Summary

This Mandatory Declassification Review was for specific documents from Clinton Presidential Library Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) case 2006-0459-F. Case 2006-0459-F was for the files of National Security Council (NSC) speechwriting Antony Blinken. Documents being released include printed copies of emails from September 1996 and January 1998 with comments regarding speech drafts, a draft statement on Iraq from September 1996, and a draft memo to the President regarding Anthony Lake’s trip to Asia in July 1996.

Record Type

Textual

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of William Jefferson Clinton’s presidency are housed at the Clinton Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Topical Subjects

Speechwriting; Speechwriters

Content Available Online