Scope and Content Note

The materials in FOIA 2020-0395-F (seg 1) are a selective body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related material. President Clinton meets and greets Tim Forneris, employee of the St. Louis Cardinals Major League Baseball Club, and his family on the tarmac of Orlando International Airport. The meeting took place during President Clinton’s arrival in Orlando on September 9, 1998. Tim caught the record breaking 62nd home run ball hit by St. Louis Cardinal Mark McGwire at Busch Stadium in St. Louis on September 8, 1998. Tim gave the ball to Mark McGwire during a ceremony on the field following the game. Additional photos on the photo contact sheets include President Clinton disembarking Air Force One in Orlando with Rep. Peter Deutch and Rep. Robert Wexler and President Clinton greeting Lt. Governor Buddy MacKay and others on the airport tarmac.

System of Arrangement

Records that were responsive to this FOIA request were found in one collection area and one series—Clinton Presidential Records: Photographs of the White House Photograph Office and the series therein—Photographs Relating to the Clinton Administration. Processing is done at the Folder/Contact sheet level. While this method maintains folder/contact sheet integrity, it frequently results in the processing of photographs that are not wholly responsive to the subject area.

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Clinton Presidential Records is governed by the Presidential Records Act (PRA) (44 U.S.C. Chapter 22, as amended) and the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 U.S.C. 552, as amended) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (17 U.S.C. Chapter 1) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.
