Summary

This Mandatory Declassification Review contains memorandum, briefing papers, and notes related to sanctions against the government of Haiti, Haitian immigration and Haitian refugees. Records to be released include information regarding negotiations with the United Nations and communications with Congress concerning the return of President Aristide to his elected office as president of Haiti.

Record Type

Textual

Access

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Copyright

Official records of William Jefferson Clinton’s presidency are housed at the Clinton Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Person Names

Aristide, Jean-Bertrand

Geographic Place

Haiti

Topical Subjects

Refugees; Immigrants

Content Available Online