Summary

This collection consists of records relating to conservative legal activist and vice-president of the Federalist Society, Leonard A. Leo. The collection contains an invitation to First Lady Hillary Clinton inviting her to the Federalist Society’s Eleventh Annual National Lawyers Convention in October of 1997, as well as informational materials about the society and conference, and the reply from the First Lady’s Office.

Scope and Content Note

The materials in FOIA 2023-0789-F Segment 2 are a selective body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related material. Leonard A. Leo was the vice-president of the Federalist Society and is currently co-chair of their board of directors. He was instrumental in the confirmations of multiple supreme court justices and continues work as a conservative legal activist. This collection contains a Lexis-Nexis Article concerning Leo as the Vice President of the Federalist Society, and a Cloakroom Daybook event concerning a Federalist Society lecture.
