This collection consists of records highlighting Daily Talking Points (a one-page summary of the President’s message event of the day),the redesign and maintenance of the White House’s website, weekly amplifications reports, and Earth Day briefing materials. The collection contains memoranda, emails, fact sheets, articles, talking.

Scope and Content Note

Deborah Akel served as Special Assistant for Communications in the Office of Communications from 1999-2001. Akel’s primary job was to create Daily Talking Points (a one-page summary of the President’s message event of the day). The talking points were used as an amplification tool for the President’s message and a briefing tool for the reader. She also worked on the redesign and maintenance of the White House’s website, created weekly amplifications reports, and put together Earth Day briefing materials. The records include memorandums, emails, fact sheets, articles, talking points, faxes, reports, Q&As, notes, and a VHS tape.
