Summary

This Mandatory Declassification Review contains memoranda related to U.S. policy towards Cuba, including the economic embargo and immigration. Also included is a timeline related to the shooting down of the Brothers to the Rescue aircraft in February 1996.

Record Type

Textual

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of William Jefferson Clinton’s presidency are housed at the Clinton Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Geographic Place

Cuba

Topical Subjects

International economic relations; Emigration and immigration

Content Available Online