Summary

These documents were refered to the classifying agency for declassification. This Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request includes memoranda, background papers, talking points, and Department of State cables related to international broadcasting. Topics include the usefulness of the Wireless File for Embassy officials, the relocation of Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty from Munich to Prague, and the termination of an agreement to build a radio relay station in Israel.

Record Type

Textual

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of William Jefferson Clinton’s presidency are housed at the Clinton Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Subject Headings

United States. Foreign Broadcast Information Service

Related Collections

2006-0202-F

Content Available Online