primarily tobacco issues, welfare reform, and employment initiatives. The bulk of the correspondence files and meetings files pertain to interagency meetings and correspondence between Domestic Policy Council staff and employees of the Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families, Department of Housing and Urban Development, Department of Labor, and Department of Agriculture. Specific topics covered in this collection include welfare reform employment programs and incentives, such as the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Act, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, Welfare to Work Partnership, fathers' employment, Medicaid, food stamps, child care, child support, Work Opportunity Tax Credit, Earned Income Tax Credit, and Charitable Choice. This collection also includes records pertaining to the Framework Convention on Tobacco Control, youth smoking, tobacco industry litigation, and discussion of an excise tax on tobacco products. This collection consists of correspondence, memorandums, reports, publications, newspaper articles, and Ms. Chough's handwritten meeting notes.

System of Arrangement

Records of this collection were found in Clinton Presidential Records: White House Staff and Office Files, Domestic Policy Council. This collection is arranged alphabetically. In the Staff and Office files of Eugenia Chough there was a 3½" diskette and one compact disc containing various reports. The materials from these disks have been processed electronically and are available for research in an electronic format. Staff and Office files were maintained at the folder level by staff members within their individual offices and document all levels of administration activity.

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Clinton Presidential Records is governed by the Presidential Records Act (PRA) (44 U.S.C. Chapter 22, as amended) and the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 U.S.C. 552, as amended) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (17 U.S.C. Chapter 1) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of William Jefferson Clinton’s presidency are housed at the Clinton Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).
