System of Arrangement

Records that were responsive to this FOIA request were found in three collection areas and three series—Clinton Presidential Records: Video Recordings of the White House Television Office and the series therein—Video Recordings Relating to the Clinton Administration, Clinton Presidential Records: Audio Recordings of the White House Communications Agency and the series therein—Audio Recordings Relating to the Clinton Administration, and Clinton Presidential Records: Video Recordings of the White House Communications Agency and the series therein—Video Recordings Relating to the Clinton Administration. Processing is done at the individual item/tape level. While this method maintains run time integrity, it frequently results in the processing of video/audio that are not wholly responsive to the subject area. Metadata for White House Communications Agency audio recording's tape speed was not retained, and as a result this produces audio recording records that potentially do not sync in speed with other audio/visual records.

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Clinton Presidential Records is governed by the Presidential Records Act (PRA) (44 U.S.C. Chapter 22, as amended) and the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 U.S.C. 552, as amended) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Video & audio recordings in this collection were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties. This case contains Presidential records that contain intellectual copyrights of the Larry King Live show and have not entered public domain. Any use outside of private, educational, or editorial purposes will require the researcher to secure intellectual use from CNN (Cable News Network). Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (17 U.S.C. Chapter 1) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Documentation prepared by the processing archivist, including this finding aid, have entered public domain as such documentation was prepared by an official of the United States government as part of their official duty.

Provenance

Official records of William Jefferson Clinton's presidency are housed at the Clinton Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).
