Summary

These Clinton Presidential Records were declassified in response to a Mandatory Declassification Review request for specific closures from Freedom of Information Act Request 2007-1804-F (Records related to Lennart Meri, President of Estonia). Included are letters, cables, drafts, and briefing memorandum related to correspondence between President Clinton and President Meri. Included also is a small amount of administrative paperwork related to records management. Topics include the former Estonia, Latvia, Belarus, NATO, Russian armed forces, and bilateral economic issues. These documents are from the White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Subject File - General and the NSC Records Management System PRS File Series. This release includes sixty-seven pages of declassified materials and forty-four additional pages.
