Summary

These Clinton Presidential Records were declassified in response to a Mandatory Declassification Review request related to documents from collection 2011-0516-S, Records of Philip J. “P.J.” Crowley, National Security Council, Press Office. Specifically these records are related to China and 1993 discussions of Most Favored Nation status. Records to be opened include briefing papers, reports, and memorandum on China policy.

Record Type

Textual

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of William Jefferson Clinton’s presidency are housed at the Clinton Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Geographic Place

China

Related Collections

2011-0516-S

Content Available Online