Summary

This collection contains Antony Blinken’s files from the National Security Council (NSC), Speechwriting Directorate. Blinken served as the chief foreign policy speechwriter in the NSC Speechwriting Directorate from 1994-1998. His materials contain background material, drafts and “final, as delivered” speeches. The speechwriting topics cover a variety of subjects: foreign trips or head of state visits; United National General Assembly addresses; speeches before domestic and international groups; memorials, commencements or holidays; State of the Union or weekly radio addresses; and editorials, book chapters or magazine articles. As an NSC speechwriter, Blinken produced speeches on major foreign policy actions during the Clinton Administration: Haiti, Iraq and Bosnia.

Scope and Content Note

The materials in FOIA 2006-0459-F are a systematic body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials. FOIA request 2006-0459-F contains Antony Blinken’s files from the National Security Council (NSC), Speechwriting Directorate. Blinken served as the chief foreign policy speechwriter in the NSC Speechwriting Directorate from 1994 thru 1998. His materials contain background material, drafts and “final, as delivered” speeches for President Clinton, Antony Lake (National Security Advisor, 1993- 1997), Samuel Berger (Deputy National Security Advisor, 1993-1997, National Security Advisor, 1997- 2001), James Steinberg (Deputy National Security Advisor, 1996-2000), and Brig. Gen. Donald Kerrick (Deputy National Security Advisor, 1997-2001). The speechwriting topics cover a variety of subjects before different audiences: foreign trips or head of state visits; United National General Assembly addresses; various speeches before domestic and international groups; memorials, commencements or holidays; State of the Union or weekly radio addresses; and editorials, book chapters or magazine articles. As an NSC speechwriter, Blinken produced speeches on major foreign policy actions during the Clinton Administration: Haiti, Iraq and Bosnia. Many speechwriting files contain numerous drafts for each speech, circulated throughout the NSC directorates with edits or suggestions. The first draft of the speech was often an outline of handwritten notes by Blinken during a meeting to discuss the event (especially if it was a major speech by the President or the National Security Advisor). Blinken would then submit a first draft and circulate it around the NSC or other agencies (usually Department of State) for comment. Once all the edits had been made, the new draft would go to the National Security Advisor (Lake and then later, Berger) for additional editing. The final draft would go to the President, who often made his own changes as well, before the delivered speech.

System of Arrangement

Records responsive to this FOIA request were found in one collection area—Clinton Presidential Records: White House Staff and Office Files. As policy, Staff and Office Files are processed at the folder level. That is, individual documents are not selected and removed from a folder for processing.

Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to Clinton Presidential Records is governed by the Presidential Records Act (PRA) (44 USC 2201) and the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 USC 552, as amended) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of William Jefferson Clinton’s presidency are housed at the Clinton Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).
